Midgets In Good Hockey Game Here

VERGEVILLE WINS 6 TO 5 IN OVERTIME

Vermilion and Vegreville Midgets played to a 4 to all tie in regulation time Saturday night but overtime proved disastrous to the local cause the visitors rapping in two counters in the extra ten minutes.

Jack Starr opened the scoring when he tallied on the first play goal early in the first period. Vegreville came back strong and notched two before the period ended. Brian Smith from Mailso and then Mailso unassisted.

The second period was scoreless with both the goals however having very narrow escapes. Inskeep shot Charney, custodian for the visitors and Ken Brown of the locals are outstanding goalies. Tom Acheson was sent to the cooler for boarding while Mailso was given the 2 minutes for assemping to fight in this period.

Hair way through the final frame Tom Acheson converted Lee Lahay's pass to knot the count. Hamtiuk for Veg was benched for tripping but the locals couldn't capitalize and the game ended at 3-2.

Experience told in the overtime, the visitors scoring twice. Raptash from Hamtiuk and Berazowski from Beshyer.

Stan Manyluk and Ron Payment refereed.

Both teams are entered in the Midget play-offs for the Provincial championship. The locals under the coaching of Jim Bell assisted by Sam Soldan. Morrison Smeltzer is the business manager. Vegreville Midgets and Juveniles compete in the play-offs annually and have brought the titles home on several occasions in both classes.

St. Saviour's Men's Club Elect Cecil King President, 1952

The Mens club of St. Saviour's church held annual meeting successful meeting on Tuesday Jan. 15th at 6.30 p.m. Over thirty men were on hand to enjoy a meal and the following entertainment. As usual the food was of a variety to make the Waldorf-Astoria look like a hot dog stand. This was largely due to the expert cooking of Laurie Blades and Sandy Watt. They were ably aided and abetted by three scullions, Ken Gray, Ed. Ward, Jr. Morrison, J. R. Robson and E. H. Buckingham. Each of these worthy gentlemen wore an apron and a very impressive chef's hat which was proof positive of their culinary experience. Ross Taylor donned a half a moo cow especially for the occasion, or so he more properly ate ten pound rounds of sirloin tip, which everybody asserted "just melted in your mouth". No defect able was this meat that three people were slightly injured in the race that ensued when Sandy offered to fish out a second helping. Lorne Pocket wants to get his money back because he stated that 'chicken on the wing was on the menu and he hadn't had any. The chief Mahoney (who had cooked up the menu for the dinner) explained that the bird in question was still 'on the wing'. After the meal Mr. Lehoday put on a quiz which proved to be the first place that nobody knew what they were talking about, and in the second place that they were living extremely disreputable lives. Laurie Blades showed either of a farm south of Camrose, by which he illustrated what would be done in the way of horticulture by the treatment on the average prairie farm. The remainder of the evening passed in the following people being elected:

President—Mr. Cecil M. King
Vice-Pres.—Mr. Jack Neale
Sec.-Treas.—Mr. E. H. Buckingham
Members of the Executive—Mr. E. H. Buckingham, Mr Sam Soldan.

Grain Dryers Meeting Held In Vermilion

COMMON PRACTICE BE-FORE MANY YEARS

Sixty district farmers attended a meeting of grain growers which was held in the Vermilion Armoury on Saturday afternoon. The discussion lasted for three hours which is an indication of the interest being taken in drying grain by farmers in this area.

The Vermilion Board of Trade sponsored the meeting as it was agreed that something should be done to meet the problem of damp grain remaining on farms without much hope of it being shipped until late in the spring. Much of this grain will heat and be spoiled unless it is dried before warmer weather sets in.

The speaker at the meeting, Mr. S. C. Acheson of the school of agriculture reported that an embargo has recently been placed on damp grain. There is no elevator and no tough grain now in elevator storage than can be dried before spring. This means said Mr. Acheson, that farmers will have to dry their own grain which is now in the farmers bins in piles in the field or it may be a total loss.

Mr. Acheson explained the various methods being used in Alberta to dry grain. Generally speaking these devices are giving good results. The basic principal is the blowing of cool air through the grain to remove moisture.

Plans for constructing farm grain dryers can be obtained from the school of agriculture at Vermilion or from any district agriculturist.

Mr. Acheson also discussed commercial dryers which are used in the U.S. and in Great Britain. These dryers are very efficient and have large capacities. One firm in Minnesota manufactures a drying assembly which will handle 5000 bushels of grain per day. This would be a community project.

The speaker reported that a lot of damp grain is stored on farms during winter in the northern states last fall. Nearly every community has one or more grain dryers and this crop can be threshed without waiting for the grain to dry out. It is then dried at the elevator before shipment.

It was reported at the meeting that a farmer living at Consort has operated a grain dryer on his farm for over 15 years. Grain is combined and stook threshed on this farm every year when other farmers are waiting for their grain to dry out. Many farmers in Northern Alberta are taking up the idea and no doubt it will be common practice before many years said Mr. Acheson.

E. H. Buckingham, District Agriculturist, was chairman and was acting in the absence of J. R. Robson, Chairman of the Agricultural section of the Vermilion Board of Trade.

Health Unit Subject Of Home And School Meeting

DR. BAETER WAS GUEST SPEAKER

The Vermilion Home and School Association met in the Legion hall on Jan. 22nd.

The guest speaker for this occasion was Dr. Baxter, Director of Health Units, who told of the functions, organization and services of Health Units for Alberta. Each unit is being organized in the Vermilion district and it is hoped that it may be in operation by early spring.

The services which are provided include the following:

1. The control of communicable disease by—
(a) An inoculation program.
(b) The detection and control of carriers of infection.
(c) The Health Unit doctor being available for consultation with the family doctor in cases of communicable diseases.
(d) The provision of routine laboratory service.
2. The Health Unit acts as a common centre for the community.
3. Tuberculosis Control.
4. Sanitation.
5. Pre-natal service.
6. Post-natal service.
7. School Health service.
8. Mental Health service.
9. Nutrition.
10. Health education.

The Health unit operates from an administrative point of view, usually located in the middle of the area covered by the unit. This is a most economical service, the cost, as a rule, to the local tax-payer being less than one mill on his assessment and the range of the services provided is very considerable.

Next Meeting Feb. 19

There was little other business dealt with. The next meeting of the Home and School will be on Feb. 15th. This date was chosen as the meeting would coincide with the Vermilion district annual school meeting. There appears to have been a lack of interest in these annual meetings and it is hoped that by combining the two a large number will attend.

Bill Wilson of the Northern Hardware staff has been transferred to the Bonnyville district, where he says, he will be able to watch the Duke local store manager Tom Watts, pass the best low prices possible in hardware.

Notes From The School of Agriculture

Mid Term

With two marks the half-time point in the 1951-52 term. Several half-term exams are over and both their counterparts are beginning. This semester's studies in Blacksmithing, Carpentry, Welding, and Dairying and Poultry Husbandry.

Dairying Projects

Members of the graduating class in Agriculture are constructing several framing projects as a part of their Farm Buildings course under the direction of Mr. D. C. Folk. These include: 1. Automobile garage for Mr. J. R. Robson, an office and refreshment booth for the Vermilion Rod and Gun Club, and 2 sets of bleachers for the Athletic Association at Mannville. Many residents in this course are making lawn chairs and tables as well as concrete garbage cans for the middens. All these projects will be on display at the "Little Royal" on Apr. 2nd, 3rd and 4th.

We Visit Olds

A group of some 36 students and staff members from the V.S.A. will journey to Olds during the middle of February. The purpose of this trip which has become established as an annual event with the journey between schools being made on alternate years is to provide an opportunity for better acquaintance between persons at the two schools.

The visitors observe and report as to buildings and facilities, classroom procedures, extra - curricular programs and a multitude of items of common interest. Inter-act ball basketball and hockey games are played and the visitors are given a keen interest in the preparation and training of the teams. The competition is keen and a high level of school spirit is developed.

Visiting Basketball Teams

Although final arrangements are not yet completed it is expected that the boys' basketball team from Victoria high school and another from the Faculty of Agriculture at the University will be in Vermilion on successive Saturday evenings. Feb. 2nd and 9th to play exhibition games with the college team. These games will provide something by way of athletic competition for those who like to see a good game. The public is invited to attend.

Special Classes

A feature of the spring part of the regular term is the fact that several visitors and guest speakers meet the students in their class rooms to explain and demonstrate special topics. Since the Christmas vacation Dr. J. G. O'Donoghue, Extension Veterinarian from the Dept of Agriculture in Edmonton, has presented a series of lectures and demonstrations to members of the graduating class. This week these students are having special classes on fur farming and several other visitors will be meeting them in the next month or two.

Major Fire Loss Sunday Morning

VERMILION SALES AND SERVICE BUILDING BURNED

Vermilion suffered its first major fire loss in many years when the large garage of the Vermilion Sales and Service was completely gutted by flames. The fire was discovered at 4:00 a.m. Sunday morning when smoke was noticed oozing from the roof. Despite the heroic efforts of the fire brigade in the 13 below zero temperature, only the four walls remain standing, with a portion of the roof over the parts and the office completely gone in the northeast corner. The garage and tractor shop equipment is a complete loss, with considerable damage also to the stock in trade, car and tractor parts and repairs, accessories, tires etc.

The building housed the local Chrysler Plymouth agency and the Caterpillar implements agency. The building itself, valued at $12,000 was owned by Hardie Pord. $8000 insurance was carried on it. Owner and operator of the business is Albert Williams. His stock was valued at $21,000, some of it re-aping damage, and his tractor and shop tools, equipment and fixtures at $11,000. Only one car, a used one, was left in the garage.

Mr. Williams, present proprietor of the business has built it up with in a very few years into a prosperous and flourishing enterprise. He has topped all other Chrysler agencies in northern Alberta in sales volume for the past two years.

The fire brigade received especially had a strong hold all over in the low attic of the brand flat roofing which was insulated with a foot of shavings. It was very hard to discover just where the seat of the flames and the structure burned from the roof downward

The first fire alarm came at one to this garage was very early last Friday morning, about 2:00 a.m. when fire broke out around the battery charger in the south east corner. The brigade managed to douse the flames at this time despite the bitter weather prevailing. Due to this fire getting into the shavings in the attic a close watch was kept and the fire brigade was called out early Sunday again. At midnight Saturday after completing his duties at the theatre, Fire Chief Dean Cowley walked around and looked the place over to be satisfy himself that all was well. However, despite the precautions, fire did break out with disastrous results.

The building was completely insured for $8,000 value and was performed quite an attractive corner in the town's business section.

APPRECIATION

The members of the Vermilion Fire Brigade wish to publicly thank Mr. and Mrs. Ross Banke for their kindly thoughtfulness in opening their home to them and supplying warm refreshments during the hours of fighting the fire at Vermilion Sales and Service early Sunday morning.

Tigers Claw Huskies By 4 to 1 Count

A ROUGH CONTEST

The Indian sign which the Vermilion Tigers have on the league-leading Lloydminster Huskies continued to hold good and on Monday night the locals again turned back the big border town outfit by a 4-1 score. It was a rough contest and didn't go over very well with the 300 fans present. - In fact, after the clean, sporty, fast skating open type game witnessed here last Saturday night which Walkwright won 5-1 it was hard to visualize two such different brands of hockey being played in the same league. The Huskies would do much better if they would forget that man to man they are much bigger and heavier than any other team in the league, and instead of trying to frighten or intimidate their opponents into submission, which they tried to do right from the start Monday night, they would play the puck and show a little good fellowship and friendliness instead of the animosity displayed. The Huskies have been gathered together for the purpose of competing in the Intermediate A play-offs in Saskatchewan and are apparently schooling themselves for some rough, tough series.

Late in the first period Les Williams suffered a severe cut on the head from the stick of Walkowski. Les took the gash right across the Walkowski and was skating away when he was hit from behind. The wound required several stitches but Les was right back in there for the secon' period.

The Vermilion boys paid strict attention to their checks and literally back-checked the Huskies into submission, while making the most of their own scoring chances.

Roger La Plante on a three-way passing play with Kreller and Les Williams opened the scoring early in the second period Bill Williams slipped around behind the Lloyd goal and neatly slipped the puck past their custodian Steve for a 2 to nothing count. Early in the third LaPlante netted a pass from Rod Barr to give a comfortable 3 goal lead, then Hankins and Bill Williams combined on a great play to make it 4-0.

Dunn deflected Walkowski's long shot past Laubman for the Huskies lone counter which Wally Laubman, Vermilion goalie, claimed was off Dunn's glove.

Just to what things up in keeping with the rest of the game, Jim Stewart jumped on Curly Mazur in the dying moments of the game but when the scuffle was ended Stewart was biting the ice with Mazur on top.

Carroll and Dawlie refereed a difficult game.

"GREEN ACRES"

New Varieties

A new circular "Varieties of Grain for Alberta, 1952 has just come to hand. Why not get a copy of this circular from my office and see what is recommended for this district? Lists of varieties of grain grown replace its own. The new varieties have some good points such as higher yield, stronger straw and shorter growing season.

Mennicott and Vanguard

These two barleys are recommended for our district. They are both smooth awned and good yielders. Vantage is the best barley for the fall ploughing land. Vantage is also still the best early barley or where a certain crop is required for feeding. Plan

Flax has been one of our best paying crops since the war. It should only be seeded on clean land as it cannot stand weed competition as well as grain crops. It may also be seeded early, about the same time as wheat. Red Wing is our best flax variety.

Strawberries

This fruit is getting so high priced that only millionaires can afford to buy it. But everyone can grow them especially if one has water from a tap or well. Why not in the fall order about 100 plants from a good and grow your own strawberries.

Bowran Trees

Kerry Wood says that Red Deer is going all out for planting of shelter belts and commonly known in Alberta as Mountain Ash. This is a hardy ornamental tree which is native to Alberta. The flowers in the spring and the red berries in the fall add much beauty to the situation. Trees can be bought from nurseries for spring planting.

Fly-tips are Free

These pin-ups deal with dairy cattle and hogs. They are sheets about 2 feet square and they cover everything that one needs to know about cattle and pigs. Everything from minerals to mastitis is discussed. Get your copy from the D.A.'s office.

Annual Ladies' Bonspiel February 5th & 6th

The annual open ladies' bonspiel of the Vermilion Ladies' Curling club, will be held on Tuesday and Wednesday next, Feb. 5th and 6th. The bonspiel will be held and all former lady curlers are invited to this enjoyable function. Please contact Louise Davis or Mrs. Grace Adam if you wish to attend.

All farmers are advised that entries for the Vermilion Seed fair will close on Feb. 15th and should, by that date be in the hands of the Secretary, Manager of the Vermilion Agricultural society, S. C. Heckbert.

Germination Tests Important

These testing samples to be taken where reasonable quantities of seed are available should contact E. H. Buckingham, District Agriculturist or Mr. Chester Gamble if resident in the M.D. of Minburn. Make sure your entries are in on time, February 15th.

Special Speakers For Seed Fair Meeting

Mr. C. A. Weir, District Supervisor of Plant Production Services, Calgary, has agreed to judge at the Vermilion District Seed fair. Mr. A. M Wilson, Field Crops Commissioner, Edmonton will also do some judging.

Both these men will take part in the general meeting which will be held on Saturday, March 1st. Mr. Weir will speak on the seed situation and will deal with seeding tough and damp grain and the effects of inferior seed on the following crop.

Art Wilson who is well known to the people here will talk on varieties old and new. Special mention will be made of new varieties suitable for the district.

Teachers of Province Ask More Satisfactory Salary Schedules

Teacher representatives from all parts of the province voted unanimously, to use all means provided by law to obtain satisfactory salary schedules, at an emergency meeting of 175 teacher representatives held at the Masonic Temple in Edmonton Saturday, Jan. 26th.

Meeting was called by the provincial executive of the Alberta Teachers' Association following a series of awards by arbitration boards which in the opinion of the teachers concerned was 'highly inadequate'.

According to Eric C. Ansley, general secretary treasurer of the A.T.A. the situation came to a head at Stettler recently when the board of arbitration awarded an across-the-board increase of $50 per annum to teachers of the Stettler school division.

Mr. Ansley stated that this award was similar to several handed down in other school divisions in recent months but that the teacher representatives at Stettler were the first to refuse to accept the arbitration boards award.

Marian Gimby, A.T.A. president, stated that the $50 increases were inadequate as they hardly met the increased cost of food over the past year.

In reviewing the trend of arbitration board awards of the past year Meldon Ross, chairman of the A.T.A. negotiating committee, stated that the time has come when teachers should consider seriously exercising two remaining powers provided teachers by the Alberta school act and the Alberta Labor act. These powers are the right to ask for a strike vote and to go on strike, if the majority of the teachers are in favor, and subject to the approval of the Executive council of the Alberta Teachers' Association.

Another resolution asking the Executive council to submit to the annual meeting of the A.T.A. a proposal to add to the emergency fund of the association, to provide adequate funds for teachers on strike.

Miss Gimby A.T.A. president was in the chair. She was assisted by Mr. Ansley, A.T.A. general secretary treasurer and Mr. Seymour, assistant secretary.

$6,850 Needed For T. B. Fund

Only $6,850 is still needed to reach the 1951-52 Christmas Seal objective for Edmonton and Northern Alberta. It is reported by W. J. Mahony, chairman of the Edmonton Kinsmen Club Christmas Seal committee. Mr. Mahony said the committee hopes to reach the $80,000 objective soon, as every cent is urgently needed to keep up an intensive TB-prevention program in Alberta.

Provincial Christmas Seal fund now stands at $173,675, only $6,325 short of the $180,000 goal. Receipts to date have passed last year's final total, but the objective for 1951 was raised by $11,000 on account of increased cost of operations and X-ray equipment, more of which will be bought for Alberta hospitals if the Seal sale goes over the top.

Woodvale News

The sudden death of Mrs. Graham Ganton last Friday came as a shock to everyone and the sincere sympathy of the whole community goes to her husband and family. That no suffering was experienced might give them some consolation. also that her pleasant personality will never be forgotten in this district where she and her husband have lived so long.

The Ganton-Watson Red Cross meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. J. Lysons on Feb 6th.

Dances have been held regularly in Woodvale school lately and another one has been scheduled for Feb. 8th. A dance has also been announced for Feb. 22nd at Ganton school.

Roger Watt Injured

When a board with a nail sticking from it hit Roger Watt in the eye it was feared that the eye itself was injured. But afterwards it was discovered that the eyelid needed two stitches and the cut did not go any deeper. A narrow escape!

We have been asked by a few grateful men to mention the delicious lunch served after the school meeting at Ganton school on the 11th by the ladies present. Mrs. D. McGrath, Mrs. F. Chalderston and Mrs. A. and Mrs. R. Lysons. There seems to be a strong feeling in the Woodvale district against the removal of the school from its present location and a petition to that effect is being circulated.

Art Berthot has been away for the past few weeks, visiting with the Johnny Tatterss's north of the Wildwood district. Robert Passmark is looking after his cattle this winter.

Paradise Valley

During the past two weeks the Ball family have had as their guest Dr. David W. Gaunt of Edmonton, who in the interim has been on assignment in the Lloydminster and Kitscoty areas giving preventive inoculations for Bang's disease to a large number of cows.

Mrs. Colin Ball and Gideon have gone to visit relatives in Edmonton and Waskatenau for a few weeks.

We regret to report that Mrs. Wm. Teasdale is a patient in the 11-room hospital where she has been seriously ill, but we are glad to say that she is now showing improvement.

Mr. Emil Knoll attended a school for lessmen held at North Battleford during the past week.

Glad to see Mrs. L. Wagner Sr. out around after her recent bout with old man flu. There has been a lot of sickness in the district during the winter.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Warrington on the birth of a daughter born in the Wainwright hospital.

DO YOU REMEMBER?

Do you remember when Jack Brown of Vermilion, President of the Eastern Alberta Hockey league retired off the puck which sent the 1951-52 league schedule away to a good start? The games have been drawing well all over the circuit despite the inclement weather practically every hockey night. Mr. Brown is shown dropping the puck between team captains Jim Ratz beck of the Lloydminster Hockey and Les Williams of the Vermilion Tigers.

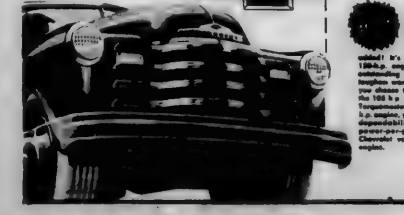
It's a fact! Wherever trucks must really earn their way, wherever costs are figured down to the last cent — that's where a 1952 Chevrolet Truck, and only a Chevrolet, fills the bill! That's true whether your job calls for a sedan delivery or an extra-heavy!

See for yourself. Check Chevrolet Trucks point for point — count up the features that make Chevrolet more than ever The Leader! First in value, first in demand, first by far in actual sales!

A GENERAL MOTORS VALUE

CHEVROLET



Models for every load and purpose

Complete range of wheelbases and carrying capacities

The Chevrolet truck line for '52 offers you a wider choice of wheelbases, ranging right up to 215". Gross weight ratings have also been increased to 17,200 lbs. with the 1700 Heavy Duty series. And all this extra payload and carrying capacity is yours at amazingly low cost. In other truck lines, you often pay for a little more to get a larger gas line

Axle capacities for every job

The right axle for any type hauling job — still another reason why you save with Chevrolet trucks! Each one is designed to absorb the shocks and jolts caused by rough roads and heavy loads. What's more, they deliver dependable power with less wear and effort throughout the entire speed range. And there's now a heavier two-speed rear axle available for the Heavy Duty models.

4 great power plants to choose from

To the three already famous Chevrolet valve-in-head truck engines, a fourth new power plant has been added! It's a massive, heavy-duty 148-h.p. engine, designed to deliver outstanding performance under the toughest operating conditions. Whether you choose the 92 h.p. Thriftmaster, the 105 h.p. Loadmaster, the 116 h.p. Torquemaster or the husky new 130 h.p. engine, you can be sure of greater dependability and greater power-per-gallon from a Chevrolet valve-in-head truck engine.

OUR COMPLETE SHORT STORY—

GROOM BETWEEN TRAINS

All Around Miss Mary Alice Had Been Very Right For Russell (17)

By WALTER BUSHROD BOOTH

TIME: 2:15 was expected to be almost on time. It was a matter of timing; the suspense was almost too great to bear. For two weeks Miss Mary Shaw had been getting ready for her wedding. The wags were saying that she had been getting ready for thirty-nine years.

She was going into the city to marry and live. When this became known, there was apprehension that the groom would never appear at home.

"You have seen him, haven't you, dear?" Isabel Watkins had asked her.

"Oh, my, yes. Twice. Both times when I went to a meeting of telephone operators. Mr. Irving is one of the supervisors, you know, and that's where I met him. Of course, I talk to him practically every day. When I'm on the switchboard, I just call his office, or he calls me, if he knows my schedule. It doesn't cost us anything . . ."

Isabel had said, "Yes, mighty convenient."

Now it was 2:10. The station agent announced importantly that it shouldn't be long. "You goin' back up on the northbound 4:30, ain't you, Miss Mary Alice?" he asked.

Wish a cheery smile and wave of its hand

She has wandered into an unknown land.

And left us dreaming and the wildest years

For the old-time step and the glad tears.

Think of her faring on, as dear In the love of There, as the love of here

Think of her still as the same, I say,

She is not dead—she is just away."

—Ever remembered by daughters Ila, Pearl, Mary, Fay, Violet, husband Charlie, grandchildren.

Saskatchewan Horse Breeders Urged To Safeguard Interests

REGINA.—Outlook for the horse industry is not too clear at the present time and this is a strong reason for breeders to safeguard their interests by maintaining a strong and active association, W. H. Miller, Avonlea, president of the Saskatchewan Horse Breeders' association, told the annual meeting.

The meeting was held in the Hotel Saskatchewan as part of the Saskatchewan livestock convention.

Mr. Miller reported the horse population for all Canada has decreased rapidly during recent years and Saskatchewan, one of the largest producers and users of horses, reflects this decrease more vividly than any other province. In the past five years the horse population in Saskatchewan has decreased by approximately 140,000 and a recent survey indicated that 60 per cent. of Saskatchewan horses are more than 11 years old.

However, he said, there is a good demand for sound horses weighing more than 1 600 pounds and the market is likely to continue for some time.

Former Vermilion Doctor Assaulted In Victoria, B.C.

Michael Wasio, Albany hotel, was found guilty today of having assaulted Dr. William W. Bell, in the D.V.A. office of the Belmont building, occupieing actual bodily harm.

Magistrate H. C. Hall described the evidence submitted by the prosecution "overwhelming". He remanded Wasio until Friday for prosecution so that a probation officer could make a report on the accused.

Wasio went to see the doctor to find out if Ottawa had acted on his latest pension claim, according to testimony. He became angered when he found out there was no word.

He cursed and swore and asked me to come outside with him', Dr. Bell recounted. 'I asked him to quiet down and take his swearing outside.'

The doctor said he opened the door leading to the hallway and that Wasio grabbed his left wrist and attempted to pull him out with him.

Dr. Bell said Wasio took several swings at him, hit his arm, bit his wrist, kicked his ankle, broke a rib and attempted to strangle him. In addition, the doctor sustained a gash across his chest.

Samuel J. Mayzes, assistant pensions advocate, said he found Wasio on top of Dr. Bell when he entered the office. Mayzes overpowered the man and held him till police arrived.

Douglas R. Irvine, who was waiting to see the doctor, said he had been hit on the cheek by Wasio.

Wasio told the court he had acted in self-defence.

Letters to the Editor

Ottawa, Jan. 27, 1952.

The Editor, Vermilion Standard.

Dear Sir:

Mail volume in the recent Xmas rush once again set up a new record, and so also I might say did the weather. Both these factors imposed a particularly severe strain upon the facilities of the Postal Service of Canada, despite the preparations made to handle the extra anticipated load, and which among other things involved the employment of 27,000 temporary helpers.

Co-operation extended by the public in early mailing of their Christmas gifts and greetings was, however even more notable than in previous years and it was this fact that enabled the postal workers to cope efficiently with the unexpected difficulties that arose.

While it is true that in some areas the severe weather conditions were responsible for delays in mail delivery, in general throughout the country Post Offices were able to keep pace with the mail as it came in and most were back onto a normal basis by the day before Xmas.

The purpose of this letter is to thank the public for the assistance given to us, and also to express to the newspapers of Canada our appreciation of their help in making the public aware of the many ways in which their co-operation could be made effective.

At the same time, may I express to you and the members of your staff my very best wishes for a happy and prosperous new year

Yours sincerely,
W. J. Turnbull,
Dep. Postmaster General

Home About Furniture

Furniture has joints and springs and webbing to consider when buying. Joints: Better furniture frames include hardwood dowel joints. Where two pieces of frame meet, holes are drilled in the wood and end pegs for dowels are filled in to hold them together. Glue should not be nailed together without joining and glue. In addition to the dowels which are tightly fitted and glued, a triangular corner block is filled in at each angle joint. The block of wood is glued and screwed. When salesman can show you dowel joints and corner blocks you have something to rely on Springs and Webbing. India jute webbing is best for seats. Springs are made of tempered steel wire of various shapes and sizes. Furniture usually has zig-zag and coil springs. Zig-zag spring are not quite as comfortable, but due to ease of fastening and simplicity they are less expensive. The zig-zag spring is hand tied in eight places with resilient twine for extra comfort.

Less expensive pieces of furniture will feature spring-units. A machine produced group of coil springs tied together with wire. Next week we'll finish discussing furniture buying by having a look at the filling, padding and upholstery.

Do You Remove Selvedges?

Do you all remove selvedges from fabric before you sew it? Have you ever seen a dress seam puckered? It could be because the selvedges shrank more than the material to cause the puckering. If you don't cut off the selvedges entirely then at least clip them diagonally for a more professional look.

Greenlawn Grapevine

The Greenlawn Goodwill club recently held their annual meeting and election of officers at the home of Mrs. Gordon Rainey. Gladys Royce was elected as president, Beth Grant will serve as vice-president and Helen Maddex holds the post of secretary. Plans were made to hold a talent night and Sadie Hawkins dance on Feb. 29th. Have to make the most of Leap year y'know.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. E. C. Walker when the club will entertain members of the North Home ladies club. We were happy to have Mrs Fred Maddex of Vermilion as a guest at the meeting.

The other two meetings of the week were equally successful. The funds of the Community club were swelled somewhat by a sale of surplus materials from the hall.

Fifteen more farmers are assisting to join the power line. They will make the total in Greenlawn Electrification Co-op about 65.

We heard lots of compliments to the Dewberry curling club on their banquet and on the banquet and smoker. By all reports it was quite a do.

IMMIGRATION

A successful immigration policy states The Financial Post, is not one that can be turned off and on like a tap, gushing one minute and dry the next. In the time of industrialization we can't absorb millions quickly, as we could during when there were vast spaces of virgin land merely waiting the plow. Nor neither can we afford to hold back until there are a certain number of vacant jobs before ordering more workers from abroad. A steady and substantial flow of immigration should be our objective nearly five million Canadians face the future with greater confidence because Life Insurance saved them these four ways!

1. Each year, life insurance provides many thousands of Canadians with money to meet some of their most important needs.
Last year life insurance companies paid out $1.06 million in benefits to Canadians.

2. Today, more than ever, Canadians rely on life insurance as the easiest, surest way to provide financial security for themselves and their families.
A record total of almost $2 billion in new life insurance was purchased by Canadians in 1951. That brings the value of life insurance owned by the people's policyholders to nearly one hundred and fifty billion.

3. Canadian communities from coast to coast continue to progress — thanks in part to the investment of life insurance dollars.
Each year, more than $275 million were invested by life insurance companies, on behalf of their policyholders, in securities that helped to finance the building of new schools, homes, highways and other aids to better living for all Canadians.

4. Life insurance dollars help to check inflation!
One of the most powerful forces at work to protect the value of your dollars is the sum of money entrusted to life insurance companies by their policyholders. This "money for the future" helps check inflation and thus strengthens Canada's economy — at a time when our country must be strong in every way.

History In The West

ALTHOUGH IN COMPARISON to other lands, and to many places on this continent, the Canadian West cannot as yet be considered to have a long history, events surrounding the early settling of that part of the country are as rich in colour and adventure as many places whose stories go much further into antiquity. From the viewpoint of this historian the time since the Prairie Provinces were first opened up has not been long, but in that time many stirring events have taken place and much progress has been made.

An Interest In History

It has been the privilege of people living there to know some of those who were associated with many of the colorful events of the past, those who lived there before the railways crossed the plains, and who recall the North-West Rebellion, the formation of the Mounties and many other historical events are becoming fewer as the years pass. There is however, lively interest on the part of many people in recording the history of early times on the Prairies and in seeking out further information about

Historic Site Is Discovered

Recently an interesting discovery was made near Qu'Appelle, Saskatchewan, when the original location of Fort Qu'Appelle was found, by means of a mine detector operated by the Saskatchewan Department of Natural Resources. Evidence found near the spot by Mr. Thomas Petty of Indian Head, who had been searching for the site for many years, led to the use of the mine detector. Further evidence that this was the original trading post had been located. It is believed that this was the first time that a mine detector was used in archaeological work in Canada and plans have been made to use it to locate other historical sites in the province. There is widespread interest in the progress of this work and in other facts which are being found to add to the colourful history of that part of Canada.

Urge More Caution In Municipal Spending

WINNIPEG — More caution in municipal spending during 1952 is urged by Edmond Prefontaine, municipal commissioner for Manitoba.

Mr. Prefontaine told the annual convention of the Manitoba urban municipalities that fewer municipalities operated on a cash basis in 1950 than at any time during the past 10 years, excluding 1947. He said the number had fallen from 139 in 1945 to 87 in 1950.

During the same period the total municipal assessment had increased only 18 per cent, while municipal taxes had more than doubled. The percentage of taxes collected in 1950 was less than at any time in the last 30 years.

He and delegates should impress upon taxpayers the necessity of registering on land. Many properties in the province had not been registered and were not on the tax roll.

Meat Coming To Canada From New Zealand

AUCKLAND, N.Z.—Thirty-two hundred tons of a 5,000-ton experimental meat shipment will be shipped to Canada and the United States shortly, the New Zealand meat producers' board announced.

The refrigerated freighter Kent is expected to complete loading and clear the New Zealand coast about March 12 and the Port Phillip about April 10.

The Kent will carry the full consignment for Canadian merchants—some 1,400 tons—and about half the 3,600 tons intended for the United States. The Port Phillip will take the balance of 1,800 tons and possibly an additional 500 to 600 tons of ewe mutton which has been sold to a Canadian soup-manufacturing firm.

All but 100 tons of the Canadian shipment and all of the American shipment will be prime lamb. The sold 100 tons bound for Canada will be various types of manufacturing meat developed to test the market, the board said.

A number of refrigerated ships now in New Zealand ports are likely to leave for Britain without full cargoes of meat. Under normal conditions at this time of year there should be ample meat cargoes available, but British meat rationing curtailed this season because of an unusual amount of rain and a consequent heavy flush of feed. They also have been kept down by late shearing and the fact that a large number of men now engaged in shearing would usually be available for freezing work.

Plan Big Pulp Mill For British Columbia

VANCOUVER. — British Columbia is to have another multi-million dollar pulp mill linked with a major hydro electric development.

Plans for a $25,000,000 development now are being drawn up and some of the details were made known recently.

Plans call for the construction of a 125,000-ton pulp mill by Western Pulpwood company in the Quesnel area in north-central B.C., 400 miles north of here.

The mill will be supplied with power from a project planned by the B.C. power commission at a cost of $16,000,000. The power project—planned for 120,000 horsepower—will be built in two stages on the Quesnel river.

LIVES ON TEA—Oswald Sneed, British veteran of World War I, is a puzzle to British doctors. He was wounded in the stomach and has had 11 operations. Since 1930 Sneed has been unable to eat anything. His sole diet has been tea—60 cups a day. He refused sleep more than two hours a night as he drinks an average of two and one half cups of tea an hour. But Sneed has still another problem. The tea ration in England is two ounces per person per day and he requires four. Kind neighbors are sharing their tea with him after so far to give up all his other rations points to get more tea points was turned down. Sneed is down to the last of the day—with his daily 60 cups of tea in front of him as evidence.—Central Press Canadian.

Red Cross Urges Adoption Of Swim Classes

It is not likely that anyone is thinking of outdoor swimming at this time of year, except the director of the Red Cross Swimming and Water Safety service, who must start planning early in the year if additional thousands of boys and girls are to have the same advantage to learn to swim as did 8,000 last summer, in some 60 points in Saskatchewan.

Many local organizations desire a summertime project and the organizing of learn to swim classes will prove to be a most popular community service project. Children and parents alike, have always been enthusiastic. The children because it is fun, and the parents because they realize that their young ones are in qualified hands and are learning a skill which may protect them for a lifetime.

If there have been no swimming classes in your area and you are the member of a local service or fraternal group, why not bring this subject up at your next meeting. All you need to know is that there is a suitable swimming area within 10 miles of your town and that the Red Cross will supply full and detailed information as to how such a project can be made possible. It is not necessarily expensive, as was proved last summer at one point. Ninety children were transported to a lake 6 miles away, twice a week, and the net cost was $1.30 to buy nails and wire to make a small dock.

The most difficult part of the project is to convince the local adults that it can be done and, that they can do it. The youngsters will certainly be their part.

The Red Cross offers free instructor training for local instructor candidates. These candidates should be strong swimmers over 16 years of age and willing to teach swimming in their leisure time. The first lb instructor training school will be held in Regina—April 14 to 19. In addition, Red Cross can supply free guidance, all publicity material and awards for swimmers.

Potential instructor candidates who are competitive swimmers and any other interested persons or organizations are invited to consult their local Red Cross branch or write the Commissioner, Canadian Red Cross, 2221 Victoria Avenue, Regina, for full details.

Princess Elizabeth Aids Children's Fund

WINNIPEG, Man.—Princess Elizabeth has donated a gift from the City of Regina, Sask., of 500 bushels of Canadian wheat to the "Save the Children" fund, fund headquarters here announced.

The wheat was being sold at $10 per bushel and the names of those purchasing the grain will be inscribed on a scroll which will be sent to the Princess.

The Princess was presented with the gift during her tour last fall.

Why Grow Pigs for Lard?

There is plenty of evidence to show that Canadian housewives do not want fat pork. And yet a lot of time, effort and feed is being wasted in the production of excess fat on hogs. Much of this loss can be avoided by producing bacon hogs.

A big job in packing-houses is removing fat from pork cuts and that is done because there is no sale for over-fat pork. Some cuts, such as the shoulder and breakfast bacon, have layers of fat between the muscles or layer of lean, which cannot be cut out. But with cuts such as the back or loin, most of the fat can be removed, and as a rule, pork backs are sold as trimmed loins. The fat is rendered and sold as lard.

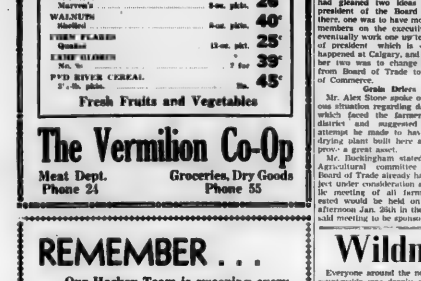
Lard was once a very popular cooking fat, and hog raising was closely associated with the by-product, lard. In the United States the demand for lard and the large amount of corn available for feed, led to the development of special breeds of pigs known as the lard breed. These pigs were selected because of their ability to put on a very thick, layer of fat quickly. Today, lard is less important., Indeed it has be coupled as a competitive fat with vegetable oil preparations which are often preferred by the housewife and Mechanization has also played its part in the reduced demand for lard as a cooking fat. Machines now do much of the heavy physical work formerly done by hand, and the need for fats in the diet of those who undertook this heavy work has lessened. Lumbering is a typical example.

These trends, says J. G. Lefebvre of the Federal Department of Agriculture, have gradually reduced the demand for lard as a food fat and the price has declined. As a result, lard sells for less per pound than the price paid for a pound of carcass. The average wholesale price in Toronto for lard in November was 18½ cents a pound; for B. 1 grade carcasses 38½ cents. In addition the lard price must cover the cost and loss of rendering the fat.

The comparatively low price for lard is the basic reason for raising bacon hogs which have a high proportion of lean, and even these must undergo some trimming before the cuts are acceptable to the consumer. That over-finish is a very common fault is shown by a recent check of hog carcass scale tickets. Of 30,000 tickets of B. 1 hogs weighing 140-170 lb. 74 per cent. had the P-plus symbol indicating too much fat. A few of these had other faults as well. Only 2 per cent. were faulted for having too little fat.

The pigs' ability to lay on fat or store energy for a day of need is partly due to his very good appetite, which has Winston Churchill as their hero—for the quality over many years and many generations. As pointed out, fifty years ago lard or pork fat was desirable; today, fatness in pigs is no longer necessary. Overfeeding represents a serious waste of feed for the farmer and time for the processor and is a cause of complaint by the consumer. The modern streamlined hog has white fat. The additional saving in the kind which brings the highest return to the farmer.

Mr. Lefebvre points out that much of the excess fat on pigs can be eliminated by careful selection for bacon type and more careful feeding. Good bacon hog carcasses provide the most desirable product and the least waste in the form of fat.



— Canada Department of Agriculture Photos.

SOME PRODUCE LARD . . . Lard is no longer the popular cooking fat it once was. Much of the excess fat taken in the form of lard on hogs must be trimmed and rendered into lard. Lard returns less to the producer than bacon.

In a recent check of 30,000 tickets of B. 1 hogs weighing 140-170 pounds, inspectors of the Canada Department of Agriculture found that 74 per cent. were faulted for too much fat; only two per cent. had too little. The photo above, the difference between a good bacon carcass, (left), and a poor one. Note excess fat along back of carcass at right and how this is carried throughout the cross section, (upper), cut at the last rib from the other side of the same carcass.

Agricultural Matters Occupy Attention of Board of Trade

Mr. Keith Chalmers acted as the chairman of the meeting on Jan. 23. There was 36 present. The chairman welcomed Mr. Alex Stone and Mr. Brent Macnab.

The minutes were adopted as read on motion of Bill Pilkie and Jim Nichols.

Seed Cleaning Plant

Alex Stone reported that meeting on the seed cleaning plant had been held as scheduled. Twenty had attended and conservancy had been appointed in all districts, with reports to be made by the end of April.

On behalf of the Ways and Means committee Mr. Chalmers reported that investigation was under way re obtaining a certain letter and number series when the new car licenses are issued.

Program on Dam Project

Mr. Melvin Hill reported progress re the dam project, stating that much detail work had been done.

There were two more signatures to secure the $1,000 required to put up the construction. The necessary funds have been asked for by the Government. Surveys are now being made to establish levels and Canadian Utilities is looking after boundaries.

Airport in Good Landing Shape

Mr. Bill Pilkie, chairman of the airport committee reported that the landing field was in excellent shape for landings and could be used by wheels or skis. The condition of the Vermilion field receives mention daily over the Radio beam network.

Tree Ideas

E. H. Buckingham who was in Calgary last week stated that he had gleaned two ideas from the president of the Board of Trade there, one was to have farmer members on the executive and to eventually work one up to the office of president which is what has happened at Calgary, and idea number two was to change the name from Board of Trade to Chamber of Commerce.

Grain Driers

Mr. Alex Stone spoke on the serious situation regarding damp grain which faced the farmers of this district and suggested that an attempt be made to have a grain drying plant built here as it could prove a great asset.

Mr. Buckingham stated that the Agricultural committee of the Board of Trade already had the project under consideration and a public meeting of all farmers interested would be held on Saturday afternoon Jan. 26th in the armories said meeting to be sponsored by the Board of Trade.

Mr. Robert Fair spoke briefly on wheat prices and in his remarks noted that the Canadian wheat grower has suffered a loss of 55c per bushel due to the government subsidizing the consumers through wheat supplied to Canadian millers, and to the International Wheat Agreement.

Freight Rates

The matter of freight rates was broached by Mr. Macnab, and after hearing considerable information in recent discussion in parliament and how the freight rate question now stands from Mr. Robt. Fair, M.P., the matter was referred to the National Affairs committee with the recommendation that a suitable resolution regarding proposed freight rate increases be brought in at the next meeting of the Board.

The club calendar was read and the meeting adjourned.

Local Macleod Manager Attending Winnipeg Convention

Charlie Upshall, manager of Macleods store here is attending a merchandising clinic and conference in Winnipeg from Feb. 4 to 7.

Managers of Macleod's Limited stores in the three prairie provinces and B.C. will converge for the four-day conference in the Royal Alexandra hotel. Company officials and associates, including representatives of all merchandising and selling divisions will be in attendance.

An interesting innovation will be the series of "Merchandising Clinics" arranged for Macleod's store managers. These 'Clinics' will be a series of round table discussions between home office personnel and store managers, emphasizing consumer merchandising needs, buying trends and customer service. Of special interest, also, will be novel displays of new products and merchandising techniques set up throughout the conference rooms.

A highlight of the managers' visit will be the inspection of Macleods new home office and warehouse building now being completed in Winnipeg. The building is one of the most modern of its kind in Canada with 124,000 square feet of floor space, 350 feet in length and 230 feet wide. Company officials have stressed the importance of the new warehouse in providing faster, more economical service to its customers throughout the West. adv

Wildmere Winks

Everyone around the neighboring countryside was deeply shocked to hear of the sudden passing of Mrs Graham Ganton on Friday last. Mrs. Ganton was known for her sterling bravery in facing the many trials and troubles she had been called on to face during her life time. She was a devoted wife and mother and a friend to all. A woman you always felt better after talking with. She gave all that same feeling of courage she herself was endowed with. She will really be a place than can never be filled. We, along with the community extend our deepest sympathy to the aged husband, daughters and sons in their sudden hour of bereavement May you have comfort in knowing she is at rest after her many years of pioneering and betterment of the community.

We cannot help but think of a former Wildmere man who passed away in California not so long ago on the person of Mr. Theodore Riley. Mr. Riley homesteaded here in the early days. Later he married Mrs. Barnes of Vermilion and they moved to Theodore's former home place. Califonia was where they had also resided. He lived to the ripe age of 84. His brother Tom also of Wildmere, predeceased him by a few days. Mr. Riley has two nieces Mrs. R. Martin and Mrs. R. Smith, also two nephews, Ted and George Riley, all of Wildmere and Vermilion

Wildmere-Tofield Mutual Telephone Co. held their annual meeting at the curling rink on Jan 18 with a fair attendance. The retiring president, J. Wallington had asked a year ago that he be relieved of his duties. Cliff Crathers is now president, J. Wilson is secretary-treasurer and directors are Otto Wolsera, Wm Garnett Jr., Frank Gibson, J. Wallington served for seventeen years, three as the president, on the board. He wishes to take this opportunity to thank everyone for their grand support especially J. Wilson, Bill and Adam Smith, L. Fuller and others who never refused when extra help was needed to repair the line, also to thank S. May of Brookville district who gave so willingly of his car and meals. Mrs. M. Webber of Tofield for her kindness in giving them meals at all hours. It was all greatly appreciated folks and Jim hopes you will give the same support and hospitality to the new president and trouble man.

A rink of curlers from Wildmere comprised of Cliff Crathers, Robert Martin, Ray Osterberg and Frank Gibson are attending the Wainwright bonspiel. So far the local boys have won two and lost one. Good luck boys.

The writer left a huge hen's egg at the Standard office on Friday while it may be seen.

We met and chatted with Mrs Williamson, Mrs. C Barr, Mrs. Cleland, Mrs. Arnold and Mrs Hilton on Friday in town

Mr. and Mrs. C Crathers and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. Martin and Doreen were supper guests at the Frank Gibson home in Bessaroo on Sunday evening

We hope the roaches strike dont materialize at it would make a bad tie up, especially to the high school students where a year means so much.

Motor Accident Toll ..... In Alberta Alarming

Motor accidents in Alberta last year reached the alarming total of more than 11,800 according to a report received by the Alberta Motor Association.

There were 183 traffic deaths, of which 147 were at various points outside the cities of Edmonton, Calgary, Lethbridge and Medicine Hat.

Officials of the A.M.A. which has been a leading advocate of highway safety measure for many years, are taking steps to study the traffic situation with a view to bringing about a substantial reduction in highway accidents.

While police report that their patrols have been increased, especially at points along the Calgary-Edmonton and other highway where speeding and reckless driving are prevalent, there is a strong feeling that other remedial steps are necessary to curb highway accidents.

Many of the fatalities were at level railway crossings. Others occurred when motorists collided with parked trucks while head-on car crashes also took their toll.

The volume of traffic in Alberta is showing a steady increase, which no doubt is another contributing factor. Nevertheless, there is a growing feeling in safety organization quarters that prompt action is necessary, not only along educational but also on enforcement lines, that will ensure greater driving safety in this province.

The provincial executive of the A.M.A. will study reports at an early meeting.

Canadians are dying of tuberculosis at the rate of ten a day. Much of this loss of life could be prevented if more money were available to fight TB. Funds to carry on the anti-tuberculosis campaign are raised through the sale of Christmas Seals. Have you sent your contribution?

Mrs. Gillies is spending a few days with the writer; Alex and Fernand Dupruit were visitors at Christie's home on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Jim Gould and Marie were supper guests at the writer's home recently but the visit was cut short when the wind started to blow and the snow piled up. This kept 'most of us at home for a few days.

The seed catalogs are coming along these days, lots of nice plants and flowers for Easter.

On Sunday the family gathered at Christie's to visit the writer where a turkey dinner was really and very greatly enjoyed. A happy day was spent.

Hen's Egg Breaks All Records

No use attempting to describe it but the largest egg ever laid by a domestic hen, is now on display at the Standard office. It was laid by a Light Sussex hen on the farm of J. Wallington, Wildmere district. The egg weighs 7 ounces and measures 8 inches around one way and 9½ inches the other.

Attention is directed to the large display advertisement of the Central Farm Equipment announcing John Deere Day on Feb. 6th. This show has proven so popular in the past that it is necessary to ban school pupils and students from attending unless accompanied by parents.

A Vermilion rink of Aldous Kent, Darrell Currah, Rand Calvert and Marshall Jackson is curling at the Wainwright bonspiel this week while Vermilion lady curlers are competing at Dewberry in the ladies' spiel taking place there.

Vermilion Girls Receive Nurses' Caps

Thirty-three student nurses of the class of 1962, section two, at the Royal Alexandra Hospital school of nursing, received their caps in a ceremony Saturday afternoon held in the lounge of the nurses' home. The capping ceremony marked the completion of their preliminary training period.

Miss Ida Johnson superintendent of nurses, gave the address of welcome and introduction.

It was followed by the presentation of caps and an address by Ald. Mrs. T. H. Field, member of the hospital board. A vocal solo and piano selections rounded out this part of the program, after which a reception was held for the students and their guests. This also presented an opportunity for the instructresses in the school of nursing, to meet the parents and friends of the newly capped students.

Two Vermilion girls are members of the class, in the persons of Lorna Daley and Audrey Watts. Lorna had as her guests her mother, Mrs. Ted Daley, and her aunt Mrs. Thos. Cairns, while Audrey had her parents Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Watts in attendance.

Successful Hockey Activities At Dewberry

ROCKETS ARE AT TOP OF THREE LEAGUE

DEWBERRY. — Hockey teams of Dewberry are meeting with considerable success in their activities this winter. The Dewberry Kaiser-Fraser sponsored 'Rockets' are at the top of their league, with Marwayne in last position and the Lloydminster entry in second place. Dewberry believes that it has one of the best teams in the history of the village and high scorers are Sandy Ewen, Roland Miller, Jack Rogstad, Jim Munro, Geodley Denhall. Everyone thinks they are a sporty, hard working gang.

The Dewberry Midgets are also achieving great results. Under the coaching of the Deer Lake teacher J. Munro, they trounced Vermilion Midgets to a 2-1 defeat last Wednesday evening. Besides this they have five other wins to chalk up. Remember, it's not the size but the spirit that counts up the goals.

Mrs. A. Law returned to her home in Edmonton on Saturday after spending a few weeks in Vermilion renewing old acquaintances. While here she was a guest at the home of Mrs. Lee.

For the occasion the mother of the bride wore a navy winter sheer dress with pink accessories on corsage. The mother of the groom wore a navy crepe dress and her corsage was of pink carnations.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The bride's table was centred with a three tiered wedding cake. A toast to the bride was proposed by Mr. Paschel and was fittingly replied to by the groom.

From this comes the essay, which was an animated form using 'Bugs Bunny' for a subject, will be sent to the provincial contest for the essay further laurels.

Congratulations are extended to the teacher Mr. Munro and grades 7, 8 and 9 of Deer Lake school. Another feather in this division were Irwinville school of Marwayne district and Clandonald Separate.

Commandos Outscore Tigers in Close Game

In a sparkling exhibition of hockey the Wainwright Commandos outscored the local Tigers 5 goals to 4 on Saturday night last. Strate converted a pass from Lewis with ten seconds before the end of regulation time and when it looked certain that the game would go into overtime.

The game was a crowd-pleasing affair with rough and underhand tactics completely eliminated. Six penalties were handed out for accidental minor offences. It was nice to see hockey played the way it was Saturday night.

The game itself was tied up four times, all the way from 1-1 to 4-4. During that time both teams enjoyed the lead.

Mike O'Neill lost no time in putting the visitors one up, scoring unassisted at 1:05 of the first period. Barry Lee came to life in a hurry and scored one last one. Rowe from LaPlante and LaPlante from Rowe and Kreller. Helm was then banished for tripping but a power attack by the Tigers back-fired when the speedy Strate broke away with no one in front of him, and lifted the puck through Lawleman's legs to beat the count at 2-all.

Each team tallied once in the sawdust session, Red Barr put the Tigers one up again on a combined play with LaPlante and Bob Rowe, but Dodds evened the count during a defensive lull, the period ending 3-3.

Strate and Lewis combined and the Commandos forged in front 4-3, but Red Barr again came through converting a double pass from Haskins and Kreller. The teams battled on even terms until just 30 seconds from the final bell when Medical Services Inc. Proves Great Boon To Wildmere F. U. A.

ADVOCATE ADOPTION ON MUNICIPAL SCALE

Adoption of prepaid medical care through Medical Services (Alberta) Inc., has proved a boon to the members of the Wildmere local of the Farmers Union of Alberta and their families.

The Wildmere group have had excellent service from this co-operative medical services plan, building up quite a surplus during the thirty odd months since they entered. On several separate occasions members have been able to meet emergencies, such as a major operation, without embarrassment to themselves or their doctors.

The plan on a group basis means quite a substantial saving. It is quite obvious that the larger the group the cheaper it can be covered and the M.S.I. itself would like the plan to operate on a municipal basis. This would provide Medical Services for every person in the municipality. The experience of the members of the Wildmere F.U.A. leads them to the opinion that such a coverage would be a boon to all and well worth adopting on the municipal scale.

Vermilion Organizes For Civil Defence

The Town Council of Vermilion has taken active steps to complete organization for the vital problem of civil defence and a general meeting was held in the Memorial hall on Friday evening last for the purpose of securing information from provincial officials, charged with the responsibility of civilian security in the event of major calamity, whether of a penee time or war time nature.

His Worship Mayor S. C. Heckbert acted as chairman of the meeting and after outlining what had already been done by the Council called on the Hon. C. E. Gerhart, Minister of Municipal Affairs and Provincial Director of the Civil Defence plan: Mr. Gerhart spoke at some length, outlining the problems of the Government and urging that organization in all communities be set up in such a manner as to ensure joint action in time of need.

Air Vice-Marshall George R. Latham, provincial co-ordinator of Civil Defence was the second speaker and went into considerably greater detail in respect of the measures necessary to be taken to provide against disaster in any form. The Air Vice-Marshall, who had a wide experience during the last war and second great wars made it most apparent to all present that there was a duty to be performed by every citizen in order to avoid panic and useless effort during periods of unusual stress, such as military attacks or civilian calamity.

Col. Lavoie, Chief Executive officer of the Civil Defence project also spoke directing his remarks particularly to those attending the meeting from surrounding towns, of whom a large number were present. The final speaker was Mr. A. Bridges Fire Commissioner for the province who outlined the proposals which will take effect immediately wherever all fire fighting equipment in the province will be standardized in such a manner as to make it possible for equipment to be interchangeable between towns and cities as may be required.

Vermilion has been designated as an evacuation area, to which casualties and others might eventually be sent in the event of attacks on Edmonton or other industrial centres. Plans are under way for a survey of all available buildings and shelters within the town and the immediately adjacent area.

The town council has named Kl G. Urquhart as representing the town and a committee to establish the work has been outlined as follows: Messrs. J. W. Kneale, Rev Mr. Berg, Wm. Sutherland and Victor Tilbert. It is expected that sub-committees will be asked to undertake various branches of the work, such as First Aid, Fire Fighting, Communications, Utilities, Transportation, etc., and already considerable equipment has been assembled, preparatory to enable the work of civil defence effective in this area.

The town of Vermilion has agreed to act in conjunction with representatives of the M.D.'s of Vermilion River and Minburn, along with the other towns within the confines of these municipalities and will form liaison with the other bodies as may from time to time be deemed necessary.

Seed Cleaning Plant Gets Good Support

The secretary of the new Vermilion Co-operative, C. J. McCormick, reports that the canvass to sell shares has progressed very well. One canvasser has sold $2000 worth of shares. The business men in Vermilion have bought shares to the value of $1200 and more to come. The meeting of canvassers has been called for Saturday afternoon Feb. 16th at 2.00 p.m. at the armories, when various plans and list shares already sold.

Transportation was provided by Mr. Little.

The game against the college last Monday night proved a bit tougher. Terry Bocock who is coaching the girls, and who started with only a couple of experienced players, is fast building a team worthy of Vermilion. The first half highlighted the game. After a couple of quick goals by the girls in red, that put the V.H.S. to the lead, Doris Reed of the College put in the first half free throw by a single point In the close checking of Ann Martin and Maxwell kept the opposition to 9 points while the girls gathered another 22 points to make the score 31-20. Well over 200 people filled the gym and enjoyed the game.

Not to be outdone by the Seniors, the Junior high school girls accepted a challenge from Wainwright and defeated them 29-24 at Wainwright last Saturday morning. It proved to be a close fought battle with the challengers in the lead at the closing seconds, when Rhea Ireland broke away and put Devermilion girls in the lead by a single point. The players making the trip were Ann Stuart, Keith Lawson, Hazel Barr, Vicki Magis, Rhea Ireland, Peggy Stevens, Jean Kuldewehne, Janet Wilson, Shirley Taylor. Rex Beake who went along as coach did a fine job. Miss Jones accompanied the girls as staff representative.

FINE NEW FLOOR IN SCOUT HALL

ELKS CONTINUE HELPING YOUNG PEOPLE

Not content with presenting the Boy Scouts with a fine new hall a few years ago, for their very own use, something which very few young peoples organizations have, the Vermilion Elks Lodge have recently laid a complete new floor in the hall. The floor is a beauty of its kind, it has been sanded, treated, waxed and polished. The result is a new and smoother floor area with the organization of the Wolf Cubs and Brownies during the past years. There are two large Wolf Cub packs and much of their activities are carried out while sitting on the floor. The same is true of the Brownies. Vermilion has been very fortunate in securing able and interested leadership in Scout, Cub and Brownie organizations.

The Elks have also kept the hall in a fine state of repair, supplying storm doors and anything else necessary. A major change was made in the hearing equipment last winter when the floor furnace was moved to a more advantageous position, a considerable cost.

The young people of the town have much for which to thank Vermilion's Big Brothers, the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks.

Christian Youth Week

This week young people all across the country are observing Christian Youth Week, and, to mark this event, special activities are taking place in churches of many denominations.

This period, from Feb. 3rd to 9th will see dedication services, fireside, panel discussions, working bees, and a variety of other projects in which the spotlight will be on young people. But, adults will join them too, for one purpose of Christian Youth Week is to promote understanding between adults and young people as to their respective responsibilities in both the community and the church.

Churches and other organizations which are a part of the Christian Council of Churches, hope that the week's activities will make adults aware of the value of Christian education in the formation of character. Young people it is hoped, will take a greater interest in young groups sponsored by the churches, and will want them to serve, as well as be served.

To young people who wonder if adults in the churches have any interest in them, and to leaders of youth groups who ask if the congregation cares about their work, Christian Youth Week will bring them assurance.

It is felt that, in this period of unrest and insecurity, many young Canadians feel adulthood and its responsibilities it brings, with uncertainty. It is not easy to be young in 1952 and the churches taking part in this week's activities, hope they can help young people to grow mentally, socially, and spiritually.

And so, this week is dedicated to them. Seven major Protestant denominations as well as the Y.M.C.A., the Y.W.C.A. and other non-denominational organizations are pooling their resources for youth.

Calfhood Vaccination Progress Reported

Commendable progress in vaccinating Alberta calves against Bang's Disease was indicated recently by figures released by Hon. D. A. Ure, Minister of Agriculture.

During the first year of the program, 1943, approximately 9,000 calves were vaccinated. The number for the year had risen to 11,393. In 1949, 21,000 calves were vaccinated. In 1950, 30,000 calves was provided for 86,300 head.

Continuing this increase, 76,218 calves were vaccinated against Bang's Disease in 1951, and this in spite of bad fall weather, icy roads and other factors that interfered with the work of the veterinarians. Had it not been for these interferences 85,000 calves would have been vaccinated in Alberta during the past year.

Veterinarians, district agriculturists and municipal officials co-operated splendidly in this all important work, said the minister.

The municipalities of Wainwright, Elk Island, Vermilion River, Beaverhill, Athabasca and Pincher Creek have been declared Brucellosis Restricted Areas. In these areas vaccination of all heifer calves is compulsory. Adherence to this procedure for a few years will virtually eradicate the disease in cattle in these municipalities. Reduction of Bang's disease will also help to prevent contagious fever in humans.

The Fruits of Labor

Karl Marx and Frederich Engels, stewing in their garret over their Communist Manifesto, came to the question of property. To their dedicated minds the concept seemed essentially evil. Private property, they wrote "all property, is evil. It must be destroyed." They meant, of course, the ownership of property. The lesser creeds that have followed this manifesto—a long way off — would not be so drastic. Property would be taken from private hands by the peaceful process of law, not by violence as Marx would have it. But perhaps Abraham Lincoln had the best comment. "Property," he said, "is the fruit of labor. Property is desirable. It is a positive good in the world. That some should be rich shows that others may become rich, and hence is just encouragement to industry and enterprise. Let not him who is homeless pull down the house of another, but let him work diligently and build one for himself." Thus by example asserting that his right is safe from violence when it is built.

Much more than a railway, the Canadian National operates its own express service and a widespread commercial telecommunications system, owns three fleets of ocean-going steamships as well as car ferries; operates bus, dockyards, stockyards and coal mines and holds all the stock in Trans-Canada Air Lines.

Many Entries For Vermilion Seed Fair

A goodly number of entries for the seed fair being put on on by the Agricultural Society is reported by the secretary-manager, S. C. Heckbert.

Some of the classes however are still far from full and farmers are urged to enter every exhibit in order that the fair will compare with the 1951 show. Last year the Vermilion fair was noted as one of the largest and most successful in the province.

The chief purpose behind the local show is to give farmers who have seed for sale a chance to display their seed to the public. Last year a large volume of seed changed hands as farmers who needed seed could look over the samples of seed offered for sale. The show is therefore a medium of exchange.

A special class is provided for junior farmers up to 21 years of age. Here is a chance for the boys and girls to win prizes and prize money. Also both farmers and persons can enter grass and clover seeds. Hardy any entries so far have been received in these classes.

There is still time, as entries do not close until Feb. 15. The samples do not need to be delivered until a later date, first a prize list and entry form from S. C. Heckbert or from E. H. Buckingham.

Christmas Seal Fund Closing Date Feb. 15

February 15th will be the closing date for the 1951-52 Christmas (T.B.) seal sale in Alberta. It was announced by G. S. Lakie, president of Alberta Tuberculosis Association.

Provincial receipts to date total $179,29., which is still $5,750 short of 10% of the objective. The amount is the very least that will permit the Association to carry out its program in 1952, according to Mr. Lakie, which includes early diagnosis through mobile units and X-ray installation in hospitals, vocational training, nursing services and welfare, research and health education and professional.

For Edmonton and Northern Alberta, the total now stands at $75,130, which is still $4,250 from the $80,000 objective, and everyone is urged to send in that contribution now.

"Special" Car Licence Numbers Discontinued

'Special' car licence numbers will be discontinued this year, according to the provincial government's motor vehicle branch head.

With the end of special licence numbers, the government also is discontinuing the transfer of licence plates from one car to another. Even if a car is sold, the licence plates will remain with it.

Previously Alberta motorists have been able to reserve their licence numbers from year to year and choose numbers which repeat their telephone or house address numbers, lucky or sentimental numbers and so on.

However, the number of plates issued, swell over 153,000 last year, has made it impossible to continue issuing special numbers. The abolition of special numbers will end delay at the wickets.

The new licence plates, which go on sale here in March and must be bought by April 15th, will have no low numbers or no telephone numbers on. Car owners who have had special numbers for years will take whatever plate they can get this year.

Dewberry News

Both the men's open hospiel and the ladies' open spiel proved great successes. The ladies served a luncheon in the hall for the men's bonspiel, while the men retaliated and sponsored a banquet in the Dewberry hotel for the ladies' bonspiel. Everyone reported a very good time.

A bonspiel is now being played at Hetherington for the men but this warm weather might prove disastrous. Several rinks made the trip to the lakeview spiel, bringing back their share of the prizes.

Congratulations are in order to Mr. and Mrs. McDermith on the birth of a son.

The writer is sorry to report that Mr. and Mrs. Bowman Sr. have been ill. Mrs. Bowman is in Islay hospital while Mr. Bowman has gone to Edmonton for treatment. Nikie Curtis has been in the University hospital for some time. Speedy recoveries are wished them all.

The next F.U.A. meeting will be held at Ernest Garnier's on Feb. 13. There is also to be a dance in town that night sponsored by the C.W.L.

Dewberry Sr. hockey team has gone to Lloydminster several times lately to play hockey. They have recently won one and tied one.

It is hoped that a good crowd will attend the next meeting of the Home and School Association. The last lunch program is proving very successful. The men folk are really enthusiastic over the hot soup, cocoa, or pork and beans, served turn about.

This fine weather makes us realize that spring is just around the corner. It can't come too soon to suit most of us.

W. A. HOLD MEETING

The W.W.A. met at the home of Mrs. E. Clay on Friday, Feb. 1st with Mrs. Clay and Mrs. Mathesons hostesses. Minutes and treasurer's report were read and approved. Donations to the St. Stephen's College fund and fees to the Vermilion Presbytery had been sent. It was also decided to pay for the new hymn books purchased for the church. The Work committee read plans for getting new material for working, so this will soon be available to anyone wishing to sew or fancy work for the bazaar. There is a motion on the books now that two members act as hostesses and serve the lunch but that each member contribute to the lunch. The meeting closed with the benediction and lunch.

Please remember that the Paradise Valley Home and School Association will meet in their regular meeting in the school on Wednesday evening Feb. 13th. Come and express your ideas. Mr. Simonson will address the meeting.

Mr. Dan Swedack left for Chicago on Tuesday where Alberta Hog Fat Stock Show and Sale is being held. He will also visit Edmonton. As the result of the dog's play at McLaughlin, Vermilion and Lloydminster, Vermilion Athletic K.H.S. were tied with two wins and a loss each. This necessitated three three tosses to meet again on Jan. 29th. Our own team being victorious on this occasion.

Skip Bill Howe, with Gerald McKinnon third, Harvey Davies second, and Allan Adamson lead accompanied by Mr. Unlat, journeyed to Edmonton to take part in the bonspiel. Although the boys did not fare so well in Edmonton, we're still proud of them and hope they will look forward to a trip again next year.

The Chandonald Homemakers

The Department of Agriculture Girls' club at Chandonald went to Edmonton on a tour. The Canadian Utilities Ltd. was found to be an immense and fascinating electricity plant, which Mr. Kneale carefully guided us around. The girls were extremely interested in the Vermilion Beverages and enjoyed seeing the way their soft drinks were bottled. We went to the show that evening — wishing we could see the projector in motion. Much to our delight Mr. Pitkie invited us up to the projection room to watch the second show begin. It made us realize there's more to any show than meets the eye. Mr. Tasche very kindly brought one car of girls down.

On With the Furniture

Filling, Padding and Upholstery Filling—The cheapest is of cotton, straw or wood fibre. Better grades of furniture use rubber treated animal hair or straight foam rubber. If you are presented with a foam rubber piece don't jump to the conclusion that you have found 'solid comfort'. Ask how much is rubber padded, where it is padded and how thick the rubber padding is.

Padding—A major item in upholstery furniture is the cotton padding. There are many grades and mixtures, so read carefully the government label which must appear under the seat or elsewhere on the piece.

Upholstery — No doubt it is the color, texture or pattern of the upholstery that will attract you first but consider it last. It is an easy matter to reupholstery but quite difficult to reshape a chair that insists on collapsing under the weight of its own years.

When you know the quality and durability of construction of the piece of furniture you're considering you'll have a fair idea of what you are getting for your home-built fishing dollar.

After you've bought your furniture you might be wondering where to store it it's Place which you may have for the asking.

That recipes say never grease the pan for angel food cake or true sponge cake. Because angel food and true sponge cake batters need to cling to the sides of the pan in order to rise to their full height. Also greased pans make cakes to fall out of the pan which is inverted for cooling, making them flat and soggy.

One lady from Wainwright used the pastry recipe that had an egg and vinegar in it and told me that it turned out very well, the amount it made was satisfying large enough for her pie-loving family.

Sir:

Ratepayers of Division 7 please remember the annual meeting of the Vermilion River M.D. to be held at Kitscoty on Feb 10th — let us all go in person against the building of an office at this time as the cost of building materials is practically prohibitive.

Electrification, Curling, F.U.A. Hold Interest At Clandonald At Present

Beautiful weather at time of writing, and with winter past (?) half way mark, food plentiful and roads open for motor vehicles, what more could one ask!

F. U. A. Meeting

Quite a large crowd attended the first Farmers' Union meeting held in town on Tuesday Jan. 29. There are 40 paid up members at present and interest appears to be keen. The next meeting is planned for Friday Feb. 23th in the Rye school. All farmers and their families please try to attend that night. Following the business portion of the meeting Tuesday a few hands of cards were played after which all present enjoyed a tasty lunch and social get-together.

Rural Electrification

Interest in rural electrification is running high at present in many parts of the district. Apparently three separate areas are planned. The most ambitious of these is in the area of Landonville which is nearly or more farmers signed at ready. Of the other two planned one will take in Al's shed district and the other will serve the area directly south of the town and will include part of the Campbell Lake district.

High School Curling

Congratulations to the local high school boys' rink skipped by Maurice Mauyk which downed all local competition here and at Dewberry and thus were eligible to go to Edmonton for the Northern Alberta High School play-offs. The competition proved a bit too experienced in the city but better luck next time boys. The other members of the rink were Rudy Kolodziejzyk, Donny Darling and Eddie Bykewich.

Don't forget the Valentine's dance in the Orange hall on Thursday Feb. 14th. Lunch is included in the price of admission. The dance is being sponsored by the W.A. of St. Mary's Anglican church.

GREATEST SHOW ON EARTH

The greatest show on earth just now is the industrial production of the Western nations.

Canada has a big role in the show. And Canada's primary textile industry, with the largest manufacturing employment, the largest payroll, and with factories well diversified throughout the smaller communities, is a star player in the Canadian show.

Dominion Textile has an important part in all this.

Era Of Expansion

IT HAS BEEN INDICATED from many sources that Canada has entered upon an era of immense industrial expansion. The development of natural resources in many parts of the country and the building of new industrial plants all testify to the expansion which is taking place and it is interesting to note that the Prairie provinces are sharing extensively in these developments. The continued expansion of the oil industry in the West is leading to greatly increased revenues for the people in that part of Canada, and to considerable industrial expansion there

• • • •

Buying Power Is Increased

An official of one of the oil companies with interests in the West has estimated that buying power on the Prairies has increased by at least $250,000,000 due to the oil development there and that the figure may well reach $400,000,000. The figure of $250,000,000 is equal to approximately one hundred dollars for every man, woman and child in the three Prairie Provinces. The expansion of the oil industry in itself is a great boon to the West, but it has already become evident that the development of oil brings with it other industries, as is demonstrated by the building of several large chemical plants in Alberta the past year.

• • • •

Every Reason For Optimism

Wheat will undoubtedly always be an important product of the Prairie Provinces, but experience has shown that the people cannot expect to be continually prosperous while they depend almost entirely on agriculture for their livelihood. It would appear that the expanding oil industry there and the accompanying development of other industries is making a turning point in the economy of the West, and the beginning of a new and increasingly prosperous era. In Alberta, where the most extensive developments have taken place so far, industry is attracting workers and the population is increasing, creating in turn, wider markets for products of every kind, including those from the farms. As the oil industry extends its operations, these trends will continue and there is every reason for optimism in regard to the prospects of industrial expansion in the West.

Promotion Of Canadian Culture Hope Of New Governor

(By Harold Morrison)

OTTAWA —It. Hon. Vincent Massey is a slightly-built distinguished-looking man whose great genius is diplomacy and his great love is Canadian arts. Many times the Toronto-born art patron has expressed the hope that one day Canada may have a truly great culture, a national culture which would bring regional interests into greater harmony and understanding.

He has contributed many of his 64 years and a great deal of his wealth to help it achieve that goal. His great purpose in life is to serve Canada and to serve well.

His generous soul support have built the establishment and development of some of the best art and cultural centres in Canada.

Mr. Massey is the brother of Raymond Massey, a top-ranking stage and screen star in the United States, whose portrayals of the life of Abraham Lincoln have won him wide acclaim.

He likely will continue donating his time and effort on behalf of the arts in his new role as Canada's first native-born Governor General.

He headed the Massey Commission which studied the cultural needs of Canada and recommended ways in which the Federal Government could increase financial efforts to help fill cultural gaps.

Throughout that heavy two-year study he showed the value of his diplomatic talents. He displayed unusual tact, patience and warm-hearted understanding, listening to hundreds of persons give their particular ideas as to how Canada's intellectual and cultural development can be promoted.

He has a use of words which captures an attentive audience and a gift of discerning where clashes in opinion may turn into heated quarrels and to head them off with a diplomatic turn of a phrase.

With his talents, warm-heartedness and kind consideration of others, he has won many friends for Canada in other lands

Prairie Poultry Producers Urge Formation Of Marketing Board

SASKATOON, Sask.—Poultry producers of the three prairie provinces met with the Western Canada Produce association to ascertain if the produce trade would co-operate with a proposed inter-provincial or national poultry marketing board.

The meeting followed a conference between the Saskatchewan Poultry association's special committee on poultry marketing and representatives of Alberta and Manitoba agricultural groups.

Committee chairman J. H. Strain of Lawson, Sask., who is also president of the Saskatchewan Poultry association, said considerable ground work has been done in Saskatchewan towards formation of a producer's marketing board. Similar schemes had been discussed in other provinces, notably Manitoba and Alberta.

Mr. Strain said the ultimate objective is formation of a national marketing board under which provincial plans would be co-ordinated.

He said the producer's group would aim to bring stability to the poultry industry through orderly marketing. The plan involved giving the producer a minimum price for eggs at such a level to insure a continuous supply for domestic requirements.

The national board's function would be to dispose of surpluses in any province. Mr. Strain said that prices for domestic eggs would be maintained at almost a constant level and wide fluctuations which had plagued the industry in the past would be eliminated.

Karl Kapler and J. T. Monkhouse represented the Alberta and Manitoba federations of agriculture, respectively, at the meeting.

"My dear," said the fond mother, earnestly, "I can't think why you don't get on with your husband. He's all right in his way."

"Yes, I know, Mother," said her daughter. "But he's always in it."

Teacher: "If your mother gave you a large apple and a small apple and told you to divide with your brother, which would you give him?"

Johnnie: "Do you mean my little brother or my big brother?"

"What happened to your lodger, Mrs. Mangle?"

"Oh, I had to get rid of him. He told me he was a Bachelor of Arts from Cambridge, and I found out he he's a wife and family in Liverpool."

Father: "Now, Mr. Nimble! on the street yesterday and he refused to recognize me. He must have had his head in the clouds."

Finks: "Of course you are. Why he's nothing but a conceited—"

"You've been hearing about it fifty miles an hour, miss, and I'll have to report you. What's your name?"

"Prudence."

174,715 New Citizens Came To Canada In 11 Months

Manitoba Received 7,804, Saskatchewan 3,641, and Alberta 11,374

OTTAWA.—Canada admitted 174,715 new citizens in the first 11 months of 1951, more then in any year since 1913. The immigrants were drawn from countries in all parts of the world, but the biggest increase—3,31 per cent. was shown in the movement from northern Europe

The 1951 total compared with 66,801 immigrants for the corresponding 11-month period in 1950, an increase of 161 per cent.

From the United Kingdom came 29,929 compared with 13,576; the United States 7,230 compared with 7,823; northern Europe 60,182 compared with 15,122; other countries 73,903 compared with 27,102.

The record was set in 1913—the last year before the outbreak of the First World War—when new citizens totalled 400,000.

Former enemy countries and countries behind the iron curtain supplied many of the immigrants last year. From Germany came 37,844 compared with 4,800 in the corresponding 11 months of 1950. Italy sent 21,513 compared with 8,256. Only three came from Japan compared with nine the previous year.

A total of 2,452 Chinese was admitted compared with 1,536.

From iron-curtain countries were these totals: Hungary 1,047; Poland 1,041; Russia 1,000 (540); Rumania 835 (154); Poland 11,362 (6,137); Lithuania 1,112 (630); and Latvia 2,462 (1,667).

Ukrainians were the largest of the new citizens in 1951, taking 28,143. The numbers setting the pace for new persons in the 11-month period were:

Newfoundland 216; Nova Scotia 1,041; New Brunswick 1,047; Prince Edward Island 308; Quebec 20,962; Manitoba 7,804; Saskatchewan 3,641; Alberta 11,374; British Columbia 18,135; and Yukon and Northwest Territories 27.

New Policy Set Up For Pay Cheques

OTTAWA. — The defence department has decided to cut the pay of married servicemen into two parts and two cheques. Some husbands aren't too happy about it. The wife will get one cheque and the husband will get the other.

This new policy which starts March 1 for officers, April 1 for warrant officers and N.C.O.'s and May 1 for other ranks, has touched off a fair amount of grumbling among husbands.

Pay officials say it is necessary to safeguard wives and families because in some cases the husband would look after them properly.

The new arrangement breaks down into four categories depending on (a) whether the man lives in married quarters provided by the forces and has children (b) lives in married quarters and has no children (c) lives elsewhere and has children and (d) lives elsewhere and has no children.

Racing Syndicate Buy Horse From King's Stable

VANCOUVER—Bettened Down, a three-year-old filly from the racing stable of King George, has been bought by a Vancouver racing syndicate.

The same syndicate, headed by Jack Pallasso, Vancouver sportsman, also bought Scottish Song, a three-year-old colt.

Both are expected to race at Vancouver tracks this summer. They were bought at the Newmarket sales and will be shipped from England Jan. 28.

Freak Accident Strikes Alberta Farmer

RAYMOND, Alta.—A freak accident at the A. R. Hancock dairy here recently killed off nine cows of the 32 head Holstein herd. The animals were valued at $5,000.

The cows were electrocuted when the milking machines were turned on. Investigation showed that frost had worked into the conduit leading to the barn. The dead animals were fastened in steel stanchions. The others, in wooden stanchions, were not harmed.

The dairy, only one in Raymond, plans to ship milk in from Lethbridge until the herd can be built up again.

Increase Shown in Wheat Deliveries

OTTAWA. — More than twice as much wheat was delivered from prairie farms in the week ending Jan. 19 than in the same week last year, according to Dominion bureau of statistics figures.

In the week farm deliveries totalled 8,472,200 bushels, compared to 3,978,629 bushels, this time last year.

Visible supplies of Canadian wheat in store or in transit North America on Jan. 19 rose to 227,861,149 bushels from 224,900,289 a year ago.

Venezuela is made up of 20 states, two territories, a federal district and a number of islands.

"GREEN ACRES"

Manure as Soil Builder

The government has informed me that an order in council dated Feb. 1st has approved the setting up of a pure bred sire area in Vermilion River Municipality. This means that a discount of 15% is allowed to farmers living in this municipality on the cost of bulls bought under the Live Stock Improvement policy.

Growing Asparagus

This lovely exotic flower can be grown easily in the home. Bulbs should be bought and planted in January or February. Anyone interested in learning how to grow Amaryllis can get a circular from my office.

Manure is Important

Humus can be added to soil in the form of straw, stubble, manure etc. It really is decaying plant and animal products. Soils rich in humus can absorb and retain more moisture. Bigger crops are grown on land that has lots of humus. So why not manure the fields and work in all the stubble and combine straw possible? Furthermore it is a big mistake to burn stubble at any time.

Blankets For Horse

Now they are selling plastic blankets for hens to stop feather picking and cannibalism. Anyone who has suffered losses from this pernicious habit will be almost ready to try anything.

Sheep Excited

Mastitis is another name for garget or inflamation of the udder in cattle. It is expected that the loss from this disease is greater than Bang's and TB put together. It spreads from one cow to another in the herd. It can be cured by the use of penecillin and sulfa drugs but treat can only be effective when treating is done in the early stages. It is best to see your veterinarian as soon as any inflammation of the udder is noticed. Get a circular on mastitis from my office.

Grain Shipments

When Mr. Acheson spoke at the public meeting in Vermilion last week, he pointed out that quite a lot of damp grain now in granaries on the farm would have to be sent and spoil if not dried out before warm weather arrives. I have plans for the distribution on loan basis of a grain dryer on your farm. Also I have information on community and commercial dryers.

Forage Seed, Chicks and Bees

All these things should be ordered now as supplies always run out. There is a big run on baby chicks and pullets this year. I have cata logs from hatcheries at my office Price lists for grass seed are just out so orders ought to be placed soon. Prices are lower this year. Most elevator agents can take seed orders for you. Orders for pack age bees can be placed at my office.

Patricia McGinnis Married in Edmonton

Knox United church was the setting for a lovely wedding on May day recently when Miss Patricia McGinnis, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey C. McGinnis of Clover Bar was united in marriage with Mr. Christopher Harrison of Lloydminster, Sask., son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Harrison of Mossbank. The Rev. Ronald Rogers performed the ceremony.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a gown of French lace over satin with a beaded Peter Pan collar and lily-point sleeves. Her finger-tip veil, edged with lace, was caught to a cluster of pearls. She carried a cascade of colonial roses. She wore a triple-strand necklace a gift of the groom as her only jewelery.

Her attendants were her sisters, Mrs. W. Lodge, matron of honor and Miss Marion McGinnis, bridesmaid.

They were gowns of mauve and yellow with matching headdresses. Their gowns were styled identically of brocaded satin, bodices and matching jackets over full-length skirts of net over taffeta. They carried bouquets of roses and yellow carnations.

Mr. Fred Palmerlruk, brother-in-law of the groom, was best man and ushering the guests were Mr. Wilfred Lodge and Mr. Ronald McGinnis.

The wedding music was played by Mrs. R. Sims.

Later a reception for about 33 guests was held at the Cathayan.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. McGinnis wore a dress of steel gray and black velvet. Her corsage was of red roses.

Mrs. Fred Palmerchuk, sister of the groom, wore a dress of metallic red. Her corsage was of bronze chrysanthemums.

A triple-tiered wedding cake centred the bride's table. It was flanked by slender plait tapers and bouquets of mauve and yellow chrysanthemums.

Mr. Fred Palmerchuk proposed a toast to the bride.

For going away the bride wore a deep rose dress with gray accessories.

The newlyweds will make their home at Lloydminster.

Deer Lake Doings

Mr and Mrs. Proud are back from their trip to Victoria. They enjoyed their stay there very much. Mrs. Proud says there were carnations in bloom in some gardens when they left. They spent a couple of days with Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dervil in Vancouver, also visited Mrs. Mauleit and son Bill in Victoria.

Mr. and Mrs. Proud and Bob were supper visitors at the Fluney home on Sunday.

Mrs. Fluney brought home a nice prize from the bonspiel. She was on the rink that just lost out in the finals of the Grand Challenge. Better luck next time, Mae.

The Dewberry girls are spoonsoring a Valentine dance and pie social in the Dewberry hall on Feb. 13th. Come on all you fellas and gals bring your pals and have a good time. Good music and lots of fun.

George Fluney was a member of the Vermilion rink who had the honor of taking the Dewberry Grand Challenge cup in the recent bonspiel.

Ethelwyn News

(Intended for last issue, Jan. 31.)

The long spell of cold weather has broken at last. Jan. 29th saw above zero readings for the first time practically all month.

Despite the cold weather eight ladies attended the W. A. meeting at Mrs. R. Feenstra's on Jan. 10th. Three new members joined making 12 members and there is room for anyone else who wishes to join the group. The place of next meeting has not yet been decided.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Mr. Reg Spencer and son on the loss of a loving wife and mother, also to the bereaved brothers and sisters.

Congratulations to Elk Point, Irmaville and Elk Island schools for winning prizes in the Tri Provincial essay contest.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hetherington are spending the winter in Vancouver. They report that it is just like home as there are so many Landonville people out there now.

The writer regrets that she was unable to attend the show in Clandonald. Madam Currie from all reports it was one of the best ever shown there. The standard of pictures at Clandonald is very high indeed.

What is being done about this serious outbreak of pig stealing in our locality?

Issue of Feb. 7th—

The young people of our own and surrounding districts have supplied some news this week. They all gathered at Rye school last Wednesday to form a social club. 17 members joined, quite a record for the first meeting. An open invitation is extended to other young people who would like a little fun and entertainment during the winter months. The officers elected were: President Kavin O'Rourke; Vice President — Tom O'Rourke; Secretary—Dennis McCormack. Entertainment Elsie Podhaniuk Bert Shaw, Eileen McCormack, Ernest Strang. Meetings will be held every two weeks on Wednesday evenings at 8:00 p.m. Next meeting is Feb. 17th. The first social planned is a dance Feb 8th in the old Rye school. The young people are not thinking only of their own pleasure but have plans for the entertainment of everyone, young and old alike for the coming weeks. Where else they find a better place to have fun than in their own home school where they can entertain their friends from outside and then be entertained in turn by them?

How can we build a democratic world if we don't practice democracy in our own home district? So let us all resolve to give the young people all the help and encouragement possible in this new enterprise. They are the leaders of tomorrow.

The writer feels that there is a misunderstanding regarding the use of the new school. We were told that the divisional board had barred dances in the new school and why can blame them when so often the school property is damaged to more than only one person? We who live in the district should take more pride than anyone in keeping our school in the lovely condition it is now in. We are sure however that the divisional board in Vermilion did not intend to bar meetings either for business or pleasure in the new school.

We understand that the district old P.T.A. is considering holding a meeting in the Rye district. Are we as hosts going to offer them the old draughty school for this meeting?

The social portion of the young people's meeting Wednesday consisted of cards and games, after everything was cleaned up and left in good order for school the next day.

Everyone seems to be taking advantage of the nice weather and good roads. Mrs. Nora Rosaghan motored to Viking on Wednesday returning the same day, Allan is teaching again. Thanks for the nice letter Allan, we are glad that you are a very handy Daddy when it comes to using the baby pins.

It was nice seeing and chatting with the Allandale scribe at the Gay 90's in Vermilion on Thursday night last.

The Van den Dolders, Lloyd and Betty were seen in Islay on Thursday. They visited at Albert's and Ida's where coffee was served.

Mr. Gillies came home on Saturday from the hospital feeling much better. On Sunday Christie and Annie were dinner guests at Lila's. During the afternoon Lloyd and Betty Gould arrived. It is hoped to hear that Bill Waterfield is improving in health.

Mr. L. Bowser had a tooth extracted a few days ago— how many are left now, Lee?

Yours truly and husband were supper guests at Chrissie's on Sunday night Gordon and Doreen motored to Vermilion and had dinner with the Rosaghans. Then played a game of curling. Fred Gould also played but both lost their games — at least that's the way we heard it.

Sorry to hear that Mrs. Burt is ill and hope that she is much better by the time this goes to print.

Cheer up, we will soon be smelling the fragrant rose and many a lovely flower that grows.

Don't forget the service on Sunday Feb. 10th.

Chas. Y. Young writes from his new location at Penticton, B.C. and says: "Left Vermilion last week plus 21st when the temperature was 20 below and a blizzard blowing. Arrived in Penticton on Thursday Jan. 24th to find a balmy 35 above. But they do have piles of snow this year." Just you wait Charlie, while we are having days and days of bright Alberta sunshine here you will be having days and days of damp, wet weather there! Charlie's address is c/o Barwell Orchards, Box 180, Penticton, B.C.

Mrs. I. Winters drops a line from 340 Paradise Street, Victoria, B.C. where she makes her home with her son Hubert and family. They are enjoying grand weather, warm and sunny. They did have five inches of snow but it was all gone the second day after falling. The first of the spring flowers, 'Snowdrops' are now out but there will soon be lots as many are now in bud. Mrs. Winters finds by extending best wishes to her many Vermilion and district friends for happiness and prosperity in 1952.

Mr. and Mrs. G. F. Stonehouse have now moved at Route 2, Box 458, Hopi House, Mesa, Arizona where they will spend the next three months in an effort to improve the health of the former. Stoney said that they had rather a nerve-racking trip by car as they ran into a lot of snow and the roads through the mountains were very icy. The trip was 2200 miles. The first day at their new location saw it rain all day but the temperature was up around 50. Several days were required to find a place to stay but they are now settled right out on the desert where Stoney should benefit by the warm, dry air.

Edmonton Pats-Tigers Game Attracts Record Crowd of the Season

SCINTILLATING DISPLAY OF HOW THE GAME SHOULD BE PLAYED

The Edmonton Pats and Tigers set-to at the arena last Saturday night made the season's record as far as crowds were concerned, and everyone went home well satisfied with the scintillating display of just how hockey can be played. The game was a crowd-pleaser, the Edmontonians featured two members of the former Allan cup winners, famous "receding hair line", in the persons of Pringle and Scottie Neil Colville, one of the all-time greats of the National league, Goldie Watt, Dutchy Van Dorlan, all names to conjure with.

It was while inside the Tigers' defence zone that the visitors spread your eyes, their checker board passing, attack was something to marvel at, they never passed aimlessly, every move they made was a timely one. Another noticeable difference in the game they played was that little effort was spent fighting for the puck up against the boards and in the corners. They preferred to make their move as the puck was brought out. The Pats won by a 9-3 score.

The crowd thrilled at seeing Neil Colville in action and while he did not do a great deal of shining he showed a flash of his old time ability and famous double shift when he grabbed the puck at the blue line split our defence to sift in and score unassisted. One could imagine him doing the same thing a countless number of times at Madison Square Gardens, New York.

It was Pringle from Smitten for the opening counter, and Black from Hallen for the second. The first period ended 2-0 against the Tigers.

Early in the second LaPlante and Keeler combined with Roger scoring, but the Pats added three more, Colville, Watt, and Black from Cutts and Van Dorlan, to put the Tigers on the short end of a 5-1 count at the end of the second.

Early in the third Nestor Charney, our Myrnam product, scored a great goal, on a break-away. He went in on Delaney like a master and outplessed that wily custodian to score the Tigers' only counter. Assists from Cutts, Pringle from Maher, Hyland from Black rattled in goals for the Pats before Franklin Ewing counted on a quick slap shot on Buddy Gibbs' pass. Penalties shot the scoring just before the game ended. Final count 9-3.

The Tigers hockey club are to be commended for arranging this attraction. It provided the hockey minded with a chance to see many players, of whom they had often heard, in action, also to see a good display of hockey.

Russell Carroll and Stan Walden serger refereed.

PATS — Delaney, Cutts, Watt, Morris, Ryan, Maher, Pringle Smitten, Colvin, Van Dorlan, Hallen, Campbell, Hodgson, Black, Forest.

TIGERS—Lamson, Ewing, Wilson, Tuller, Bennett, Perry, Hyland, LaPlante, Hoskins, Barr, Rowe, O'Connor, Mann, B. Ewing, F. Ewing.

Vermilion Girls Are Honoured At Farewell Party

On Saturday, Jan. 26th, Kathleen Caron and May Schmidt were honored at a farewell party held in the staff apartments of the Bank of Commerce. About thirty guests had a very enjoyable evening which was highlighted by a delicious lunch served by the girls. The honored guests were both presented with a piece of luggage.

Kathleen left on Feb. 4th to take up a nurse's course at the R yal Alex hospital in Edmonton and May has been transferred to Grande Prairie with the Bank of Commerce. Both girls were wished the best of luck and success in taking over their new positions.

Noel and Roy Garnett Spending Winter In Far North

BUSINESS AS FOREST INSPECTORS

Two well known Vermilion boys, Noel and Roy Garnett, are spending the winter in the far north as Fish Inspectors on Great Slave Lake for the Dominion Government Dept. of Fisheries. They left on May 29th and while Roy is at Yellowknife. These are their headquarters but the boys work out on Bombardier snowmobile patrols out from these centres. The quarters provided are very modern and meals are good, claims Noel. There are eight fish plants where the boys visit. The latest place with the three chief varieties being whitefish, trout and ciscoues. A trout weighing 65 pounds was caught and attracted a lot of attention. Noel went north the beginning of December and will return to Vermilion the end of March which is when the fishing season extends for the winter. Travel is by C.P.A. to Edmonton but there is an all-weather highway to Hay River and Grimshaw. A lot of 40 below weather has been experienced but there is not a foot of snow there yet. Noel writes that he is enjoying the experience very much but will be looking forward to the arrival of the Standard which comes every week and is much enjoyed.

Stagette Notes

The notes are as short as the meeting this week.

We are a little worried about Vivian this week—she kept wanting to adjourn the meeting to go out to the museum grounds and look for buggy wheels?

Despite the ladies' bonspiel there was a fine turn out for the April but but concise meeting of Stagettes. This is a busy time for the club, not only at meetings but from one end of the week to the other. We are happy to say that Bentley Drive has not only consented to let us have the college for our convention but has offered to organize a tour of points of interest for our visitors. We appreciate this very much. The staff of the W.A. are busy catering to the banquet, lunches and daily meals but they do a worrisome load from our shoulders.

Curling? Oh yes, curling. Hmm! We did splendid for ourselves at the banquet. But we certainly got it from Bufalo Coulee. They hoodooed us properly and then consoled us with speeches like 'We were really afraid of that Vour rink.' We didn't notice any knees knocking. It was fun though, a lot of fun, and we'll do it by popular request.

Checking — Saturday: Lena and Del McCormick; Thursday, 16th: Betty Giles and Ivy. 1st shift: Mildred and Betty Barr, 2nd shift: Saturday 19th: Verna and Vivian.

Directors:
Div. 1—Wm. Shopko

Vol. XLIII. No. 32. Vermilion, Alberta, Thursday, February 14th, 1952. $2.00 per Year

G. W. Sutherland Elected President

Major Accomplishments By Board of Trade During 1951

1951 can well be regarded as a banner year by the members of the Vermilion Board of Trade as it saw the successful culmination of three long time major projects. Projects which the Board has proposed for years as being in the best interests of the town and a wide district.

First of these was the fact that hard surface had reached Vermilion. This has been prospoted since just before the war, and revived immediately after the conflict ended. Hard surface from here to Edmonton will be completed this summer.

Secondly, establishment of the Kitscoty-Vermilion Health Unit, the nucleus of which was set up in Vermilion last fall, and which is expected to be in full operation in May this year.

Thirdly, the acceptance in principal of an artificial lake and provincial park in the Vermilion river valley.

These were the highlights given by D. R. Mitchell, retiring president at the annual meeting of the Board of Trade held Wednesday. The above by no means represented all of the activities. The Board was instrumental in having the present North-Eastern Alberta Livestock Sales Association formed, and the record cleaning plant, as well as the recent proposed of a grain drying plant. In fact no project was contained in the annual address that it is the Board's intention to re-produce portions in subsequent editions. It is very interesting and will prove extremely helpful reading to many. Mr. Mitchell very aptly characterized a Board of Trade as "A voluntary association of citizens to promote the commercial, industrial, agricultural and civic welfare of the community and of the district in which it lies".

Election of Officers

The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted in G. W. Sutherland, 1951 vice-president being promoted to the chair. In taking office Mr. Sutherland mentioned several projects which he felt should have the attention of the Board during the coming year. The complete roster of officials follows:

Shooting Insulators From Phone Poles

CAUSES GREAT INCONVENIENCE IN WOODVALE

[From Woodvale News]

The last time the telephone line was out of order it was found that someone had shot two insulators off the top poles. At that time there was sickness in several families and they were unable to reach the doctor by phone. Destroying other peoples' property is very poor sport at any time, but in cases like this the consequences could have been very serious. On behalf of all rural telephone users an appeal is made to the persons indulging in target shooting to refrain from doing damage to the telephone lines.

Propose Hard Surface Streets Business Section

Year of Progress Reported At Town's Annual Meeting

A year of progress which saw a substantial improvement in the financial position of the town, over forty blocks of asphalt sidewalk constructed and 26 blocks of gravel levelled, graded and gravelled and now in excellent shape for hard surfacing, was reported at the annual meeting of ratepayers held in the Elks hall on Monday night.

The meeting also heard Mayor S. C. Heckbert suggest that he felt Vermilion should now consider the hard surfacing of the streets in the business section.

J. W. G. Morrison was moved to the chair for the meeting and Ashley H. Cooper was appointed secretary. Forty-four ratepayers attended, all of whom exhibited keen interest in the welfare of the town.

Reports were given by Frank H. Walker, the town's representative on the Vermilion Municipal hospital board. He cited improvements made touched on finances, and suggested that the board could well investigate construction of a nurses' home in the near future, or the feasibility of the installation of an elevator in the hospital, an idea often proposed by residents of town and district.

Councillors reporting for various departments were K. G. Urquhart, Fire and allied departments. Mr. Urquhart included in his report recom- developotnan Hehned on:thatac cent developments due to civil defence organizations as bearing on fire fighting and fire brigades and equipment.

Councillor L. L. Kehoe reviewed the public works program noting that 40 blocks of asphalt sidewalk had been completed and 26 blocks of streets levelled and gravelled. He mentioned the desirability of hard surfacing the streets in the business section.

Speaking on Parks and Community services Dr. D. R. Mitchell indicated that the arena rink needed considerable attention and water and sewer facilities were a necessity there.

Boulevarding commenced last year will be continued.

Councillor H. J. Payne reported for the Public Welfare committee and Councillor Allen for the Water and Sewer Utilities.

Mayor Heckbert's report contained the financial affairs of the town, and generally summarized matters. The town's revenue for 1951 reached the somewhat large figure of $152,691.67, with expenditures totalling $130,890.34, leaving a small surplus of $1,823.33. Largest single expenditure during the year was the school requisition which amounted to $56,639.11. The Mayor was disappointed that the council had been unable to retire bank loan of $12,000 carried over from 1950. The town has in reserve and sinking fund accounts the amount of $44,005.78.

Mayor Heckbert reviewed developments within the town during the past year, mentioning the new library gift of Mr. Geo. W. Whitnell, new armories, provincial park, the health unit, civil defence organization and numerous other signs of progress.

In speaking of hard surfacing the business streets His Worship had this to say. "Some thought has been given to the provision of permanent streets, especially in the business section. It is my personal opinion that Vermilion will not attain her rightful place as a progressive community unless and until the dust nuisance is materially abated and provision made for the hard surfacing of our streets. This matter will doubtless receive careful consideration from the coming year and I would hope that all citizens join with enthusiasm in any progressive plan looking towards the eventual paving of our main arteries. Should such a plan develop it is entirely probable that the business properties of the town would be invited to cooperate financially and I am confident that our progressive business men would react favorably to an well defined plan of progress."

The Mayor closed his address by saying, "The business of the Town of Vermilion is important. It is your business and those of us who choose to accept responsibility in connection therewith will at all times welcome your comments, your co-operation and your assistance, so that, working together we can make Vermilion one of the most attractive towns in Western Canada."

Bob Carmichael Appointed Bandmaster

OPENINGS FOR FEW MORE MEMBERS

At a recent meeting of the executive in charge of the Vermilion Boys' band Mr. R. L. Carmichael was appointed bandmaster and will take charge of the band for the balance of the present term. This action was taken as a result of the discontinuance of the former bandmaster Mr. Wally Pocock of Dewberry who has found it impossible to travel to Vermilion to take the band rehearsals regularly for band practises and engagements.

Fourteen bandsmen are now attending band meetings. There are openings for several more boys who might be interested in playing with the band.

Reports regarding attendance and progress of each bandsman have been issued to the parents

Annual Bonspiel Starts Tuesday

DELAY OF ONE DAY DUE TO HOCKEY PLAY-OFF

Vermilion's annual bonspiel which has during the past three years grown to be one of the most largely attended events in Alberta, will start on a full scale at both curling and arena rinks on Tuesday Feb. 19th, however the play-off at the curling rink on Monday. The delay of one day in using the arena is due to the fact that a hockey play-off game must be played on Saturday night Feb. 16th, and the ice prepared for curling after that.

Five competitions will be played and the new short draw will be used. Finals of at least two and maybe three of the competitions will be played Thursday night.

Tuesday evening will see the annual banquet at which over 300 curlers gathered last year.

Seventy-five rinks competed in the 1951 bonspiel, these 60 were viewing quarters representing 22 clubs and 26 were local rinks.

Vermilion Midgets Enter Provincial Play-Offs

This is an attempt to acquaint the people of Vermilion with their future hockey players. This midget hockey team will soon be battling it out with Vegreville for the right to meet Camrose in the provincial play-offs.

Ken Brown — Goal, 16 years old, 130 lbs. Ken, an all-round athlete, has turned in some very creditable performances this year. A combination of natural ability, hard work and keen interest makes Ken one of the best midget goalies in the province.

Marvin Little—Defence, 15 years old, 145 lbs. Marvin, another of the school boy athletes, is developing into a dandy defenceman. For sheer spunk and fight, they don't come any better than Marvin.

Stewart Barr—Defence, 14 years old, 113 lbs. The boys say that when Stew hits them they stay hit. He is one of the team's youngest members but his work on defence has been outstanding. Baseball and track are Stewart's other sport interests.

Edith Mistal Defence, 15 years old, 140 lbs. Edith's defensive game is improving steadily. He packs lots of speed and good getting ability. Eddie and Ernie Braithwaite are quickly becoming a stone-wall defence.

Ernie Braithwaite — Defence, 15 years old 130 lbs. Ernie hails from Dalsberry, and we consider him a great addition to our team. Ernie bears nothing on earth and has shown himself to be a brainy check-ing, smart young defenceman.

Stewart Cooper Centre, 14 years old, 110 lbs. Here is a boy who has made tremendous strides. Stewart is playing a great game at centre and has developed a fast, accurate shot which will make him a constant scoring threat. 'Coop' looks like a coming basketball and track star as well.

John Stewart — Right Wing, 16 years old, 160 lbs. John doesn't take a back seat to any midget. His weight, power and speed make John a real threat to the opposing team. John does a great job on right wing and the line with center and Acheson.

Jack Barr—Right Wing, 16 years old, 140 lbs. 'Big Jack', our rangy right winger, has made such rapid strides in skating, shooting and checking that he will bear plenty of watching by the opposition. Soft hands but hard shot and Jack's summer sports.

Bob Bentley—Left Wing, 15 years old, 130 lbs. Bob, who has shot up about a foot in the last year, has the makings of a real playmaker. It looks like Bob will be scheming-up plays from a centre-ice position next year.

Doug Brower — Centre, 13 years old, 120 lbs. Doug is our youngest member but is one of our most effective. Doug centres Bentley and Kossovich. Stickhandling and skating are things that come natural for this young Gr. 7 student.

Danny Kossovich — Right Wing, 15 years old, 125 lbs. Danny came to Vermilion from Cadomin last year. Here is another natural stickhandler and skater. Danny's big job throughout the day is to organize some of 'shinny' for after school.

Murray Lewrie—Centre, 14 years old, 130 lbs. Murray comes from Marwayne and like a great many others from the outdoor rink towns, he is fast, shifty and a great stickhandler. Murray plays centre for Jack Barr and Jimmy Winters.

Jimmy Winters—Left Wing, 14 years old, 125 lbs. Jimmy's home is at Clayamore. He is a real scoring threat and a bustling bear-cat checker. The left wing position is filled very efficiently, and the team find Jim to be a great asset.

There you have a brief review of your Midget Hockey club. If you like, the above review can be considered a trick to stimulate some interest in the Midgets. The boys have the spirit, the drive and the ability. Your support would certainly be appreciated.

Hockey Play-Offs This Saturday

TIGERS VS. COMMANDOS — DUMBELL AND REPEAT

By virtue of their 5-4 victory at Vegreville on Wednesday the Vermilion Tigers finished the regular Eastern Alberta League schedule in second place and will thus meet the fourth place Wainwright Commandos in a best two of three semi-final series. The first place Lloydminster Huskies play the third place Vegreville Rangers in a similar series. The two winners play in the finals for the Craig cup.

The first of the Vermilion-Wainwright series will be played here on Saturday commencing at 8:30. These two teams have dished up clean sparkling hockey whenever they have met and the game will be a top-notch hockey attraction.

Admission prices for the play-offs are adults 75c, students 50c, children 25c.

Nomination Day Monday, Feb. 18th

IT IS UP TO IT NOON AT THE TOWN HALL

Candidates will be nominated on Monday, Feb. 18th for two positions on the town council, and the Vermilion representative on the Vermilion Municipal hospital board. Nominations will be received by Returning Officer H. H. Hodgins from 11:00 a.m. to 12:00 o'clock noon on the above day.

Of the two retiring councillors George Webb definitely will not stand for re-election Mr. Webb has not been enjoying his customary good health lately and deserves a rest from this executive body. The second councillor L. L. Kehoe is not any too enthusiastic about a third term but might be induced to run again. He is very interested in the hard surfacing of our business streets.

Mr. Frank H. Walker is the town's representative on the hospital board, having served since last March.

PEE-WEES ARE ACTIVE AS EVER

The Kitscoty Pee-Wees defeated Vermilion's Canadian Pee-Wee team in a return hockey game. The first game played here ended in a score... tie. The outstanding player on the ice on that occasion was Norman Bancroft, visitors' goalie, who turned back Vermilion power plays in sensational fashion. It was a hard-hitting game all the way with Kitscoty players earning two penalties and Vermilion players managing to stay on the ice.

Following the game Coach Jim Smith and a co-ype of Kitscoty old timers treated both teams to sarsaparilles, pie a la mode and drinks — thanks boys. They want us back.

Arrangements have been made to have Vermilion Red Wings, present Pee-Wee league leaders play at Kitscoty.

Red Wings are on top of the Pee-Wee league having won all of their games to date.

Manorville also wants a game with a Pee-Wee team.

Wheat Club Aids Pee-Wee Clubs

A Wheat Club to aid Pee-Wee hockey has been in effect for the past week or so. The rules are — simply that: bring in a bushel of wheat to Bill Chase's ag his studio or to the Searle Grain Co., get a receipt for it as you have a chance to win $10. Should your wheat be graded best of the lot an additional $5 may be yours. Total net proceeds go to provide lunches and overnights for the Pee-Wee hockey clubs. When outsid.. teams play here it is nice to have hot dogs, soft drinks and ice cream on hand to reward their efforts.

Admission charges to these Pee-Wee games are 00.00, total receipts are therefore 00.00.

If you have no wheat and wish to help a little you may purchase a bushel from Stan Wasdenberger, Bill Chase or Bernie Ackerman, charge $1.25. Read the Standard for results. Bring in your bushel of wheat and be happy in the thought that you are helping bring a Pee-Wee Junior hockey team. We promote good sportsmanship.

"GREEN ACRES"

Hatchery Eggs

Hatcheries have a lot of trouble in finding enough eggs to take care of their orders for baby chicks and poults. Five years ago there were only two farmers in my district with approved flocks for supplying eggs to hatcheries, now there are twelve. It seems to be a paying business. Anyone with good chickens or turkeys can qualify. If you are interested please see me or write in for particulars.

Two Lambs Instead of One

Another wonder drug it is announced. This time it is a hormone called ELP which inspires ewes to lamb twice a year. Sheep stray with dry periods in cows and cure sterility in pigs. It will be on sale this spring or summer.

Heat for Baby Pigs

Many newly born pigs die because of being chilled during the first 3 or 4 days after birth. The use of 230 watt infra-red lamps will supply enough heat but often the young pigs do not seek out the warm places. It is necessary to set the lamps so that the heat is directed where the young pigs can be warmed.

Seed Fair Entries

Anyone wishing to display their seed at the Vermilion Seed Fair should get entries in to Mr. S. C. Dreidiert, secretary of the Vermilion Agricultural society by Saturday. Farmers living in Vermilion River and Minburn M.D.'s or living within 30 miles of Vermilion are invited to exhibit.

No More Roosting Here

Now the experts say that it is a waste of good lumber to build roosts in a hen house. The means the dropping boards either. Deep litter is used and the hen house is cleaned out once a year. I guess we have been wasting our time all these years.

Sixteen Years Ago Today

Feb. 12, 1936

Extreme cold continued and the thermometer hasn't come anywhere near the zero mark any time during the past week. Warmest in the daytime has been 12 below with the low point at night 41 below.

The new Brookville rural school which was opened on Jan. 18, 1935, by Mr. Lamb as Imperial Oil agent here.

Just a year ago, was completely destroyed by fire. No one noticed the fire which took place at night and the loss wasn't discovered until the teacher, Mr. A. C. Majury and the students found only the chimney standing amidst the smoldering embers.

The new Baldwinberger succeeded J. W. Waldenberger as Imperial Oil agent here.

Thirty-two Years Ago Today

Feb. 11, 1920

The Islay Municipal hospital was opened for the receiving of patients on Monday Feb. 9th.

The cold seems to have broken, the mercury rising to a high of 32 above. Lowest for the week was 20 below, but all daytime temperatures have been well above zero.

Board of Trade issued some 800 folders advertising the town.

The Vermilion Municipal hospital will open Feb. 18th.

Members of the council of the Vermilion Valley M.D. were Norman McInnes, Norman McClellan, D. B. Brown, J. G. Meggs, Jr., Arthur Lord, J. W. Graham. Grizzly Bear M.D. councillors were A. W. Elliott, F. B. Hill, A. H. Green, H. Hodgins, P. Stobbie and A. Dixon.

Constituency News of The Alberta Women's Institutes

Wildmere

Our members will regret the passing of Mrs. H. J. Montgomerie of Wetaskiwin on Jan. 21st. Mrs. Montgomerie served the A.W.I. well, as district director, provincial president from 1929-33, provincial treasurer for eight years. Last May one of the first life memberships in the A.W.I. was bestowed upon her.

The bi-annual conference of District No. 2 will be held in the Masonic Temple, Edmonton, March 25th and 26th. All members who can do so, should attend, to keep up to date on what our organization is doing.

The January meetings were as follows:

Creighton

Creighton met at the home of Mrs. R. R. Hanning with nine present. A motion to pay provincial and constituency dues was made. Programs were made out for 1952.

Five Point

Five Point met at the home of Mrs. R. Gordon with eight present. Roll call was a New Year's wish for the branch, such as trying to get new members, to start on time and never to refuse an office or task for the W.I. Each member was allotted an article from the handicraft list, to be completed for the July conference. Mrs. E. Summers is the delegate to the Manyville Rest Room Board meeting. Mrs. Majeau, a past W.I. member now resident in Edmonton, attended the meeting. Mrs. R. Calder read a paper on Canadian Industries and Agriculture at Home.

Kitscoty

Kitscoty met at the home of Mrs. C. K. Miller with ten present. A community baby layette to be sent to Mrs. A. B. McGorman for shipment. The annual meeting was held and the following officers elected: President— Mrs. C. K. Miller. Vice-Pres.—Mrs. S. O'Connor. Secretary—Mrs. J. Batty. Treas.—Mrs. R. S. Pidcock.

Ramsay

Ramsay met at the home of Mrs. P. Sloan with ten present. Roll call: If I was not myself, who would I want to be'. The home baking sale was a great success financially, and the Xmas cats hamper was won by Mr. R. Melenchuk. Mrs. T. Sloan gave a vivid description of her trip to the British Isles last year. She travelled by air. Mrs. Andrew Crawford is a new member.

Ballater

Ballater met at the home of Mrs. T. Smith with six members present. Donations were made to the Girls' Club and Bread for Greece funds. A patchwork quilt top to be made for next month.

Paradise Valley

We regret to hear that Elmer Clay is a patient in the Lloydminster hospital. His many friends hope that his stay in hospital will not be long and that he will soon be well again.

Curling is the order of the day. Last week end the school hospiel was held at Lone Rock with rinks from Paradise Valley carrying off the four prizes up for competition. D. Adams took first in the Grand Challenge and J. Adams second. In the secondary M. Henry won first and K. Adams second. At the ladies' bonspiel held at McLaughlin Purdue Valley did not do so well. Mrs. Baxter won second in the Consolation and Mrs. Freestone third in the same event. Mrs. E. Henry took third in the Grand Challenge. In the bonspiel at Riverbourne, at our twining the P.V. rinks have been pretty well eliminated to the Consolation. So it is the young rinks that upheld the honor of P.V. Congratulations students.

On Sunday the Kitscoty Pee-Wees came down and gave the local Pee-Wees another lesson on how to play hockey. The score was very much in favor of Kitscoty.

The annual school meeting of the Paradise Valley S.D. will be held in the school auditorium on Feb. 18th at 2:30 o'clock. It is important that you be there

News Notes From Your District Home Economist

Time To Know

That your woolens should be washed in lukewarm water and mild suds after they've had the loose dirt shaken from them, and that if you rub or twist them while you're washing them they mat and you can never do anything about it, don't you?

Do you know that pressing socks or sweaters after they are thoroughly dry helps to preserve their original shape. This is called blocking. It's especially effective for sweaters and blouses which shrink because of loose construction. Place your garment wrong side out on a well-padded board, straightening the area to be pressed. Cover with a damp cloth and apply a moderately hot iron. Don't move the iron back and forth, but press by setting the iron down and lifting it up. Never press wool completely dry or it will shine.

When dry, angoras and brushed wool should be shaken or brushed up with a slightly dampened sponge or clean brush to restore the fluff. (I tried using a dry sponge on my angora mitts and it works perfectly)

It is well to remember that when knitwear is put away, it should be laid flat in a drawer or folded carefully, lengthwise or crosswise in two folds.

The Answer

The answer to last week's question is 'Send an S.O.S. to your District Home Economist' and a few of your troubles will be over. The idea is that you write for phone if you're desperate) to me so I'll come out and show you just how to finish those drapes, or cut up a pair of your husband's pants for your daughter's coat. You may also write or come in for any of the free pamphlets that the Dept. of Agriculture prints for you.

Almost any difficult task can be made to seem trivial by imagining what it would be like to perform it while carrying a baby in your arms.

This Week's Question

How do you get the film of egg white over the yolks of fried eggs cooked so it's white and appetizing?

Woodvale News

There has been a lot of sickness around in January. Maybe the springlike weather, especially the warm sunshine, will prevent further serious outbreaks. The Ahlgren family were quarantined for scarlet fever. Robert Galloway spent a week in the Vermilion hospital with a strained back. George Mackell was taken to the Islay hospital with a high fever, a special hardship for this summer resident. Mrs. Mary McGrath and Mrs. Isabel Lamport take turns in the afternoon to see if they can help Mr Machiel in the household now he is taking care of his wife alone. The Odenburg children had whooping cough. We sincerely hope everyone will be better soon.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Davis (nee Myrtle Crocker) whose marriage took place in January. Before moving to Vermilion with her parents Myrtle lived in the Bluecliffe district.

Mable Watson who has been home since her graduation as a nurses-aide, has been called back to the new Aberhart Sen in Edmonton.

Mrs. F. Kortmeier went to Edmonton to visit her daughter Mrs. Don Cooper and family who are spending the winter there. Don is trucking in the city.

Mrs. J. Lysons is looking after her grandchildren while Mr. and Mrs. Harry Sweeney and Bobbie are away in Edmonton. Sammy Lysons has been working for Harry since his return from Winfield. Brooks Lysons went to Edmonton on some business over the week end and Maisie Lysons returned to Banff after a frantic telephone call that the School of Fine Arts, catering to skiers in the winter, was without adequate help.

Mrs. T. Preston and her two grandsons have been staying with her daughter Mrs. Eileen Young in Vermilion for a week, then afterwards a week at the farm here this winter.

Roger and Mrs. Watt have been attending civil defense meetings in Vermilion. They found them very interesting and informative, not only for possible war times but also for peace-time emergencies. Roger has hopes that a meeting in one of the schoolhouses here might be arranged in the near future and slides or movies will be shown also.

The Ganton-Watson Red Cross auxiliary held their February meeting at the home of Mrs. J. Lysons and Mrs. R. Lysons with eight members stitching away on a large quilt. We were glad that our visitor, Mrs. Steele, helped us too and we even had one of the men folks making some fans. When the quilt finally was finished everyone enjoyed the lunch with the delicious cakes baked in the new cook stove.

The next meeting of the auxiliary will be at the home of Mrs. Art Lysons on March 5th.

The death of King George VI and the many sincere tributes given him made us rather thoughtful. In what a wonderful world would we live, if more of us would shoulder our worldly tasks with his sincerity and sense of duty!

Following the wedding a reception was held at the home of the bride for sixty-five guests. The bride's table was presided with a lovely three-tier wedding cake, with candles on either side set under an arch nicely decorated with pink and white streamers and wedding bells. Mr. Brown proposed the toast to the bride and the groom responded.

For the bride daughter's wedding Mrs. Schneider chose a gray gabardine dress and pink accessories. The groom's mother was unable to attend the wedding due to illness.

The happy young couple left for Calgary for their honeymoon by car, the bride changing to a blue gabardine suit and pink accessories for travelling. She wore a corsage of roses.

An Eye to the Future

Long term planning helps you to raise more than the average for your area. This planning for the future should especially be applied to the five basic factors of farming.

Land, Livestock, Labour, Capital and Skill to Farm or Farm Business. Every farm is different and has its individual problems. So it's up to you to make each factor work hard for you.

Many farmers have found it helpful to talk with their Commerce manager. He represents a bank that has for many years taken a keen interest in promoting better farming and in looking after Canadian farmers' banking needs. Why not pay him a visit?

Proving It's No Longer A Man's World

Pictured at the wheel of one of the huge machines for which she is "salesman", Mrs. F. M. Vair, (left), has proved that a woman can handle what is usually considered strictly a man's job. Hired by a Calgary firm 12 years ago to maintain contacts with customers for heavy machinery while members of the regular sales crew were in the armed forces, Mrs. Vye proved herself so capable that her services were retained at the war's end. At right, Mrs. Vair sits after a practice jump, in Nanking Motor PO, Marion MacDonald, of Vancouver, one of the attendant staff of the three-years course. She has been appointed to the instructional staff at the new school. The first woman to be so honored, such an appointment, she will be the first woman through every phase of their practical training.

Canada Is Great Industrial Country

WINNIPEG. — The New York Times says that the rise of the Canadian dollar to full parity with the American dollar was not just another fluctuation on the foreign exchange market but an accomplishment "permitted by the facts. Economically, it represented a well-nigh-full recognition of the enormous productive gains made by our great northern neighbor," the Times says in an editorial. ". . . from an overwhelmingly agricultural country Canada has been transformed into one of the great industrial countries of the world . . ."

Market, Prices For Wheat To Be Good

OTTAWA.—A sharp reduction in world supplies of wheat will assure Canadian growers top prices and even a premium on exports for the next several months.

Federal grain experts said Canada may even have to ship some wheat to Argentina, a country normally considered one of the big four exporters. On the basis of present estimates, the Argentine will have no wheat to ship abroad this year.

This situation is going to be tight for the next several months, a bureau of statistics official said. "It's a good situation for the countries like Canada that have wheat to sell. Importers will have to pay the top international wheat agreement price and a premium for anything they grad ho buy over I.W.A. quotas."

The official was commenting on a B.A.B survey of the world wheat situation which said supplies on Jan. 1 in the four major exporting countries were only 1,021,000,000 bushels, 19 per cent. below the figure for Jan. 1, 1951.

Canada is the only country of the four which has more wheat on hand than it had a year ago. The United States and Australia show substantial reductions, and Argentina may have no wheat to export in place of the 96,000,000 bushels on hand at the start of last year.

Under the international wheat agreement, Canada has a guaranteed market for 232,000,000 bushels this year, and up to Jan. 22. more than half of the quota had been taken up by exporters. The 1951 crop was estimated at 566,000,000 bushels, up 26 per cent.—150,000,000 bushels—and still unharvested at the year-end because of snow-covered fields.

At the start of 1952, the U.S. supply was reported at 454,000,000 bushels compared with 539,000,000 bushels at the start of 1951. Australian supplies were 101,000,000 bushels at the start of 1952, compared with 180,000,000 bushels at the start of 1951, the bureau said. The Argentine supply was listed with an official "nil" for the first of 1952, compared with 100,000,000 bushels a year earlier.

To Seek Exemption From Taxes On Some Farm Equipment

WINNIPEG.—A petition seeking exemption of some farm equipment from taxes and duty will be forwarded to Ottawa by the Canadian Federation of Farm Equipment dealers.

Cecil Cunningham of Red Deer, Alta., president, announced the move at conclusion of the group's annual convention here. He said exemption will be sought on "certain farm equipment, accessories and attachments on which the Canadian farmer pays unnecessary taxes and duty."

He said the cost of doing business is out of all proportion to the volume of sales. A recent survey showed 75th dealers' net operating profits were less than 4.4 per cent.

Increased freight rates and rising costs of doing business would undoubtedly reduce profits below that figure

Greenlawn Grapevine

Work is still going on at the hall. We hear that a kitchen is being completed in the basement, as well as another room, to be used for small meetings, or other recreation.

The Community Hall dance was another successful affair. In view of the enthusiasm, the committee has decided that they will sponsor dances every two weeks, with the same orchestra led by Mr. Hanna of Islay.

Great excitement on the school busses these days as the school holds its bonspiel. Otherwise things are quiet now with bonspiels at Heinburg, Elk Point and Vermilion. Curlers are making the most of the cold spell it seems, with rinks entered in all spiels mentioned.

Mrs. Rae was a visitor in the district recently, staying with the Eby Walker's.

Here's an item for the ladies, especially those who collect recipe books. In the latest C.A.C. bulletin report is made upon a new booklet 'Canadian Fish Recipes' put out by the Dept. of Fisheries, Ottawa, for free. Thought you might like to know.

Coming Events—Greenlawn Goodwill club on Feb. 21st at Mrs. E. C. Walker's: Community dance Feb. 22nd: Night and Sadie Hankins' dance Feb. 29th sponsored by Goodwill club.

Another cute quote on Clubs: At meeting of clubs, by an effort of will,
I always contrive to keep perfectly still
For it takes but a word of annoyance or pity—
And wham — there I am, on another committee.
That's all folks.

REPORT to the PEOPLE

BY ROBERT FAIR, M.P.
BATTLE RIVER

As my last report was written just before the close of the second session of 1951, space did not permit my going into detail on many of the bills that had been dealt with, so I want to deal with one or two matters of interest at this time.

The Agricultural Products Board Act was passed by Parliament on Dec. 17th last and is now permanent legislation. It was first passed in 1944 on a temporary basis and expired last March as it was on a year-to-year basis. The main purpose of the Board is to act as a government purchasing agency to obtain supplies of any commodity grown on the farm when such commodity is purchased by the government or government agency of another country. The board may also be used on occasions when the Agricultural Prices Support board deems it necessary to enter the market and set up quantities of any product that the Board feels is selling below a reasonable level.

During the passage of the legislation we also discussed the Agricultural Prices Support Act as it works hand in hand with the Agricultural Products Board Act. The farmers have for many years advocated a parity price for agricultural products and while we now have the two pieces of legislation that can bring parity prices into effect, we have no such benefit. The fact of the matter is that the farmer or producer, as such, has no floor price for bacon, eggs, cheese or butter although most farmers are of the opinion that they have a guaranteed price for commodities named above. There is a guaranteed price of 32½ cents per pound for Wiltshire sides at present but this is only for the packer who delivers the goods there. A guaranteed price of 36 cents per dozen for grade A large eggs also exists for but this extends only, as far as the government is concerned, to the fellow who has the eggs in storage at the end of the egg year. Similarly, a floor price of 30 cents per pound for butter and a floor price for cheese are in existence but these are rejected by the people who purchase and store the commodities. The reason for is, in all cases, at the mercy of the buyers and distributors in the price of eggs and live hogs particularly during recent months will bear out my arguments.

In order to get away from this condition and place the support where it properly belongs, we tried to have a Bloor price formula written into the legislation. This is done in the U.S. and they have no difficulty there in arriving at the proper support price for the different commodities. As far as I know no attempt has been made in Canada to arrive at a basis for price support although the Canadian Federation of Agriculture has petitioned the government full co-operation in doing the job. The Hon. J. G. Gardiner, Minister of Agriculture, stated they do not like the word 'parity' but the Department has a system of its own which they believe will work satisfactorily. This is, in effect, a policy that will give the farmers the same price relationship between the products they sell and the things they buy as existed during the three last years on the war, namely, 1943, 44 and 45. Having got such a statement from the Minister I believe it would now be good business for the statisticians of the farm organizations to compare their parcels and get to work and figure out the price that existed during that three year term and have that agreement then (which need strengthening) see that the announced policy is made effective. I should hasten to point out here, before our farmers become too enthusiastic about a guaranteed policy, that while we are supposed to have the benefit of the policy as outlined by Mr. Gardiner, the Dominion Bureau of Statistics gave me the information that in 1950, while agricultural prices were 20.5 per cent of the total income of the population of Canada itself only the land, they received only 8.9% of the national income.

In the Jan. 11th issue of the 'Alberta Liget', published in Montreal, the following appear: D.B.B. (Dominion Bureau of Statistics) gives the following figures for the week ending Sept. 1st, 1951: The average factory employee worked 41.5 hours and his hourly rate of 126.6 cents, bringing his weekly earnings up to $52.55. A more recent report shows the weekly wage is now over $60 per week.

Just how does the income of the farmer compare with this? Even though he works many more hours and has many thousands of dollars invested in farms and equipment there is no comparison. While the above condition exists without any apparent attempt being made to remedy it, government policy provides the people of Canada with cheap flour, subsidized by the wheat growers of the prairie provinces to the extent of 35 cents per bushel at the present time. A similar loss is being taken on wheat sold under the International Wheat Agreement because the necessary safeguards were not incorporated in the agreement. Let us hope that when the agreement is renewed later this year it will provide for a fluctuating price, in other words, the price of wheat will be tied to the price of goods in the importing countries, thereby allowing for an increase or decrease in the price of wheat as the price of goods in the importing countries increases or decreases.

Sure you do!

And do you remember how you got the money for it? The dimes and quarters moved out of your allowance sweet enough. So you earned extra change doing chores. Slowly, so slowly, the total grew. Then, one great day, the bike was yours!

You learned then about the necessity for saving to get some of the things you want most. But has time dimmed your memory of the lessons you learned so long ago?

If so, remember — nothing has changed your needs for money in the future. Nor has any magic substitute been found for thrift.

Today, millions of Canadians are practising their good habit of thrift by keeping up their life insurance payments to protect their families, while saving for the future. They've discovered that, to reach their goals, they must put money aside regularly.

Are you following their example?

ETHELWYN NEWS

May God comfort the Royal Family in their hour of sorrow and give our young Queen hope and courage to face the future.

The United Church W.A. meeting held at Mrs. Goddard's was attended by ten members and three guests. Several articles of sewing were turned in. The greater part of meeting was spent in planning a box supper and bazaar to be held in the Orange hall, Clandonald on Feb. 26th. This will be the first public affair to be held in this group, so come one, come all and help make the evening a success. Supper starts at 5:00 p.m and will continue long enough for both the early and late curlers to enjoy a good hot supper. A parcel post booth will be one popular attraction. There will be many useful articles of clothing and household goods for sale. Watch for advertisement.

Miss McCormick and the pupils staged a housecleaning bee at Ryal school this week. Result — floor, woodwork and desks all spotless. This act of our teacher's should be widely appreciated, who, like many rural teachers undertakes many duties in the district not called for in their contracts. For some unknown reason, in the past Ryal school has only been scrubbed out once a year, the place in which our children spend 5 days each week, ten months of the year. Imagine our lasses cleaned up just once a year. Hats off to the teacher and pupils who help to keep their school clean.

ALLANDALE

(This bulletin was crowded out last week).

We're enjoying fine weather after the very long cold spell. The road around the block is closed for cars so our mail man has discontinued that route. Lately he has been leaving the mail at Johnny Nelson's. Our road to the school is open.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Norman (nee Myrtle Armstrong) on the birth of a daughter Sharon Annette, Jan. 23rd in the Lloydminster hospital.

Mr Sanford DeFord was visiting around here last fall and left for the State of Montana where his wife relatives. Just lately he has returned and is visiting with his son Dewey and family and brother Frank.

The Cay 99's was well attended Jan. 31st and everyone seemed to have an enjoyable time. We missed you Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson from Marwayne, we hope you are not seriously ill as we know you never miss these affairs. Speaking of which should go to the lunch committee for serving such a lovely lunch. The abundance and quality was grand.

Mr. and Mrs Don Wilson entertained their parents in law, Mr. and Mrs Curtis Wilson from town and Orlee and Ellen Omness from Allandale on Jan. 27 to a lovely roast dinner. The occasion their birth days, theirs on Jan 25th and Hilda's Jan 30th.

That same day while going over the cane for us we lost a thimble. We'd appreciate it very much if the finder would let us know where it is, perhaps some day in some way we could do something for you.

The dance at the school Feb 1st was very well attended. The usual gathering, we've seen at Allandale for years. The proceeds should have been favorable.

Mr Herb Spencer has been on the farm until just lately. He has now moved to Vermilion. Mrs Spencer moved in earlier.

The hockey game between the Vermilion Tigers and the former Edmonton Flyers was certainly worth seeing. The arena was filled to capacity and it was a pleasure to watch the well organized plays of the older Edmonton team. The Vermilion boys did very well and this was a grand opportunity for them to learn how to improve their game.

Mr and Mrs. Norman Anderson were visitors at the latter's home and other relatives last week end with their infant daughter. This is daughter Dianne was babysitting at her cousin Karen Armstrong's home while her Mom was in the hospital.

It is very pleasing to see Newberry News in the paper again.

The F.U.A. meeting held at the school last Monday evening was quite well attended. It was good to have some of Clandonald farmers present. Mr. Jack Cowan was canvassing for the seed cleaning plant to be built in Vermilion. A number of the farmers bought shares in this worthwhile project.

Ice hauling time— Sandy Lake, as we all know by it on Eddie Cockburn's farm has a depth of eight feet of water. The ice is 18 inches which is a good depth for handling. The farmers around do appreciate Eddie's kindness in letting them have ice. The water is cold too, says Orlee—he slipped in one day with one leg to the knee. Could have been worse.

Closing Thought — You cannot believe in heaven until you have achieved it. Keep your honor clean and help others. You are the window through which you must see the world.

High Farm Income

SECOND REPORTS on the cash income of farmers in the past year show that receipts from the sale of farm products was the highest on record. Like all other Canadians, farmers have faced higher living costs and higher production costs in recent years, and much of the increased income is absorbed in these. It is, however, encouraging for farmers to receive prices for their products in keeping with the price levels of other commodities. The cash income for farmers in 1951 totalled $2,819,400,000 according to the report of the Dominion Bureau of Statistics, and this figure was twenty-eight per cent higher than the earnings for 1950, which were $2,223,000,000.

* * * * *

Reasons For Higher Figure

Higher prices for livestock was one of the factors contributing to the increased cash income. Payments by the Canadian Wheat Board and the fact that much of the previous year's grain crop was also contributed to the rise in income. In addition some Prairie farmers shared in payments of $10,400,000 made by the federal government under the Prairie Farms Assistance Act, in cases where drought and other hazards had impaired the crops. Saskatchewan farmers were second among those of all the provinces in the amount of cash income received. Ontario came first with $793,192 000, while Saskatchewan followed with $622,002,000

* * * * *

Most Wheat For Export

Alberta was in third place among the provinces, cash income for farmers there being $467,200,000. Quebec Manitoba and British Columbia were next, followed by the Maritime provinces. In all cases there were substantial gains over the figures for the previous year. At the beginning of the 1952 crop year, prospects are again good for continued high returns for farm products. In January 1952, Canada was reported to have more bushels for export than at any other country and at the same time, world demand was strong and expected to remain so. Prospects for sustained prices for most other farm products also appear favourable at this time, and there is reason to hope that cash income levels for Canadian farmers will continue to be high throughout the coming year.

Sask. Publishers To Meet Aug. 7-9

The annual Saskatchewan convention of the Canadian Weekly Newspapers association will be held Aug. 7 and 8 in Hotel Saskatchewan, it was decided at a meeting of the Saskatchewan division in Regina.

Sterling Allen of the Estevan Mercury, president of the division, and its secretary-manager, Walter Archbold of the Grenfell Sun, were chosen as delegates to a board of directors' meeting Feb 26 and 27 in Ottawa.

Considerable discussion centred around qualifications for membership, which is expected to be a major convention subject.

"Here's this?" asked the lawyer, "You've named six business in your will to be pallbearers. Of course, it's all right, but wouldn't you rather choose some friends with whom you are on better terms?"

"No. Those fellows have carried me so long that they might as well finish the job."

Two diaries were engaged in an advertising war. One of the companies engaged a daredevil racer to drive a car round the town with large placards reading: "This Daredevil Drinks Our Milk".

The rival company came out with placards, twice as large, reading: "You don't have to be a Daredevil to Drink Our Milk."

THRILLS of the ROARIN' GAME

Devotees of the ancient Scottish art of curling come into their own—on picture-wise—with the release of Associated Screen Studios' Feature-ary Canadian Curling short subject, The Roaring Game.

This is the first time that a motion picture has been produced on curling, and it appropriately features Ken Watson, of Winnipeg, or as he is known to curlers on this continent, "Mr. Curler". One of the world's outstanding curlers, Watson has thrice skipped rinks to Canadian Curling Championships.

This old-world game has been adapted to the pace of the new, and today it is a fast-moving, exciting sport that has swept across the northern half of the North American continent. In western Canada, particularly, the craze has been greatest. Out on the prairies, they start curling at a very tender age, and Regina boasts of the largest juvenile curling group in the country, known as the "Jam Tin League". This odd title derives from the fact that the young players make their own "stones" out of cigarette-tilled 5-lb. jam tins. The picture mentions that the curling fraternity now numbers in the hundreds of thousands, while all adds up to the startling fact that there are more curlers than golfers in Canada!

A flashback in The Roaring Game shows quarrying operations in the isle of Ailsa Craig, the only spot in the world where suitable granite for curling stones is found. The camera reveals that the pieces of hard rock are chosen for their fine grain and uniform texture, their toughness and their evenness of colour, while the techniques handed down from generation to generation produce each year over two thousand pairs of stones.

This motion picture had its world premiere in Winnipeg late in January during the playing of the Annual Manitoba Bonspiel, and hundreds of Bonspiel participants attended its showing.

Direction of The Roaring Game was handled by Gordon Sparling, while the script was written by Associated Screen Studio film director, John Kemeny, a curler of no mean repute himself. The musical score which has a delightful Scottish motif was written by Lucio Agostini, celebrated Canadian musician

MR. CURLING IN ACTION—Ken Watson, of Winnipeg, gets set to send a stone down the ice. Undoubtedly one of curling's all-time greats, Watson shows Simkins style in this delivery. The scene is taken from a curling short, The Roaring Game, released by Associated Screen Studios. The picture deals exclusively with curling in western Canada, and shows how this ancient pastime has been modernized to the fast-moving, exciting sport that it is in the west.

Game Council Discuss Methods Of Luring Wild Ducks From Crops

CALGARY—Methods of preventing duck damage to crops were discussed at a meeting of the western Canada Tobacco Fish and Game council here.

Provincial fish and game commissioners, fish and game associations and Ducks Unlimited officials heard the suggestion that crops be planted in some areas to lure ducks away from farming districts.

Ernie Poynter, Saskatchewan commissioner, said this had been tried in his province the past year with marked success.

Alberta officials said that while the plan might be workable in southern Alberta where large bodies of water were numerous, it might not be successful in central and northern Alberta where potholes were in almost every farmer's field.

A suggested lure crop might be in the form of strips of wheat and barley, or in the form of wheat and oats planted in such a way as to keep ducks on the water.

Special permits to farmers also were discussed. It was stated that while farmers were allowed to issue, seven permits to residents of the province when an area was declared a danger area, such was not the case when individual permits were granted to farmers and six others had to get individual permits, causing confusion and extra work.

Permission will be requested from the federal government to issue permits to farmers, the farmers in turn issuing written permits to his helpers.

The two-day annual convention of the Alberta Fish and Game association ended with Floyd R. Mitchell of Calgary, newly-elected president of the Alberta group, receiving the Milton Gregg trophy for outstanding conservation work in 1951. C. E. (Buster) Brown of Edmonton, retiring president, made the presentation.

The Calgary association was presented with a $100 cheque for feeding the crow and magpie campaign.

ARE EXEMPTION FROM JAYWALKING CLAUSE

CALGARY.—Calgary's policemen and milkmen want to be exempted from the jaywalking clause in the city's new traffic bylaw.

City Council heard letters saying there was no provision for the milkman to cross the street from his wagon to serve customers.

The Police Department and police-men cannot follow a jaywalker to catch him or they break the law themselves.

Manitoba Scientists Find Solution To Problem Of New Wheat Rust 15B

WINNIPEG.—Plant scientists for years have been searching for a solution to race 15B, a new and dreaded wheat rust threatening prairie crops. Manitoba experimenters say they have found the answer — in their own backyard.

Experiments are conducted under the direction of Dr. E. F. Peterson in charge of the laboratory of cereal breeding at nearby Fort Garry. It may take two years to develop wheat strains to combat the new rod scourge.

If weather conditions favor rust development during the next two years the west may again see rusted wheat crops comparable or worse than those of 1935. Rust in 1935 is estimated to have cost eastern prairie farmers $7,000,000 bushels of wheat, worth at today's prices nearly $178,000,000.

Manitoba researchers in developing wheat strains to combat the new rust used McMurchy wheat first discovered in a field at Pipestone, Man., about 30 miles southwest of Brandon. After a series of crossing McMurchy with other types — Exchange, Thatcher and Redman—it was tested for milling qualities and its resistance rating.

The result was not a good milling grade but it was able to resist race 15B. By crossing the new wheat with good milling brands, scientists have bred new strains which pass all tests.

The new wheats are of the same general type as Redman and Thatcher and the same color. Farmers will notice little difference.

But time remains an important factor. Many months must pass before sufficient seed can be made available to grain growers. Large-scale tests must be made before milling and baking qualities can finally be assured.

A dry and unusually cold winter in southern Texas, were rust spores develop, saved Canadian wheat last year from an infestation which might have been disastrous.

The new wheat rust—race 15B—was first discovered in the early 40s and has been spreading rapidly, a threat to all commercial wheat grown in North America. Last year it was prevalent in 27 states south of the Canadian border and appeared in Manitoba and Saskatchewan, but not in Alberta.

Race 15B is the strongest rust yet

NEWS from ISLAY

The monthly meeting of the United Church W.A. met last Thursday at Mrs. David Clarke's, fourteen ladies were present. We had such a nice surprise on a box of sewing from Mrs. C. C. Mitchell Thursday. In her letter Mrs Mitchell said how the Standard was scanned for news. So it was suggested that all would try to give news items to the scribe. If in Tuesday mail, guess I'll have to get the phone busy.

Mrs. Dave Martin had a busy two days, canning meat, baby beef I believe it was.

By the way, Mrs. Gladys Gould, our daffodils are going to make a pretty show in a few days, not as many as last year though.

Mrs. Emsland is visiting her daughter Mrs. Albert Van den Dolder and family.

Mr. Don Fair spent the week end with his home folk at Paradise Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Clarke and Gregory spent the week end with the former's sister Mrs. Swayne and family at Paradise Valley.

The annual bake sale carnival will be held on Friday 22nd in the evening. There are three candidates for the Queen, Janet Bell of the Senior room, Yvonne Hannon of the Intermediate room and Shirley McQuigan of the Junior room.

The Jack Carey's were Sunday evening callers at the Dave Martin's

Due to the mild weather the curling ice is rather soft so the school bonspiel is held up for the time being. The students tried it out but four ends was enough.

Mrs. Harry Gordon has been spending a few days at the Bothwell's and the Potvin's and now is with Mr s Lenore Dupuit.

Mrs. Vera McLean, convener of the bazaar committee had a nice lot of prizes to give out at the W.A. meeting Thursday. The sale is on the way too, a number of blocks are now made. We received five lovely cons in the box from Mrs. Mitchell. At our next meeting Miss Bessie Anderson will give a few minute talk on the beginning of our study book, "From Lakes to Northern Lights", a most interesting book by Rev. M. C. McDonald who knows the country first hand. Another book we have is "Wide Windows" it is worth purchasing if you haven't the opportunity of reading it in some group.

Mr. and Mrs. Bill Young, Donna and Jack were visitors at the Andersons on Sunday evening. There was a game of being weighed on Donna's weight—would like to have had it for Grandpa and Grandma at Red Deer. Jack is going to blow a horn of some kind as Dewberry is organizing a band.

OBITUARY

Isabel Charlotte Sullivan

The town of Vermilion and district has been saddened by the death of one of its highly respected residents, Mrs. George Sullivan, at the Vermilion hospital on Tuesday, January 29th following a short illness.

Mrs. Sullivan was born in Ottawa, daughter of the late Dr. and Mrs. Alexander MacMillan. Her kind disposition and inate friendliness endeared her to all who knew her and her passing leaves an empty place for many who looked on her as a friend of value and understanding.

Mrs. Sullivan (Isabel Charlotte MacMillan) married George Sullivan in Ottawa in 1923 and came out to the life of an Alberta farm, fitting herself with graciousness to the community life. She is survived by her husband and one son Allan on the farm, and one daughter Irene, Mrs. Hinves, employed at Research Station at Albuquerque, New Mexico, who came to her mother during her illness. One brother Gordon MacMillan lives in New York, and one sister Mrs. Kennedy in California.

The many tokens of sympathy bore testimony to the respect and love felt for her by the community at large.

Funeral services were held at the Holy Name church on Friday, Feb. 1st at 10:00 o'clock in the morning. Interment followed in the Catholic cemetery.

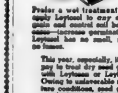
CHECK ROOT ROT with LEYTOSAN & LEYTOSOL

Treat with Leytosan and get bigger yields, higher grades, greater profits. Ask your dealer about this solution. Leytosan is practically odorless.



Prefer a wet treatment? Then apply Leytosol to any dry seed grain and control soil borne diseases—increase germination. Leytosol has no smell, no dust, no odour.

This year, especially, it will pay to treat dry seed grain with Leytosan or Leytosol. Owing to unfavorable moisture conditions, seed grain may be low in viability—poor in germination

Rangers Edge Tigers In Thrilling Contest

SCORE ENDS 6 TO 5

Vegreville Rangers edged the local Tigers 6 goals to 5 in a thrilling contest here Monday night. The Tigers enjoyed a 4-2 lead midway through the second only to see the Rangers score four times to end the period on the comfortable end of a 6-4 count. The best Vermilion could do in the final was one goal. In the last minute of play they pulled goalie Lauhman and sent out six forwards but the equalizer was just not forthcoming. Les Williams pulled off a nice stop in the nets in the last few seconds when Veg got a breakaway and headed for the empty cage. However, Williams beat them back and pulled off a neat save between the pipes.

The game was fast despite the somewhat sticky ice and exceptionally clean, only one penalty being handed out, that to Horton for a trip. It was the kind of hockey fans like to see.

VERMILION WINS 3 TO 0

Clandonald and Vermilion Midgets engaged in an energetically contested game at the arena Saturday night with the locals emerging the winners 3-0, although the visiting squad had fully as much of the territorial play. Ivor Vermilion stickled on three of their scoring plays while Clandonald managed to solve the wizardry of goalie Ken Brown who turned in another of his excellent performances.

Bob Acheson took Stewart Cooper's pass to score the only goal in the first period, and then Bob scored again in the second converting John Stewart's pass and a little later, John again passed out from behind the goal to Stewart Cooper who made the count 3-0 at the end of the second. There was no scoring in the third.

The game was hedined to be a little rough and the two referees Stan Mackie and Ken Stewart handed out nine penalties.

Harry Dean Sells Ladies' Wear And Millinery Business

MRS. H. P. DUNDY IS NOW OWNER

The sale of his millinery and ladies' wear business by Harry Dean recently severed a link between Vermilion of today and the Vermilion of some 40 years ago. In all those years there was neither change of business or of ownership.

Mr. Dean came west as a comparatively young man at the turn of the century with the tide of land fever that set in motion large areas of this district were being opened for homesteads, the filing fee for which was about $10. Some of those lands are now worth thousands of dollars and the original settlers received vast returns for their owners.

Mr. Dean, having filed and duly performed his homesteading duties moved into Vermilion about 1907 and bought a millinery shop carried on by Mrs. A. H. Edwards. The shop was located in the residence now owned by Gordon Williams.

Due to the expansion of business Mr. Dean was obliged to move locations until he finally settled in the early twenties in the then Macleod block, now owned by Billie Pilkie. When he opened up Mr. Dean was probably, and still may be, the only male milliner in the province, that avocation usually claimed by the gentler sex being solely within their sphere of activity.

Close attention to his business to which had been added a ladies' wear department began to impair his health finally resulting in the decision to retire. He has accordingly sold his business to Mrs. M. Pauline Dundy, one of the most widely known women in the town and district Mrs. Dundy was for several years in charge of the ladies wear department of Craig Bros. and has latterly been at Dean's.

Mr. Dean and his sister Mrs. Petch who was connected with the business also in later years, expect to leave shortly for a trip to the coast, going as far as California. They will be away for two or three months after which they plan to settle in Vermilion.

Midgets Lose To Lloydminster 2-1

In a very close and fast game at the local arena Wednesday evening Jim Bell's Vermilion Midgets lost a game to Lloydminster. Paul Jack and Goodhope scored the visitor's tallies with Jim Winters scoring Vermilion's goal assisted by Doug Brower.

Automobiles Essential But Taxed Like Juke Boxes, Dealers Argue

Three Long Since Passed When Car Can Be Considered An Occasional Luxury, Federation Director Says

TORONTO.—Which is more essential, an automobile or a juke box?

So far as 3000 Canadian automobile dealers are concerned, there is no doubt about the answer. But, they say, through their official spokesman, T. A. Moore, managing director of Federation of Automobile Dealer Associations of Canada, it appears as though the Canadian department of finance "thinks differently". Cars and juke boxes are taxed at exactly the same rate.

These Canadian government taxes on automobiles are far too high and are working an unnecessary hardship on the public who must have them, the essential purpose Mr. Moore declared. He spoke at a press conference here which announced a nation-wide Federation campaign was being launched to "educate" the Canadian government that a measure of tax relief must be sought at the next parliamentary session.

"The time has long since passed when an automobile can be looked upon as a luxury. Times have changed. Say a luxury," he said vigorously; "We've left the horse-and-buggy days far behind. Today cars are jobs and business in general depends upon motor cars. The automobile is as essential as a street car or a railway coach."

It was true, he conceded ,that the federal government did not actually call the automobile a luxury. For taxation purposes cars were classed as "consumer durables" and as a consequence subject to sales taxation.

"But the fact remains, that automobiles today are in the same taxation classification as slot machines, juke boxes, golf clubs and a host of other amusement items — subject to 25 per cent retail tax plus 10 per cent sales tax', he asserted.

"The combined federal excise and sales tax on a representative sedan in 1939 was $63. Today the tax on the same car is $570, an increase of about 670 per cent. The U.S. federal tax on a similar car today is only $80."

Mr. Moore declared that most small towns and many of the larger towns or smaller cities were absolutely dependent upon the automobile. Many had no trolley or bus lines, and the automobile was the only means of transportation. "Where is the luxury in that?" he asked.

CANADA MOURNS THE PASSING OF KING GEORGE VI

There is grief in every heart, for we were all of his family.
He was a gracious sovereign and a kindly man, whose simple dignity won for him
the love of all his subjects.
In his devotions to his kingly duties
he gave of himself unsparingly; in the darkest hours of his country's peril
he stood beside his people, sharing their hopes,
their sorrows and their triumphs, symbolizing their courage and determination.
His life was an example to us all.

Our hearts go out in sympathy to the members of the Royal Family.
May they take comfort in the knowledge of our love and loyalty.

Alberta's Largest Rural 'Spiel

80 Rinks Competing In Annual Bonspiel

Vermilion's annual bonspiel which has during the past three years grown to be Alberta's largest rural spiel, got away to a full fledged start on Monday morning with draws starting at the curling rink at 8:30 and at the arena at 10:45. It was at first thought impossible to have the arena prepared for curling before Monday night but the crew of volunteer workers got busy fast Saturday night and Sunday with the results that it was ready Monday morning.

Five competitions are being played with the final of the Grand Challenge and Telford Memorial scheduled for Wednesday evening with the Bank of Montreal and Vermilion events to be completed Thursday evening. The last mentioned event of the and the new short draw ensures the snappy completion of all competitions. It is estimated that winners of the first two events will appear in finales elsewhere in this issue.

This year sees a new high record entry set with eighty rinks toeing the line in the big event. Of this number no less than 55 are visiting quartets representing 22 clubs and 25 local tournemen. 75 rinks participated a year ago.

Banquet Plus Event

A notable part of the bonspiel, the 'Curlers' Banquet' was held on Tuesday evening in the Legion hall when over 200 curlers and visitors partook of a turkey dinner served by the ladies of the Canadian Legion. Presiding at the program following was M. Simonsen, president of the Vermilion Curling club. Greetings from the visitors were extended by Mayor S. C. Heckbert on behalf of the town, and by N. N. Bentley from the town curling club. Mr. A. F. Williams of Manville replied to the toast to the visitors. Thos. Ward led an enjoyable sing-song while the Male Voice Chorus directed by Jack Dean rendered four very enjoyable vocal numbers.

A rather unique feature was the fact that Mr. Sweeten, town Mayor at Kitscoty, who curled here back in the 1929 bonspiel, was again in attendance curling with a rink from Bonnyville where he is now station agent. Mr. Sweeten in his presentation of a poem written for that occasion of 23 years ago and read at the banquet then, wherein the names of all the visiting skips appeared. Of all the visitors present at that spiel there were two at the banquet Tuesday evening. Mr. Sweeten and Mr. Lloyd Hughes of Dewberry who was at Islay at that time. The poem was read by E. M. Stewart.

A complete report of bonspiel winners will appear in next week's issue of the Standard.

By treating poplar posts they can be made to last for 20 years or more Without treating, poplar will not last more than 3 years or so. Get a circular from my office on treating fence posts.

Attractive Farmsteads

Now is the time to order trees for planting in 1953. The trees are free but orders must be in by your shed and the land must be summerfallowed. Why not get a booklet at my office entitled 'Farmstead Planning' and plan some windbreaks to protect the house and barnyard? It makes the place look better and it adds to the value of the farm if you want to sell out.

The Seed Fair

Don't forget that the Vermilion Seed Fair will be open on Saturday March 1st. In the afternoon the judges, Messrs. Weir of Calgary and Wilson of Edmonton will speak on seed supplies, grain varieties and improved seed. Everybody ought to hear these two authorities on crops and seed. Let's give them a good crowd and a big crowd on March 1st.

Dehydration

This hardy perennial flower ought to be in every garden. The Pacific hybrids are by far the best. They can be grown from seed but flower the next year unless the seed is planted in early March. Therefore the best way is to get a few plants from a nursery.

Boll Order Business

It is a risky business to order live stock or seed grain by mail. The price may seem right but there is usually disappointment in the value. Brome grass listed at 10c per pound in farm papers usually contains couch and other noxious weeds.

Day of Mourning Observed Here

BY SOLEMN MEMORIAL SERVICES

The National Day of Mourning on Friday last, the day of the funeral of the late King George VI was observed in most solemn manner throughout the two memorial services held in Canadian communities. At 9:30 a.m. a service was held for the young people of the town, and at 11:00 a.m. a public gathering took place. The services were arranged by the Vermilion Ministerial Association. The theatre seats 620 people and was completely filled for both services.

Taking part in conducting the services were the Rev. Canon T. S. Teape, Lieut. R. Chapman, Rev. Eric Berg and the Rev. Chauncey MacKay. The Rev. Mr. MacKay gave the addresses, paying sincere and thoughtful tribute to the late Sovereign. He built his talks on three characteristics of the King, first, his keen sense of duty, secondly his being one of "serious dedication"; secondly, his love of his family, his life meant a great deal to the King: thirdly, his deep faith in God.

Rev. MacKay closed his address with the words and quotation: "So to this we are conscious of his duties as a King, to this man who was devoted to family life, and to this one who had a firm faith in God we say:

'Servant of God well done;
Rest from thy loved employ;
The battle fought, the victory won,
Enter thy Master's joy'."

Frewing of the Public Relations Dept. in Edmonton will be in charge of these services. The Captain previously served in Vermilion before being posted to Edmonton.

Sunday services will be held (At) 11.00 a.m. and 7:30 p.m. and on Monday a special Youth Rally at 8:00 p.m.

MIDGETS WIN AT LLOYD.

Vermilion Midgets invaded Lloydminster on Tuesday evening and handed the Midget team there a 3-2 set-back in a very well played game. The Vermilion puckchasers had an edge in the first two periods and ran up a total of two goals. Bob Stewart 'scoring twice, each time assisted by Stewart Cooper. In the third period Loydminster overtook extra pressure and evened up the score at two-all. The Vermilion boys however withstood the attack and came through with the winning goal when Stewart Cooper picked up John Stewart's pass and scored. A ben load of high school rooters accompanied the boys to the Border town.

The drug bill for the National Health Service in the UK for this year will be $132,000,000 — a real national headache.

MR. AND MRS. JAMES CAVIL 66 YEARS MARRIED

FAMILY GATHERING MARKS ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. James Cavil, pioneer citizens of Vermilion, on Saturday Feb. 16th observed the 66th anniversary of their wedding, an event unparalleled in the history of the district and not recorded on many occasions throughout the world.

Marking this memorable occasion was a family gathering when all the members were together. Their daughters Mrs. Nancy Douglas of Vancouver, Mrs. Marjorie Reid of Chilliwack, Mrs. John Grant of Dewberry and Mrs. Connie Capston of Vermilion, together with the two sons, John Cavil of Toronto and Andrew of Cranbrook, all came to be with their parents. This was the first time that John had been in Vermilion for some 30 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Cavil's eldest son died in 1918 and their eldest daughter early in 1951.

This pioneer couple were married on Monday, Feb. 16th, 1886 and came to the Vermilion district 46 years ago when they homesteaded in the Dewberry district, far from a railroad. In 1911 in order to educate their family they moved into Vermilion and have lived here ever since that time. Mr. Cavil will be 91 years old in April while Mrs. Cavil is 85 years of age.

The well loved couple are seen frequently on the streets of Vermilion as they do all their own shopping and call for their mail.

Hockey Attraction This Friday Night

MIDGETS VS. VEGREVILLE IN PROVINCIAL PLAY-OFFS

A first class hockey attraction will be played at the arena rink Vermilion on Friday evening March 23 when the Vermilion Midgets, competing in the provincial play-offs for the first time in the history of Vermilion, will meet the experienced Vegreville Midget contenders. The Vermilion boys have been carefully coached by Jim Bell of the High School staff and are confident they can stop the Vegreville team in their pennant hunt.

These boys are 16 years and under and their display of hockey ability has pleased the faithful few who have been going to the games. Come on fans, break loose from that TV set and attend this game on Friday evening at 8:00 o'clock and encourage our senior hockey boys of tomorrow.

This series is a two-game total goal series. The Vermilion team goes back to Veg on Saturday evening Feb. 23.

V. H. S. HI-LITES

House league basketball at VHS seems to be of major importance right now. Bentley, Schmidt and Burton are top three standings while top scorers are the same — Bentley with 102 points, Schmidt 100 and Martin 77.

The social function for February was in the form of a hay ride. At 7:30 o'clock three hay racks left the school for what turned out to be a very enjoyable party. In spite of an unusual cold spell (nothing pushed out) everyone survived and was able to attend the dance served in the gym. Dancing followed until the party broke up at 12:00.

Special thanks should be given to Jack Barr, Will Little and George Burton for their hay racks

Grade 9 News

Where were all the happy Grade Niners going on Friday night, Feb 8th? To the "Pant Horse Skating Party" at the arena, of course. After skating until 9:15 the jolly group came trooping back to VHS for lunch and more fun

Mrs. Dahl's pre writing hard on a Grade 9 paper which they hope to have completed by Friday

With some of the boys in the provincial Midget hockey play-offs some playing Pee Wee hockey and others indulging in basketball, there is plenty of action for all in the sports field.

Excitement High in 3rd Period and Overtime

Tigers, "Commandos Tie In Great Hockey Game

As far as excitement is concerned the hockey game played between the Commandos and Tigers at the arena on rink Saturday night will go down in annals as tops. Vermilion fans didn't have much to cheer about for two periods. The first session found the Tigers on the losing end of a rombined play with Rod Barr and Jim Ferguson while the Commandos were a man short. Lawrie Dodds evened the count just before the bell.

The second was all Commando from a scoring viewpoint and they rang up three counters without reply. The Commandos were deadly around the net and were taking advantage of every opportunity that the Tigers on the other hand, while they might have had more shots on goal, lacked punch. Ken Mackay was responsible for two, Dan O'Neil, from K State got the other goal.

That Third Period

It was in the third that the Tigers as some galvanized into action. Howe and Danny O'Neil were powerful for fighting and defenseman Jim Ferguson seemed to have the knack and inspire his team mates to great efforts. He combined with Kreller to start the Tigers on their scoring but Lewis nullified that advantage by scoring on Dominick's pass. Then Jim got really warmed to work and scored two fast and beautifully manipulated goals, the first coming with Elmer Kreller and the second from Roger LaPlante, making the score 5-4 for Wainwright. Les Williams took fire at this point and scored the tying marker on Kreller's pass, then catching the Commandos a man short he went on a solo jaunt to end the Tigers' scoring by converting LaPlante's pass. The action at this point was so fast and furious that it is impossible to do the game justice. With two minutes to go it did appear that the Tigers had snatched the game from the fire sparked by the great display of Jim Ferguson and Les Williams. However, once again drama excitement entered the picture Lauhman, Tiger goalie, trapped the puck against his net, meaning a face-off to the right of the goal. The Commandos were a man short at the time and implications pointed to a Tiger victory but Dodds banked in his third goal of the game from the face-off and this meant overtime.

Overtime Session

At 6:58 in the extra session Dominsky scored on Strain of and it seemed all over but the shouting.

Tigers Win At Wainwright

Playing at Wainwright in the second game of the semi-final series on Wednesday night, the Vermilion Tigers won from the Commandos by a score of 4-3. The Tigers were playing without Elmer Kreller, out with a groin injury, and Les Williams who at the last minute had to make an emergency ambulance trip to Edmonton.

Series now stands at one win for Vermilion and 1 tie game. Next game here on Monday night Feb. 25th — Don't Miss It!

SEMI-FINAL SERIES BEST 3 OF 5 GAMES

NEXT GAME HERE MONDAY, FEBRUARY 25th

League officials delved into rules regarding play-offs and found out that the semi-final and final rounds are all best 3 of 5 game series. Consequently Vermilion played at Wainwright Wednesday night and the next game is here on Monday, Feb. 25th, at Wainwright Wednesday 27th, and a fifth game if necessary will be played here on Saturday March 1st.

Two games have been played and the Tigers have stands at 1 tie and one win for Vermilion.

Don't miss any of these games if you wish to see fast, exciting, clean hockey.

Robert Henry Crowe Dies At Clandonald

A resident of Clandonald for the past several years where he did considerable contracting and carpentering work, Robert Henry Crowe was found dead in his small residence in Clandonald on Monday Feb. 18th. Death was from natural causes. He was 66 years of age. Funeral arrangements will be announced as soon as a brother who is flying here from Victoria, arrives.

With 35 seconds left, there was a face-off in theCommando end, Kreller pulled Goalie Lauhman, sent out Bob Rowe to make six men on the ice. The move paid off and Rod Barr beat the Commando goalie with a clean shot to save the contest.

It was a great play-off game with men of both teams giving the crowd a pleasing display they will long remember.

Bill Wick and Russ Carroll officiated.

WE CAN HELP PREVENT THIS

One million Canadians will die of cancer by the end of this century unless present mortality rates are altered.

Although improved diagnostic and treatment methods have lowered the death rates for some types of cancer, Mr. Rice said, the number of deaths is rising because of our expanding population and its increasing proportion of older people.

About 18,000 persons in Canada will die of cancer this year, 16,500 in 1953, 17,000 in 1970 and—if present trends continue—20,000 in the year 2000.

With fullest use of present knowledge, over 300,000 of those statistically marked for cancer death could be saved, Mr. Rice said. This prediction is based on the fact that one-third of all cancer deaths today are needless because people wait too long before visiting their doctors, he explained. The goal of the educational programme of the Canadian Cancer Society is to alert more people to cancer danger signals and encourage them to seek prompt medical attention.

Millions may be saved by discoveries in research financed by the Canadian Cancer Society, he added.

Fine Winter Weather

Rather fine winter weather has prevailed all week but the thermometer has slipped down below zero most nights. Low points were registered Wednesday and Thursday mornings with 22 below. Warmest spot was last Friday when it went 15 above. The days have been clear with bright sunshine. Really enjoyable winter weather.

I was so baby sitting — and I'll thank you girls not to snicker. With fingers in my eyes, legs around my neck and an elbow in my stomach I learned all about Indians! — and Bugs Bunny and quite enjoyed it.

With Elenor Jean supplying the data, it seems that this is about what happened when 17 girls got together on Tuesday night. Anyone worried (and I believe there are several) about Verna's memory may rest assured that she has returned to her old self now that the buggy wheels have been found — though it took Lena to do it. After a series of phone calls Mr. Claude Brennan came to the rescue. Thanks to you Claude. Consequently at 8:00 Friday night we have a gathering of the clan at Hazeuther's meat shop to serve our ability as masters of the feast decorating art. Then all Saturday, Barbara, Mary Anne, Mildred and Elenor Jean (these lucky girls who don't work Saturday afternoons) will meet at the public school at 2:00 o'clock uniform to add their own charm in person as the Stagette float with Miss Edith Brown, our pretty little Queen candidate, joins the parade.

If you haven't bought your ticket for this big ice carnival then let us suggest that EDITH would make a truly lovely Queen and your ticket could just another vote for her—so buy up folks!

We were very pleased to have with us our two new members, Verna Ulmer, who works in the treasury branch, and Sophie Pawlak, Health Unit nurse. We sincerely hope that you girls will get a big kick out of the Vermilion Stagette club as the rest of us. If not, just let Lil know. She's got the biggest pair of hob-nailed boots in town. (Corn!)

Attention members of the district executive! Meetings will be held on the Tuesday's and Thursday's of regular meetings. These will be to further plans and organize more thoroughly for the convention which comes over closer week by week.

Here's what you're waiting for! Checking—Friday, 1st shift, Vivian and Verna; 2nd shift: Lil and Elenor Jean; Saturday: Elva and Dot Anderson.

OUR COMPLETE SHORT STORY—

It's Never Too Late

Lil Was in the Arms of a Tall, Dark-Haired Man.

By JOHN ROWLEY

OLD Joe Turner of "Turner's Wilderness Camps" was engaged in what was for him an odd task. He was standing on the shores of Moose Lake beneath a giant spruce in a picturesque attitude.

His hat was pulled forward to shade quizzical grey eyes. (It never was when he was actually guiding a fishing or hunting party into the wilderness.) A pipe was clenched firmly between his discolored teeth (the only kind of tobacco he ever used was the eating variety). A rifle was carried carelessly over one arm (when he was guiding he never carried a rifle). A huge knife was sheathed at his belt. (In the words he never carried anything bigger than a clasp knife.)

Twenty feet away, painting at an easel, was a young woman in a smock and a large sun hat; the image of all this trumpery. Old Joe Turner watched his daughter-in-law with troubled eyes as she stretched back to get a better look at the painting.

She got up suddenly. "That's all for today," she said, her attention still on the canvas. Old Joe set down the rifle and took out his pipe. "You ain't finished, are you?" he demanded anxiously.

"Not yet. It'll take one more day. Are you tired of posing?"

He shook his head. "Just wondering how it was coming." He helped her gather up the brushes and paint tubes. "Look, Lil," he said, "it ain't too late. Why not let me tell him you're here? You could patch things up."

Lil patted her dark curls into place. "If he really wants to find me . . . he will."

Old Joe followed his son's wife up the trail toward the camp. He frowned. He had never been sure sure of what it was that had caused them to separate, but he was sure that if he could get them together again everything would be straightened out.

After he helped her carry the easel inside, he got into the battered station wagon which did service as taxi and truck and with the excuse that he had to pick up supplies, drove down to the small railroad station which looked the ramp with the outer world.

He sent a telegram. The same telegram he had sent out each night for the past week, telling his son to come home . . . that Lil was back at the camp. He drove back slowly.

The next day was the same. He passed on the sign of the lake with the portrait which was nearing completion. "Do you have to leave so soon as this is done?" he asked her for the third time. "Why don't you do another? . . . there's a cataract up the river that'd make a right pretty picture."

Lil shook her head. I'd like to, but if I'm going to get into that class in modern art I'll have to leave as soon as this is finished."

In the middle of the afternoon Lil sat back and announced that the painting was finished. Old Joe heard the news with a sinking feeling. Still no word from Tom!

Old Joe carried the box of paint tubes and the easel back along the trail. He fell behind, thinking, trying to devise a ruse. As he came out of the woods he saw a strange car . . . and something else.

Lil was in front of the steps and the portrait lay neglected at her feet beside her sun hat and a tall, dark-haired man had her in his arms. Old Joe Turner breathed a sigh of relief and took out a large red handkerchief and wiped his face.

"Well," he said, "he made it after all!"

After a lapse he stumped slowly towards the couple. "Well," he said, "I guess from the looks of things, you two have settled your differences."

Tom Turner said: "Hello, Pa". Lil grinned at him. "Everything's all right," she said. "I'm not going back . . . I'm going to stay here with you and Tom."

The old man grunted. It's about time you two were coming to your senses," he said. Then, turning to his son: "What in thunder took you so long? I almost had a fit worrying whether or not you'd get here in time."

"I was away," Tom said. "I didn't get your wire until last night."

Old Joe looked at the girl and grinned. "You see," he said. "I've been sending a telegram every day telling Tom to come back. It was sure lucky that portrait of me you was painting took so long!"

Lil looked at him, her eyes sparkling. "I knew about the telegrams," she told him. "The telegraph operator's a friend of mine. And I wouldn't exactly call it luck about the portrait taking so long . . . Why do you suppose I spent a half hour every night scraping off the paint I'd put on during the day?"

Koreans Get Lesson From Alberta Sailors

Close co-operation between the South Korean navy and the Canadian destroyer crews has been established by assigning Koreans to Canadian ships and Canadians to Korean ships. Here, Leo Cayuga sailors, A.B. Jerry Peterson of Olds, Alta., (left), and A.B. David Campbell, of Calgary, are teaching the crew of a Korean minesweeper in the working of a Bren gun.—Central Press Canadian.

Final Alberta figures give that province a population of 939,501 in 1951 a jump of 147,372 or 18 per cent from the 1941 total of 796,169.

Canada's total population is now given as 14,009,429 for 1951. This is 2,502,774 or 21.5 per cent greater than the 1941 figure of 11,506,655.

Do You Know That . . .

The R.C.M.P. were originally known as North West Mounted Police, and in 1904 they were given the name of Royal North West Mounted Police. Its first duties were to provide police protection in the unsettled district of northwest Canada, and the manner in which the early force did this gained it world-wide fame. In 1920, the RNWMP was amalgamated with the Dominion Police and the name changed to the "Royal Canadian Mounted Police", as it remains today. The force may now be called upon for duty in any part of the Dominion, including Newfoundland where, in 1900, it took over the duties of the Newfoundland Rangers.

One Of Canada's Oldest Citizens

Arcola Woman Made Home On Prairies In Year 1882

ARCOLA, Sask.—Mrs. John Beggs of Arcola is one of Canada's oldest women. She is 104.

Born Lovisa Burwash in Pinnard county, Ont., in 1848, she homesteaded with her husband two miles east of the present site of Arcola in 1882.

Though now unable to see or hear very well, "Grandma Beggs", as she is affectionately known here, retains an interest in activities around her. She lives with her only living son and wife on the original family homestead.

Mrs. Beggs was the first woman in the Arcola settlement and when her son was born in 1883 he was the first baby.

She recalls living in a tent until their log house was completed. At first she was frightened by the Indians who often came to the tent.

"But before the year was out I found them as good friends as any in town," she said. "I was glad to see the squaws come as there was no white woman I could talk to."

Mrs. Beggs believes in hard work and says pioneering never hurt anybody.

"When you work you're ready for your meals and it's good to have a hearty appetite," she said.

Wildmere Winks

(This bulletin was written for last week's Standard but was inadvertently omitted due to being misplaced. Kindly allow for time elapsed.)

We along with the community wish to extend our deepest sympathy to those who have lost loved ones since we last wrote the Winks. To Mr. Harrington and Douglas on the loss of a loving wife and mother, Mrs. Harrington had been a very energetic woman and her cheery smile and friendly word will be greatly missed by all who knew her: to Mr. English, Lucy and the boys, we too were with them in their hours of sorrow. The many who attended her funeral service, some coming from quite a distance, the lovely flowers, all showed the esteem in which she was held in their hearts. To the Panter family we extend our sympathy. All these fine ladies have gone to their well-earned rest, their book of life contained many chapters, some were happy, a few sad, but all had the love of God sprinkled through them.

We wish to congratulate Craig Brue, on the splendid window display in memory of our late King, and his family. The many people who stopped and looked showed that it was greatly appreciated. As Mr. Churchill said: He was a great man and we all mourn his sudden passing.

Our curlers who attended Wainwright bonspiel did not do so well. They could have played for the Consolation prizes but did not go back.

Widmere and Basswood are quite proud of the ladies' rink which took part in the Vermilion ladies' spiel. They won third in the second competition. Mrs. Wilson was skip and Mrs. Batke, Mrs. Gibson and Mrs. Martin were the other members. Several Widmere-ites watched them play on Tuesday evening as they won over Mrs. Crawford by a small margin. The last later to the Lilak rink from Vegreville.

Kitscoty High School Notes

K.H.S. students enjoyed a week's holiday from Feb. 4th to 8th when the school was closed in an effort to control the numerous diseases which have become such a plague.

We notice that we have some budding school teachers in the Gr. XII class. Marlene Clark and Eileen Jack took over some of the lower grades in the absence of their regular teachers.

A hockey game between Southminster and Kitscoty on Thursday night ended with a score of 6-3 in favor of the visiting team. We wonder why there was such a decided lack of cheer-ers?

Excitement is rising as the day of the carnival draws nearer. There are hopes that many pretty and comical costumes will be entered again this year.

Cliff Cruthers curled last week with a rink from Vermilion at the Lloydminster spiel and won first prize in the Privee Charles event.

On Sunday, Feb. 3rd the writer's brother Laurence Graham along with Mr. George Taylor from north of town were visitors to the Wallington home.

Last week we had the pleasure of a visit from Mr. and Mrs. Harold Arthur, formerly of Wildmere who now live in Provo, Utah. It is 22 years since they left these parts. We did not so much their short visit — they are the same jolly couple. They have three daughters, two are married, one lives in Nova Scotia, one in Calgary and the youngest works for the A.M.A. in Edmonton. While over in our corner they visited with Jim Kennedy and it was he who brought them to the writer's. Alex and Roland Arthur of Auburndale are brothers of Harold.

Jimmie has his year's wood sawn up folks and is now splitting up the biggest in his spare moments.

On Sunday visitors to the different homes were Mr and Mrs. Frank Gibson and children and Mr. and Mrs. W. Ford of town who have been visiting their daughter Mrs. Gibson were supper guests at the C. Cruthers home later on in the evening. Mr. and Mrs. D. Hughes and family called at the same home: Mr. and Mrs. R. Martin and Doreen, were at the Batke home in Basswood: Geo. Wilson at the Hoise home where Mr. Hoise had a sick cow: we are glad to say that the cow is now better: the writer and family called at the Geo. Wilson home on Sunday evening.

Monday afternoon Mrs. K. Isley and Sharon of town called for a few minutes at the Wallington home. They later spent the evening at the Batke home and Ken visited the Widmere curling rink.

Surely has been grand weather and it all helps to make a lovely break in our long winter.

Last but not least—Bill and Adam Smith are curling this week in the Kamsack bonspiel.

DISTRICT COURT

The first sittings of the District Court under the reign of Queen Elizabeth II, opened Tuesday morning with His Honor Judge Gariepy presiding. Prior to the proceeding of business the Court and all those present stood silently while His Honor feelingly referred to the late King, and to the Queen and her husband, and how they restored themselves to the hearts of everybody in Canada on their visit of only a few months ago. Both King George and Queen Elizabeth had received the admiration and profound respect and loyalty of the people of Canada.

The first Canadian to take out citizenship papers under the new Sovereign was Mike Zarycki of Riverdale, and the second was William Marshall Rindall, a former American, of Lloydminster. There were no cases heard.

WEDDING BELLS

EDELAND—LARSON

On January 23rd, an attractive wedding took place in the Iron United church, uniting Cora Cheryle Larson, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ali Larson to Mr. Charlesopher Edeland, youngest son of Mrs. [illegible] and the late Mr. Hanner Edeland, of Vermilion, Alberta.

Rev. H. W. Inglis performed the ceremony.

Entering the church on the arm of her father the bride looked lovely in a floor-length white satin gown with lily-point sleeves. Lace fell under the bertha collar that rounded to a mesh yoke. From a small coronet and pear coronet fell a fingertip veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of deep red roses and white baby mums. Her only jewelry was a necklace pendant and earrings to match, gift of the groom.

Miss Jean Larson, cousin of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a pale pink floor-length gown, the bodice was of oyster organdy. The neckline was cut low, with a rounded collar, similar to the bride's. From her fitted waist fell a tripe skirt of nylon net. On her head was a baradeau of pink ice-box roses and she carried a Cascade bouquet of violet irises and pink carnations. Her jewelry was a rhinestone necklace, gift of the bride.

Attending the groom was his brother, Mr. Norman Edeland. Ushering the guests were Mr. Scott Larson and Mr. Ian Pallister.

Nuptial music was played by Miss Shirley Mae Brown and during the signing of the register Irene Dorsey Simmerman sang 'Because'.

After the ceremony a reception was held in church parlor for the guests. The mothers of the bride and groom received the guests. Mrs. Larson was in a black sheer frock. Her hat was of black felt with velvet, and studdings trim to match the buttons of her coat. She wore a white gardenia on corsage. Mrs. Edeland chose a black crepe dress, trimmed with pale lace, which complemented her small velvet hat with trim matching crepe frock. Her corsage was pink carnations.

The bride's table was graced with a three-tiered cake placed on a lace cloth, flanked with white candles, pink carnations and white baby mums. A miniature horseshoe encircled a silver wedding bell and a tiny white bow, this entered the top layer.

Mr. Donald Gunn proposed the toast to the bride. Telegrams were read coming from Lloydminster, Vermilion, Penticton, B.C. and Trail, B.C. where the bride's twin resides.

For a honeymoon in Saskatchewan the bride changed to a brown and rose Loganknit suit, with a brown felt hat, and aqua feather.

Sixteen Years Ago Today

Feb. 14, 1936

Vermilion was the coldest point in the west with a low point of 38 below at the college. The whole week was extremely cold with no above 0 readings.

Mr. and Mrs. James Cavil celebrated their Golden Wedding anniversary.

The Board of Trade passed a resolution urging the government to provide funds for the final payment from the 1930 pool.

A plan is underway to plant 1000 trees in Vermilion this coming spring.

Thirty-two Years Ago Today

Feb. 18, 1920

A Chinook swept in bringing very mild weather and a real thaw.

The construction of a 250-mile wagon road from Athabasca to Fort Vermilion was proposed. Such a road would open up a fine agricultural and stock country.

Vermilion municipal hospital was officially opened when many hundreds visited the fine institution. On the first hospital board were: H. W. Brown, chairman, J. W. G. Morrison, Alfred Watt, A. J. Morrison, Hiram Hodgins, Peter Bleiech and Chas. E. Thompson.

Greenlawn Grapevine

Another well attended meeting of the Greenlawn F.U.A. was held recently with a full evening of discussion. Verli Sweet and Mrs. Nichols delegates to the Calgary convention, read their reports, a difficult job after so long. It was decided that the local with others in the Dunberry area, sponsor a picnic and sports day on Farmers' Day, and the following committee was chosen to begin plans, Myrtle McMullen, Bill Hrnek and Donald Mathison.

The local now offers a new service to the district in the form of its 'Advertiser'. This will take the form of a bulletin board on which members may list articles for sale, or articles they wish to buy. A small fee is to be made to swell the treasury—and if you are in either the buying or selling market the man to phone is Harold Mathison.

Owing to the amount of business discussed the whist drive was again postponed, perhaps we'll squeeze it in at the next regular meeting. The President, Jim Magill wishes it announced however, that there will be a special meeting on Feb. 25th for the purpose of a discussion of the Co-op store prior to the annual meeting. We enjoyed having visitors—come again folks.

The Community association reports a good dance the other night. The next one will be on Friday 22nd. Don't forget the Talent Night and Sadie Hawkins dance on the 29th. It is sponsored by the Goodwill club and proceeds are tagged for the hall fund. Participants for the Talent program are audition free and are asked to phone their entries in to Vera Romanchok, Myrtle McMullen or Beth Grant.

Sincere sympathy is extended to Steve Romanchok and family on the recent death of his mother.

Bouquets to Whom it May Concern Dept.—and that covers almost the whole district. The Austin are being about ready to take to the highway again, we thought it only fitting to voice our gratitude:

1. To those who fetched home the bacon, also the bread, butter and other sundries for us:

2. To those who picked up our hitch-hiking boys:

3. To those who so often 'just dropped in to see if we wanted to go' (being us—naturally we always did). We do appreciate it try to do right by you sometime, too.

That's all for this time folks.

WILL ATTEND CONVENTION

Mr. M. Hill of Marshall-Wells stores at Vermilion, accompanied by Mrs. Hill, will leave shortly for Vancouver to attend the Marshall-Wells stores 4th annual convention being held in the Company's auditorium, commencing Feb. 25th.

"Mr. Hill said, "I will bring back a few surprises for the people of Vermilion and district. At their convention last year, Marshall-Wells gave us a lot of new merchandising ideas and methods of providing better service, and I hear that this year they have an even better program lined up."

Selected and brought in from all parts of the world, the very latest hardware merchandise will be on display. Nationally and internationally known speakers will introduce new lines of merchandise. Sales clinics will be held and leaders in the field of selling will give practical demonstrations on how to give better service to customers.

"After my return from the convention, I will be able to offer my customers the very latest in merchandise. This, together with new sales techniques and store improvements, will enable me to offer an even greater standard of shopping pleasure," said Mr. Hill. 33c

Did You Know?

Did you know that Canadian beef is inspected for your protection? Most of the meat consumed in Canada is slaughtered under federal inspection. This means that Canada Dept. of Agriculture veterinarians examine carcasses for disease at the time of slaughter and see that sanitary conditions prevail in packing plants. Every carcass that is passed for human consumption by these veterinarians bears the round, purple 'Canadian Approved' health stamp. It is your guarantee that the meat is entirely wholesome and has been handled properly. This stamp does not indicate grade, but only meat which bears it may be government graded and stamped for quality.

Quality Beef

Do you know that Canadian beef is graded according to quality? Beef passing through inspected plants is graded according to quality. Grade A, Grade B, Grade C and Grade D. All Grade A and B beef is killed under inspection and is stamped Choice for Grade A or Red brand and Good for Grade B or Blue brand Canner for beef not killed under federal inspection. the consumer knows that beef without the grade mark is of Commercial or Utility quality. The grade mark, stamped in harmless colouring, may be identified on the carcass by 'ribbon-like bands running full length of the side. A section of this hart appears on each retail cut so that you can recognize the grade. Some packers or establishments use their own trade name in the ribbon band but the grade always appears.

On Call

Bill is his name for everyday, But 'William' brings him in from play.

Cooking of Egg White

The film of egg white over fried egg yolks can be cooked in three ways that I've thought of. If you've any more suggestions would you please send them in? If you have a pan that has a close fitting lid the film of white may cook just with the lid on. If not, you may spoon the hot grease over the yolk until the white is cooked. Or you may turn the eggs over just to cook the top then pick them up carefully and flip them over, so the top will be up. Or the easiest way is to put just a bit of hot water into the pan and cover it with a tight lid—the steam does the cooking.

Question

I wonder if I'll catch you on this question. The answer will be in this column next week. If you know the answer, step up to the front of the class. What is the difference between scissors and shears?

Immigration Policy

MOST CANADIANS ARE AWARE that the population has increased greatly through immigration in the years since the war. Actually more than 500,000 immigrants have come to Canada since 1946. Of these, 193,-718 were from the United Kingdom, 108,000 from Northern Europe, nearly 80,000 from the United States and the rest from other countries. It has recently been announced that in the first eleven months of 1953, 174,000 immigrants arrived in Canada from other countries. This was the largest number to come in any one year since 1913 when there was a record total of 400,000 immigrants. It was expected that in 1951 the number would reach about 150,000, but that figure was exceeded, and a further 20,000 residents of Great Britain were awaiting passage to Canada at the end of the year.

Have Filled Many Needs

Many of the newcomers are skilled workers some having been brought here by industries to fill needs for personnel in plants and factories. Others have come to work on construction projects, to go on the land or to find work in the cities. Whatever their callings, these new citizens have helped to swell Canada's population to 14,000,000 and have filled many needs for additional workers across the country. Immigration authorities report that the majority of these people travelled to this country on their own resources or with the help of the Canadian government under a program designed to encourage immigration to Canada.

Fit into Life Here

Some interesting facts regarding Canada's post-war immigration policy are contained in the last edition of the Canada Year Book. The policy is summed up as being to ensure the careful selection and permanent settlement in Canada of such immigrants as can be absorbed advantageously into the national economy. There is growing need for skilled workers in Canada's expanding industries and on the farms, and it is expected that there will again be a large number of immigrants entering Canada in the coming year. Arrangements have already been made to provide facilities for air and sea transportation for many from the United Kingdom. No estimates have yet been given for the coming year but the present general policy will be continued and no doubt a large number of new citizens will be absorbed into the life of the country as the year progresses. The last great period of immigration, which took place in the years just before the First World War, was at a time of great expansion in Canada and it would appear that the high rate of immigration at the present time is also accompanying a period of rapid development, perhaps greater than that which took place in the early years of the present century.

Big Milk Shortage Feared By 1955

EDMONTON. — A top Canadian dairyman said that if the trend toward reduced dairy production continues until 1955 Canada will be short 1,000,000,000 pounds of milk or the production of at least 200,000 cows in that year.

Wyle Kitchen of Woodstock Ont., secretary-manager of the Dairy Farmers of Canada, gave this estimate, at the convention of the Alberta Dairymen's Association which opens here.

Mr. Kitchen said Canada has fallen from its position as a large exporter of dairy products to the point where last year "we just produced enough for our own needs."

He blamed unfavorable financial returns and said this is leading farmers to sell their cattle at current high beef prices.

"Well," said Mrs Dumbly, "I bought size four last time."

"I understand you have a very economical wife."

"Oh, yes. We have to go without practically everything I need."

Farmers' Civil Defence Job

CALGARY.—Civil defence officials say Canadian farmers and residents of rural areas have as "big a job" in the nation's civil defence set-up as city dwellers.

The people of Canada's open spaces will be called upon to do three main jobs in event of war.

(1) Take care of evacuees and injured from bombed cities.

(2) Help nearby cities to recover from air raids.

(3) Stop enemy agents from destroying or damaging crops.

"Rural areas may be relatively immune to homing, but they can expect trouble just as devastating in its effects as any that cities may suffer," the civil defence experts said.

Thorncliffe W. I.

The February meeting of Thorncliffe W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. Jean Scarrow on Thursday night at Thorncliffe school on Feb. 6th at 8 p.m. There were four members and two visitors present. Six little children kept things lively. This was the first meeting of the year as cold weather and sickness prevented having the January meeting held.

The meeting was opened with O Canada followed by the Ode and answering the roll call, a healthful hint. Many business items were discussed. We decided to hold our dance on Feb. 15th. A small but very active crowd attended and everyone had a good time.

The social of the meeting was then held with Mrs. Scarrow as hostess, a little late but nevertheless they were well meant.

The next meeting closed with the singing of 'God Save the Queen'. A delicious lunch was served by the hostesses, Mrs. Harry Sweeney and Mrs. Jim Moses.

The next meeting will be held at Mrs. Earl Watt's on March 5th at 8 00 p.m. The roll call will be 'How to Preserve Unspoiled Acclivities' and the social will be a joke.

Bill Barr Wins The Grand Challenge

OTHER CUP WINNERS: FORD OF BALT, MEDICINE OF WENTE, BOTTOMLEY AND GORDON ROSE, MACDONALD

The veteran local skip Bill Barr captured another bonspiel in Vermilion's 40th annual and largest bonspiel when he won the Grand Challenge in a closely contested final with Walt Lawrenceson of Mannville. Curling on the Barr rink were Bill McLaughlin at third, Walter Robinson second man and Bob Fair lead. The runners-up team was skipped by Walt Lawrenceson with Garry Malpass, Bob Otto and Fred Watkins jr. Third prize went to Glen Gibbons, Vermilion and fourth to Ivan Inman, Islay.

Winning cups is not a new experience for Skip Barr. As early as 1929 his name appears as lead on the rink winning the Grand Challenge. From that time on he has won several times. He has also competed for annually at the Vermilion spiel.

Telford Memorial

The Telford Memorial competition was won by the Fred rink from Islay. This was skipped by Dalton Torrance with Harold Burd jr. at third, Wilfred Pervin 2nd and Percy Golby lead. This rink lost just one game in the spiel.

Second prize was won by Walter Parker of Dewberry; 3rd—Ed Conley, Vermilion; 4th—Dr. A. Ben King, Vermilion.

Mac Simonsen's local quartet captured the Vermilion event. His rink was comprised of Cliff McGrath 1st, Grant Hetherington 2nd, Irwin Gordon: 2nd—F. M. Stewart, Vermilion; 3rd—Gray Minburn: 4th—Woodrow, Edam, Sask.

The Pillsb Cup

Skip Gordon Rose with Bill Cress, Alex Kallas and Mungo Parker proved the class of the Pillsb competition, second went to Darrell Carson, Islay; 3rd—Chet Summers, Wildmere; 4th—R. Bodard, Vermilion.

This year's bonspiel attracted no less than 80 rinks, one of the largest, if not the largest, of any curling spiel in the West. Games started Monday morning, four competitions were completed by Thursday night and the 5th on Friday. Nine sheets of ice were used.

Honors for the most entries from one club went to Buffalo Coulee Rifle Band curling minded district sent in no less than 10 rinks, 40 curlers.

Biggest end of the spiel was scored in the second draw Monday by Bill Bolgerhiad when he banked a seven-ender.

Of the 80 rinks competing 53 were visiting curlers and 27 local. The visitors represented 21 clubs.

"GREEN ACRES"

Feeding the Sow

"Most of the weak pigs when born can be traced to poor feeding of the sow. Feed the sow a balanced ration of chop and a concentrate of minerals, vitamins and protein. Also don't forget the potassium iodide tablet. Feed in particular on raising healthy litters from your D.A. office.

How About Lilacs?

This flowering bush is easy to grow and lasts for years. Every farmstead should have one but ought to have a few lilacs. There are many different varieties. Why not get a few this year? I have nursery catalogs in my office to look over.

Stick Sharpeners

Anyone operating one ways or dickers ought to have a disk sharpener. It can be used without taking off the disks. Use the power take-off of the tractor. With the long emmine straw this year it will help to sharpen disks often. The price is $30 from the Government Spare Parts Depot, Edmonton.

Feeding Cattle

Mr. Ivan Cobb, Supervisor of Feeder associations reports that he visited about 20 farmers in this district last week and found that mostly the cattle were doing well. Some feeders appear to be inclined to fatten cattle on straw. It can't be done. Fat cattle are selling well right now but half finished cattle will not make much for anybody. Feed 10 to 12 pounds of hay and a land hay added to barley and oat chop. Then don't forget a protein and mineral supplement but forget the straw.

Use the Seed Fair

Have a look at the Vermilion Agricultural Society Seed Fair in the Agriculture hall. Study the best for seed for sale class. Also you ought to be in on the agricultural meeting to be held in the same building on the same day. Mr. A. M. Wilson, Field Crops Commissioner and Mr. C. A. Weir, Supervisor of Plant Production Services, Calgary will be the special speakers.

Gooseberry Culture

A new circular entitled 'Gooseberry Culture' has just arrived at the D. A. Office. There is no reason why every farm should not grow all the gooseberries, raspberries and currants that can be used. Get booklets on how to grow these fruits and where to get a start.

The annual Vermilion Seed Fair held under the joint auspices of the Vermilion Agricultural Society, the Department of Agriculture and the Municipalities of Vermilion River and Minburn will be held this week end with the judging choosing over the grains on Friday and the exhibits being open to the public on Saturday, Feb. 23rd.

To date over 100 entries have been received and a very substantial quantity of grain noted for sale to those requiring good seed. Germination tests will be indicated on cards with each sample and all farmers are urged to attend the seed fair on Saturday and especially to hear C. Selby Weir of the Dominion Dept. of Agriculture and Archie M. Wilson, Field Crops Commissioner for the Province of Alberta on Saturday afternoon when they discuss problems incidental to the vital matter of good seed for the season of 1952. Both of these men are fully competent to analyze the seed question for the benefit of grain growers in this area and their addresses will present an opportunity which should not be missed. A dance Saturday night will follow the talks in an endeavor to elicit as much useful information as possible.

Pretty Wedding At The United Church

REDFORD—HINES

A recent wedding of interest which united Geraldine Jane Hines, oldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Scotty Hines of Vermilion, and George Andrew Redford, eldest son of Mr. G. Redford of Edmonton, was solemnized in the First United church, Edmonton with Rev. Mac Kay officiating.

The bride looked radiant in a plain floor-length gown of white triple satin, fashioned with a sweetheart neckline, lily-point sleeves and a full skirt. Her train-length veil was held in place by a coronet decorated with seed pearls. She carried a Colonial bouquet of sweetheart roses centred with an orchid camelia, and her only jewelry was a gold necklet.

The bride's attendants, Yvonne Peterson, Vermilion, and Miss Redford of Edmonton, were dressed in yellow and green respectively, both in floor-length gowns of net and lace and carried bouquets of seasonal flowers.

Attending he groom were Andy Musak, Vermilion, and Terry Hines, of Marwayne.

Mr. Wm. Elford played the wedding music and during the signing of the register Mrs. Peterson sang 'Because'.

Following the ceremony, a reception for some forty guests was held at the Brunswick hotel. Mr. P. F. Peterson proposed the toast to the bride to which the groom fittingly replied.

For the wedding the bride's mother chose a wine suit complemented with brown accessories and a corsage of white baby mums.

Later in the evening a dance was held in the Elks hall. Following a short honeymoon the bride and groom will be found making their home at 10635-111th St., Edmonton.

Death of Mrs. Sara Jane Beck

AGED 94 YEARS

One of Vermilion's venerable Pioneers, Mrs. Sara Jane Beck passed on to her eternal rest on Sunday, Feb. 24th. The esteemed lady had reached the advanced age of 94 years. The death took place at the home of her daughter, Mrs. H. R. Parker.

The deceased was born in Erin Township, Wellington County, Ont., coming west to southern Alberta 45 years ago, and to Vermilion in 1911.

Up to the death of Mrs. Beck there were five generations of the family, and for a time all five lived at the Parker home in Vermilion. Surviving members of the family are one daughter, Mrs. H. R. Parker, Vermilion; three granddaughters, Mrs. R. I. Bell, Vermilion, Mrs. J. H. Smith, in Ontario, Mrs. Brian McLellan on the Saskatchewan; five great grandchildren and one great-great grandchild now living in Toronto.

Funeral services are being held from St. Saviour's Anglican church this Thursday Feb. 28th. Interment will be at the Vermilion cemetery. Mayer's are in charge of arrangements.

V.H.S. Girls Basketball Team Defeat All Opposition

The V.H.S. girls have developed into an outstanding basketball team this year. They defeated the Colts for the third time last Wednesday night by a score of 39 to 20 in a sixth consecutive game. Then they drubbed the Wainwright High school by a resounding 71-16 score to stretch their winning streak to 7 games.

While the Seniors romped away to all out victories, the Juniors had a hard crossed to squeeze a 22-20 decision over Wainwright Juniors. The Vermilion Juniors have developed into a very strong district and the same opposition by the margin of two points, and set the stage for keen rivalry for the next couple of years when both teams move to senior ranks.

In view of the number of basketball players graduating from high schools in Vermilion, Lloydminster and Wainwright, it is undoubtedly only a matter of time before senior men's and women's teams take to the floor in these towns. Wainwright has a dandy new gym. Lloydminster's is in the process of completion. Vermilion will have the use of the auditorium and the gym at the college. Only the lack of facilities has held up the formation of senior basketball teams. It is probable ...ld in the near future this will be one of the major sports in Vermilion and surrounding towns.

The three-day event, intended to stimulate parent interest in the university, will get underway Friday evening, Feb. 29th, with the 11th annual faculty athletic sports evening known as the Athletic Carnival. This event has been held separately in past years but now is to be combined with the overall plan for Varsity Guest week end. It will include athletic events of all kinds tumbling, wrestling, boxing, basketball, etc.

In addition, Dean Saunder's Arms, an inter-varsity competition with the University of Saskatchewan, will take place on Saturday night.

Special tours, covering all main campus buildings and points of interest will be conducted by members of the Interfaculty Council during Saturday afternoon.

Sunday, a combined non-sectarian church service will be held in the Vocation hall for visiting parents.

These and many other events will be on tap for the visitors to the University campus during the gala week end.

The next game will be played in Vermilion on Saturday March 1st. This has been a crowd-pleasing series so far with both teams playing fast, clean hockey of a very high standard.

Lloydminster Huskies Win

Seed Cleaning Plant Reports Good Progress

About twenty canvassers for shares met on Saturday and lined well over $7000 as collected for building the local seed cleaning plant.

It was agreed that the canvassers should continue to sell shares in amount of $4000 more to make it over this project. The shares are priced at $25 each and the larger operators are mostly taking from two to four shares each.

Mr. F. Van Wageningen was chairman of the meeting and Mrs. Pearman acted as secretary in place of Mr. McCormick who is away at the coast. It was decided to hold another meeting on April 5th at 2 00 p.m. in the armories.

The chairman urged that the canvassers and everyone else should get all out in supporting the project. The prospect of selling another $4000 in shares is not too difficult unless the farmers here feel that they really want a seed cleaning plant.

SPRING OPEN DANCE AT V.S. A.

FRIDAY, MARCH 7th

The annual Spring open dance at the school of agriculture is being held on Friday, March 7th.

Sponsored by members of the staff, the Spring dance is one of the three open functions of this kind held at the school during the year. It provides former students and their friends as well as citizens of the town and district with an opportunity to enjoy a dance in the pleasant setting and surroundings offered by the school of agriculture.

Of special interest to many in this district is the fact the dance music will be supplied by the orchestra from St. Paul including several high school boys and featuring Ronnie Barwick who for a great number of years was Vermilion's Band in Vermilion. The dance will begin in the gymnasium at 8 00 p.m. and supper will be served in the dining room at 11 00 and 11 30. A good attendance is expected.

"CYMANFA GANU"

WELSH PEOPLE TO CELEBRATE ST. DAVID'S DAY WITH BANQUET, ETC.

Soon it will be St. Davids Day, Saturday March 1st, when Welsh people everywhere, will think of the land of their fathers and pay tribute to the Patron Saint of the Principality of Wales.

Where it is pre-Bile groups get together at a banquet and sing song. This year, 1952, the Edmonton St. David's Society after the usual banquet at the Corona hotel are continuing their form of celebration on Sunday March 2nd by holding their first annual "Cymanfa Ganu" or festival of sacred song.

To quote Judge David G. Jenkins of the U.S who writes: "It is not generally known, but a fact nevertheless, that part of the genius of the development and origin among the Cymry or Welsh Giraldens, the famous Welsh historian speaks of their skill in vocal music which they sing in parts not unison. This skill and custom through the ages finds its expression today in the 'Cymanfa Ganu'. It is expressed in the soul of the Welsh, since it gives an outlet for their deep and fervent religious feeling through the medium they love best, the music of human voices blended in harmony. It is, as it must be to the Welsh, a democratic institution for persons of all positions in life take part in it. This has given the congregational singing of the Welsh people first place among the nations. The beginnings of 'Cymanfa Ganu' were humble, in the little chapels and churches, which in such numbers dot the hills and vales of Cambria, after the religious services were over the congregations would remain for an hour of song.

Music like religion, speaks an universal language. It uplifts and benefits all it touches. To the spirit of Canada and America gallant little Wales has contributed much and it is confidently believed that the 'Cymanfa Ganu' is not the least among the gifts."

Brenda Cowan, of Argleydd

"Come let us sing unto the Lord."

The above heading is on the title page of a book containing 50 favorite Welsh hymns and melodies with English words too, published by the National Cymanfa Ganu Assoc. of the United States and Canada which book will be used at the Edmonton St. Davids celebration on March 1 and 2.

A hearty invitation is extended to Welsh people visiting the city to join at one or both of these events.

Vermilion Midgets Make Good Showing Against Vegreville

Taking part in the Provincial Midget play-downs for the first time in the town's history, the Vermilion Midgets met the fast-traveling Vegreville Chevrolets in the first round. Vegreville each year has conservative both in the midget and juvenile classes and the boys in both age groups have brought home many provincial championships. Last year they went all the way in the juvenile (18 years and under) class and this season they have an outstanding midget team, one which must Friday night will win the provincial crown.

It was against this team which the Vermilion boys played and made a very good showing, having lost one last period in each game.

At Vermilion on Friday night, it was 1-1 at the end of the first, 2-all at the end of the second, the locals faced a good rip for the game at this period. Then the visitors in the three period scored four goals, as their superior manpower came into effect. It was a good game to watch and the visitors showed that they had been carefully coached and trained for more than one season.

Scoring for Vermilion was Murray Lowrie unassisted, with Bud Acheson accounting for the second on a pass-out from Stewart Cooper. For the visitors Ruptash scored 3, Kubruck 2 and Malko 1. Assists went to Hantiuk, Ruptash and Kubreck.

At Vegreville the Vermilion boys had a bad first period, the Veg team scoring four times. From then on it was a see-saw battle with the home-townsters scoring once in the second and one more in the third. The Vermilion lads had fully as much of the play in the final two stanzas.

Lineups

VERMILION—Ken Brown, Stewart Barr, Marvin Little, Stewart Cooper, John Stewart, Bob Acheson, Ernie Bruhlwasie, Ed Matal, Murray Lowrie, Jack Barr, Jim Winters, Bob Bentley, Doug Brower, Joe Wildimon, Dan Kosanovitch.

Entering the Vermilion Midgets in the provincial play-downs has given quite an impetus to the interest those young worthies took in their hockey this winter. They have been coached by Jim Bell of the high school staff who has spent many hours each week with the boys, and the team has had Principal M. F. Smetzer as business manager. They have played quite a number of exhibition games, and this age group in hockey has been particularly well looked after during the winter.

For the game here Russell Carroll and Gorsline of Vegreville refereed, with Ed Hamula and Gorsline officiating at Vegreville.

Seagram TELLS THE WORLD

"For clean taste... look to Canada"

"Say 'Canada' and you think of sparkling-clear air; of icy, running streams; of ice-frosted farms and orchards. It seems only natural, then, that there should be an especially clean taste to so many of the good things from this forested land."

The above illustration and text are from an advertisement now being published by The House of Seagram throughout the world—in Latin America, Asia, Europe, and Africa. This is one of a series of advertisements featuring Canadian scenes and Canadian food specialties. They are designed to make Canada better known throughout the world, and to help our balance of trade by assisting our Government's efforts to attract tourists to this great land.

The House of Seagram feels that the horizon of industry does not terminate at the boundary of its plants; it has a broader horizon, a further view—a view dedicated to the development of Canada's stature in every land of the globe.

Two People Trying To Stay Each Other From Doing The Same Thing.

By MAUDE HORMAN

ROBERT sat looking at his wife. How could she sit there so quietly, head bent above her sewing, knowing she had the means of putting Uncle Ben to sleep—he shrank from the word—somewhere about the house?

She gave an exclamation and looked at her finger, where the needle had pricked it. "I hate blood," she quavered, putting the injured digit to her mouth. "It's so—"

"Most women hate the sight of blood," Robert answered, watching her closely. "That's why they choose a different way of getting rid of someone who stands in their way. Women generally use poison."

The fair head bent lower, she began to rip out stitches.

"Is there anything you would like to tell me, Jeanne?" he asked gently. "Anything to tell you?" she echoed. "Of course not. Have you anything to tell me?"

"What would I have to tell?" he countered.

"That you had seen Mr. Ralston about that job as I asked you."

He moved restlessly. "I intended to, but I knew Uncle Ben would be angry and I didn't want to excite him."

"Uncle Ben!" Jeanne folded her work with shaking hands. "Of course you mustn't offend Uncle Ben. Ever since we've been married, everything has been Uncle Ben. We came here to live because he wanted us. You couldn't get a job because Uncle Ben wanted you near to jump when he spoke. In return for this devotion, Uncle Ben will leave you his money when he dies. That is, if you're a good boy and don't displease him Well," her voice rose—"I'm sick of catering to his whims and I'm sick—"

"I suppose you're sick of me?" Robert cut in.

"I'm sick of your spineless attitude," she cried. "I was considered a lucky girl when I married you. The heir of rich, old Benjamin Dolby. Rich and good-looking, what more could any girl want? And what did I really marry? A weakling! If you haven't enough backbone to end it I have."

"Did you know a bottle of sleeping pills was missing from the doctor's bags?" he asked.

Jeanne's body tensed. "So I heard. How can he know but what they weren't put in his bag?"

"I asked him that, but he said his office girl was always careful, filling his bag. He missed them after he had been up to see Uncle. He asked me if we had seen anyone around his bag. I said no, naturally."

"Naturally," Jeanne repeated. "Why did he have to leave his bag where anyone could get at it? If anything happens, he's to blame, putting temptation in a person's way—" Sobbing, she ran from the room.

Robert wiped his face with a trembling hand. His suspicions were confirmed, and he was to blame. Poor, pretty Jeanne. He must find the pills and destroy them, without letting her know he was aware of her plan.

He searched everywhere. Had Jeanne kept changing the hiding place? He knew he didn't imagine the guilty look on her face. Then he found her in the solarium, digging around the flowers.

"You'll get your hands dirty," he said, quietly.

She swung around with a startled cry. "The earth around the flowers needed loosening," she began lamely, then stopped. "Robert," she found it difficult to continue, "whatever happens, I want you to know I love you and always will. I didn't mean what I said—"

A lump caught in Robert's throat. She was doing this for him. "I love you too," he said huskily—"for the sake of our love, give me the pills—"

"Give you the pills," she gasped. "Why—"

The phone rang. Robert answered. He turned back. "It was the doctor," he stammered. "The pills weren't in his bag after all. His regular girl was ill, the substitute forgot to put them in. I thought you had taken them, to give to Uncle Ben."

"And I thought you had!" Jeanne collapsed in his arms. "I was trying to find them before you could give them to him. What fools we've been"

"I've been a fool for years," Robert stroked her hair. "But that's ended. We'll get a place of our own. If it's only one room, Uncle Ben can do as he pleases with his money. From now on, I earn my own

Alexanders Loved Canada

LORD ALEXANDER

HALIFAX. The Alexanders, a wonderful English family who loved Canada and were loved in return, are back in England.

Viscount Alexander returned to Britain and the big job as defence minister as the most popular and understanding governor-general in Canada.

Canadians admired his reserved but open manner, the way he did things, and perhaps most of all, the wholesome, solid sense that surrounded his family life. Here, they said, was a man who knew Canadians.

He skied on the Gatineau country's gentle slopes painted Canadian scenes, talked about Winnipeg's flood waters, shinned down a brass fire station pole and won his air force wings.

In his farewell address he said that he and his family had spent the happiest six years of their life among the Canadian people. "For us Canada has become our second home, and we shall always look upon it as such

"The affection and friendship of the Canadian people is one of my most treasured possessions, and I rely confidently on adequate terms not directly be said."

I am glad that it is to someone who is not only a personal friend of mine but one who is a distinguished and well-known man who has all the attributes and qualifications which will make him a worthy representative of our Queen.

"English John" Has Lived With Indians For Past 50 Years

Although a White Man He Speaks the Language and Even Thinks Like An Indian

BISSETT Man.—People who are finicky about their diet should try the fare of "English John", a trapper on the fringe of this rock-girt mining settlement, 180 miles northeast of Winnipeg. English John has lived with the Indians of Manitoba for 50 years or more and thinks he was a small boy. He speaks the language better than most natives

He even thinks like an Indian. In he was sent to Canada and arrived as a farm at Stonewall Man. After attending a dish-washing job in Winnipeg, further travels in the United States at the age of 12 he returned to Manitoba somewhere around 62 he has only spent most of the trade of his adopted red by a Saulteaux Indian

Barren Land Caribou Start Northern Trek

CHURCHILL Man Barren Land caribou have started to migrate north in spring after the winter south of Churchill

The caribou were reported moving in a slightly west of last years which bring close to the coast and west inland from Churchill

Sometimes we would go three and four days without food he says. We had to—the meat of it all there was a lot went hungry. But I had good times, too, and thanks that I was born for me

Typical for the trappers in this district is Alfred Bissett, the assortment of foods would put a trapper's supply room to shame.

First they brought in baseball soup flavored with a pair of. This was followed by a 22-pound flank of beaver served with some partridge.

Other items on the menu were Tomato pies and two moose. $2 for a pound roast turkey and dressing a prairie grass was home cranberry apple, gooseberry cheeseberry, strawberry and ice cream ash pickles, pickled nasturtium pods, sage and squirrel apple sauce and lemon pie and coffee

English John has a reputation of leaving his Indian friends. But he admits he got tired of trapping wolverines and takes the odd trip out always to Bissett.

He says that at one time, when he first came to Manitoba, he spent 36 years in the bush with Indians without seeing a white man.

When I first saw my own kind again I was so shy of them I couldn't even look them in the eye.

His real name is John Henry Thomas but he is so well known by the "English John" handle that banks in Bissett cash cheques made out to him under that name.

His unusual story starts somewhere in Cornwall England. His father a doctor died when John was quite young and the boy ran away from home

Two years later at the age of 10,

Do You Know That . . .

THE TILLERS

—By Les Carroll

"It's time Pop knew some of the facts of life!"

If young Hank about parents. They can be so subject about some things—ah, blind to other things.

Take ex- Pop, for instance. When I first bowed into the cun fusing world he was wise enough to take out more life insurance. Now, if anything happens to him, Mom — I still have so many fine groceries and rent. And I can go on playing here, instead of having to be a president or something, to earn a living.

For that, I give Pop full credit. Yet he's always complaining about how tough it is to save more money these days. Why can't he see that he can use life insurance — with its options for putting money aside regularly — to reach other goals. That way, saving's as easy as sucking a toy!

Another thing. As I observe economic conditions in this great nation of ours, one fact is increasingly evident. Every dollar that's saved helps to check inflation. So we should all save as much as we can, every way we can.

That's what I've gotten Pop. And if he doesn't listen to reason, I'll just shout all over his new digs!

Life insurance dollars save you these other ways:

A large part of every life insurance dollar you pay is invested so that future generations of Canadians will have the money they need for schools, hospitals, highways and other Canadian needs.

Hundreds of millions of these dollars have been at work in this way, helping to build Canada. Perhaps some of these dollars are helping to finance homes and many other things that are of real benefit to you and your family.

Today the life insurance business is helping to provide employment for thousands of Canadians, and is paying out more than thirty million dollars every month to policyholders and their families. Thus the life insurance business is helping to build a stronger and prosperous Canada throughout the nation's future.

Another ice carnival has come and gone — with festivities related over this year by Ella Mann, the carnival queen of 1952. The royal procession had across the ice to the throne by Margaret Milne, the Crown Bearer, followed by Standard bearer Jessie Mann and Page Betty Besse. Next came Queen Ella escorted by Mayor Dale and then the Princesses, Kathryn Reid and Margery Robertson. After the singing of O Canada Mayor Dale placed the crown on the Queen's head and presented her with a necklace, bracelet and earring set. Long live the Queen was sung by the students after which Shirley Horsley, the President of the Students' Council, gave a short speech. The Queen then presented the Princesses with necklaces and earrings, the Standard Bearers with brooches and earrings and the Crown Bearer with a bracelet. The lucky draw made by the Queen, resulted in the $10 adult prize being won by Alice Kelly of Lloydminster, and the $5 children's prize by Terry Dunlevring, Streamstown. K.H.S. was then hastily swept followed by 'God Save the Queen'.

The early part of the evening was taken up with the judging of the costumes which were many and varied. Judging was efficiently handled by Messrs. Archie Miller, Bob Noyes and Bert Stokes.

A large crowd enjoyed the very successful dance which followed the Carnival.

Retiring President Reviews Board Of Trade Activities Past Year

The following report was given by the retiring president, Mr. D.R. Mitchell, and serves to illustrate the many avenues of activity undertaken by the Vermilion Board of Trade during 1951.

"I have now to report to you a short review of the activities of the Board during the past year. Before doing so I wish to tell you I have enjoyed my term as President. Your President has a lot of work to do and I feel that each succeeding year will bring added duties. This is as it should be because it shows the Board is progressing.

I wish to thank the members of the executive, the chairmen of the committees and the members at large, all of whom have contributed greatly towards whatever the Board has been able to accomplish this last year.

I wonder sometimes if each of us has a clear idea of what our organization is and stands for. Few of us, I believe, could fully define the nature of the Board of Trade if we were suddenly asked to do so. The definition used in the Canadian Institute for Board and Chamber secretaries is: 'A voluntary association of citizens to promote the commercial, industrial, agricultural and civic welfare of the community and of the district in which it lies. Adopting this definition it seems to me we can measure various projects and activities to see whether they come within the scope of our Board of Trade. The definition also offers a challenge to the business men and farmers of this town and district, in fact to all who make their livelihood in the town and district, to make a living, vital organization out of this Board of Trade.

Increased Attendance

I am very glad that the members of the Board in spite of the increased price of the luncheons unanimously decided to continue the weekly luncheons and that our attendance has risen inversely rather than decreased. It appears to me this shows a renewed interest in the activities of the Board which I trust will result in an increase in the number of the Board during the coming year.

I shall now give you a summary covering our activities during the past year:

Civic

The Board approved one color 'Vermilion' as the official color for the Town of Vermilion and requested organizations to incorporate the same with their colors.

Industrial Projects

Under the able chairmanship of Mr. A. M. Watt, the Industrial committee did considerable work in an endeavor to attract new industries to the town. In this connection Mr. Watt and your President last March attended in Edmonton on Mr. R. McMullen the Agent-General for Alberta, at Alberta House in London, England. This committee also discussed the matter with Mr. Marland, Alberta Director of Publicity, as a result of which Vermilion and its resources here were definitely brought to the attention of Mr. McMullen and Mr. Marland, who said that his office was a clearing house for the placing of industries in the province.

In this connection the Board suggested to the Town Council the establishment of an industrial area in the Town of Vermilion.

A new armories for the local militia has been built in Vermilion during the past year and is now practically completed. The Board gave its active support in bringing this about.

Under the able chairmanship of Mr. Tom Conboy, Vermilion Fire Chief, the Board entered the annual fire contest sponsored by the Canadian Chamber, and although we did not win a prize the secretary was advised that we were in very fine showing.

An expenditure was made to supply the Boys' band with suitable banners when they appeared in the Edmonton Exhibition Parade of Progress.

Mr. Chalmers, chairman of the Ways and Means committee, arranged with owners of cars to transport hockey players to the games and this was very much appreciated by the Hockey Club.

The Industrial committee has during the year endeavored to interest a chemical plant in locating here.

As a result of the promotion of the Board the Eastern Alberta Livestock Association was organized in March last year and has held very successful monthly cattle sales at Vermilion ever since.

As a result of the combined efforts of Mr. Ashley Cooper, chairman of Publicity committee, Mr. A. M. Watt, chairman of the Industrial committee and Mr. Chalmers, the Alberta Director of Publicity, Mr. Marland minograph and 3000 colour copies of the Economic Survey of Vermilion and distributed the same practically all over the world. It is interesting to note in this connection that acknowledgments of the receipt of this booklet were received from more than a dozen companies including the Canadian National Railway head office, which requested copies for their representatives in New York, London, Winnipeg and Vancouver. The Edinburgh Scotchman, published in Edinburgh, Scotland, printed a long story about Vermilion from the facts gleaned from this industrial survey. It would appear, I am sure, that Vermilion gained immense publicity from the distribution of this booklet and the money disbursed was well spent.

The Board was instrumental in having 'Welcome Banners' prepared and purchased by the business men for display on the occasion of the Teachers' convention, the opening of the V.S.A. and other such events.

As in the past, Vermilion has continued to receive the utmost cooperation from the Vermilion Standard and from Mr. Ashley Cooper in seeing to it that that activities of the Board are fully reported in the Standard and in the Edmonton Journal. We ... to Mr. Carmichael in charge [illegible] on hand since he has returned, to take pictures on occasions of importance to the Board of Trade and to the town.

Paradise Valley

Annual School Meeting Held

The annual school meeting of the Paradise Valley school district was held in the auditorium on Monday afternoon Feb. 18th. The best attendance of ratepayers in years made the meeting very successful. Mr. R. Steward was elected chairman and Mrs. F. V. Gann secretary of the meeting. Matters of interest such as improved lighting for the basement room, better arrangements for fire escape, toilet facilities, water supply and various other matters. The granting of the use of the auditorium to outside parties also caused quite a discussion. In this matter the local board is held down by the resolutions of the Divisional board. Mr. Clarke Stoddart the retiring member of the board was relected by acclamation. It was decided to hold the next annual meeting in the evening as some held the opinion that a better turn out of ratepayers would result.

Answer to Last Week's Question

Scissors are made with handles of equal size.

Shears are used for heavier work and have one handle larger than the other. Several fingers will fit in the large handle, providing good leverage. Most scissors and shears come in different lengths, so try several pairs before you buy. Be sure each is most comfortable and easiest to work with.

Let Them Scribble

This article was written by a young mother, and is such a good idea that you might be able to use it. I hope you do.

"I wonder how many parents made the mistake I did in decorating children's rooms? As I remember I thought it was charming, but I found to my chagrin that it left the little darlings completely cold. After countless tussle with my children about the everlasting clutter of their rooms and the crayon markings on the walls, I decided to do something sensible about it. Instead of the nagging which, so far, had gotten me nowhere.

I still wanted to indulge my own preference for a pretty circus paper and ruffled curtains, but I thought vaguely of some sort of washable wallboard around the lower part of the room. After all, the children (four and six) were young, and I supposed it was useless to appeal to them when it was so much fun to color the designs on the paper. Then I had an idea! Why not give them a wall they could write on? So, to make a long story short, that's exactly what I did.

All around their walls, I put a 4-foot wainscoting which could 'take it'. We were going to buy regular blackboarding, but since our walls were of sheetrock, a paint salesman told us of a coating which could be painted over any smooth surface, making a perfect blackboard. We attached erasers to the top of the board by 4-foot chains, and boxes to hold chalk are nailed beside them. The children are thrilled with this spot where they and their friends draw and play school by the hour. A damp rag wiped over the walls once a week is all the attention they need.

I curbed my desire for frilly curtains, and simply added plastic ruffles across the tops of the Venetian blinds. Bedspreads are of matching plastic. In short, nothing in the room can't be cleaned with a damp cloth—except the wallpaper which at four feet from the floor no longer interests the artists. The children now feel that it is really their own room and even take pride in helping to keep it neat."

No question for next week because the space will be needed for something more important. Have I got you guessing now?

Farm Research

THE PRACTICAL APPLICATIONS of agricultural research have long been appreciated by Canadian farmers and there has been growing realization of its value in solving many of the problems connected with the operation of the farm. Work carried on by research scientists at universities, government experimental farms, the National Research Council and other organizations have contributed much towards the improvement of crops, livestock, farm machinery and many other phases of agricultural production. Although this work has been going on for many years, there are an unlimited number of problems yet to be solved and scientists are continually adding to the store of knowledge which helps the farmer in his work.

• • • •

Plan Tried in Alberta

The subject was discussed at a recent ... ave of experimental farm heads, held in Ottawa, and Mr. H. H. Hannam, president of the Canadian Federation of Agriculture, suggested that there should be a closer working relationship between government experimental stations and farmers' associations. Reference was made to the committee established last year by the Alberta Federation of Agriculture to work with the Lacombe Experimental Farm in Alberta. More such committees, Mr. Hannam suggested, would serve as a two-way link between research workers and farmers. Through them, farmers would be better able to make their problems known to the experimental farm staff and this would benefit the research workers as well as the farmers.

• • • •

Closer Tie is Suggested

Cordial relations have always existed between the scientists and the farmers, Mr. Hannam said, but he suggested that farmers' organizations throughout the country would welcome a closer working relationship between the two groups. Agricultural research is essentially the application of science to the problems of the farm and undoubtedly an effective link between the farm and the laboratory would be desirable. The formation of committees from the membership of farm organizations would be one means of bringing this about. The staff of experimental stations could also assist through making themselves acquainted with the problems of the farmers in the surrounding communities. Any steps which will increase the contributions which research is making to Canadian agriculture will be welcomed not only by the scientists and the farmers, but also by the general public which ultimately shares in the benefits

URGES LICENSING OF SOCIAL WORKERS TO PROTECT PUBLIC

VANCOUVER—Licensing of social workers "to protect the public against quacks," has been urged by Jay Mannon, national secretary of the Canadian Association of Social Workers.

She said the plan is being studied in association chapters in British Columbia, Saskatchewan and Quebec. It was hoped that registered workers will be able to move from province to province, although licensing will probably be on the provincial level.

Cardston, Alta., Looks For Big Year In Oil, Gas Development

LETHBRIDGE, Alta. — Cardston, settled by Mormon immigrants under Charles Ora Card, venerable churchman and colonizer from Utah, figures this year is going to be its big year in oil and gas development. To the east and south of the foothills town, with its million dollar Great White Temple, are the Spring Coulee and Del Bonita fields, to the north the Blood Indian Reserve, scene of important exploratory oil operations, and to the northwest, the Utah Pincher Creek wet gas field.

"We're sitting pretty, and Joseph Y. Card, son of the town's founder, recently as he reviewed the oil prospects in the corner of old-booming Alberta. Mr. Card is a director of Chief Mountain Oils, which has important acreage interests in the area.

He recalled that a Cardston man, "Old Man Bill Aldridge, was one of the discoverers of oil in Alberta back in 1897. And thereby hangs a tale going the rounds wherever oil men gather in the province.

Aldridge and his family moved to Waterton Lakes National Park, then the Kootenai Lakes and little more than a wilderness. They created what became known later as Aldridge Bay after "Old Bill", on the Middle Lake.

Now mountaineer Bill had heard from the Indians there was oil in the mountains west of Cardston, so he and his 13-year-old son, Oliver, now living in Cardston, although he still has been dead many years, set out to look for it.

They took their bedding, proverbial prospector's frying pan and coffee pot and tramped through thick timber. One noon camp the old setter sent his boy to the creek near Cameron Creek for a pail of water, while Bill built a fire.

Soon after, Oliver shouted back to his dad:

"Dad, come down here quick and see this black water!"

Old Bill trudged down to the creek, he startled as the boy, and peering the "black water" on the edge of the creek, felt it tasted it and yelled

"By gosh, kid, it's oil!"

They may where the bears had made a wallow on the creek bank and had been covering themselves with this oil from the seepage.

The old man and his boy threw a log across the creek catching the oil as it seeped into the water. This done Bill returned with some gunny sacks, dropped them fat on the surface where the oil was floating on the water, then he squeezed the oil into a barrel. This pioneer Alberta "operator" knew his stuff. He proceeded to boil the oil to get rid of the water and to thicken it. This oil he brought to Cardston in his wagon, some 40 miles to the east, and started what is probably the first "oil business" in the province.

"Old Bill" sold it at $1 a gallon for lubricating oil, as a cattle wash, for cough medicine, as a sore throat cure and, if you please—for gonorrhoea. And a lot of the early settlers used it, too!

"I used some of that Kootenai Lakes oil for greasing my sewing machine and dam in the early days," said J. Y. Card, in recalling this pioneer Alberta discovery.

Legend says that once, returning from a trip to Cardston to the Aldridge cabin in the mountains, "Old Bill" was taken ill. Afraid he was going to die, he said to Oliver:

"Oliver, look in the jockey-box and get me a bottle of our oil—it will kill or cure."

He took a couple of deep gulps of the crude—straight. And was soon on his feet and driving his outfit to the Kootenai country.

The findings of the Olivers started what was raised at that time Alberta's first "oil boom". The first of the find spread, the old discovery well was drilled, oil was found and Oil City was built. Little remains of it now.

Old Solaro-built rig was brought in under the greatest difficulties and expense, set up on the shores of Cameron Creek and started a flurry that continued for some years. Commercial production was not found in the old Oil City field, but it ranks as one of the "beginnings" of the current oil boom in the foothills province and "Old Bill" Aldridge and his son Oliver are entitled to a place in Alberta's oil Hall of Fame. Cardston figures they are, in any event

Most of the famed cathedral of Rheims was completed by the end of the thirteenth century.

Gardening Indoors

Even a house without a plan but it is hardly to be recommended. The same applies to a garden. Though the planning is much more simple and it is a lot of fun, too. In fact with a pencil, a bit of paper and a seed catalogue one can put in a very pleasant evening while waiting for rain and weather to warm up out of doors.

Vegetable Planning

No elaborate plans are required unless one is going to do things on a big and lavish scale. For the vegetable plot, indeed it is just a matter of simple straight lines and a little knowledge of the size the various kinds will grow and when it is safe to plant them. Where space is very limited one can get a great deal more by interplanting short season things like lettuce, radish, spinach, etc. with say carrots, beets, parsnips. The latter will take much longer to mature and will not full ripen after the quick growers have been harvested.

Another space saving trick is train vines like cucumbers, melons and squash along boundary fences or paths. Also that is a good place to grow tall things such as staked tomatoes and corn

In the very small urban plot one should concentrate on those vegetables that take up the least room for the number of meals produced. Things like corn, potatoes, peas and squash, for instance require quite a bit of space. On the other hand it is positively amazing the quantities of beans, carrots, beets, lettuce, radish, etc. that can be harvested from a patch of ground no more than 10 feet each way.

Flowers and Lawns

For flower gardens and especially the ground about the house, authorities generally advise an informal layout. The means a greater allowance for a central lawn, and round this are arranged clumps of shrubbery, trees and flowers. The beginner is warned to steer clear of stiff rows for flowers, though along walks, fences and house lines the flower garden or shrubbery will lend to follow more or less regularly. But planting or things in the best possible order to the tiny edging flowers along the front of the garden. The same holds true of the medium and larger flowers, both annual and perennial, and the lower shrubs.

WEDDING BELLS

McFADDEN—MATTERS

MANNVILLE.—Miss Ethel Matters of Edmonton became the bride of Mr. Lawrence McFadden in a quiet ceremony in Christ church here recently. The groom is also of Edmonton. Miss Matters is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Matters of Mannville. The groom's parents were the late Mr. and Mrs. Dave McFadden of Mannville.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a grey suit and black accessories complemented by a corsage of red roses.

She was attended by Miss Olga Sorensen of Edmonton who was dressed in a grey suit with red accessories and red roses on corsage.

The best man was Mr. John Matters.

The bride's mother wore an afternoon frock of brown crepe complemented with a corsage of yellow roses.

Canon T. Trego of Vermilion performed the marriage ceremony.

Wildmere Winks

The two curling rinks from Wildmere which played in the Vermilion spiel did very well for a time but could not keep up the pace against the very stiff opposition. The Burke rink did not win a prize but Clif Cruthers won third in the Pilkie event.

We were all pleased to hear that the rink on which Bill and Adam Smith played from Vancouver at Kamloops won first in the Professional and 4th in another event — they were radios and clocks. Well done Wildmere boys and pals.

Mrs. C. Cruthers has been a patient at the Vermilion hospital for a few days this week where she underwent a minor operation.

The writer and family spent a very pleasant afternoon on Sunday at the Hohn home.

Baillie Hoite is busy cleaning seed grain for farmers. He is at time of writing at Bernard Arnold's in the Buffalo Coulee district.

It is indeed too bad to see so much scarlet fever going at the present. Even if it is only a mild type it is not taken lightly and in some it is severe after effects. So far Wildmere has only had the one case, early last fall.

Here is one for Neighborly News about the big eggs again. While it may be a little bit by now, it has been in Alberta, we wonder if they can beat this — our hen has laid three such eggs and two we know contained a normal egg inside, as well as what is called artificial ones.

The writer chatted with Mrs. C. Wilson Mrs. G. Taylor, Mrs. S. Cruthers, Mrs. G. Whyte, Mrs. Lawrence, neighbor Tom Best and others while in town during the week end.

News is scarce out in our corner this week as things are a bit quiet just now.

We wish to congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Waldon Weisman (nee Dorothy Baiter) on the birth of a baby girl, Beverly Anne, Feb. 20th. Dorothy grew up out in our corner and we feel she still belongs a wee bit to our district.

Woodvale News

February has almost gone and with it a lot of very nice weather, that made us feel spring is very near. Anyway, most of us have visions of an early spring and although we have not seen any early spring birds, the sparrows that have been sunning themselves lazily all winter on the telephone wire in front of the kitchen window have suddenly become ambitious and are making a nest under the eaves. The male drags in hay and straws all day, his wife looking on dubiously, probably wondering, like the writer, if he knows what he is doing. Let's hope so and that spring is here to stay!

We are sorry to hear about Mr. Bartlet Thomsen's death. We will miss the occasional chat with him when he stopped at our farm on his way to his granddaughter's Mrs. P. Rusul's. He always seemed so spry and interested in all that was going on and enjoyed his independent old age.

Ted Monger was taken to the Islay hospital when he was taken down with a bad attack of flu and stayed awhile longer for high blood pressure. Everyone is hoping that you will soon be home again Ted.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Dubuc and little daughter Diane of Vegreville unexpectedly dropped in at the home of their parents Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gautier and gave them a chance to see the rapid growth and development of 14 months old Diane! Marie Gautier has been transferred from Le Corny to teach Gr. V in Fort Kent. She also teaches French to 2e pupils after school.

At the Woodvale dance on Feb. 8th Lester Davies won the box of chocolates being alarmed off that evening. Another dance will be held in Woodvale on March 7th.

There was a dance and pie social at Ganton school on the 22nd, proceeds going towards the buying of a phonograph. Lindsey Wheadon was MC and auctioneer and had them bidding after a slow start to two and three dollars for a pie, thus bringing the total for the evening to $15.

We also met with a painful accident when changing a sick horse. He slipped and dislocated his big toe and stretched and twisted a tendon. He needed a day in hospital to get the foot straightened out and has dagged around taped up since. It will be a few weeks before he can walk on crutches for awhile.

Mrs. Ralph Shepherd and family of the Harold Isles family received with great pleasure the news that their daughter Mamie singing and "Search For Talent Saturday night from Wetaskiwin over CFRN. They thought that Mamie's rendition of It's No Secret Sue should bring her many votes.

Brooks Lysons bought a new purebred Angus bull from the well known Henderson ranch and will come to head his new herd of purebred Angus cattle. Also bought from around Lacombe. His mother, Mrs. J. Lysons accompanied him on this trip and they visited Mr. and Mrs. J. Haan, formerly of Tofland, at Rocky Mountain House. Sophia Strehers near Lacombe was their home also and Mrs. Lysons reports a real old-fashioned visit with her old friends and neighbors. They have a lovely place with lots of big trees around the yard and were very happy on their farm Mrs Haan says Mrs. Lysons strawberry, blueberry and huckleberry jam made from berries grown on their place. Sounds very good and right being the Haan family an invasion of Tofland friends next summer! The Haans of course want to be remembered to their friends here.

Walter Lysons also is travelling and is going east with a friend who is picking up a truck down there. Ladies, remember the Red Cross meeting and quilting bee at the home of Mrs. A. Lysons on March 5th.

South of Blarry Crowe

The town lost a resident of the past 15 years or more in the person of Harry Crowe who was found dead by a neighbor last Monday morning. Harry came to this district early in the depression years and followed his trade as a carpenter, most of his work being done. If we remember correctly, for about one-third as much as paid at present times. Many fine homes, barns and other buildings throughout the district stand in silent testimony to his energy and ability as a builder. He was also responsible for the construction of the Imperial Motors garage in town which has a wide, unobstructed floor space. Harry did not take a very active part in social or sporting events but we happen to know from personal experience that he was ever ready to lend a hand to anyone needing assistance.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis Garnier recently returned from a two weeks' motor trip to points in southern B.C. and Idaho.

It is certainly nice to see Oscar Johnson able to move around once more without even the aid of the crutches Although his leg is still quite stiff it is gradually improving and Oscar is looking forward to being as good as ever by the time spring rolls around.

Several social events took place during the past week prior to the opening of the Lenten season, on Monday night the ladies of the W.A. of the United church held their postponed Valentine dance. Although attendance could have been larger a very nice time was enjoyed and the ladies are honing to have better success financially when they promote an entertainment on Easter Monday. Music for Monday night's dance was supplied by Zaharko Bros. of Rusyivia.

Wednesday night the high school hockey club sponsored a moonlight dance in the curling rink. Again the crowd was not large but every one reported having a good time. The boys made quite a name for themselves for their culinary ability, the hot dogs and coffee being pronounced excellent. Music was provided by Fred Collard with his P A system.

Amateur Night

On Friday night the Columbus hall was packed for the amateur night sponsored by the C.Y.O Some very good numbers were presented and the judges had quite a difficult task picking the winners in the vocal and instrumental classes. Johnny McCormick ably assisted by David Almond was the popular choice for first prize in the vocal class with their rendition of 'Pass the Biscuits Mirandy.' In the instrumental the Mulgrew - Michael orchestra took top honors while Andre Anderson tried to steal the miscellaneous class with her sword dance. Her costume is very good, her execution excellent, and she certainly looked the part of a Scotch lassie. Between the numbers the audience was treated to an entertainment of a somewhat different nature in that usually offered on most amateur programs. This was the performance of some clever tricks by a dog owned and trained by Albert Auboy. Great credit is due Mr. Auboy for what he has accomplished in the training of his pet and everyone is looking forward to the time when he will be presenting an act in the not too distant future.

Recently the writer took advantage of the opportunity to see and hear the combination radio-phonograph which the nurses purchased for the residence quarters at the Vermilion hospital. It is a splendid instrument and has been used by many long hours of listening enjoyment by the nurses since it was put to follow. We understand that the dance held on Feb. 5th by the nurses, proceed ...f which were used for the purchase of the instrument, was an outstanding success, due to the co-operation of people in town and country, also to the weather which was especially favorable to the event.

Matt Kada, who with his family, has been living in Vermilion for a year or more, is at present working at a lumber camp in the Athabasca area where he is operating a tractor.

Great activity is noted around the curling rink where the men's sports' bonspiel is getting under way. Many fine prizes have been donated by public minded residents and no doubt excitement will be running high as the finals near.

Once more we are enjoying mild weather—a rather welcome change after almost two weeks of 20 below nightly, even though the days were bright and sunny.

Roads remained open for cars as the storm of the week end of Feb. 15th-17th passed by without much drifting of snow, fortunately.

The school children enjoyed a Valentine party at the school on the 14th, complete with ice cream made on the spot, under the supervision of Miss Ryan.

The sympathy of the community is extended to Mrs. East on the loss of her brother recently. Mrs. East travelled to Ontario to attend the funeral services.

Mrs Morton Tovell has returned from a five-week visit to relatives in Calgary and Edmonton.

Mrs. Randolph Hutchinson and Gilbert were recent visitors to Calgary, where they visited Ian and family. Gilbert returned home while Mrs. Hutchinson stayed over in Edmonton a few days longer.

Jim Panter is driving a new Plymouth car. Pat Cummings has a new International truck. Harvey Seymour is the possessor of a new John Deere AR tractor.

Mr. Roy Anderson who returned recently from the Pacific coast is confined to hospital.

The February meeting of the F. U.A. Chatsworth local was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Farkash Sr. on Monday, 11th, with 15 members in attendance. Correspondence was read re rural electrification and a resolution was forwarded to Mr. Cornish, M.L.A., protesting the high cost of rural electrification. Discussion re seed cleaning plant followed. At the conclusion of the meeting a very tasty lunch was served by the hostess.

W. L. Roebuck, J. H. Boake and Ashley H. Cooper were elected to the Board of the Vermilion School District No. 116 at the annual meeting held Friday, Feb. 29th. Messrs. Boake and Cooper were re-elected while Mr. Roebuck is a newcomer to the Board replacing Mr. Carman Long who did not offer for re-election. Continuing members of the board are Mr. Don Taylor and Mr. F. M. Stewart.

The meeting was fairly well attended by 41 interested persons. The attendance was augmented by the presence of many members of the Home and School Association, the meeting being in the nature of a combined one.

Mr. Donald Taylor acted as the chairman and Mr. Boake as secretary of the meeting.

Principal's report showed 155 children, 83 boys and 72 girls in the five rooms at the primary school. There are 68 beginners already registered for Sept. 1952. 313 pupils attend the 10 rooms of the intermediate school with an additional grade 8 room planned for Sept. 1952. Grades 9 to 12 inclusive have 153 students. The laboratory is still being used as a full time classroom, a temporary measure started two years ago and not proving any too satisfactory. 63 students from outside of Vermilion attend the high school.

Fair

At the high school building a full grade 9 is taught, together with complete matriculation and commercial program grade 10 through 12. There is a full sports program of organized hockey, basketball, curling, baseball, softball, track and field events in operation in season.

The reports of the three principals, Miss D. Oldenberg, Mr. F. H. Walker and Mr. M. F. Smeltzer, were complete and comprehensive, containing a wealth of interesting data.

Mr. Ashley Cooper, the divisional trustee reviewed the financial statement of the local school district. The 23-room school plant manned by 22 teachers and three caretakers cost a total of $85,768.21 to operate during 1951. To meet this the requisition was $53,851.84 the school division share $14,344.14, the grants amounted to $14,919.85, tuition fees from other divisions $1,437.15 with several smaller receipts from miscellaneous sources. The town school district had a credit balance of $792.72 on the year's operation.

Largest expense items were the teachers' salaries $69,386, secretary-treasurer $4825, heat $2516, building repairs $1160, light $1173, instructional supplies $2150, major portion of which was for eight additional typewriters.

Huskies Here This Friday

SECOND GAME IN THE FINAL SERIES

Loydminster Huskies will be here on Friday night for the second game of the final series for the league championship and the Connell cup. The game starts at 8:30. The series is a best 3 of 5 games. The first game was played in Loydminster Monday night and the fourth if necessary at Vermilion on Wednesday.

The Huskies have played a lot of hockey since they last showed in Vermilion. They are competing in the Intermediate A championships of Saskatchewan and have already won the Northern championship and are well on their way to winning the Saskatchewan Intermediate A crown. To win the north half of Saskatchewan North Battleford and Saskatoon teams, and have now a one-goal lead on Swift Current for the championship of the province.

During the regular season the Tigers defeated the Huskies four times, the Huskies won once, and there was one tie.

It has been a great hockey season — be sure to see the games in this final series.

Canadian Legion Hold Enjoyable Bonspiel

On March 2nd the Vermilion branch of the Canadian Legion played host to a number of outside branches at what proved to be a most successful bonspiel. Sixteen rinks competed, with each rink playing two games and the winner being the rink scoring the highest number of points in the two games. Rinks representing the following Legion branches were in attendance, Vegreville, Two Hills, Innisfree, Kitscoty, Myrnam, Minburn, RCMP and the Reserve Army, with six local rinks.

The Campbell rink from Vegreville emerged the winner at the end of the day, with the runners-up being the Myrnam rink from Myrnam. Some very fine curling was exhibited during the day, and each petition was always keen.

At noon the group assembled in the Legion hall for lunch. The members of the various rinks were introduced following the lunch, after which a social hour was spent before returning to the curling.

The affair proved to be highly successful, and it is hoped that it can be repeated again next year.

C.Y.O. Delegates Attend Edmonton Convention

PLAN TOBOGGAN RIDE

The C.Y.O. held an interesting meeting at the rectory on Sunday evening. Teresa Toner gave a very comprehensive report on the C.Y.O. convention held in Edmonton last week end. Teresa Toner and Lola Herzog were the delegates. Several other members attending Larry Kehoe, Allan Sullivan, Anne Martin, Doris Schmidt and Jackie Carroll also attended the convention.

All reported an enjoyable time and brought back many ideas which we hope to be able to put into practice in the near future. The highlights of the convention were the banquet at Catholic Women's league hall on Tuesday evening, lectures, a social evening and a banquet. Thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Carroll who provided transportation for some of the members.

Next Sunday will see the C.Y.O. going for a merry toboggan ride after which they will return for the all important lunch and social evening. Everyone from the meeting are invited to attend this party. All are to meet at the rectory after benediction.

Tigers In Finals

ELIMINATE WAINWRIGHT IN GREAT SEMI-FINAL SERIES

It will be many a season before a better and closer semi-final playoff series is witnessed in the Eastern Alberta hockey league than that between the Wainwright Commandos and the Vermilion Tigers, finally won by the dauntless Tigers on the Commandos own ice Monday night. The series was supposed to be a best 3 of 5 games, but it went six games before the Tigers emerged as winners.

It will be remembered that the first game was a thriller and ended 6-6 on Vermilion ice. Tigers won 4-3 at Wainwright. Commandos came back and won 6-1 on our ice, tieing up the series. Tigers took the lead with a 6-3 victory at Wainwright, and just when we were all set to wind up the series here with a win in our own arena the Commandos again triumphed 7-5. Then when the sixth game in which a decision had to be reached, the team lead won two games and then it was one tie, each team had scored 28 goals, each team had won seven on the others home ice. What could be closer?

Playing at Wainwright Monday night Vermilion Tigers got away to a fast start. They were leading 2-0 at the end of the first, the stretch breaking lone in the second when the Tigers ran in five goals to the Commandos, thus going into the third with a 6-1 lead. The Commandos worked at a terrific pace in the third period and while they scored 3 goals, the Tigers added 2 more, making a final count of 8-4.

For the Tigers Rod Barr led the scoring with three goals. Kreller and Les Williams two each and Mike Berezhko one. Doidis, Mike and Dan O'Neill and Lewis, one each for Wainwright.

Commandos 7 Tigers 5

In the fifth game of the series played at Vermilion Saturday night the Commandos took the lead and the Tigers never headed them but did tie the score twice in the game at 1-1 in the first, and 4-4 in the third. The game was a thriller all the way, two minutes to go the Tigers were one goal down, 6-5 with 55 seconds left Lenisman was rushed out of the goal and six forwards used. The strategy back fired when Lee broke up the puck, the length of the ice to score in the open net, making the final count read 7-5. For Vermilion Les Williams scored two and Roger La Plante 3. Three assists went to Kreller and 2 to LaPlante. For the Commandos Lewis scored 2, Doidis, Strain, Dan ONeill and Dumovsky on each.

This Commando win again tied the series and forced a sixth and deciding game at Wainwright.

804 paid admission to the game.

Eleven Teams Enter for Full Day of Hockey

Annual Hockey Tourney Saturday

The sixth annual hockey tournament open to teams from villages, hamlets and country districts will be held in the Vermilion arena on Saturday, March 8th. The draws will commence at 9:30 a.m. with two games, one at the college open air rink and one at the arena.

This year 11 teams have entered the tourney which carries with it a $150 cash prize and the Northern Hardware trophy, emblematic of hockey supremacy in rural northeastern Alberta. A new trophy replaces the battered mug which had seen many years of service even before the present tourney was commenced. This new handsome cup was presented again by the Northern Hardware store here. Last Wednesday at an interesting little ceremony at the Board of Trade, Thos. Watts, manager of the Northern Hardware, officially presented the new trophy to A. M. 'Sandy' Watt who manages the rural tournament. In fact Sandy inaugurated the idea and has carried it through each year under the auspices of the Vermilion Amateur Athletic Association.

The draw for Saturday is: Kitscoty vs. Myrnam at 9:30 a.m. at the College rink; Clandonald vs. Marvayne at 9:30 at arena; Lone Rock vs. Mannville at College rink at 11:00 a.m.; Lindberg vs. Ranfurly at 11:15; Irma vs. V.S.A. at 1:45 p.m.; Dewberry vs. the winner Lone Rock and Mannville at 3:00.

All games but the two rotated are played at the arena. The final game is scheduled for 8:30 p.m. at the arena.

A ticket for the day costs 75c: after 7:00 p.m. 50c: school children 25c for whole tourney.

A meeting will be held on Sunday afternoon at 2:00 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Charles Upshall and all those interested in taking part in the cast or helping with scenery, costumes, make-up or stage direction and assisting are cordially invited to attend. Huskies Win First Game

Lloydminster Huskies, showing vastly impr ved form as a result of their recent games in the Saskatoon Intermediate A play-offs, had too much power for the Vermilion Tigers at Lloydminster Wednesday night, overpowering the locals by a 12-3 score. The Tigers were very definitely below par and say that Friday is another day and another game.

Program Headlined by Plays on Skates

School Carnival Attracts 1200

Crowning of Queen, Edmonton Fancy Skaters, Boys Band, Costumes, Races, All Combine for Colorful Program.

Highlighted by three plays enacted on skates by the pupils and students of the Vermilion primary, public and high schools, the crowning of Queen Marion Pilkie by Deputy Mayor Mitchell, fancy skating by Edmonton artists as well as local talent, a multitude of colorful costumes, races, playing of the boys' band, all combined to make the program at the ice carnival Friday evening most interesting. It was possibly the best of its variety ever held in town. The biggest crowd to jam the arena this season, over 1200 people, were present to enjoy it.

The carnival was sponsored by the Vermilion schools with arrangements being carried out by the teaching staffs as well as the coaching for the three plays presented. The job was a big one, very well done.

Marion Pilkie Crowned Queen

Opening the carnival were band numbers by the boys band under the direction of Bob Carmichael. This was followed by the crowning of the Queen, Marion Pilkie, by Deputy Mayor D. R. Mitchell. Marion was the candidate sponsored by the Kinsmen club. The Queen's attendants, all beautifully robed were Anne Martin, Lois Herzog and Edith Brown. The two little page boys were Billy Davies and Teddy Schurman.

Fancy Skating

The exhibition of fancy skating by the Edmonton figure skaters came in for much praise and roused a widespread desire among the young people for a figure skating instructor in Vermilion. The Edmonton skaters were Jimmy and Margaret Read, Patty Devine and Chester Armstrong.

The fancy skating by two local girls Marie Muller and Joan Maxwell was beautifully done and certainly proved a surprise to the crowd and rightly so. They gave their display during the home town talent competition and again during the play Peterkin Pan.

Plays on Ice Prove Popular

Three plays were presented during the evening, one by each the high schools. The primary school, kiddies of grades 1, 2 and 3 gave a Teddy Bears' parade. The public school contribution was Hansel and Gretel. The high school presented Ferdinand the Bull. These plays enacted on skates on the ice made excellent amusement. Costumes and scenery required considerable ingenuity and skill. These presentations proved very popular with the crowd.

Excellent Costumes

The Standard would like to comment on a few of the many excellent costumes in evidence but that would run into columns of space. However, there wasn't a poor costume on the ice, and the group of nurses who portrayed the Yokum family, Daisy May and Moonbeam McSwine of Dogpatch, along with Salomey, a real live pig, brought down the house.

FRAISE FOR DUNC CURRIE

Neighbors in the east end of town have considerable praise for Mr. Duncan Currie who winner after winter turns his whole back yard into a very good skating rink for the children of the neighborhood. This winter the rink has been better than ever. Dunc has even lighted up the ice surface, keeps it clean and flooded. The children of the neighborhood just love it and the parents take this means of expressing their appreciation to Mr. Currie for his extreme thoughtfulness and kindness.

A LETTER FROM "SOCK" RICHARD

Jock Morison, whose name immediately recalls curling to the minds of his old friends here, sends a note of congratulations to Bill Barr for winning the Grand Challenge at the bonspiel here. Jock claims some of the credit as it was with him that Bill first curled. Back in 1923-24 Bill played lead for Mr. Morison when they won everything including Bert Duncan. Ed Corley, the Coopers, Melvin Hill. Jock fully intended bringing a rink from Edmonton, where he now lives, to the spiel but was taken ill with the flu. He is going to try to make it next year.

Vermilion Air Cadets Benefit in Health by Research Work

Interesting Study in Body Mechanics Carried Out by Flt. Lieut. D. Phillips

The following is a summary of research work carried out by Dr. Denis P. Hanlon, local Chiropractor, on a group of 31 Royal Canadian Air Cadets during the seven month period January through July, 1951. The Cadets were all members of the Vermilion Flight.

The work consisted of a study of body mechanics and the deviation from normal found in a group of young men ranging in age from 16 to 18 years. These boys were thought to represent the average health level in their age group. In all, about 62% stated they were symptom free at the time. The others, or about 37% had various types of symptoms, mostly of a minor nature. Included in the list were recurrent headaches, eye troubles, low-back pains, and subluxated ribs. This latter condition is very common in older people, and is usually accompanied by a permanent dull ache below the shoulder blade. Usually a very few adjustments will correct it.

Particular attention was paid to spinal curvatures, and the proper alignment of the pelvis. Only about 15% (4 Cadets) had no lateral curvatures, while about 30% showed primary, or 'C' curvatures, and about 60% had the secondary or 'C' type, denoting faulty body mechanics over a longer period of time. It is interesting to note that of the group with secondary spinal curvatures only three Cadets appeared to be symptom-free. This is in proportion to the findings of other Chiropractors doing research work in school children in Canada, where faulty body mechanics has been found to parallel closely the attendance records. Children with good body mechanics are definitely those having the best attendance records.

On examination of pelvic mechanics it was found that only 8 (or about 28.5% of the boys) had no pelvic deviations. In 13 boys the right side of the pelvis was rotated posteriorly (backward tilt) while the others showed pelvic rotation on the left side. Seven boys showed various degrees of sacro-iliac slippage, and only one of this group was symptom free. Even his pelvis showed a slight left rotation, however his spine had no lateral curvature. Another point generally noted is that when the pelvis is out of proper alignment that person often has poor feet, weak arches, hernias, etc. In any event most of them wear the soles and heels of their shoes unevenly. Once again, by correcting pelvic mechanics these conditions disappear.

About half the group of Cadets also had an abnormal thoracic kyphosis (hump-back), which was returned to normal in all these taking full advantage of the chiropractic care as offered without charge to all Cadets in the Vermilion squadron. Others conditions responded satisfactorily where the Cadet cooperated. A total of 195 adjustments was given during period to these Cadets. The above percentages are approximate and are used for illustration only.

For the information of the parents of Cadets who joined in September, 1951 the above Chiropractic services are still available to Cadets when written consent of the parent has been obtained.

Ethelwyn Notes

On Feb. 13th the young people held their second meeting and social evening. The same week they sponsored a dance which is reported to have been one of the nicest dances ever held in the old Rye school. Music was provided by members of the group.

The annual school meeting of it.'s Rye S.D. was attended by 15 ratepayers. Louis Taylor was returned as trustee by acclamation. Everyone agreed that a recreation hall is badly needed in the district but decided against buying the old school building. The cost of moving and remodeling would be more than the building is worth.

The members of the Clandonal United Church W.A. wish to thank everyone who helped to make the bean supper a success by donating food, doing the work and by their generous patronage. Thanks also to the Vermilion Standard for advertising the event so well.

The writer notices that the movie 'Stars in my Crown' will be shown in Clandonald in the near future. This is a really outstanding picture and everyone should make a point to see it.

A daughter, Deborah Kay, was born to Mr. and Mrs. George De Sutter in Edmonton on Feb. 23rd. The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Counterman and Mr. Derrick) formerly of this district. It seems only a few years since the grandmother was a little girl going to school here. In fact she is only 3 years old now.

The F.U.A. meeting at the Rye school was well attended. The guest speaker Mrs. D. Matheson spoke on several subjects of interest to farmers. Nine tables of whist were played after the business meeting. The winners were Mrs. Ray Hetherington, Mrs. Tom Foy and consolation Mr. Podhaniuk playin' as a lady; prats—Stanley Skrenkovich, Eric Nettleton and consolation Mickey McGuire. Last but not least a delicious lunch was served by the ladies. The next meeting will be held in Clandonald March 24th.

Sixteen Years Ago Today

March 6th, 1936

Weather turned decidedly mild on Sunday, following a very cold Thursday, Friday and Saturday of the previous week.

19 rinks were competing in the annual bonspiel, eight being visiting rinks.

The German Protestant church and the Catholic Church were standing chamber to chamber in Germany to fight Nazi domination of the education and training of its youth.

The enlarged school division was being planned for Alberta and was arousing quite a tempest of opposition.

March 3rd, 1920

Rev. J. E. Tyner, for many years pastor of the Church of Christ in Vermilion and outlying mission points, has accepted a call to Redson, B.C. and will make the move in May.

Typical March weather has prevailed all week, rough and stormy. In municipal elections Vermilion Valley councillors elected were H. J. Remington, Div. 2, defeating Norman McClellan by one vote; R. Sellman Div. 4 and M. Maire Div. 6. The latter two by acclamation.

Community Building

Some twenty-five centuries ago, Themistocles, the leader of Athens in the Battle of Salamis, was prosecuted in his old age by political enemies under the ancient Athenian law that no man might retain his citizenship unless he had acquired a trade. "Here I a trade?" said the rugged old warrior, eyes flashing, as he answered his accusers. "No, I have none — But show me a mean city and I will make it great!" In a sentence, this dim figure of the past has captured the spirit that should animate every member of every Board of Trade and Chamber of Commerce. Strong and progressive communities are the foundation of a strong and progressive country and there are few titles that a man can bear so proudly as that of a Community Builder.

In the early days as communities were formed in various parts of this continent, when newspapers were few or entirely nonexistent and long before the advent of the radio and telephone, one of the features of community life was the grocery store. This became the town hall and the business men's club of the community. Around the cracker barrel the citizens discussed the problems of their community and their country. Here it was that they discussed candidates for office and exchanged ideas and thrashed out the problems of state. In those days despite the lack of present day means of communication, citizens had a sound and personal knowledge of their local problems at least, and knew intimately the men who were chosen to represent them in the various legislatures. With the advance of civilization, the old and familiar institution of the general store has almost completely disappeared. But the need which was the cause for its existence is felt, took place around the cracker barrel will remains. We like to think of the Community Chamber of Commerce as a replacement for that old and familiar institution. The Chamber of Commerce provides the opportunity for the forward-looking citizens of a community to exchange viewpoints and ideas, to discuss problems and to arrive at satisfactory solutions for those problems.

THAT LAST LOOK

By ROY V. PRICE

TERRIFYING fear swept through her as Grace stood looking out the door down the rough path toward the swamp. "But, Ben, he's coming!" Her voice was scarcely above a whisper.

"Doggone the skunk!" Ben snapped. "I'll show him who's the cornered!"

Grabs eyes were glued on the double-barrelled shotgun across her husband's knees on the back step of their little log farmhouse. She shivered more when she thought about the poor shot Ben was on account of his eyes.

"For short range of Ben is better. Powers is scouring every foot of the section with bloodhounds. They'll get 'im, shore!"

"I knowed somethin' like this was bound to happen! That's what made me beg you so not to tell the sheriff about 'im," she said.

Logic will prove I done the only right thing a decent, honest man could do!"

Running his trap lines, Ben had come upon Elmer Rake and another man, burying something in the swamp. Ben had heard their plans for robbing the bank. The sheriff had caught the two in the act . . . had recovered the loot from other robberies.

"Even the pen couldn't hold his likes," Grace moaned.

"It did for more'n six years until he shot his way out". Ben shot another glance at the swamp. "Ain't stiffer term'll be waiting for the skunk."

"Jist 'cause he called you a 'sneakin' coward' an' said he'd 'git you' is no reason for you to stand out in the open and he shot down."

"I'll face 'im, man to man. If he raises his gun, I'll shoot. That's a man's way of doing things."

Before Grace could reply, her face turned white. She saw a figure coming out of the brilli realm of the swamp . . . nearer . . . nearer . . .

Forcing back a scream, she watched the bedraggled Rake standing a few yards from Ben.

Holding his shotgun with trigger readiness, Rake snarled. "You won't rat on nobody else, you sneaking coward!"

"Oh! off my place!"

Suddenly, Rake lost his sneer, stiffened.

The eternity of each second squeezed at Grace's throat as she watched Rake quiver.

Rake cast a wild, despairing stare at Ben, then lowered his gun and stepped back.

The quiet was broken by the roaring of a pack of bloodhounds . . . voices of men behind them . . .

Grace stepped to the door. Rake was in full flight, headed toward the swamp. Suddenly he stopped, raised his hands . . . Three men stepped from behind trees at the edge.

Ben's voice. "Ya see, honey, a man's gotta stand 'n' fight!"

Grace knew he would never guess why Rake had backed down; because he had looked into the cold, steady Ben's shoulder, and stared into the muzzle of her rifle.

Western Football Conference Schedule To Start Earlier

REGINA.—This year's Western Football Conference schedule will start one month earlier than in 1951. The schedule will get under way on Saturday, August 23, with the traditional opening games between Calgary and Saskatchewan at Regina, and Edmonton and Winnipeg Blue Bombers at Winnipeg.

It will end the weekend of Oct. 11, when the two Alberta clubs and the two teams in the eastern half of the circuit engage in a home-and-home series. The games are Oct. 11 at Winnipeg and Edmonton, and Oct. 13 at Regina and Calgary.

A new feature this season will be the two-game total-point semi-final playoff, instead of the sudden-death game which has been in vogue for the past two years. Dates are Oct. 18-25 with the team finishing second in the final standing having the choice of venue for the opening game.

To accommodate the two-game semi-final, the schedule ends one week earlier than usual. Teams complete their whole 14-game schedule in seven weeks and six Saturday-Monday doubleheaders are included.

They start by playing three successive weekend doubleheaders, play single games Sept. 13 and 20, and then wind up with three more Saturday-Monday twin bills.

The first-place team in the final standing will earn a three-week layoff before clashing with the winner of the semi-final series in the best-of-three final. Dates for the finals are Nov. 1-3 and 9-10 or 11, if necessary.

Retiring President Reviews Board Of Trade Activities Past Year

Seed Cleaning Plant

The establishment of a seed cleaning plant here has received the whole-hearted support of the Board and a committee of farmers has been set up to endeavor to bring this about. The Board will continue its efforts to have this plant established here and the matter is now in the hands of the Agricultural committee.

The Agricultural committee of the Board under the chairmanship of M. . . R. Robson held the annual Farmers' Board of Trade luncheon which was addressed by the Hon. David Urr, Minister of Agriculture. This was one of the most successful events of this kind held yet and was attended by a very large number of farmers and business men.

The Board also sponsored and gave its support to a very successful Farmers' banquet which has become an annual event.

The Agricultural committee has been active in supporting the project of having a grain drying plant established here and a meeting of the farmers was held recently in this regard.

Roads

Hard surface had become a fact during the year with hard surfacing of highway 16 to be completed in 1952. This has been a long-time project of the Board.

The Board assured the towns of Wainwright, Consort, Czar, Cereal and Medicine Hat of our support for the establishment of the highway from Wainwright to Medicine Hat.

The attention of the Government was drawn to dangerous approach east of town onto highway 16 and the matter was attended to by the Minister of Highways.

Mr. W. McKay of the Highway Traffic board in charge of the educational work of that board addressed a luncheon meeting upon this subject and as a result the Board sponsored a public meeting during the week of the 16th of June at which Mr. McKay gave a lecture and exhibited moving pictures which illustrated the work being done in this direction. Thanks are due to Mr. E. M. Stewart, Chairman of the Roads committee, and to Mr. Ken Urquhart for arranging this meeting. Incidentally 125 people were in attendance.

Health Unit

After some years of effort by the Board and as a result of the recent good work of the chairman of our Health committee Dr. Ben King, a Health unit has been established here. Although not yet in operation it is expected to be by the spring.

Noise Abatement

The Board approved of the resolution of the Canadian Chamber of Commerce opposing the granting of powers to the provinces to impose indirect taxation.

Following the example of the Dominion Chamber the Board passed a resolution that the Dominion statutory holidays of May 24th and July 1st be celebrated on the first Monday following the 23rd of May and the 30th of June.

The Canadian Chamber of Commerce submitted a vote to the different member boards to obtain their opinion as follows:

Do you favor rental continuance of resale price maintenance?

After considerable discussion and after the matter had been tabled for consideration, the Board voted "no" to this question. In this connection the Board listened to a very interesting address from Mr. Robt. Fair who gave the arguments advanced in the House pro and con with regard to this question.

Airport

Our airport under the able direction of Mr. Billie Pilkie, chairman of the airport committee, has been kept in good condition during the winter. Last June Mr. Pilkie reported the Hendy Oil Co was using the airport . . . that to May 28 of that year planes had landed there because they could not use the Lloydminster field.

Mr. Pilkie reported that his committee with the assistance of the president and Mr. Robert Fair had put before the Government the fact that we had a useful airport here. As a result, Mr. Chrissier, Minister of Defence, visited here and inspected the airport. The Department later wrote stating that the matter of the use of our airport would have their consideration.

WHEAT POOL RESERVE PURCHASE

$500,000 TO MEMBERS

CALGARY, Feb. 18.—The Alberta Wheat Pool announced today that it had mailed cheques totalling about $500,000 to 20,000 Pool members. This payment is part of $1,040,000 allocated from last year's earnings to the redemption of reserves contributed by members in the 1923-28 period.

Reserves are being redeemed from estates of deceased members, from members who have gone out of farming and sold their land, and from members 65 years of age or over who are farming or in possession of farm land who were contract signers during the period 1923-28.

In addition, a rateable purchase is being made from all original contract signers of 25% of the commercial and elevator reserves standing to their credit as at Feb. 15, 1952.

When this distribution is completed total purchases of reserves will have amounted to $8,350,000, leaving about $1,500,000 outstanding in the hands of the original members. Out of the total reserves purchased, $6,000,000 worth have been released in the form of patronage dividends to member patrons since the year 1940. The ownership of the Alberta Wheat Pool and Pool elevators rests with the reserves. Through this process, the control of the Alberta Wheat Pool is being kept in the hands of operating farmers.

A fairly well attended dance was held in the hall on Friday night, sponsored by the Legion.

The big bonspiel is going full steam ahead as we are writing this. The local rinks are not doing so well but several are still in the running for both events while the others are either in the consolation or out of it completely. More details later.

We are glad to hear that Albert Trandahl who was severely burned some time ago is making satisfactory progress in the Lloydminster hospital.

Jack Kerns Organizes Forceful Drive On Coyotes, Ponoka Dist.

In co-operation with officials of the Alberta Dept. of Agriculture, farmers of the Ponoka district have been making a real effort to reduce their livestock losses — and appear entity they had plenty. Coyotes were so troublesome that many farmers were seriously thinking of going out of sheep altogether. Now that they have found a solution, the tendency is to be an increase instead of decrease of their flocks. A little time and effort, and the use of coyote baits have contributed much to their peace of mind.

A report from J. L. Kerns, District Agriculturist at Ponoka, gives a great deal of credit for organization and leadership in this campaign to I. E. Davies, past counsel officer for the Ponoka M.D. Mr. Davies got together a group of 17 men in the district extending from 10 miles east of Ponoka to 15 miles west of Rimbey. As a result of their efforts, losses from coyotes in the area have become almost entirely disappeared.

The Alberta Dept. of Agriculture, with Mr. Kerns as its representative at Ponoka furnished coyote getters and supplies. The M.D. of Ponoka, with Mr. Davies and his helpers, set out and supervised the coyote getters. Ponoka is not the only area going after coyotes in a big way, but their results show what can be done when municipal authorities and farmers really decide that they have had enough of the killer coyote

A Room of His Own

Here is an article that I hope all of you parents will read and put to use. 'Every boy— and every girl too for that matter, needs a room of his own. This may be a hard order in these days of crowded living, yet in most families, if they do a bit of planning, can see to it that a young ster does have at least a little space he can call his very own where he can keep his precious junk. If you can't manage a whole room perhaps you can give him a closet, a corner of the basement, garage or attic and then forget about it. Never — almost never, that is— try to clean this place or even straighten it up for you're sure to throw out or mislay his most prized possession. For instance, how could you ever have guessed that a scrap of paper with meaningless scribbles is actually a secret message not yet decoded.

Bob Smith had a real room all of his own, but much to his mother's dismay he never spent a minute in it. In fact, all summer long he left the house early in the morning and returned late in afternoon. Bob's room boasted a lovely desk, a bookcase filled with the best books money could buy, there was a real leather chair, bed and matching chest of drawers. The floor covering was inlaid with the maps of all the continents of the world. so that Bob would learn geography quite painlessly. All the airways were marked in red lines, the railroads in blue and steamship routes were there too. Bob's friends would surely be impressed with his room and his teachers with his knowledge —so his parents thought. It was all very neat and immaculate too because—when the truth finally came out — Bob never spent a waking moment in it.

After Mrs. Smith had made repeated complaints to her husband, Mr. Smith finally consented to talk to Bob. Why was it, Mr. Smith asked, that after his mother spent so much time and effort fixing up Bob's room for him, he didn't seem to care about it? After quite a lot of needling, Bob finally came out with the answer. "You know, Dad, I'd rather go to Bill's place,' he said. 'Gee, Dad, Bill has the most wonderful room in the world. It's the back room in the attic under the eaves and all summer we've been fixing it up together. We just finished the closet we're going to use for a darkroom for developing Kodak pictures. We have pennants and maps and pictures we cut out stuck all over the walls and there's an old radio Bill's mother gave us. Of course, it doesn't work now but it will because we're working on it. But Dad, you know what? When he leaves, he locks it all up with a padlock and he's the only one who knows the combination. We painted a sig sign, 'Private, no one else ever goes in. Gee, it's wonderful!'

So you see it isn't how much you put into the room that counts but how much you help your child put into it. With the tinkering and fixing of broken radios he does and the wood gathering that goes on in his head behind closed doors, there may be a genius in the making!"

Along with this idea of giving your child a room of his own goes the basic courtesy of letting your youngster open his letters and parcels (of not prying into his secret affairs they will be quite trivial to you and mean a great deal more importance to him By doing this you will make your child realize that everyone's private property must be respected, and your youngster will learn the meaning of the word 'trust' by your example.

Allandale Notes

(Held over from last week)

Mr. and Mrs. Julius Kormos (nee Nora Phillips) from the city were visitors at the latter's home last week end, also Mr. and Mrs. Martin Gresshus, (nee Rita Phillips) from Wainwright were visiting at home.

Sorry to hear that Bill Wells who has been employed at Jack Cross has been in Vermilion hospital for an appendix operation.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Jack Dwyer (nee Violet Armstrong) on the birth of a son Feb. 22nd on Grandpa Armstrong's birthday.

It was good to hear Kate Aikins, CFQC, congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Cavil on their 25th wedding anniversary. We too add our congratulations to this fine couple. With all the snow here it was good to hear Kate tell of going down the Chilliwack Valley and seeing the bloom, where Mrs. Reid, their daughter lives.

Sorry to hear scarlet fever is at the Orville Armstrong home, hope your are soon well again Carol.

Mr. Bill Armstrong's 70th birthday Feb 22nd. He is the only homesteader living on his original home stea in the Allandale district. Over 80 relatives and friends gathered at the school on the afternoon of the 22nd fo. Uncle Bill's birthday party. It was good to see Mr. McBride and Mr. Fitzgerald out. There were 7 tables of whist and two of euchre Uncle Bill and others prefer the latter. First by whist went to our teacher, Miss West consolation, Bill de Wilson. Slides first—Isobel Roughan, consolation, Woody Wilson. Just before midnight we all sang Happy Birthday and Grey Thomas on behalf of the communits presented the honored guest with a parcel containing a razor outfit, finest lather a purse birthday card and some individual gifts.

Uncle Bill expressed himself very well in his heartfelt thank you and appreciation to one and all for their kindness shown to him on his birthday.

There were two birthday cakes a three-tiered dark fruit cake baked and decorated by his daughter-in-law Thelma Armstrong. 7 candles decked the top. A large one-layer light fruit cake decorated and topped by 37 candles baked by his sister-in-law E. Ormiss. The illumination from the candles was a pleasing effect and each wee candle seemed to say Happy Birthday and many more of them

The co-operation and the absolute ease of lunch showed the spirit of the community at a time like this Thanks a lot.

Last Sunday was a grand day for an outing. Mr and Mrs. Oscar Johnson were visitors at the Ormiss home. Oscar is improving remarkably well, he is able to drive the car and the road from the city to town as Johnny Butler puts it. 'If you take a deep breath, you're off Ouras and Dorothy plan to motor to the city soon. The Goddard family also called Sunday afternoon 'Old' Friends', last verse.

The story is ancient yet fragrant and sweet.
I've said it before—so just let me repeat
New friends' I cherish, and treasure their worth.
But old friends, to me, are the salt of the earth.

A man can still light a cigar with out first offering one to a lady.

Provincial Horticultural Association Formed

Albertans have long been known for their love of gardens, and the district horticultural societies of the province have provided an indication of their interest in this hobby. A further step has now been taken. Not content to confine their activities to social affairs entirely, members have felt for some time that a provincial organization would serve a useful purpose in widening the scope of their efforts.

At a meeting in the Olds school of agriculture last summer, representatives of district societies discussed horticultural affairs from the provincial angle and decided to proceed with organization of a provincial association. An executive was elected and registration under the Societies Act was attained on Nov. 20th last. Dissemination of horticultural information, provision of speakers, for winter meetings, taking of judges and the setting up of uniform judging standards for the province as a whole are some of the aims of the new association.

Full information as to membership in the provincial association may be obtained by district officials from P. I. McCalla Supervisor of Horticulture Alberta Dept of Agriculture. Arrangements have also been made to allow interested individuals to become associate members of the provincial organization in areas where no district horticultural society exists.

Veterans On The Land

DURING THE LAST WAR many bright hopes were entertained for the time when the world would again be at peace. All these hopes have not been realized, but progress has been made in some things, and from these encouragement can be drawn for the future. One of the phases of post-war life in Canada which has been both of interest and of great importance has been the re-establishment of war veterans in civilian life. While in any adjustment in which so many are involved there could not be entire success, it has been encouraging to see the large number of veterans who have been successful in the work which they have undertaken after leaving the services.

• • • • •

Many Settle In The West

Government assistance for those who wished to finish educational courses started before the war, or to learn a new trade or profession, made it possible for many to fit themselves for work in their chosen field. For others, the Veterans Land Act provided opportunities to establish homes of their own, with holdings of land varying with their requirements. A recent report showed that 34,000 farms are being operated under the Veterans Land Act Administration and that more than half of these are located in the four western provinces. Alberta has the largest number, with 8,500 veterans farms, representing an investment of $37,000,000. In Manitoba there are 5,756 veterans on farms valued at $27,000,000, while Saskatchewan has 8,117, the investment there totalling $34,000,000. British Columbia has 6,510 veterans on holding land valued at $30,000,000.

• • • • •

An Indication Of Progress

Officials of the Veterans Land Act Administration report that very few of the veterans have failed in any way to live up to their obligations in paying for their land and there has been general satisfaction over the success of the undertaking. It is apparent that the veterans have profited by the opportunities which were offered to them after the war, and in so doing have benefitted not only themselves, but the communities in which they live. Those who remember the period which followed the First World War will recall that less thought was given then to the re-establishment of the war veterans and that many of them had difficulty in adjusting to civilian life. Although, as was observed before, no plan of such proportions can be entirely successful, it is a sign of progress that an effort was made to meet the needs of those coming out of the services in the last war, and that so many have been successful on the land, or in the trades or professions which they undertook to learn.

Funny and Otherwise

"Although my sister is a bit of a flirt I know she'll eventually settle down all right."

"Yes. She told me herself that her ambition is to go out with every Tom, Dick and Harry."

"Bar-keep, look at that lovely diamond ring."

"Yes, dear, if ever I have to replace that a diamond ring it will be one like that."

• • • • •

Wife: "All right, my dear husband, I'll admit that I spend money. But just name one other extravagance!"

• • • • •

Johnson returned to his native town after some years abroad. "Has he changed much?" asked one who had not yet seen him.

"No, but he thinks he has."

"In what way?"

"He persists in talking about what he used to be to 'e."

Practically Everybody In Reston, Man., Interested In Oil

(By John MacNaughton in Brandon Sun)

BRANDON — Everybody's in the oil business at Reston. Even the local Agricultural Society receives $130 a year in lease revenue with the prospect of much more if oil is struck.

It is estimated that about 70 per cent. of the oil rights in the Reston district are privately owned, the remainder being retained by the Crown. As a result, discovery of a field in the area would bring prosperity directly to the district.

Even without actual oil discoveries, the area has much better off than it was before. F. C. McMorris, secretary-treasurer of the municipality, of which Reston is the municipal seat, estimates that more than $50,000 is coming into municipality in lease revenues every year.

Many farmers are receiving enough to pay their taxes, some are receiving much more. The municipality itself owns oil rights on 40 quarters from which it receives lease revenue of $1,800 a year, and the local improvement district in which the town of Reston is situated has 87 acres leased at $10 an acre.

Average price being paid for leases is 25 cents an acre, but some properties are leased for as little as 10 cents an acre, or as high as $10.

Three farmers in the district are reported to be holding out and it is rumored that they have been offered fabulous sums as a result. Prominent among these reports is one that H. H. Berry, hardware merchant, has refused $30,000 for a lease on a section of land that he owns.

There is also a brisk business being done in royalty rights. The standard lease gives the property owner 12½ per cent. of the value of oil produced on his property and many farmers have sold half-interests (6¼ per cent.) for sums ranging from as low as $40 to as high as $2,000.

Many Americans have invested in royalty shares and there is at least one local syndicate holding such interests.

A member of this local syndicate sold half of his 1¼ per cent. share for $1,200.

The $330 revenues received by the Plantagenet-Albert Agricultural Society is from 52 acres leased at $10 per acre. The society will spend on this property royalties will be received in addition.

Urges Diversified Farming For The Prairies

WINNIPEG. — Why did Canada, with her rich prairie farming areas have to import wool, butter, eggs, poultry and meats in 1941?

This question was raised by Leslie Hancock, district supervisor of livestock marketing, federal agriculture department, at a luncheon meeting of the Manitoba Land Inspectors' association.

Up to 1951 Canada had a surplus of beef as well as grains, said Mr. Hancock. Last year, however, beef and pork were imported into Canada. "for the first time in my experience."

In Manitoba 34 per cent. fewer cattle were marketed and 23 per cent. fewer calves than in the previous year, said the district supervisor.

"In spite of the belief that there is a surplus of pork in this country, we even imported some bacon last year," he continued.

Too many farms had no cattle, sheep, hogs or poultry. On many farms there were only a few weeks of work in the spring and a few weeks again in the fall. "That is not farming."

On the shores of Winnipeg stores, said Mr. Hancock, you could find corned beef from Uruguay, mutton from Argentina, sausages from Denmark, beef loaf from Australia, shepherds' pie from Britain and a similar product from Ireland.

The public appeal to prairie farmers to grow more livestock has not been successful so far, said the speaker. (Perhaps we didn't stop to think of the requirements of the individual farmer.)

He thought soils man, livestock men and government services should get together to map out a rounded production policy for each district. Above all, the boys who are about to take over farms should be shown "the advantages of going into livestock."

New Variety Of Malting Barley Proving Superior To O.A.C. 21

WINNIPEG.— U.M. 43-1020, new malting barley variety developed at the University of Manitoba, has already proved superior to O.A.C. 21, present standard for the malting industry, Prof. S. B. Helgason of the University's plant science department, Field tests have been particularly promising, Prof. Helgason reported, and malting tests on a plant scale will be made this year.

There is little doubt, he said, that it will prove more productive and seed is being increased in readiness for distribution in 1953.

If the new variety is licensed then Prof. Helgason estimated that about 2,000 bushels would be available for prairie plantings.

He spoke to the annual meeting of the Canadian Barley and Oil Seeds conference at the Fort Garry hotel.

"At present barley and fertilizer prices, use of ammonium phosphate (fertilizers is good business," Prof. R. A. Medlin, University of Manitoba, said.

Fallow-field tests in the province revealed that application of 40 pounds an acre of 11-48-0 boosted barley yields by 14 bushels at a cost of only $2.10.

On stubble, he added, 16-20-0 was applied at 80 pounds per acre. Cost was about $4; yield increase was 13.7 bushels.

S. A. Wells, of the dominion laboratory of cereal breeding, Lacombe, Alta., emphasized the importance of developing barley varieties for irrigated acreages in the southern part of that province.

Will Extend Signing Of Alberta Highways

More signing of highways is receiving the attention of branches of the Alberta Motor Association. It is expected that this season will see several thousand of these signs erected on secondary highways by this organization.

At a recent meeting of directors of the Edmonton branch, it was decided to seek the full co-operation of municipalities in regard to obtaining accurate information for the purpose of locating road signs. The co-operation of R.C.M.P. and commercial travellers also will be sought.

While road signing programs have been carried on each year, at a cost of thousands of dollars to the A.M.A. branches, there are still long stretches of highways that lack proper directional information, said

This year, it is estimated that Alberta will have a tourist business turnover in excess of $30,000,000. This means that many thousands of visiting tourists will travel the province for the first time and will tour before they start to arrange to them.

Federal veterinary officials at Saskatoon today said there are seven major symptoms of foot-and-mouth disease.

2. Its temperature rises.

3. It will froth from the mouth and have its cud dry out two, may begin slobbering white foamy matter

4. Blisters form on the tongue, sometimes as large as two inches in diameter. The blisters contain highly infectious yellowish fluid. Dairy cattle also may develop blisters on the teats and udder and all animals may get them along the flesh band above the hoof.

6. The animals may develop lameness and the hoof may drop off

7. As the animal goes off its feed, it will begin to lose weight.

RAY LYNCH CATCHES HUGE FISH

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lynch of the Claymore district are holidaying at Tarjeta, Mexico and are enjoying sea bathing and getting plenty of sun tan. Temperature at time of writing was 90 above while the low point is around 63. Incidentally, Ray caught himself a huge sailfish which weighed 113 pounds and was 9½ feet long

How many ladies are interested in hockey? Real honest-to-goodness hockey I mean? Interested enough to get a team together and play the Stagettes some time before the ice is gone And no practising until 9:30 just so we can practice too! We just thought it would be fun if we do need the exercise

There goes another one! She was a good kid too. What we are trying to say is — congratulations Betty Barr, he's a lucky fellow.

The meeting this week consisted mostly of a discussion of resolutions to be brought before district delegates. If the resolutions pass District they are taken before Provincial and re-discussed where they are either defeated or become amendments to our constitution.

We are not through curling yet, not until we get even with that Bud Jaks Coulee outfit. We were glad that Mrs. Adams asked us to go because we have a secret vengeance — I'll bet they're armed.

Art Wiebe Recalls Great Defence Players Of Nat'l Hockey League

The following story taken from the Vancouver Province is based on an interview with Art Wiebe while in that coastal city recently as the coach of the Alberta University Golden Bears hockey team:

"Body checks in present day hockey are more plentiful than they were 12 years ago but not nearly so robust, says Art Wiebe, former star with Chicago Black Hawks and now coach of University of Alberta Golden Bears.

"The days of Eddie Shore, Earl Seibert, Babe Pratt and Cully Dahlstrom are long gone, but many of the real hard hitters are gone; mused Wiebe between periods Friday night at Kerrisdale arena. He was hit once by Shore and that was enough. Nowadays, though, the defence, forwards, anybody — they all throw bodychecks.'

Wiebe still has a soft spot in his heart for the once-proud Blue's Hawks. His fondest memory, though is of the 1937-38 Montreal Canadiens. In the final game of the NHL season, Chicago clung to a fourth place by one point over Detroit Red Wings. Montreal beat the Wings 2-1 in the final to give Chicago's one point play-off margin.

The Hawks went on to knock off Canadiens in the semi-finals but after Toronto had disposed of New York, Chicago lost the Maple Leafs 2-1, 12-2, 4-1 to win the Stanley Cup.

Apart from the bodychecks, hockey hasn't changed much in the past 12 years says Wiebe. In '52 he had the same system. The forwards would shoot the puck into a corner and then chase it. However's the defence's job is trying to score too many goals. They laid back a little more and concentrated on defensive hockey. In those days, too, a defenceman would often play 47 minutes of the game.

Shore, though he was nearing the end of his career, did it the time. He was the greatest in my book. Seibert was another. If only he had possessed Shore's driving disposition he would have been great.

Wiebe's present concern is not with the Hawks. His team had second season as coach of the Golden Bears. He wants to retain the Hamber cup, emblematic of Alberta-B.C. collegiate hockey supremacy.

Series Stands At Two to One for Huskies

Fourth Play-off Game Here Friday Night

Vermilion Tigers are right back in the thick of the battle for the league championship and Craig Cup by reason of their 4-3 victory at Lloydminster Monday evening, and the next game will be at the Vermilion arena at 8:30 Friday evening March 14th. It is anticipated that this will be the biggest hockey crowd of the season will be on hand,

Since they played here last Friday night when they won a close game from the Tigers, the Huskies have been crowned Saskatchewan Intermediate A champions by vanquishing Swift Current Indians 8-3. The winners will receive the high class brand of hockey which has been played in the Eastern Alberta league all season.

On Friday night both teams will be at full strength and everything is set for the game on the season as for as the Vermilion arena is concerned. Let's fill the big building and show the boys we have appreciated the type of hockey they have dished up all season. The third hockey game will be played at Lloydminster providing that the Tigers emerge victorious on Friday.

Islay Challenge Goes To Dewberry

84 RUNS COMPETE

ISLAY.—Last week was one of the weeks of the year for Islay—bonspiel, a week when the curling rinks were burning late in most houses, but this week it seems that lights are out early. The ladies were busy too, serving lunch. How the pies disappeared! And of them, there were cakes, doughnuts and sandwiches too. Returns were excellent. The curling club thanks happy and grateful to all who helped with supplies, and time in serving.

The bonspiel itself was the largest Islay has ever had, 34 rinks. There were some excellent games and some not so excellent, but all served to enjoy the week. It is hoped that a larger and more convenient curling room and kitchen will be in evidence next year.

The Winners

GRAND CHALLENGE — 1, T. Jarret, Dewberry; 2, Don Braithwaite, Dewberry; 3, W. Parker, Dewberry; 4, A. McGladrie, Kitscoty.

MERCHANTS — W. Sutherland Vermilion; 2, R. Gordon, Dewberry; C. Miller, Kitscoty; 4, W. Hancock, Marwayne.

CITIZENS—R. Evans, Kitscoty; 2, L. D Inman, Islay; 3, P. Unist, Kitscoty; 4, S. Kuhn, Islay.

Tigers Back In Hunt For Craig Cup

REPLAY LLOYDMINSTER 4 TO 3 IN THIRD GAME

Vermilion Tigers bounced right back into competition for the Eastern Alberta hockey league championship and Craig cup when they defeated the Lloydminster Huskies Provincial Intermediate champions of Saskatchewan by a 4-3 score on the Huskies own ice. Huskies had won the two previous games and the standing is now Huskies two, Tigers one, in the best of five series. The next game will be played at Vermilion on Friday March 14th at 8:30 p.m.

To win the game at Lloyd the Tigers played heads-up hockey all the way. They back-checked like Sarnia and made the most of scoring chances. The Tigers tallied two priceless counters when Lloydminster was short-handed. On the other hand, they held off a determined Husky squad for four consecutive minutes while short-handed in the last period when penalties were meted out to Kreller and then to Hand.

Huskies notched their three goals in the first and two more in the second. Ted Cram, Ron Williams and Roger LaPlante with two scored for Vermilion. For the Huskies it was Mclean, Rabbeck and Phillips.

Myrnam Penguins Take Second Money

Irma Wins Hockey Tourney

Irma walked off with the $100 cash prize and hold the handsome new Hector Hawthorne trophy for one year, by virtue of their winning the annual hockey tourney held here Saturday. The tourney was held under the auspices of the Vermilion Amateur Athletic association and the second prize of $50 went to the Myrnam Penguins.

Eleven teams entered the tourney and ten game were then required to complete the event. It is quite a test for Myrnam arena as well as hockey ability. The Myrnam team was the early favorite and played four games in all. Irma was one of five teams to draw a bye as played their first game.

Irma defeated the Vermilion Agricultural school team in the closest game of the day, scoring two in the third period and the score ended up 7-6. Irma then vanquished Kentwood 6-2 and went on to take the final from Myrnam 12-2.

Myrnam Penguins in their path to the finals eliminated Kitscoty 6-1, Marwayne 7-4, Mannville 5-1, and then lost the final to Irma.

Goalie Stars in Last Game

Laurie Rasmussen, 46 year-old net minder for the Irma team, stated at the outset of the final game that he would be in the net appearance in the nets, that he fully intended putting away the wide packet and big stick for good. He made it an auspicious finale by turning in a sensational game.

Scoring for Irma were Lewis 2, Mackay 2, Wernish 2, Rose 2, Murray, Brown and O'Neill one each. The two Myrnam goals were scored by Hyrzet.

The champion Irma line-up was: Rasmussen, G Wernish, Masson, Glasgow, Kelly, Rose, M. Wernish, Brown, Sheetz, Murray, Lewis, Mackay, O'Neill, Proctor. Thunnell, Blaire, Wheddon.

Myrnam Penguins — Onischuk, Hryciew, Brzuhiko, Lonkowski, Polinski, Ewanishen, Pundish, Hyrzet, Tkachuk, Chorney, Bodner, N. Hryciew.

Complete results of the ten games were: Myrnam 6, Kitscoty 1: Marwayne 8, Clandonald 1: Mannville 12, Lone Rock 0. Ranfurly 12, Lindberg 0. Irma 7 V. A. 6: Myrnam defeated Marwayne 7-0. This brought the tourney out to the semi-finals with Myrnam defeating Mannville 5-1 and Irma eliminating Ranfurly 6-2. Irma went on to trim Myrnam 7-6 in the final.

Present Trophy, Prizes

At the close of the final game Manager Tom Watts of the Irma team thereafter store, presented the new Northern Hardware trophy to Captain Glasgow of the Irma team. G. W. Sutherland, president of the V.A.A.A. presented the team the first prize of $100 in crisp, new 20's, and the Myrnam boys their second prize money of $50.

The tournament certainly attracts a lot of attention and brings many people to town. The crowd in attendance at the final game was just a few short of 800.

The big event was very well handled and considerable praise due to the Vermilion Amateur Athletic association for sponsoring and arranging it as well as to the host of men required for referees, timekeepers, in the ticket office, at the canteen and for the multitude of other necessary tasks conducive to a well run tournament of this magnitude.

Local Seed Show Draws Large Entry

The Seed show put on by the Vermilion Agricultural society brought out 93 exhibits from a wide area, in spite of the lower grades of grain generally prevailing throughout the district. Several exhibitors took on calmet samples of seed.

The judges were Mr. C. A. Wren, District supervisor for the Field Production Services at Calgary and Mr. A. M. Wilson, Field Crops Commissioner, Edmonton. Both judges expressed themselves as being surprised at the quality of the exhibits and the amount of work done on them in preparation for the show. Wheat club members from five grain clubs sent in 22 samples for showing in the Junior section.

A number of local farmers who played seed which they have fed have been contacted and will soon get particulars from E. H. Buckingham, District Agriculturist.

The Farm Safety display obtained from Mr. Graham Anderson, District Agriculturist, Calgary, attracted a lot of attention. Mr. Anderson has set out on posters a lot of facts which farmers can get injured unless care is taken to avoid accidents.

Mr. N. N. Bentley, principal of the school of agriculture, arranged the gasoline demonstration. Instructors, MacCrimmon and Rackham had charge of the material which included the value of treated seed in getting high germinations and strong vigorous seedlings.

Mr. Alex Stone, Chairman of the Seed Fair committee, expressed appreciation at being granted so many exhibitors for bringing out such well prepared samples and to the general public who crowded the Memorial hall for several hours on Saturday.

Red Cross Campaign Now Under Way

The annual campaign for funds for the Canadian Red Cross began on Monday, March 11th. The Vermilion area has always supported this campaign in a manner which has brought praise from headquarters. Money is urgently needed as the Alberta quota amounts to $400,000. National objective is $5,- 225,000.

The Red Cross canvasser who calls at your door during the Society's current campaign is a volunteer worker, working in the interests of every Canadian. The Canadian Red Cross society is yours! When the canvasser calls give generously — give from the heart!

Fire, flood or hurricane, wherever disaster strikes, our Red Cross is there to offer help and comfort. And whether we are personally on the scene, or whether we read of it in the papers or hear it on the air—all of us take pride in the way our Red Cross steps into such emergency situations as it did so many times last year. And all of us can take pride, too, in the fact that we are helping when we give generously through the 1952 Red Cross campaign.

There are few things folks like better than having a good neighbor, and one of the best neighbors of all is our Canadian Red Cross. Every day, every week, every month it stands ready to lend a helping hand. Let's make sure it's always there. Give now to the 1952 Red Cross campaign.

The Red Cross belongs to every Canadian and it's up to every Canadian to see that the Red Cross is strong and ready to meet the needs of today—and the emergencies of tomorrow! Your Red Cross serves the community through its many vital services.

Red Cross outpost hospitals and nursing stations are only one of the many services the Society renders to Canadians everywhere. Red Cross nurses travel thousands of miles through all kinds of country, in all kinds of weather, to save the lives and protect the health of those Canadians living on our country's frontiers. You can help the Red Cross to help others by giving generously to the 1952 campaign.

This was a great year for many of the men who helped fight them. In hospitals across Canada there are many of the brave of the war. World wars 1 and 2 and now, the Korean war. To make life more pleasant for them the Canadian Red Cross performs many services Red Cross lodges at D.V.A. hospitals, hospital visitors, library facilities, shopping; transportation movies, arts and crafts. Make certain this work of mercy will be maintained and extended by giving generously to the 1932 Red Cross campaign.

Donations may be left in Vermilion with the Dr. H. Mitchell or J. R Robson, campaign managers.

Buffalo Coulee Holds Two Successful Bonspiels

A most successful five-day men's bonspiel came to an end on Monday, March 3rd. The weather held out very well so that none of the games had to be postponed as was the case last year. Seventy rinks participated, 13 local and 19 rinks from Vermilion, Irma, Mannville, Wainwright and Wildmere.

An outstanding feature of the spiel which is rarely encountered in all concerned was a beautiful trophy donated by two Mannville businessmen. Proudfoot and Cox had one look at this grand prize and the rinks were out on the ice with the idea of do or die. Naturally only one of them could be the best.

The following are rinks which won prizes in the three events:

GRAND CHALLENGE — 1 A. Gerhart, Mannville 2, L. Kreller Mannville 3, A. A Smith Holbrook 4, H Buskke Buffalo Coulee.

MERCHANTS — 1, A. Van Vleet Vermilion 2 J. Everett Buffalo Coulee, 3, A Caron, Buffalo Coulee, 4, D. A Duffel Buffalo Coulee.

CONSOLATION — 1, F. Proctor Mannville — 2 J. R Ewen Buffalo Coulee 3 J. Barlow Buffalo Coulee 4 H Cleland Buffalo Coulee.

The club would like to thank the following business firms for their kind donations: Proudfoot-Cockrell, M. B. Van Dusen, G. Barr, all of Mannville Craig Bros., R. Burke Nelson Hill, Stephens Ltd., Northern Hardware, Macleods, Revelstoke Sawmill. I. Miller (5c to $1 store).

A very special thanks goes to the ladies of Buffalo Coulee for their donation of pies and for their 16-hour a day catering to the men. Thanks a million girls.

Mrs. Bob Martin Is Big Winner at Ladies' Spiel

The ladies' bonspiel at Buffalo Coulee is a successful end on Thursday night with the rinks being the winners in the two events.

Board of Trade Holds Regular Weekly Meeting

The following is a summary of the Board of Trade meeting held Wednesday March 5th President G. W. Sutherland was in the chair and there were 29 present.

The President welcomed Mr. Don Wrenlaer of Vermilion Bakery and Mr. Cliff McCormick both of whom have been away on extended visits.

The Chairman congratulated Mr. George Webb who was present, on his re-election to the town council, although no rats have been seen at this point, there is no doubt of their presence. In co-operation with the elevator agents extermination is in progress

Rats have also been reported on two farms in the Altario-Bodo area. On one of these 14 of the rodents have been tapped. Poison baits have been set to clean out the menace and all residents of the area are urged to keep traps watch and report immediately any signs of rats to the nearest pest control officer or D.A.

Wherever rats or signs of rats are found in Alberta the new poison warfarin is being used, says Mr. Lobay. The bait is made up of 1% parts of a 3-3-50 mixture of rolled oats and corn to one part of warfarin concentrate. The rats seem unable to detect the presence of the poison, and return again and again to feed on the bait. Death from warfarin is due to internal bleeding. Three four or more feeds may be needed before the rats die, it is

Mr. Cliff McCormick stated there were very good hopes of obtaining a seed cleaning plant here. Mr. Ashley Cooper read the club calendar Meeting adjourned.

Rat Control Requires Vigilance

Close watch is needed along our eastern border to check the rat invasion at its source, says W. Lobay, Supervisor of Crop Protection, Alberta Dept. of Agriculture. Signs of rats under the elevators at Conquer have been reported and although no rats have been seen at this point, there is no doubt of their presence. In co-operation with the elevator agents extermination is in progress

Rats have also been reported on two farms in the Altario-Bodo area. On one of these 14 of the rodents have been tapped. The rats seem unable to detect the presence of the poison, and return again and again to feed on the bait. Death from warfarin is due to internal bleeding. Three four or more feeds may be needed before the rats die, it is important that the supply of bait be maintained until all feeding ceases.

Baits for use by pest control officers in areas where rat signs are found can be obtained from the district agriculturists. Since the rats are now more or less confined to their winter quarters, every effort should be made at this time to exterminate them. With constant vigilance and the wide use of warfarin it is still possible to destroy the rats as they appear in the province, says Mr. Lobay.

PEACETIME NEED FOR CIVIL DEFENCE THAUTHO—

In a recent issue of the Redwater News-Herald, W. H. Bell, editor and publisher, declares that Civil Defence training is as essential for peacetime as it is for wartime emergencies.

The editorial states:

"From news reports it is apparent practically every town and village in the country is faced with the same problem, a definite lack of interest in the vital necessity of a strong Civil Defence organization.

While provincial and federal organizers tour the provinces in an attempt to drum up enthusiasm, the average citizen unless covered or shamed into joining a defence organization merely shrugs his shoulders with a 'So What!' attitude.

Without doubt the average Canadian is living himself into a false sense of security. A recent nation wide survey shows over 80% of the population do not believe there will be another war in the near future, a large percentage are doubtful and 15% have no opinion on the matter at all.

With those figures in mind it can be readily understood why the average citizen feels the time he has to devote each week to defence training will be much wasted effort.

What is apparently forgotten is that these defence committees, as has been poined out times without number, will function equally well in the event of a major disaster in their own community.

There have been many times with in the past few months where these organized and trained groups have been able to play a vital part during floods and fires.

Training now, while 'sure there is not going to be another war is sound policy, there is time now which there would be later if the 'sure there isn't going to be a war,' turns into 'sure there is a war.'"

If the item you are looking for does not appear in this issue—look for it next week. It will certainly be in then.

In the year 1951, Canada counted more than 2,500,000 automobiles on the road, including 600,000 trucks

Huskies In Close Win From Tigers 4-3

A lengthy report of the hockey game played last Friday night has been crowded out, due partially perhaps to later developments. The Tigers came within an eyelash of tieing up the series for the Cronyn cup, the game ending with a 4-3 victory for Lloydminster Huskies. After their initial set-back the Tigers staged a remarkable comeback, and but for two mishaps in the dying moments of the game might well have pulled out with a victory. With the score at 4-3 Donn boarded Barr so that the latter had to retire from the game. Donn was penalized and before he was back on the ice, Piper was benched for two minutes for grabbing and holding the puck to prevent the Tigers from scoring. This gave Vermilion a grand opportunity but Les Williams had at that moment broken his skate, and with the latter and Barr off, the power line of the Tigers was broken up. However, it was a great game, a fine come-back, and raised the hopes of the Tiger supporters that they can still take that Craig cup and that the series will go the full five games.

Scoring for the Tigers were Barr from LaPlante and Les Williams; LaPlante from L. Williams; Teller. For the Huskies it was Wallowski from Hill; Barrack from McLean; Phillips: J. Stewart.

Pee-Wees Clash For Peanuts

(Special to the Standard)

Canadien scorers were Donald Stewart from Donnie Rann; Donald Stewart from Allan Bobey; Stanley Hicks unassisted. Ranger; Bryan Calvert scored that team's goal unassisted. Bill Robinson and Tod MacDonell tangled in a fight, while Captain Brent Long drew the only penalty of the game for a trip.

The Weather

Very enjoyable weather has prevailed this week. Just enough frost to keep the hockey and curling ice in good shape, but warm enough to travel around in comfort. Warmest day was Saturday, March 8th with 33 above and the cold spot in the week was last Thursday morning, March 6th when it slipped to 13 below, 1.4 inches of snow fell at Lloydminster but practically all roads are open and travelling is good.

Only one fourteenth of the land area of the Dominion has been improved by man or used as pasture.

Elephants, alligators ,turtles and poll parrots have an average life span of 100 years or more.

Lightest of all Canadian woods is the eastern cedar. It weighs only 19 lbs. per cu. ft.

Sheila Lovig Chosen To Represent Alberta At C.G.I.T. Conference

FORMER VERMILION GIRL

The following story, which appeared in the last issue of the Mayerthorpe Review, is about a former Vermilion girl, Miss Sheila Lovig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adrian Lovig. Sheila is a great daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fish and until a few years ago had spent her life in Vermilion.

"I, was with great joy and delight that the local United Church C.G.I.T. group learned that one of their number, Sheila Lovig, has been chosen to be one of the four provincial representatives at the first national C.G.I.T. conference to be held this summer at a camp near Vermilville, Ont. Sheila was one of the two girls chosen to represent Mayerthorpe C.G.I.T. to go to Camp Council, the annual provincial camp held last summer at Sylvan Lake. It was on the basis of her work there and the reports sent in to the provincial office on her activities throughout the year that she has been selected for the signal honor of being one of the four chosen out of the 600 girls who make up the total membership of the C.G.I.T. in the province of Alberta. News of the appointment has come from the Religious Education Council of Alberta, the organization responsible for selecting the delegates. This is the same interdenominational group which sponsors the Tuxis Boys Parliament and the C.G.I.T. provincial conference held at Christmas.

The purpose of the national camp is not only to provide for an interchange of ideas and techniques, but to give intensive leadership training to girls of promise and ability. The Canadian Council of Churches is recruiting the best leadership in Canada for instructors and staff, and it should therefore prove a wonderful experience for these young people fortunate enough to be selected to attend. They will not only have the opportunity to camp in one of Canada's most beautiful vacation spots, but they will have a chance to meet people from every province in the Dominion. What an opportunity for a sixteen year old!

The only sad note in the arrangements is that Sheila will not be able to return to Mayerthorpe to share with us the values of her experience because her family are moving this week to Irma.

The girls were selected on the basis of their personal attributes and abilities and those of us who know Sheila know that she is well worthy of the appointment. She will officially represent the province of Alberta but she has received her training from the Mayerthorpe C.G.I.T. she will take with her some of the programs and techniques which she learned here. We can be justly proud of her, for to many her, our local youth work is in a small way being, given national recognition.

Dewberry News

Here we are again with a few news items. It is nice to see some signs of spring although it is a little colder at time of writing.

It is good to hear that Mrs. John Romanchok has improved in health enough to come home hospital after a month's stay. The best of health is wished her in the future.

Mrs. Pat Colbeon (nee Shirley Martini) was home for a few days. She is now making her home at Winfield until her husband returns from Korea.

Bonspiels and more bonspiels — the women have brought home their share of the prizes as have the men. Now there is going to be an open mixed spiel, followed by a big dance in April.

Ed Garnder is home from Yellowknife for a few weeks. Reports say that Wally Curtis is going to run the Imperial business for another year. Ed is either going to Cold Lake or Prince Rupert, B.C. when he leaves. Nice to see you around again Ed.

The new school is almost ready to move into. It is a lovely building but it does seem a shame not to have a full basement under a structure of this sort.

Cheerio until next time.

Planning for Spring

While you are planning your color schemes for this year's spring cleaning remember that ceilings can be interesting. Try a small floral pattern on the ceiling for a fresh feeling, especially in a bedroom where you can be and look at the flowers or do you ever get time to be down and lie? There is a free pamphlet Wall and Ceiling to help you prepare and repair walls and woodwork. Let me know if you decorate. Write in for it if you'd like it.

Greenlawn Grapevine

The Community association held another meeting recently to report on progress at the hall and to plan new activities. Building is going along, with a hearth has erected in the newly finished kitchen. There ladies cloakroom under way too.

It was decided that the next dance March 7th be a masquerade with prize for the best costume, the most comical and the best worn by the youngsters. The ladies in the Association have offered to organize a banquet to be held in conjunction with the March 21st dance. Fine particulars for this do, members to contact are Effie Matheson, Mrs. Norm Matheson, Mrs. Nichols and Kay Magill.

The Goodwill Club sponsored a real mortgage-lifter last week with proceed going towards the hall. It was the Talent Nite and Sadie Hawkins dance. A wonderful crowd turned out. The committee in charge of the Talent program with particularly to thank those who contributed. As well as the many fine individual items, Lois Maxwell and her pupils from Ellsworth school gave several very enjoyable numbers, and a group of girls entertained with an acrobatic number. North Home young people put on a short sketch which deserves particular mention, exceptional local talent, the sketch was written by Ruth Brown and was acted by a group of teen-agers whose acting we have enjoyed before. The ladies made the most of their Leap Year privileges and really kept the men dancing. A fine time was had by all.

Junior Club Meetings

Greenlawn Juniors have a couple of meetings to report. The first was a pow-wow-fashion meeting for their Wheat club. Mr. Stockinghaun, D.A., was present, also Mr. Brathwaite from the Wheat Pool. It was decided to continue as a Wheat club this year, sponsored by the Wheat Pool and most of the members will need Thatcher wheat this year. Indian Head Blossom.

The Junior F.U.A. also met and one of their plans for the near future is a toboggan party to be held Sunday 16th.

The masquerade dance was held as scheduled with a good crowd in attendance. Costumes were weird and wonderful to behold. The Indian Brave who caused so much laughter and who received the men's prize, turned out to be Mrs. Gordon Mathison, while Gerrie Blacklock, as a beautiful blonde bride, took the ladies' first prize. Comic prizes went to Jo Ginty and Gordon Blacklock, who came as a gooey old sea captain and his henpecking wife. Children's prizes were claimed by Patsy Haskill and Gilbert Mathison.

Sorry we haven't been able to report on the church activities in Greenlawn. Mr. Gillette has held service quite regularly all winter, but because of varying circumstances it hasn't been possible to announce it ads since there service were to be held.

Last Spiel of the Season

Well, the last bonspiel of the season now being played at Dewberry sounds as though spring might just around the corner. If you hear some new, strange cuts in the neig' ashod it likely won't be the cry of the Wild Goose, it'll b the kids practising for the new band. By all accounts however, they are making very rapid progress due to Mr. Protsch's able leadership, and we are all looking forward to the first band concert.

OUR COMPLETE SHORT STORY—

Family Inspiration

By JANET DORAN

TOM never actually said he was ashamed of Lorna's Aunt Sara and Uncle Ike, but the years of their marriage were milestoned with his plan. She re-read Aunt Sara's scrawled letter. The third cup of black coffee restrained Lorna of Tom's creak about coffee with cream and sugar making her look as shapeless as her Aunt Sara.

Now her uncle and aunt were coming to visit them—their first trip to the big city, though Tom drove her out to the farm every summer for a few brief calls, BEING basic alone. If she wanted to stay, How to keep from letting these dear people know how Tom felt? As her foster parents they adored Tom, Lorna knew, But Tom would be impatient with them. His detested sentiment. He was ambitious and sure of the course he was taking to the top of his career. Uncle Ike and Aunt Sara were at the twilight of their lives. But some times Tom wasn't so sure.

"You manage to grub $1,900 the year out of that rock-pocked farm," he told her uncle once, "and you have eggs, cream, butter and fruits and vegetables. Often 'ev can't afford them on my ten thousand a year."

"Nothing's wasted, farming, Tom," her uncle twinkled. "Nothing goes for nothing and front here. We have everything we want and we sell what's left to make up the stuff we can't produce. It's a good way of life."

"Everything city folks have has to be shipped, stored, and rebundled," Aunt Sara added, "so it costs more to live your way." The explanation irked Tom. He resented their frugal philosophy.

Tom was so tense with business worries Lorna didn't tell him that night. After her excellent meal, he jabbed figures on paper. He tossed in his sleep. Lorna kept silent as he got ready for the office.

"That for real, Lorna, you won't be able to afford it this year. Sorry!" He had the door open.

"Never mind, Tom, a good tweed will do as well."

"The tweed may be out, too," he snapped.

"Uncle Ike and Aunt Sara are coming for the week, Tom," she said, bearing the issue. His face tensed.

"When!" he asked sharply, and when she said, "Today," he grinned. "You'll need extra money to get things." Handing her some bills, he added, "Give them a good time, Lorna; it may be the last for a long time."

At home that night, Tom's hands shook as the radio told of the market plunge.

"Maybe I'll apply for a job helping Uncle Ike cut hay," Tom said, along with Aunt Sara in the kitchen. Her faded blue eyes were intent on his face.

"The market break hits you find Lorna?" she asked.

"Hit isn't the weed. We're cleaned. We'll be twenty thousand in the hole as well."

"Would twenty-five thousand pull you out?" she asked.

"Might; probably lose that, too, even if I had a rich angel foot-handy enough to gamble that much."

"Uncle Ike and I have saved a little. We've been too busy to spend much," she said, "we'd like to help you and Lorna any way we can. If'od look after us, if anything threatened our old age security."

Uncle Ike came out, beaming happily, boyish over the feast in sight.

"If I were twenty years younger, I'd like to be in on that market fight. Takes nerve to weather business like that."

After dinner Tom had en hat cad coat for the office. His face was eager again. "I may be late getting back." He kissed Aunt Sara tenderly. "Bless you for offering, but I won't need your savings, honey. Hang onto them tight." Lorna found the evening a nightmare. And all week it was the same. She saw Tom for a few hours each night as he slept woodenly. But he came to the train to see her people home, bringing Aunt Sara a big parcel of dressmaking books. And cigars and a brier pipe for Uncle Ike. His arm about Lorna was firm now, his kiss real.

"We're in the clear now, honey—thanks to Aunt Sara. Guess all I needed was family inspiration." He held her hand, going back to the empty apartment, after the train left. "About that coat, Lorna—you can start looking for one now."

She wanted to cry. More than the coat, more than anything, she was happy that Tom really shared his real feelings for her wonderful family.

WINNIPEG — Does curling contribute to a man becoming a model husband?

Despite the "anguished protests of the curling widows," Rev. Allen H. Hubard, chaplain of the Dominion Curling associations, thinks so.

YOUR RED CROSS

WHAT IS IT DOING?

INTENTLY watching the director of the rhythm band at the Junior Red Cross Crippled Children's Hospital, Regina, is diminutive "Gordie", who in 1947 was admitted to the Hospital at the age of six. Known as "Smiler" he is a most cheerful person in spite of suffering from Rheumatoid Arthritis.

"Gordie" is in grade 5 at the hospital's fin school and attends classes regularly each day with the other boys and girls, receives Physio Therapy treatments daily and all the latest modern medical help can give to this condition.

There are many ways in which your Red Cross does the things you would want to do. Some of the services you render by your contributions are Blood and Blood Plasma which starts this year, will provide any person in Saskatchewan who needs whole blood or plasma transfusions free of charge and without obligation. This is a nation wide project, the largest of its kind ever undertaken by a voluntary organization. Equipment for the laboratory in the University Hospital and the collection depots in Regina and Saskatoon will cost about $140,000. The annual operating expense each year will be approximately $200,000. This service starts this year!

To destitute children overseas were sent 29,823 articles of clothing made by volunteer women workers in Saskatchewan during 1951. The total cost of materials for these garments exceeded $18,000. In addition some 1,773 other articles were made and distributed to needy persons in the Province. The volunteer workers used Red Cross work rooms in this service, as well as doing much of the work in their own homes.

When disaster strikes, your Red Cross is ever ready to serve. Fires and other disasters caused 146 families, involving 404 children and adults, to lose their homes and belongings during the past year. These families promptly received bedding and clothing. Altogether 4,183 pieces of clothing and 2,177 articles of bedding were distributed the fastest possible way to these unfortunate people.

In Saskatchewan the Red Cross operates the only Mother's Milk Bank in Canada. New born infants who require mother's milk, and whose own mothers cannot supply it, benefit by this service. In 1951, 67,073 ounces of milk were collected, pasteurized and kept refrigerated for immediate use in hospitals in Saskatoon, Regina, Moose Jaw and Prince Albert. When requested shipments are made to other hospitals from these main banks. Some 238 babies received this life saving milk. There is no charge, of course.

Hundreds of people loan on the Red Cross! If you want to borrow a crutch apply to your nearest Red Cross Branch. Last year 946 items, such as wheel chairs, crutches, hospital beds, and other such sick room supplies were loaned free to 754 sick and convalescing persons. There are 1" loaning centres strategically located throughout the province. The Sick Room Loan Service has been a busy one.

Other services in operating are Outpost Hospitals, Nursing Stations, Welfare Services, Swimming and Water Safety, and other instructions! Projects as well as Highway First Aid Posts.

For six years, despite rising costs, your Red Cross has continued to expand its services without increasing its financial appeal. This year the provincial objective has had to be raised from $250,000 to $300,000 as original funds barely sufficient to compensate for increased cost of operation. This amount is the absolute minimum requirement for your Red Cross to maintain its WORK OF MERCY.

Air raid warning sirens are being delivered to certain major cities across Canada. Ottawa announces it is expected that an initial shipment of 200 five-horsepower 2400 sirens will have been completed by late spring.

After suitability tests have been made in the areas where sirens are being installed, the whole program will be reviewed and it may be found necessary to modify or supplement it. The 200 sirens now being delivered do not necessarily constitute all such equipment which may be provided under plans to establish an efficient nation-wide warning system, Ottawa states.

THE HOUSE OF SEAGRAM

MEN WHO THINK OF TOMORROW PRACTISE MODERATION TODAY

REPORT to the PEOPLE

BY ROBERT FAIR, M.P.
BATTLE RIVER

On Thursday morning, Feb. 28 at 10.30 artillery thundered in a 21-gun salute, bands played and the crowds at Union station and on Ottawa streets cheered in welcome when Hon. Vincent Massey, first Canadian-born Governor General, arrived in Ottawa to take the Oath of his high office and later on to preside at the opening of parliament. His Excellency, who has been living for a short time at his home in Port Hope since returning here after representing Canada at the fun-ral of the late King George Sixth, was accompanied to Ottawa on private railway cars by Blair Secretary F. G. Bradley in a similar tradition of the reception of previous Governors-General of Canada.

After inspecting the Guard of Honor in front of the Parliament buildings, he was escorted to the Senate chamber where, in the presence of a large number of members of the House of Commons, the Senate, top ranking officers of the various services and others, witnessed the administration of his Oath of Office. At 3:00 o'clock in the afternoon of the same day, the sixth session of the 21st parliament was opened with the newly appointed Governor-General officiating.

Expressions of Sympathy

First of all, an expression of sympathy was tendered to the Queen, her Consort husband, the Duke of Edinburgh and other members of the Royal Family. The speech pointed out the serious situation that still exists throughout the world and stated that the Government remains convinced that the nations of the free world must continue to increase their combined strength in order to secure lasting peace and security by the effective discouragement of aggression. In Korea it has not been possible to bring about an armistice but negotiations with this end in view are still going on.

Foot and Mouth Disease

Notice is given that parliamentary approval will be sought for a further contribution to Canada's combine plan and for technical assistance for under-developed areas. The Japanese Peace Treaty has been signed and will be submitted for consideration. Reference is made in the speech to the very serious outbreak of foot and mouth disease which appeared recently in cattle in a small area in Saskatchewan. Immediate steps have been taken to limit the affected area and news of the outbreak has caused concern in every province in Canada. It is particularly serious for the three prairie provinces as embargoes have now been placed against shipments by several of the provinces and also the U.S. The Dominion Government has undertaken to make compensation for the animals destroyed but this in my opinion is not sufficient and when the proper time arrives it is my intention to advance arguments for a further compensation by the Government, including exemption from income tax for the amounts received for those whose stock has been or will be slaughtered. We are keeping a close watch on progress made and will lose no opportunity first of all to have the disease stamped out and secondly, to have suitable compensation made.

The Speech further points out that a board of engineers has been established to prepare an application for submission to the International Joint Commission concerning the development of hydro electric power in the St. Lawrence river. Another section states that Parliament will be asked to consider legislation to amend the War Veterans' Allowance Act 1946 and the Veterans' Benefit Act, 1951. In connection with this the Minister of Veterans' Affairs stated last session that a special committee dealing with veterans affairs would be set up this session and that any recommendation they might make dealing with an increase in burned out pensions could be made retroactive to January 1st. I expect full advantage will be taken of this statement by the Minister.

Legislation will also be introduced to revise the Immigration Act to authorize the Federal government to enter into new tax agreements with the provinces, to provide for readjustment of representation in the House of Commons, in other words a redistribution bill.

Revision of the criminal code which has been prepared by a Commission engaged on this project for the past three years. A bill to authorize certain preparatory steps in connection with the establishment of a national library and other measures will include a bill to amend the Food and Drugs Act, the Canada Grain Act, the Cold Storage Act, the Canada Farm Loan Act, the Civil Service Superannuation Act, the Currency Act, the Canada Shipping Act, the Northwest Territories Act, the Aeronautics Act, the Radio Act, the Government Employees Compensation Act 1947 and the Unemployment Insurance Act.

Percentage of price increases in Canada since 1941

IMPLEMENT PRICES ARE LOW
in comparison with prices of other supplies the farmer buys

- The outstanding achievement by Massey-Harris in keeping the prices of its Canadian-made products at a low level of increase over 1941, is clearly shown by the above chart of price indexes.
- All commodities are shown as 97.7% higher than 1941; raw materials are 98.2% higher; average hourly rates of pay Massey-Harris Canadian plants are 158.0% higher; yet Massey-Harris Canadian-made farm implements have increased only 66.2%.
- The continued great world demand for labour-saving farm equipment has given a volume permitting high operating efficiency in relation to production and selling costs, making possible the partial absorption of the increased costs of materials and labour.
- With the scarcity and high cost of experienced help, farmers find in modern machinery the means to maintain high volume production at low operating cost.

HOW TO WIN THE PRIZE
before the race is run!

Watch Jimmy go!
He's mighty fleet on his feet. And you can bet that he'll win first prize in this race.
Bless you Jimmy just save and get married. Then he'll discover that one of the prizes he wants most to win is financial security for his family. But he'll be able to win this prize "before the race is run" — with life insurance.
For, you see, the full protection of life insurance begins the moment you make your first premium payment. And those premiums can help you win some of the "prizes" that savings provide — such as a college education for the youngsters or a new home.
Nowadays the savings you can make with life insurance are more important than ever. For, like all savings, they help to check inflation. And, because they are fixed new savings, their inflation-checking power is all the greater.
So keep up your premium payments. Add new life insurance as you need it. And save money every way you can!

Retiring President Reviews Board Of Trade Activities Past Year

Provincial Park and Dam

In October the Chairman was able to announce that the Provincial Park project had in principle been accepted by the Provincial government. In this connection the Chairman paid tribute to Mr. W. Hill and his work in the past twenty years to that end.

The Special committee of the Board consisted of Mr. Sutherland, Mr. Hill and Mr. Banks were unceasing in their efforts toward the establishment of this project. Several trips were made to Edmonton and representatives of the government were entertained here on several occasions and the whole of the valley benefited. It is now expected that this project will go ahead and the committee in charge is to be sincerely congratulated on the efforts they put forth.

At a recent meeting Mr. Hill announced the necessary funds had been set aside by the Government and that surveys are being made to establish levels and Canadian Utility engineers have been working on various angles in the valley.

Miscellaneous

The Board as in past years again offered a Scholarship of $50 and a gold medal to the student in the first year class in Agriculture attending the V.S.A., who made the greatest contribution to the academic, social and athletic life of the school.

The Board gave a luncheon in honor of the Vermilion hockey club at which officials and members of the Vermilion team were the guests of the Board.

Last April

the members had the pleasure of listening to a short address from Mr. D. Cameron, Director of Extension, U. of A. who stated that more people during the past year than ever before had come to this Department to seek specialized information owing to the rapid industrial development of the province during the past few years.

Courtesy Flight

The Entertainment committee under the chairmanship of Mr. N. N. Bentley arranged with TCA for a "Courtesy flight" for members of the Board and their wives over Edmonton and district during May. Forty members of the Board and their wives took this flight and were accorded a hearty welcome by several members of the Edmonton Chamber.

Mr. Massey Cook, Supervisor of Settlement Service, Chairman, Dept. of Immigration, in April gave a very interesting address to the Board in regard to immigration.

The President and Vice-President of the Board attended the annual meeting of the Associated Boards of Trade and Chambers of Commerce held at Red Deer last June, and the Board received an excellent report from Mr. Sutherland of the meeting at which several resolutions of considerable importance to this province as a whole were passed.

This Association also passed a resolution definitely opposing the granting to the Provinces the right to levy direct taxation. also forwarded a resolution to Provincial government to promulgate rules governing the installation of gas in towns In this connection the Mayor reported that a gas inspector was then checking the gas installations in Vermilion.

Mr. Dey Moore from Regina, representative of Canadian Chamber of Commerce for Alberta and Saskatchewan, visited us again. In the course of his remarks he stated he was impressed with the fact that our Board had had luncheon meetings every week for the past 17 years. He thought this was probably unique among Boards of Trade. Mr. Marlett dealt with the main functions of the Canadian Chamber with regard to Canada as a whole. He said the Dominion Chamber was able to speak for the whole of Canada because of the affiliation of the local Boards with the Chamber.

One item which was not business but which members of the Board very much enjoyed was a novel and interesting exhibition of mind reading given by Mr. W. B. Elford at one of our luncheon meetings in December. It has been suggested that we should have apart from business some entertainment at intervals during the year.

I would like here to express our appreciation to the town of Vermilion for the grant of $150 which the town made to the Board to help defray expenses of the publication of the Economic survey.

I have only given you a brief outline of the Board's efforts during the past year. It would be impossible to convey to you in a report the various other matters in which the Board has interested itself, which although perhaps not realized at the time, bear fruit later on.

Among the accomplishments of the Board during the past year I think I should especially mention the Provincial Park project and the establishment of the Health unit. Our board worked hard for a long time for both these projects and we can take satisfaction from the fact that they are now a reality.

Before I close this report I would like to bring again to the attention of the Board the necessity of a new post office here. I have no doubt that the incoming executive will make every effort to have this accomplished during the year 1952 if possible.

I also wish to stress the value of our farmer membership. I think the new executive will do everything in its power to not only increase the farmer membership but also to increase the attendance of farmer members at our meetings."

What Happens to Pool Elevator Earnings?

LAST YEAR Alberta Pool Elevators had net earnings of $1,623,986.62.

The Wheat Pool delegates decided to dispose of such earnings as follows:

Cash dividends on member patrons' deliveries	$ 490,128.00
Redemption of 1923-28 reserves	1,040,583.20
Income tax	83,390.85
Retained to increase working capital	10,097.09
	$1,623,986.62

On February 15, 1952, the Alberta Wheat Pool mailed 20,000 cheques totalling $800,000 to redeem 1923-28 reserves. Further redemptions will bring the total up to $1,040,583. At this rate payment in a reduced or capital loss tax is imposed thereon.

When this year's distribution is completed, the Alberta Wheat Pool will have redeemed reserves to the value of $6,000,000, all at 100 cents on the dollar.

The original reserve contributions totalled about $8,400,000, so that only $1,500,000 of reserves will then be outstanding in members' hands.

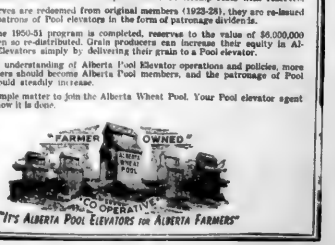
The Alberta Wheat Pool has no capital stock. Ownership rests with reserves.

As reserves are redeemed from original members (1923-28), they are re-issued to member patrons of Pool elevators in the form of patronage dividends.

When the 1950-51 program is completed, reserves to the value of $6,000,000 will have been so re-distributed. Grain producers can increase their equity in Alberta Pool Elevators simply by delivering their grain to a Pool elevator.

With an understanding of Alberta Pool Elevator operations and policies, more grain producers should become Alberta Pool members, and the patronage of Pool elevators should steadily increase.

It is a simple matter to join the Alberta Wheat Pool. Your Pool elevator agent will explain how it is done.



God Save The Queen

CANADIANS DID NOT KNOW, when they welcomed Princess Elizabeth and her husband, the Duke of Edinburgh to this country a few months ago that she would so soon become the Queen. Sorrow at the tragic and untimely death of her father, King George VI has dimmed the first weeks of her reign but people everywhere already know that although she is very young to assume the great responsibilities of her high office, the Queen is carrying on the highest traditions of a monarchy which is unique in the world today. Much has been spoken and written of that monarchy in the past weeks and people within the Commonwealth and Empire, and many in other lands, have had a feeling of having witnessed historic and deeply significant events.

* * * * *

Is Well Known To Her People

It is over fifty years since a Queen has occupied the throne and it is nearly four hundred years since the accession of Queen Elizabeth I, whose reign, with that of Queen Victoria, have come down in history as great periods in the story of the British people. Queen Elizabeth II is well known to her people and there is a feeling of well being among them, and the hope that her reign, like those of the two last Queens, may hold another bright chapter in the history of their country. She has come to the throne at a time when the future does not appear hopeful, and there are problems of great magnitude both at home and abroad. Her father met an example of courage and fortitude which helped the people to withstand the war and the troubled times which have followed.

* * * * *

Shows Is Hope For The Future

The steadfastness of the young Queen and her obvious intention to carry on the tradition of the monarchy in the manner of her father, is already apparent. In the case of Canadians who saw her and her husband not long ago, she will never be a shadowy figure across the sea, but rather, a charming and gracious young woman, interested in the people and the country which she was soon coming for the first time. In the natural course of events her reign will continue through the lifetime of most Canadians who are now adult. The national anthem in their time will always be "God Save the Queen" and they will hope sincerely that her reign will indeed be happy and glorious and that it may mark the beginning of better times for her people in Britain.

Deaths From T.B. in Manitoba Decreasing

WINNIPEG— Deaths from tuberculosis in Manitoba decreased to an all-time low of 21.6 per 100,000 in 1951, Dr. R. L. Rose, medical director of the sanatorium board of Manitoba, said.

"Although white population deaths were six more than the previous year there were 22 fewer Indian deaths during the year, thus reducing the combined figure to 16 fewer deaths than in 1950," he said.

During 1951, 218,000 free fluid X-rays were taken—41 per cent of the population of Manitoba.

Extensive educational, vocational and rehabilitation services were provided for sanatorium patients.

Incidence of new cases amongst Indians decreased from 239 in 1950 to 169 in 1951; amongst whites, cases dropped from 263 to 252.

PRIZE HERDS SLAUGHTERED TO CHECK DREADED DISEASE—Prize herds of cattle, among them the pets of many a farm boy, have been slaughtered in the Regina area as the federal government moved to wipe out all traces of the dreaded hoof-and-mouth disease. Most of the cattle slaughtered showed no visible trace of the disease having contaminated breitbrood on the necessity of killing them. The U.S. government may ease the health declared embargo on Canadian livestock if the spread of the disease appears to be completely arrested.

Foot-and-Mouth Disease Feared By World's Cattlemen

Spreads Like Wildfire and Can Be Stopped Only by Whole Hoof-and-Mouth Extermination

Dreaded Virus

OTTAWA—Foot-and-mouth disease is feared by cattlemen throughout the world. It is as damaging to livestock as smallpox and the bubonic plague is to humans. It spreads like wildfire. The only way to halt it is to slaughter infected animals and bury the carcasses.

Transmitted by a tissue-destroying virus, the scourge in recent years has struck at Mexico's thriving cattle industry and almost destroyed it. It again ravaged livestock properties in continental Europe. It has threatened to injure Britain's economic consolidation.

Just where this animal plague originated is a subject of controversy. But it is believed it has a 2,000-year Hindu-pagan history traced back to biblical days. Best actual documentation goes back only about 400 years.

Foot-and-mouth disease in European parts of the world became widespread that some countries have given up trying to eradicate it. Young animals infected by it sometimes die. Older ones become so lame and useless that they become uneconomic to maintain.

But it doesn't affect the human. Humans have been known to eat infected meat, properly cooked. The cooking apparently kills the bacterial infection.

The virus, transmitted in many ways by animals, by humans on their boots and clothes, and even by flocks of migrating birds and by straw, hits exposed animal tissue.

It causes blisters on the mouth, tongue, udder and some parts of the animal hoof. It sometimes even gets into the stomach and ulcerates there. The animal goes off its feed, it becomes lame, it loses weight.

Worst of all, the virus spreads quickly. Herds and collation can be infected within days.

When it broke out in Mexico in 1946—the first time since 1930—hundreds of thousands of cattle were slaughtered and farmers compensated for their loss. By boat, aircraft, train and automobile, agricultural technicians moved in on the infected areas, cleansing and sterilizing barns and equipment.

The fight against foot-and-mouth disease in Mexico still goes on.

The United States had its last outbreak in 1929. It was controlled. But on the north side of the continent the possibility of a recurrence, that an emergency train stands ready in Ottawa to be moved with vaccines and other emergency equipment to contaminated areas at a moment's notice.

In Britain, the fight against foot-and-mouth has been continuing for years. The threat there is from Europe. Huge flocks of migrating birds, moving from Europe to Britain, sometimes carry the virus.

But the virus has invaded many other countries. Last year a federal survey showed that only Canada, the United States, New Zealand, Australia, Ireland and Scotland were free from the disease.

Dr. Thomas Childs, chief veterinarian for Europe, considers the disease comparable in deadly toll to an epidemic of bubonic plague.

"Hitler's hard and fast," he says, "an outbreak of this disease could be disastrous to the whole national economy."

Foot-and-mouth disease is characterized by the formation of vesicles or blisters on the mucous membranes covering the tongue, lips, cheeks, palate, or other tissues of the mouth, on the skin between and above the claws of the feet and on the teats and udder.

In lungs, lesions frequently occur also on and above the snout. In rare cases, the muscles of cattle are affected. In sheep, goats and deer, the feet are the most common site of the blister formation.

The disease is usually accompanied by a fever. The fever and difficulty to eat cause a rapid loss in flesh and a rapid slowing down of milk secretion. The udders often become inflamed and colored by the formation of abscesses and sometimes cows become permanently crippled for milk production.

The inflammation of the feet may cause the horn to separate from the tissue, producing lameness and permanent injury. Frequently, pregnant animals abort.

Many Rural Schools Closed in Saskatchewan in Past Twelve Years

REGINA.—Schools have closed in almost 1,000 rural districts in Saskatchewan as a result of the decrease in the province's rural population since 1940.

This was disclosed in the Saskatchewan legislature by the annual report of the education department. The report said enrolments in these districts were so low that schools could not operate successfully and were therefore closed.

No Danger Of Dreaded Disease From Chicks

REGINA. — Federal officials in charge of fighting the foot-and-mouth outbreak in cattle around Regina issued a statement saying that the shipment of baby chicks from approved hatcheries in Saskatchewan is not restricted.

The statement said "there is no danger of baby chicks from approved hatcheries carrying foot-and-mouth virus."

The statement was issued after quite a number of farmers reportedly cancelled orders for chicks, fearing spread of the disease to their premises, which prompted hatchery operators to contact federal health of animals officials for an opinion.

Sun Life of Canada Cuts Cost of Insurance by Policy Dividend Increase

Also Holds 1951 Canadian Company Record With $461 Million New Business

The announcement of a further increase in policyholders' dividends, bringing the total paid on all-time high in benefits paid; the largest volume of new life insurance written by any Canadian company in 1951 — over half a million; and a new record in volume of total assets which have passed the $1,000 million mark, were among the highlights of the 81st annual Report of the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada just released by George W. Brady, President.

In commenting on the continuing favorable trend in policyholders' dividends, Mr. Brady said that any permanent improvement in interest earnings on the Company's assets brings about a reduction in the cost of insurance. The interest rate earned during 1951 was 3.70% as compared with 3.61% in 1950, 3.49% in 1949 and 3.37% in 1948.

The 1951 Report of Canada's leading life company reveals that over the twelve month period more than $1,800,000 of new business was received for each working day, the final total being an increase of more than $30 million over the previous year.

A SOCIAL INSTITUTION

Mr. Brady described the Company as a social institution in its function of distributing payments to beneficiaries in the form of death benefits, or to living policyholders in the form of retirement benefits and annuities. In 1951, a total of $125 million was paid out for these purposes, including $75 million to hundreds of thousands of policyholders, $16 million under annuity contracts, $26 million to widows, endowments, and the balance in dividends to policyholders, disability benefits, etc.

Since the Sun Life policy was issued in 1871, total benefits paid in all forms have reached the fantastic figure of $2,486,000,000.

INSURANCE IN FORCE

The total Sun Life insurance in force at the close of 1951 was $4,801,000,000, an increase during the year of $340 million. Annuities now in force provide immediate or future payments to individuals or through Sun Life Group Pension plans to the amount of $106 million per annum. In discussing the continued progress of the Company, Mr. Bourke referred particularly to the ever-expanding services of its Group business, pointing out that the Sun Life was the first Canadian company to write Group insurance. He stressed the increasing importance attached to this form of collective protection by employers and employees alike, men and women in all walks of life, many of whom would not otherwise enjoy the benefits and security which life insurance provides.

Total Sun Life Group insurance in force now stands at $1,054 million, an increase of $100 million over 1951.

The assets of the Company increased over the twelve month period by $35 million, to reach a year-end total of $1,003 million, an all-time high figure.

NEED FOR LIFE INSURANCE

Mr. Bourke mentioned the advancement of medical science and its effect on improving the mortality rate but he emphasized the necessity for life insurance by pointing out that, in all companies, 30% of the death claims are paid on policies in force less than ten years, and 50% on policies less than five years in force. More than 50% of all deaths among Sun Life policyholders are due to heart disease, which is not necessarily the result of age. It kills and cripples thousands of children and tens of thousands of the young and active.

The key message of life insurance, said Mr. Bourke, is thrift. Life insurance combines protection with saving. Without the spirit of thrift and of self-reliance which life insurance has fostered over many decades, it would be difficult to imagine what the present state of our national economy would be.

A copy of the Sun Life's complete 1951 Annual Report to policyholders, including the President's review of the year, will be sent to each policyholder on request from Geo. A. Maxwell, Box 2062, Vermilion. advt.

Clandonald News

Sure signs of spring — Pete Ezubko and Clare White driving new Chevs; Ed Barclay with a late model Meteor and Hugh Logan with a '48 Dodge.

The first social event sponsored by the newly formed branch of the United Church W.A. took the form of a bean supper in the Orange hall. Ideal weather favored the event and the ladies responsible have every reason to be very much gratified for the success which rewarded their efforts.

Those out of touch with local happenings will be interested to learn that our only original residents of the town, Mr. and Mrs. John Rae, are at present both employed at points away from home. Mrs. Rae is following her old profession of a teacher and has charge of a school south of Blackfoot. Mr. Rae is working class to Edmonton where he has the job of looking after the garage on the west end. There is a shock provided and although rather lonesome he finds the work quite easy.

Saturday was opening day for the ladies' bonspiel at the curling rink. In the evening the competing rinks were guests of the local curling club at a banquet in the Anglican church served to by the ladies of Anglican W.A.

On a recent visit to town we were introduced to a young man who had been one of our esteemed bachelor Beaver Lumber Co. to supervise stocktaking prior to the change in management. It was Mr. Bob Badgero, now nearly a six-footer, left here at the age of six, which accounts for us not recognizing him at first. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Grant Badgero well known around Clandonald and Vermilion up till 15 years ago, now live at Medicine Hat where Grant is superintendent of the Beaver Lumber Co. in that area. The other member of the family, Shirley, is married and has a family of her own.

Latest word from Tommy Stock well is that he is now well established in his new quarters at the Aberhart Memorial hospital and finding it very much to his liking. The only complaint he has is that the visiting hours are greatly curtailed. Apparently Tommy is making very good progress toward recovery. Another local resident Winnie Cawsey, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Cawsey is also a patient in the same hospital having been recently moved over from the Royal Alex.

Mr. and Mrs. Rowantree are expected home any day now following an absence of over three months during which time they visited at the homes of their children in Edmonton and Calgary. Mr. Rowantree has been keeping in very good health all winter.

Several young people from the district attended the Alumni dance catered to by the ladies of Anglican W.A.

Scenes of great activity are being noticed around the farm residence of our one and only bachelor friends who lives not far from town Although he denies any serious intentions in the matter, word is already working so what the

Allandale Notes

After some cold weather we are enjoying sunny warm days again. Last Saturday's snow and some wetted fields of the district. Fortunately this storm wasn't at all severe. It will be a year on the 15th that the terrific blizzard swept the country.

Bridget Pierce was taken to the Vermilion hospital on Feb. 28th and was operated on the next day for appendicitis. She came home last Friday, March 7th. We wish you well in your recovery to health, Bridget.

Louis Baldock has been taken to Edmonton for further treatments, before his operation. He is also with his daughter and son-in-law Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Greaves.

Quilting time again on Feb. 27th Mrs. Ivy Arnold and Mrs. Ominsa spent a very enjoyable afternoon quilting at Mrs. Wm. Mayers. This is the fourth year and Stella says she has four or five yet to do. The first day was also a lovely afternoon for doing a quilt at Mrs. Ralph Strome's assisted by Mrs. George Mead Jr. and son Robin. There are twins at the Ralph Strome farm — girls!

Allandale is to get electric power from the Campbell Lake line. The contracts have been signed and sent to head office Brush is being erected along the proposed power line and we expect the line to be in some time early this spring. It will go east from St. Sivatte to O'Connors, south to J. Nelson's and school, east to H. Mathews, Wm. Arnolds and W. Wilsons, south from H. McPhee's to Wm Crosses then west to Jack Cox's.

The F.U.A. meeting held March 3rd in the school was poorly attended. The annual meeting will be discussed. We have heard since the F.U.A. are having a dance at the school March 17th.

Mr. and Mrs. Swiss Lee have the latter's brother Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wilkinson visiting with them. They arrived March 7th.

Wildmere Winks

Curling has been the top news in our district from the start. Wildmere ladies' rink skipped by Mrs. Martin with Mrs. Wilson Mrs. Bathe and Mrs. Gibson, won the Grand Challenge at Big Lake Coulee spiel. They won nice silver cups each. Well done ladies. The mixed spiel was run off at the Wildmere rink over the week end. 11 rinks took part. Eight out of the 11 had a beginner. They all did well, three were on the prize winning rinks. The Grand Challenge was won by Skip Barnet Fraser, R. Fraser Mrs. Ian Clark and Mrs. R. Martin. They won curling rock smoking sets. 2nd Skip Arthur Lemon, Carey Seitz, Mrs. Barks and Cliff Crothers, chinese pots. 3rd, Skip Ray Osterberg, Chas. Gosil, Arthur Smith and Mrs. F. Gibson, Thermos bottles. 4th, Skip George Harrison, Mrs. McCormick, George Crothers and Mrs. J. Wilson cook aprons. At the close of the games President Frank Gibson made a nice speech and presented the prizes to the rinks. Each skip responded with a few remarks. All remarked on the grand time they have had throughout the winter and during the present spiel. A hearty vote of thanks was given J Bathe, whose rink won the most games all winter and to J Wilson for looking after the fires and polishing the ice. The winner's sport was thus brought to a nice close for the season. Another social and social evening, for its winter curlers will be held at the Rawsons school.

J Kennedy returned home Saturday evening, after spending ten days in the Vermilion hospital with a very heavy cold. Good luck to you from one Jim.

Margaret Graham is a patient in the hospital this week suffering from a very sore throat and glands Speedy recovery Peggy.

In a recent letter from Mr and Mrs. A. Rendell from England they wished to be remembered to all their old friends in Wildmere. They are having a good time sight seeing and visiting. They have been to see Madam Tussaude's wax works and to the country home of the British Prime Ministers.

ATTENTION, ALL HOCKEY FANS!

Two of the best (?) hockey teams ever to take to the ice lanes will invade the Vermilion arena on Friday next, March 21st starting at 8:00 p.m., sharp. Both line-ups will be selected from members of the Vermilion Kinsmen club with all proceeds going to the Vermilion Tigers hockey club. News from the managers' headquarters reveals that several of the players are attempting to obtain their release from the National league and these are expected to be received early next week. A list of both line-ups together with further news will appear in next week's issue of the Standard.

Plan now to attend this event!

Mr. and Mrs. S. C. Heckbert left by car last Friday on a sort of 'Gypsy Tour' which will take them as far south as San Diego, Calif. They have no set itinerary and once south of the snow line will wander about as their fancy directs. They plan to be away for some four or five weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Val Budzilka and daughter Veronica who have been on an extend trip to Sacramento, Calif., since January, returned to their home at Islay on Wednesday last week. They made the same time with relatives at Bryte and motored in a number of scenic points. They really enjoyed the summer weather, picking oranges, plums and cherries and gatherier many lovely sea shells along the beaches.

L. H. Drouin, editor of the St. Paul Journal was a visitor at the Standard office on Monday. Mr. Drouin was accompanied by Howard W. James, engineer with the Canadian Linotype Ltd., of the Regina branch.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Marion had as their guests this week the latter's brother John S. Uniat of the Medical Training Battalion, Maryland, U.S.A., who will leave shortly for overseas duty in the Far East Command, and Miss Anne Grylniak of the nursing staff of the Misericordia hospital in Edmonton.

Information contained in a few lines from Hugh Rose at Victoria tells us that Mrs. Rose has gone on a major operation in the Jubilee hospital in Victoria recently and is now recovering gradually. The weather there at the present time according to Hugh is just like June in Alberta. Crocuses are out and the dahlias in bloom. Peonies are up six inches and flowering trees are coming into blossom. Most of the gardens are seeded, with peas, potatoes, onions and other stuff too numerous to mention, all up. Mr. and Mrs. Rose expect to be here in Vermilion toward the end of April. The only fault that Hugh has to find with Vancouver Island is that the roads and streets are far too narrow for the traffic and the congestion is worse than in Seattle. Hugh also addressed and had prizes in Seattle ran from 15¢ inch to 2c over Chicago."

A rink comprised of Darrell Currah, Gordon Ross, Aldous Kent and Rand Calvert is playing in the refrigerator room at Vegreville which commenced on Wednesday this week. It cost the boys 50 bucks to enter so they can't afford to miss many shots.

Ethelwyn Notes

We have been enjoying grand March weather, and February was very well behaved too.

Twelve ladies attended the W. A. meeting at Mrs. Schoonmaker's. It was decided to ask Miss Reed to our next meeting to teach English smocking. This meeting will be at the home of Mrs. Jarence. It is indeed a pleasure to attend these monthly meetings, to worship and to exchange ideas with the other ladies. The men too seem to enjoy the chance for a neighborly chat, and of course the lunch.

The writer would like to draw attention to an error which crept into the Clandonald news of two weeks ago. It was mentioned that a dance had been sponsored by the United Church W.A. As secretary of the above mentioned group she would like to say that this group does not sponsor dances, thus no dance has been held by this W.A.

One line was omitted from the Ethelwyn news last week and left many people wondering just who was who. The item should have read as follows A daughter Deborah Kay, was born to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. De Sutter, Edmonton, on Feb. 23rd. The maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Allen McPherson (nee Mary Derrick) formerly of this district. It seems only a few years since the grandmother was attending school here. In fact she is only 38 years old now

WOODVALE

Dances are the order of the week in Woodvale. There was one on Feb. 29th with Mr. and Mrs. Everett Isley furnishing the music and one on March 7th sponsored by the Glee club. The latter was very well attended and the next dance was announced for March 21st. The box of chocolates was won by Danny Ostash.

A Red Cross meeting was held at the home of Mrs. A. Lysons with nine members present who made short work of tacking and quilting three baby quilts. The two largest were sold on the spot, also a pretty dress for a small girl, made by Mrs. McGrath. There was lots of time for the business part and for a pleasant visit while enjoying lunch. The next meeting will be at the home of Mrs. C. McGrath on Apr. 3.

Chris Thomson has gone for a few weeks to Quesnel, B.C. and maybe to Vancouver.

Clandonald Midgets Win At Lloydminster

SECOND YEAR IN ROW

CLANDONALD.—The Clandonald Midgets came through for the second successive game to win the Midget hockey tournament held by the Lloydminster Board of Trade. The victory carried with it a fine trophy.

In the first game Clandonald played to a 0-0 tie with the Lloyd Midgets. The game was then officially awarded to Clandonald because the Lloyd boys had played in the Saskatchewan Midget provincial playdowns.

The second game was against Cut Knife and the home team came through victorious by a score of 6-0. Johnny McCormick scored the first goal. Rudi Kolodjeyzk flashed the red light twice. Darling, Bill Stonehouse and Bob Acheson tallied one each.

In the final game Clandonald clashed with Marwayne winning by a 2 to 1 score. J. Schur and Bob Acheson did the honors for Clandonald with Doug Shaw notching Marwayne's lone counter.

The Marwayne team was well balanced but the grand performance of Sonny Devlin in the Clandonald nets, a former Vermilion goalie, kept Marwayne's count down to one lone goal.

Clandonald's champion Midget team was composed of Sonny Devlin, Joe Schur, Acheson, McCormick, Edwin Lawrence, Glen Baldock, Bill Stonehouse, Stan Hicks, Bob Stonehouse, Johnny McCormick, Ed Carson McConnell, Don Darling and Rudi Kolodjeyzk.

Will Roberge is coach of the Clandonald Midgets.

Fred Brimacombe Writes From Brandon

RAN HIGH FRAME FOR VERMILION PEOPLE

In a letter to the editor Fred Brimacombe asks that we say hello to old friends in Vermilion on his behalf. Fred makes a rather good job of expressing himself so his letter is reproduced below:

"I should very much appreciate an opportunity of saying hello to your many friends in Vermilion, but it may be some time before we are back that way and thus I hope you may find it possible to forward our kindest regards to them upon any occasion which might give this opportunity.

Helen and our three youngsters are all well and thoroughly like the city of Brandon to a limited extent, I would say. However, as an overnight if I didn't state that the atmosphere of Vermilion is one that is very hard to surpass, and I can assure you that the further one goes from Vermilion the more one realizes the pleasant surroundings we have grown of your town.

My dad passed through Brandon last week on his way to Eastern Canada and I had the opportunity of meeting a number of his passengers. It is his intention to stop off to visit us on his return some time during the month of March."

Former Vermilion Family Move From Mayerthorpe to Irma

FAREWELLS ARE HELD FOR SHEILA AND ADRIAN LOVEY

(From Mayerthorpe Review)

Unified church youth group bade farewell to Sheila and Adrian Lovey who are leaving Mayerthorpe with their parents Mr. and Mrs. A. Lovey to live at Irma. Members of the Tree Age study group, the Sr. C.G.I.T. and their friends, held a party for Sheila on Thursday evening, while members of the Type and Trail Ranger groups and their friends held a party for Adrian on Thursday after school. Both Sheila and Adrian will be missed by their many friends in the youth groups and at school.

Mr. Lovey has been active in farming circles and relations in Edmonton, Calgary, Lethbridge, Black Diamond and Bow Island.

Several families of the Tollavi district attended the funeral of Dr. Mercer last week. Mrs. Mercer has been on the sick list for a long while and she is now in the H. Preston home.

After three tries Gordon Dixon finally found water on their new building site near the school.

LYLE WEBB LOSES LIFE IN HIGHWAY TRUCK CRASH

The rising toll of traffic fatalities was brought very forcibly home to Vermilion and district Monday night as word was received that Lyle Webb had been killed instantly about 10:00 p.m. when the light truck in which he was riding collided with two grain laden trucks parked on the main highway about 2¼ miles south of Morinville. The driver of the light truck, Roger Singer, both of Camrose and Strome was seriously injured and is now in the Royal Alexandra hospital, Edmonton.

According to R.C.M.P. the two trucks, loaded with grain, had been south-bound together. The driver of the first truck, Henry Singer, of Sparoe Grove, had to stop on the right side of the road to remove a cover on the radiator. Edward Oswald, of Spruce Grove, the driver of the second truck, stopped behind Singer's vehicle.

William Lyle Webb

Police said both the men were at the front of Singer's truck when another south-bound half-ton vehicle crashed into the rear of Oswald's grain box. The light truck skidded into the other two trucks and overturned in the ditch.

William Lyle Webb was the son of Mr. George Webb of Vermilion, and lived practically his whole life here. He was only 24 years of age. Following completion of his schooling he worked for a time with General Petroleum Drilling Co. following the outbreak of the fighting in Korea he volunteered for overseas service with the Princess Pats. He went overseas and received a bad shrapnel wound in his foot in March of 1951. He was hospitalized in Japan, then flown to Vancouver. Lyle returned to Calgary and then spent some time on leave at his home here, arriving here just prior to April. Until just one month ago he had been with the Princess Pats at Calgary. At that time he received his discharge from the army due to the disability caused by the foot wound. He immediately commenced with General Petroleums again at the Calgary office and had headquarters in Edmonton working out from there for the past month.

Lyle leaves to mourn his loss his loving parents Mr. and Mrs. George Webb, four brothers, Lawrence, George and Donald, all of Vermilion, John of Peace River and one sister, Mrs. Martin Mix of Edmonton.

Funeral services will be held on Friday March 21st at 2:00 o'clock in the First United church, Vermilion. Rev. C. W. MacKay will officiate and interment will be made at the Vermilion cemetery.

Blood Donor Clinic In Vermilion On Tuesday, April 1st

LEGION HALL

The mobile Blood Donor clinic of the Canadian Red Cross society will visit Vermilion on Tuesday April 1st and will be in operation from 3 to 5 p.m. and from 7 to 9 p.m. in the Canadian Legion hall.

The Blood Transfusion service in Alberta now supplies 123 hospitals. During 1951, 91,435 blood and fibrin fusions and 2,034 transfusions of plasma were supplied free of charge by this service, an approximate saving of nearly $400,000 to the public. An important factor to bear in mind is that although the service is free, it cannot be estimated in dollars and cents alone for it is the saving of lives saved annually.

The amount of blood collected during 1951 was approximately 40,000 bottles, almost double that of 1948. Although this is a record for a congratulation the Red Cross is striving for greater objectives.

Alberta gave 40 bottles of blood to the National project for the armed services during 1951, although good, this is not good enough for our province. By increased effort, hard work and whole-hearted co-operation, 1952 can be made a record year. If every donor would try to bring in a new member, splendid results would be obtained.

NOTE — The amount of blood taken from each donor is approximately 12 ounces, a person's body contains about 250 ounces, so it can be easily understood that any person between 18 and 60 years in average health may donate without discomfort

"GREEN ACRES"

'Glads' For Everyone

Last year many people in Vermilion and on the surrounding farms grew gladiolus for the first time. If you got pleasure and satisfaction from growing half a dozen bulbs, then invest 2 or 3 dollars in 'Glad' bulbs this year. Also don't forget Dahlias, they are easy to grow also.

Young Pig Losses

The larger the farm the bigger the profit. Most of the losses in young pigs are due to two things, wrong feeds for the sow during pregnancy and pigs laid on and crushed by the mother. Both these factors are under the control of the owner. Get a circular from my office on feeding sows and saving pigs at farrowing.

Junior Turkey Clubs

The Junior Farmers of the Vermilion and Marwayne Junior Turkeys clubs is fast running out. There are now about 30 boys and girls signed up but we need some more members. The club motto is "Make profits while you learn". There is room for ten more boys and girls between 12 and 21 years old in these two clubs.

Treating Seed Grain

Every bushel of seed grain put in the ground this year ought to be first treated for smut prevention. Crops grown from poor seed are more susceptible to smut, root rot and other diseases than when dry and well matured seed is used. Use mercuric dust treatments. Never use formalin unless you want to lower the germination of already poor seed.

Check Your Seed

It is fals' economy to use poor seed. If any farmer has not checked the germination of his seed grain by this time he ought to do it right away. Mr. Weir, Supervisor of Seed Products, Calgary, Alberta reports that he has more samples than he can handle and need only three months. So you will have to get a little soil in a tobacco can and do the job yourself. If you want a circular on germinating seed, apply to my office for one.

T.B. in Poultry

Several farmers have sent sick hens to the Veterinary lab at Edmonton recently and the reports came back in all cases 'Tuberculosis'. If you are losing a few hens right along it would be best to send a sick one up to Edmonton. The Dairy coat is the expense on the case. Shipments should not be sent as they arrive at Edmonton on Saturday or Sunday.

Seed Cleaning Plant

The seed cleaning committee asks for all canvassers to complete selling of shares in their districts. They are asked to report the number of shares sold, at a meeting called for Saturday, April 5th at 2:00 p.m. in the armories.

Grass Seed for Sale

The Alberta Seed Growers' Co-op has delivered a big truck load of grass and Alfalfa seed at Gordon Rose' feed mill. This will be a great convenience as farmers can buy seed at wholesale prices right in Vermilion.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. M. Craig of Prince Albert were visitors in Vermilion last week end, guests at the home of their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Stewart.

Division 2, M. D. Of Vermilion River, Elects Wallington

Division 2, of Vermilion River M.D. was the only one requiring an election in this municipality and James C Wallington headed the list of three candidates Wallington polled 127 votes, Roger Wood who was seeking re-election 103 votes, Joe Ahlgren 68 votes.

Mr. Wallington is also a member of the Vermilion Municipal Hospital board.

Castle Scott Elected In Division 1 Of Minburn M. D.

Castle Scott was elected councillor for Div. 1 in the Minburn M.D. in the election held on Monday, having a comfortable majority over A. Elliston. Mr. Scott succeeds Frank Eyben, former reeve, who did not stand for re-election. Final count was 184 to 88.

Player Awards Made In Eastern Alberta League

Awards to players of the league have now been decided by the Eastern Alberta Hockey executive as follows:

Best goalie — Wally Lashman, Vermilion Tigers.

Highest scorer—Roger LaPlante, Vermilion Tigers.

Most valuable player to his team — Wally Lashman, goalie, Vermilion Tigers.

Most gentlemanly and effective player—Lorne Lewis, Wainwright

The goalie award was determined by the goals scored against him during the league season. Lashman allowed fewer pucks past him than any of the other goal keepers.

The goal scoring record was settled by goals and assists during the season. LaPlante was 5 points in front of his nearest rival.

A pool of the coaches was taken to decide the most valuable player award. Each coach was given 1st, 2nd and 3rd choices, valued at 3, 2 and 1 points. He could not vote for any player on his own team. Coaches were Wilbur in Vermilion and John J. in Ontario.

Funeral services will be held on Saturday March 22nd at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon at St. Saviour's Anglican church. Interment will be at the Vermilion cemetery.

Arrangements are in charge of funeral arrangements.

MAKE SAFE DRIVING A HABIT

A National Car Safety Check Month for May was approved in a recent meeting of the Canadian Committee for Highway Safety. Supported by all phases of Automotive Industry, the Canadian Committee for Highway Safety has been formed with the express purpose of taking action to help reduce the needless unnecessary toll of accidents on our roads and highways where automobiles and trucks are involved. Lending their support to this public relations and goodwill effort is the Canadian Automobile Chamber of Commerce, the Federation of Automobile Dealers Associations, the vehicle manufacturers and the dealers, the Ontario Safety League and other safety conscious groups.

The committee approval for a National Safety Check Month, is a step in the right direction and is the major point in Canadian Automotive Trade's editorial campaign for compulsory vehicle inspection in all provinces across Canada. For 1952 reputable automotive dealers have been invited to join this safety effort and to carry it through in their home locality. A uniform system of inspection of vehicles and reporting on their conditions has been established, which is available to all dealer organizations. It is expected that some 9-000 dealers in all provinces will participate in this 1952 Safe Vehicle Campaign.

TRAVELLING WITH GOD

WINNIPEG! Man.—One of those delightful little 'human' stories that turn up from time to time has just come to light in Winnipeg.

It happened on the Canadian National Railways 'Continental Limited' train from Toronto, en route to Winnipeg and the Coast.

Christmas Eve, as the train was moving westward through northern Ontario, two Anglican theological students from London, Ont., on their way to Moosonee, decided to invite the passengers back to the lounge car for a Watchnight service. The passengers and several railway employees readily accepted and the lounge car was filled. The students Thomas Mason and Clarke Raymond divided the service.

As the midnight hour approached a unique spectacle presented itself in that railway car when the passengers stood, with bowed heads and offered their prayers of thanks to God, as the train sped through the cold, dark night.

The silence was broken by the lovely voice of Marilyn Heiston, of Winnipeg, a nurse-in-training at Toronto General hospital, who sang second one. The first one will be quilted this week and the other one later on. Then perhaps there two ladies will be visiting Islay and have the pleasure of a good visit around the quilt.

Mrs. Dave Buchanan is in hospital for awhile and daughter Hazel (Mrs. Dahl) is here to be with her father.

Joe Belton says, 'Well, gophers will soon be out now. Ulva McFadyen and his wife are back from the east. Syd Montford is home from California. Reg Lambert is back, and Mr. and Mrs. Val Budzilla have returned from California so just watch for the gophers now.'

Bill Belton has returned home from the hospital.

Mr. Bill Halverson, field supervisor for the Fuller Brush Co., is now placing a third salesman in less than nine months. Mr. H. Bent from Rowland goes to a district near Stettler

The writer is sorry to hear that Mr. Ernie Moore, at one time a homesteader and a real old timer here, is not very well.

To reac. from deposits in northwestern Ontario a lake at Steep Rock had to be drained.

NEWS from ISLAY

This bulletin was crowded out last week.

Last week the Islay W.A. met at the home of the Misses Stone. There were 12 present and a good meeting ensued. April 25th was the date selected for the spring tea and apron sale. Thanks are extended to Mrs. Mitchell at Thorsby and Mrs. Bristow in Edmonton for the very pretty quilt blocks. There is one quilt ready to put on the frames and quite a number of block for the

Seed Treatment Ups Germination And Crop Yields

How seed germination may be improved by treatment with a mercuri. fungicide was strikingly illustrated last year in tests at privately operated experimental plots at Birtle Manitoba.

Not only was germination nearly doubled but yield was increased by nearly one-half.

The experiments were conducted on a plot operated by Leytosan (Canada) Ltd., for purposes of testing the company's own products. In the trials untreated flax seed germinated only 43%. The same seed treated with Leytocon germinated 73% and yielded 42% higher than the untreated seed.

Some of the seed used was damaged in threshing. How this kind of damage occurs and effects of it were stressed at the recent annual convention of the Manitoba branch of the Canadian Seed Growers' Assoc. in Winnipeg by Dr. N. A. H. Wallace of the Dominion Laboratory of Plant Pathology.

In barley, particularly the malting varieties, where threshing damage may be heavy and seriously impairs the grain for malting purposes, Dr. Wallace illustrated with slides how the soil fungi enters the cracks or contacts the peeled surface of the kernel, attacks the young seedling, causes stunting of the plant, and often prevents reproduction entirely. It was also demonstrated how seed treated with Standard seed dressings improved the yield in some soils as much as 50%

In flax the damage may be even greater from a seed standpoint. Cracks caused by threshing in flax are very minute, often capable of detection only with a microscope. Small as they may be micro-organisms of the soil enter these cracks and seriously impair germination.

TIMES HAVE CHANGED

For many years we have been accustomed to signs in our store windows saying that a premium would be allowed on American funds. Now the tune has changed. The other day reports Napier Moore in The Financial Post, this notice appeared in a Toronto druggist's window: 'American Money Accepted at Par.'

Canadian National Telegraphs handle 14,000,000 telegrams and cables a year.

Slim: Night.

After the benediction the congregation moved quietly to their herbs. All feeling just a little bit better for that unique and sincere service on the C.N.R. train.

Sun Life of Canada Cuts Cost of Insurance by Policy Dividend Increase

Also Holds 1951 Canadian Company Record With $461 Million New Business

The announcement of a further increase in policyholders' dividends, reducing insurance costs, an all-time high in benefits paid, the largest volume of new life insurance issued by any Canadian company in 1951 — over $461 million; and a new record in volume of total assets which now stand at $1,000 million, are among the highlights of the 81st Annual Report of the Sun Life Assurance Company of Canada just released by George W. Bourke, President.

In commenting on the continuing favourable trend in policyholders dividends, Mr. Bourke said that any permanent improvement in interest earnings on the Company's assets brings about a reduction in the cost of insurance. The interest rate earned during 1951 was 2.70% as compared with 2.61% in 1950, 2.49% in 1949 and 2.36% in 1948.

The 1951 Report of Canada's leading life company reveals that over the twelve month period more than $1,850,000 of new business was received for each working day, the final total being an increase of more than $20 million over the previous year.

A SOCIAL INSTITUTION

Mr. Bourke described the Company as a social institution in its function of distributing payments to beneficiaries in the form of death benefits, or to living policyholders in the form of retirement annuities and annuities. In 1951, a total of $125 million $35 million under annuity contracts, $36 million for maturing endowments, and the balance in dividends to policyholders, disability benefits, etc.

Since the first Sun Life policy was issued in 1871, total benefits paid to policyholders and beneficiaries have amounted to $2,400 million.

INSURANCE IN FORCE

The total Sun Life insurance in force at the close of 1951 was $4,301,000,000, an increase during the year of $340 million. Annuities now in force provide immediate or future payments to individuals or through Sun Life Group Pension plans to the amount of $104 million per annum. In discussing the continued progress of the Company, Mr. Bourke referred particularly to the ever-expanding services of its Group business, pointing out that the Sun Life was the first Canadian company to write Group insurance. He stressed the increasing importance attached to this form of collective protection by employers and employees alike, men and women in all walks of life, many of whom would not otherwise enjoy the benefits and security which life insurance provides.

Total Sun Life Group insurance in force now stands at $1,264 million, an increase of $185 million during 1951.

The assets of the Company increased over the twelve month period by $68 million, to reach a year-end total of $1,000 million, an all-time high figure.

NEED FOR LIFE INSURANCE

Mr. Bourke mentioned the advancement of medical science and its effect on imposing the mortality rate but he emphasized the necessity for life insurance by pointing out that, in all countries, 30% of the death claims are paid on policies in force less than two years, and 5% on policies less than one year in force. More than 50% of all deaths among Sun Life policyholders are due to heart disease which is not necessarily a disease of old age. It kills and cripples thousands of children and tens of thousands of the young and middle-aged.

The key message of life insurance, said Mr. Bourke, is thrift. Life insurance combines protection with saving. Without the spirit of thrift and of self-reliance which life insurance has fostered over many decades, it would be difficult to imagine what the present state of our national economy would be.

GOOD SEED for BETTER CROPS

You wouldn't use a Scrub Bull.

Why use Scrub Seed Grain ?

The Bull is half the herd.

But seed can be all the crop.

Registered and Certified seed has a pedigree. A seed plot sown to Registered seed can mean good seed for the whole farm next year.

For MALTING BARLEY pure seed is a MUST. Olli and Montcalm are the recommended varieties. Order NOW from your elevator agent or from any seed handling organization.

Miss Maud Flim, of the P.W. teaching staff spent the greater part of the past week in the Lloydminster hospital but has now returned home and expects to be back on the job Monday.

The regular meeting of the local Home and School Association was held in the auditorium on Wednesday evening with a good turn out of members. After the business meeting was completed a round table discussion on various subjects took place with Mr. Richardson leading. Mesdames Acaster, Murray and Dobson were appointed to visit Vermilion on Friday and see how they served the hot lunches for the children. Lunch was served at the conclusion of the meeting.

Word was received of the death of Luther Langille at Westlock on Friday. Mr. Langille was an old-timer resident of the district. He with his brothers Stewart and Leslie homesteaded here in 1906. He was married to Mabel McLeod and had a family of five boys. The funeral was held at Westlock on Tuesday. Mr. Langille had been ailing for many years and suffered greatly. We extend our sincere sympathy to the family.

Mr. George Dodds left last week for a trip to B.C. and to visit with relatives. George is looking the country over with a view to making his future home there.

We regret to hear that Carmen Lawrence has been on the sick list and is in Lloydminster for treatment.

Curling is the order of the day as the battle between President and Vice President goes merrily on. At time of writing the Vice is up two on their rivals. This does not mean a thing as the odds can change anytime with so many games being played. Ice is holding up well for this time of year.

What a difference from a year ago so far as the weather is concerned. A year ago now we were buried in snow drifts 6 feet deep. All roads were blocked and the temperature down in the 30 below range. We certainly cannot complain of the weather this winter.

Canadian National (West Indies) Steamships has ten vessels making 95 voyages a year between Canadian ports, Bermuda and the West Indies, some going as far as British Guiana.

Tar Sand Leases

Hard on the heels of reports that Swedish scientists are working on a process designed to recover oil out of the tar sands without the labor and expense of mining, comes a report in The Financial Post that a number of western oil companies are negotiating for leases in Alberta's McMurray tar sand area.

Five large independent western oil companies are reported to have secured forces to acquire some 250,000 acres — reservations in this area.

Oil reserves in the McMurray area have been variously estimated at 100 to 300 billion barrels with the richest in with sand in a bed 100 to 200 feet thick.

OUR COMPLETE SHORT STORY—

Always Shut The Gate
By V. McAVENA

IT WAS in the spring that Silas Hathaway fell out with the Dutchman. It was a common thing for Silas to fall out with people, for he was the funniest man you ever laid eyes on. Some of the best jokes that ever happened in Paradise Valley were played on Silas. Time and time again he would have had tried to save the pinch by working a few days for him. But all had a fault the kink of his tongue, and gone home smarting.

Silas found a man, though, as luck would have it, a young Irishman, who had just come into our district, magnetized by a page of blue eyes to be near Mary Ann Nelson was the idea in the back of his head when Sammy O'Flynn asked Silas for work.

The hunt had no more than settled behind the Dutchman, and Silas was still thinking, when Sammy "dropped" he shouted at Sammy. "Suppose a horse laid get sail . . . Wanting work, are you?"

"That's me," said Sammy cheerfully.

"I'm sorry to work for," said Silas, "if a man tries to please. But mmm thing's got a place."

Sammy found that he meant what he said. If sammy drove into the fenced yard for a hay rake, for instance, he must drive in the team, near the gate, hitch up, open the gate, drive out, close the gate.

"I wonder the Dutchman left," he thought, after some weeks of it. But he wasn't resentful at first. After it was Hathaway's custom that paid for the lost time, not use, and he was well paid and well fed, to say nothing of having his evenings free to court Mary Ann. Sammy had every hope that others been as mm time.

"Yim was only one kink in Silas' punctuality — an old grandfather's clock which had been in the family for years. He had a good alarm since in the kitchen, which he always wound, but never committed, seemed to think it would be an insult to the old one.

"It was good enough for my grandfather," he would declare, "so it's good enough for me."

The Sunday evening Sammy had made plans to take Mary Ann to church for the first time felt. He left Silas Hathaway's house at 6 o'clock by the old clock, and he came back at 7:30 by the same timepiece, furious. Mary Ann had waited till 6:30, and then had gone without him. Silas up, left without him. How could the girl know that the clock was forty minutes slow?

"I'm leavin' tonight!" hissed Sammy.

"You're a quitter!" said Silas. They measured each other, up and down.

"You've no call to go," said Silas. "You're well paid, and you're hired till after harvest. You've got your weak points, but one thing I will say: you're the only man I ever had that always shuts the gate."

"And a better look for another man. I'll stay one week," Sammy conceded.

Think it over," urged Silas and they both went to bed, Silas trying to hold down his temper, so he wouldn't lose Sammy, for he did have the gate habit. Sammy, once angry, didn't get over it in a hurry. He was still boiling inwardly the next morning, and they had breakfast early. The week went the same way, with Silas nagging and Sammy near exploding, but keeping everything in his place and closing the gates. The one in the front yard was left open unheedy. It was composed of three big bars, each to be slid into its notch separately, and as Sammy slid them into place the last evening, after paying a call on Mary Ann, he impish smile played about his lips.

"Leave 'immmmmm!" said Jake Travers, who lived close and didn't miss much.

Jake stroked his chin reflectively and decided to visit Silas right after breakfast. Silas' farewells to the departed were often interesting.

Sammy was whistling up the doorstep in the morning when Silas came out.

"Still want to go?" said Silas in a surly voice.

"That's me," said Sammy cheerfully.

Silas didn't say a word. He just took aim at the boats and kicked it. The water flew into Sammy's face, Sammy went whistling down the road just before Jake arrived to find Silas taking the place of the top bar, with his fort wedged into one notch, and his anaemic chest in the other. True to his training, Sammy had shut the gate.

Alberta No Longer Rat Free

SIBBALD, ALTA.—Alberta no longer is rat free. Residents in the southcentral Alberta village, seven miles from the Saskatchewan boundary, killed 64 rats in a two-day extermination program.

This gave added weight to a report by W. A. Loxley, Alberta pest control supervisor, who said recently in Medicine Hat that Norway rats now are well established in eastern border areas of the province.

"Our boast of a few years ago that we were a rat-free province is no longer true," Mr. Loxley said.

Winnipeg Has More Than 10,000 Curlers

Winnipeg for many years has been the nation's foremost curling metropolitan. A survey conducted several years ago showed close to 10,000 active curlers in the Manitoba capital, one of the major reasons why rinks from Winnipeg have dominated the Canadian picture on so many occasions.

Actually, while the province as a whole shares the championship curling spotlight, it is Winnipeg which has produced the title-holders.

THRILLS of the ROARIN' GAME

Curlers Can Now Take The Rock Down Ice As Far As They Want

WINNIPEG. — Curlers can now take the rock as far down the ice as they want in the process of making a shot.

After a terrific 30-minute discussion at the Dominion Curling Association annual meeting here, officials decided that "a curler must delivered the rock from the centre line but there is no restriction as to where the rock must leave the curler's hand. Left-handed curlers shall play from the back placed on the right-hand side of the centre line, and a right-handed player shall play from 12- back on the left-hand side of the centre line.

The new rule simply means that a curler could take the rock right up to the ringe if he could shoot that far.

Curlers from all parts of the country have been arguing pro and con about the delivery of a rock. Some have said a curler's hand must have the rock before it reaches the T line. Others said "no".

The proposal put before the D.C.A. read "That each player must play from the back and must release the handle of the stone before the stone has passed the sweeping line of the T at the end from which the stone is delivered."

Ken Watson, originator of the present rule, concluded the discussions with "I defy any man to say when the rock leaves the hand. The distance of a side is different in different parts of the country because of the chemical composition of the ice."

New Variety May Replace Rescue Wheat, Says Doctor

Another Solid-stemmed Wheat — May Be Called Chinook — is Reported To Take Its Place

LETHBRIDGE, Alta. — Rescue wheat did just what its name implies for sawfly-cursed western farmers. Another solid-stemmed wheat—it may be called Chinook—is reported ready to take its place.

Dr. C. W. Farstad, head of the field crop insects laboratories at the Dominion Science Service Laboratories here, says the new wheat, numbered CT 708, has been recommended for licensing.

CT 708, the entomologist says, equals Marquis wheat in quality and yields better than both Rescue and Marquis. In the areas where it will be grown it will yield as well as Thatcher and has a higher bushel weight than the latter.

One of the biggest difficulties with Rescue wheat is that although resistant to sawfly it has low-baking qualities compared with Marquis. For this reason it can be graded no higher than No. 3.

CT 708, like Rescue, is resistant to most races of stem rust. Chinook also is resistant to the new rust, 126. The new wheat is slightly less resistant to sawfly than Rescue.

Scottish Curlers Coming To Canada Next Year

WINNIPEG—Seventy-five Scottish curlers—in three 25-man teams from the Royal Caledonian Curling club—will tour Canada in January, 1953.

Arrangements for the tour were announced at the annual meeting of the Dominion Curling association.

A single team toured Canada in 1948-1949. A program committee report said the 1948-1949 team found the trip strenuous and the club recommended that travel requirements would be eased by sending three teams of 25 curlers.

One team will visit each of the following areas: Maritimes-Quebec, Ontario-Manitoba and Saskatchewan-Alberta-British Columbia.

Frank Baker was elected chairman of the Vermilion school board.

Other members were Dr. Knoll, Thos. Watts, Wm. Burr and Clif Kirby.

Vegreville Rangers won the inter-provincial Intermediate hockey championship by defeating Lloydminster Pirates in two straight games 5-3 and 4-2.

The C.N.R. was offering a bargain week end fare to Edmonton of $2.60 return.

Thirty-two Years Ago Today

March 17, 1920

A heavy snow fall of 10 inches blanketed the entire district. The weather has turned cold again, frying to below zero at nights.

H. W. Brown was re-elected as chairman of the hospital board and Hayer Morrison is vice-chairman. Donald Taylor is secretary.

Paradise Valley

The "Valley Maids"

The Paradise Valley Maids C.G.I.T. of Paradise Valley was first organized in 1943 under the leadership of Miss Florence Baird, assisted by Mrs. M. L. Wright. In 1939 when the United church was built this group made the first donation to the building fund. Since then many girls of every denomination have been welcomed to this very fine organization which has had as its leaders several people who gave unstintingly of their thoughts, time and energy. Special tribute goes to Mrs. J. A. Smith of Kinsway who for many years led the group and did some very outstanding work with the girls. Also to Mrs. Hillaker, Mrs. Coffin and Mrs. M. Moncrieff of McLaughlin who so ably continued the work.

Mrs. W. Gunn, with the assistance of some of the older girls has been the leader of this group the last four years. For three years they have been recognized as a chevron group, which means that they have been presented with the Chevron certificate by the National Canadian Girls in Training committee of the Canadian Council of Churches for attaining the required standards.

The last three years have been very busy ones for the group as they have taken as a special project, a course in "Sewing" and "Good Grooming" sponsored by the Dept. of Agriculture. Two efficiency winners, Shirley Gunn and Kathleen Stevens were chosen to go to Vermilion for the free short course in civil work during the last two summers.

Most of these girls belonged to a garden club the last two years, which was sponsored by the Alberta Wheat Pool and the Dept. of Agriculture. Two efficiency winners, Joyce Adams and Beth McLean were chosen from this club to go to Vermilion during the two years.

In the summer of 1951 Kathleen Swayne and Shirley Gunn were chosen to go to Olds as a Foods Team to compete in the Provincial competition in which they came third.

On Feb. 6th the Valley Maids C.G.I.T. met for their regular meeting. After the regular opening and business part of the meeting the time was spent in planning a Valentine party on Feb. 12th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Adams. Beatrice and Joan were the lunch committee, Lois and Shirley entertainment, and Barbara, Grace and Violet, transportation.

The party came off as planned. The Valentine idea was carried out in games and contests and with plenty of pep, fun and laughter, it was a very good party. We need more of them like it so get busy girls and have some house parties. On Feb 20th the regular meeting was at the home of Mrs. Gunn and plans were made to have Miss Reed for the next meeting.

On Feb. 27th was the devotional and business meeting. Miss Reed showed the girls how to measure patterns and how to cut and fit you. She also gave instructions in sewing and answered many questions in Etiquette.

The meeting closed with Taps. Athena and Joan provided the lunch and Mrs. ...

On March 5th the C.G.I.T. met at the home of Mrs. Gunn with Joyce and Marilyn supplying the treat. Joyce assisted Mrs. Gunn with the devotional.

BREATHLESS DRIVING

An attempt to introduce chemical breath tests as evidence in drunk driving cases will be made soon in Toronto, according to The Financial Post. Police recently completed an exhaustive series of trials with breath testing equipment and are convinced of the accuracy and fairness of the system.

However, a still legal battle is expected in getting the tests accepted by provincial courts. Police are bilding their time until a suitable case comes along.

No one will be forced to take a breath test against his will.

If breath tests are admitted as evidence, Ontario will be following the lead of 39 U.S. States, which now accept them as proof of drunkenness at the wheel.

NON SLIP WAX

Said to be safe for application on all kinds of flooring materials, a new self-shining wax is reported by The Financial Post. It gives a hard wear and water resistant surface. Claimed not to need frequent buffing. Made of yellow carnauba wax with colloidal silicia as the anti-slip ingredient.

News Notes From Your District Home Economist

Northern Lights

Did you notice the northern lights on Wednesday, March 5th? You rarely see such color racing through the sky.

Wish List

The Queen has been a wonderful idea I was told about. When a girl is to be married she makes a 'wish list' and includes everything she'd like to receive, and the names of her silverware, dinnerware, glass and linen patterns. Then as the list goes around the items are marked off — and the bride gets just what she can use in her own patterns. A very practical suggestion.

Knitwear Make-Overs

Knitwear make-overs are made as easily as from woven materials. Many old knitted articles won't ravel and those that do can be cut and sewed with special finishes to hold them. First you must bleach or dye if you want to, wash, block and mend the ones you're going to use again. Cut old knitwear just as you would other materials. Weaknings and wear mat knit goods so it won't ravel readily. If material is loosely knit, machine stitch close to the edge before or just after cutting. The kind of seams you use depends on the knit and the garment. If the knit is heavy for seaming, first machine stitch the cut edges and cover them with single crochet. Then join the edges by single overhanding or crochet.

With lightweight materials, plain seams can often be used if they are finished securely. To keep the raw edges from fraying or curling, they may be held together and covered with blanket stitching or single crochet. A strong, flat tailored finish for lightweight and medium knits is made by pressing the seam open, then machine stitching (on the right side) about one-sixteenth inch on each side of the seam.

For thick bulky material such as winter underwear, press open the seam, machine stitch each edge, then overcast, or cross-stitch to the garment.

An old twin sweater set can become a child's between-season playsuit that can be worn underneath an outer suit on cold days. "A passed sweater old but still good, can be made into a child's overpants to slip on before going out on cold winter days. A practical two-piece suit for a small boy can be made from dyed long-legged cotton underwear, worn on hunting trips in the good old days. Slippers, bedsocks, mitts hats and scarves are some of the many things that can be made from socks and sweaters too old to wear again.

Kitchen Catastrophies

And there was the fellow who heard that one-third of all household catastrophies happen in the kitchen. After pondering this intelligence briefly, he concluded: "They are immediately put on the dining room table."

The World of Wheat

By H. G. L. STRANGE
Director, Research Department
Searle Grain Company, Ltd.

Good Germinating Seed

The great bulk of the seed sown by farmers each spring comes from the grain they have in their own bins. There are some districts in Alberta and Saskatchewan where the farmer's own grain, wheat, oats, barley and flax, is not fit for sowing, either because it is damp or because of low germination. The authorities tell us that no grain should be sown that contains over 16% of moisture (because damp seed may be dormant and not germinate in the field until late June or early July) and that farmers should make their own germination tests on their farms of the exact grain they intend to sow that if the germination shown is lower than 85%, after deducting obviously weak and feeble sprouts, then the farmer should secure better seed, perhaps from his last year's field over grain, or should write to his district representative or to the Dept. of Agriculture of his province and see about securing dry grain of good germination from another district. It is believed that a germination test on the farm (easy to make by the farmer) of the grain the farmer has in his own bin, may this year, be perhaps more reliable than a sample sent in for an official test, for the official test may in many cases, because of the wet harvest, only show the potential germination of the sample and not the actual germination that will develop quickly after the farmer's grain is sown in the spring.

The weather looks and feels more like spring each day.

Percy Dezell was busy sawing wood on Monday with most of the men-folk helping.

Did we hear that Doris and Eli were supper guests at Gordon and Beaven's on Sunday?

Only a few attended the church service Sunday. Some of the side roads were blocked.

The Bishop of Edmonton is expected shortly. If the roads are opened up the service will be in the church.

Some of the men from our district won prizes at the Islay spiel, nice teapots we hear. We will be asking Polly and the kettle on — and we'll all come for tea.

Andy Gillies was pleased with our letter. He says that he is feeling well enough now to go home and "smack the bejus" but he would have to be steady on his feet or he might fall in the middens. I think this is Scotch isn't it Ken?

Christie Clark is busy cleaning grain these days, preparing for spring work. There are quite a number of little pigs running around down there too.

Average Canadian Opens 200 Cans Yearly

HAMILTON — The average Canadian opened approximately 200 cans of food and other products last year, G. H. McEvan, manager of sales for the Canadian Division American Can Co., reported in a mid-century review of the progress made by the can manufacturing and canning industries in the Dominion.

"The consumption of canned foods alone has increased in the past 25 years to an annual figure of approximately two billion cans. The use of metal containers for non-food products such as paint and oil and tobacco has soared at an even faster rate to close to one billion cans last year," said the Canco sales executive.

In a majority of cases, Mr. McEvan explained, the big increase in the use of canned products has resulted from other than industry but has been achieved by enlarging existing markets and often developing completely new outlets for basic crops and other products long in use.

BANKRUPTCY FAILURES INCREASE

The rising trend in the number of business failures in Canada, evident since 1945, continued in 1951, reports The Financial Post. The number of failures in 1951 was up 11.2% from the 1950 total while the liabilities were up 23.3%. The amount involved per failure on the average was also greater being up 11.3% from the 1950 figure.

Number of failures, 797, compared with 1939's 717 failures; total liabilities $19,940,000, compared with $15,382,000 in 1950; average loss involved, $25,000, compared with the 1950 average loss of $21,497.

A High Toll

THE PUBLIC IS ALWAYS SHOCKED to hear of the toll of human life which accumulate take each year in Canada. Highway accidents, fires, mishaps with fire-arms and drownings are only some of the accidents which bring tragedy to many hundreds of homes each year, and take more lives than disease. Any fatal accident is highly regrettable, but as especially tragic feature of Canada's yearly toll of accidental deaths is that a large percentage of the victims are children. Each winter fires in various parts of the country claim the lives of many small children who are so often the ones who fail to reach safety when a building is burned.

* * * *

Many Are Hurt On Highways

Throughout the year many children are also fatally hurt on the streets and highways. Small children run into the paths of cars and trucks, older ones are knocked from bicycles or injured in other ways on the roads. Children likewise are very often the victims of accidents in the homes. Many die each year as the result of scalds, when proper precautions are not taken to keep them away from medicines left carelessly within their reach, injuries received from machinery and household appliances not properly protected, and many other dangers beset the small child in the home and yearly cause many fatal accidents.

Greater Hazard Than Disease

Officials of the Health League of Canada report that each year some 1,500 Canadian children die as a result of accidents. This is more than the number lost through the ten acute infectious diseases of childhood. There are few families today in which the children are not immunized against all those infectious diseases for which serums are available, and most parents are vigilant to guard in every way possible against disease. It is unlikely that many of these parents realize that accidents are in reality a greater threat against their children's well-being than disease and that they should be equally on guard against that hazard. Constant and careful attention to the dangers of traffic accidents, of drowning, of injury in the home and of fire, would all help to cut the present large toll of accidental deaths among children in Canada.

When Smith walked into his friend's office he found him sitting at his desk looking very dejected.

"Hullo, old man!" said Smith. "What's up?"

"Oh, just my wife," replied the other, sadly. "She engaged a new secretary for me."

"Well, there's nothing wrong about that. Is she a blonde or a brunette?"

"He's bald."

GARDEN NOTES

Plant Sweet Peas Early For Good Results

Don't Rush

It does not pay to rush the season with most gardening operations, and especially in the planting of things that will not appreciate a frost. For the great majority of seeds started there is little to be gained and considerable risk in getting them in the ground before the soil and the air have definitely turned warm and our long Canadian winters are really over. Yet, of course, there are some exceptions.

Jobs that might have been done last fall, if the weather or some other reason interfered, are an example. Under this rough classification will come the planting of trees, shrubs, and most lawn work. In this category, too, will be sweet peas, which must be planted as early as possible if they are to do well. This sort of gardening can start just as soon as the last snow has gone and the soil is dry enough to dig without puddling.

For Tender Vegetables

If there is any secret about getting the finest quality in vegetables it is soon shared. The main thing is to grow these things quickly especially the sorts of which the leaves or roots are eaten. If for some reason growth is checked, especially in the later stages, then more fibre develops and the vegetables become woody. To avoid this the experienced gardener pushes his vegetables with lots of cultivation, watering when necessary and feasible, and using fertiliser either natural or chemical, or both. He will also thin properly so that the plants have room and will be protected from insects or diseases.

For a Big Show

Almost anyone almost anywhere in Canada can have a showing of flowers the neighbors will envy with half a dozen packets of seed or a few flats of started plants and an hour or two spent outdoors in the fresh air and sunshine. Some flowers do need a bit of balwing and they are worth it, too, but what we have in mind now is a big show for little money and little work. To fit that pattern will be any of these: petunias, asters, zinnias, marigolds, alyssum, cornflower, balsam, cosmos nasturtium, portulaca. All of these grow quickly, come in various heights to suit the front, centre and back of the flower beds, and given just a little encouragement will provide a wealth of bloom from July until frost. Special planting directions will be on the packet.

Growing Screens and Fences

In place of fences or walls one can use growing screens and even the fence or wall will look more attractive if partially hidden in this way. There are all sorts of planting material available for this purpose. It will be listed in any good seed catalogue. The perennial types are well known. Many people do not realize that one can get quite good and quick results from annuals too. Dahlias ornamental sun flowers, corn and spider plants are only some of many things that will reach three or four feet in height in a few weeks. And there are quick-growing vines, the scarlet runner beans, sweet peas, hops and morning glories.

What An Hour Will Purchase

A recent study of general interest is now conducted by the department of farm management of the University of Saskatchewan reported by the Labor Gazette, which shows the amount of foodstuffs that could be purchased by the average Canadian industrial worker in 1931 as compared with 1929. As measured by the purchasing power of one hour of his work. Average pay for this type of worker in 1929 was 61.5 cents an hour; in 1931 it was 51.2c.

Here are the university's findings on the amount of food that could be bought in 1931 and in 1929 with wages for one hour's labor (1929 figures in brackets): bacon, 1.37 pounds (1.99); beef, 1.35 pounds (1.51); bread 2.63 pounds (3.36); butter, 1.45 pounds (0.95); cheese, 1.37 pounds (1.23); eggs, 1.75 dozen (1.05); flour, 15.38 pounds (8.47); milk, 5.04 quarts (3.52); pork, 1.68 pounds (1.42), potatoes, 27.94 pounds (24.12).—Saturday Night.

Harmful Hobby

Are you a grievance collector?

It's a good question, asked in the current issue of The Reader's Digest, and if you can answer "No," we are fortunate. Most of us make something of a hobby of collecting grievances and we're even likely to guard them as jealously as if they were a collection of rare and valuable stamps.

In the Digest article, 'Are You a Grievance Collector?' L. A. R. Wylie notes that collectors can be of any age but usually start young, with the primary urge being 'a temperamental inclination to self-determination.'

Admitting that she is something of a grievance collector herself and thus can claim only partial reform Miss Wylie writes: " I can still enjoy a good wrong. I can still persuade myself in self-indulgent moments that I have been snubbed, misunderstood or unappreciated. The only difference is that I am soon, to some extent, wise to myself. I am also wise to my friends when, for no apparent reason, they retire behind fortresses of gloomy aloofness."

One of the most common and well-nourished grievances, says the author is "a chronic grievance against what we call our luck. It revolves into your subconscious to seems to me that people who collect grievances are unlucky have some emotional bloodstream."

defects in themselves which even tribute to their misfortune. We have to recognize that my own bad breaks are related to the bad breaks of my capacity and character. That recognition is not to cramp the style of any incipient grievance.

The article offers a cure: Evaluate the delinquency and then vote it out of court. Do not let it sink on against what we call our luck. It revolves into your subconscious to seems to me that people who collect grievances are unlucky have some emotional bloodstream."

Vermilion Man Address Dewberry Home & School Meeting

DEWBERRY. — The Dewberry Home and School gathered recently to hear Mr. J. Batty, Vermilion, whose work concerns the problems of the municipality. Mr. Batty, as an introduction to his theme of curlew needs, outlined the many types of welfare work which are the responsibility of the municipality. Too few people realized the scope of this work, he said. The first category of aided were those the aged and the infirm (which includes handicapped individuals from childhood to old age). Many of these must be supported in nursing homes. Relief was another large category, with recipients spread all over this province and in others.

Mothers' Relief was received by numerous women, either widowed, or who had been deserted for a period of three years. Municipality welfare reaches out in a helping hand to those who are unable to help themselves. The most important phase of this welfare work concerns the children. Under the Child Welfare Act, among other things, shelters must be set up to care for neglected children while more permanent arrangements were made for them. And very few people, stated Mr. Batty, were willing to open their homes to these unfortunate young folks.

Mr Batty then read excerpts from the Act, governing the term 'neglected'. A neglected child was not necessarily one who was ill-fed and ill-clothed. He might also be living with those mentally incapable of rearing him, he might habitually miss school or use improper language, or spend too much time in about public places.

Young people in these unsettled times, were growing up too soon and denly in many places. They needed to be protected from themselves. And, as parental authority was not always capable of restraining the more rebellious youngsters, many welfare authorities felt that a curfew should be imposed. Vermilion and Lloydminster had already drawn up such laws. To be effective, however, a greater area needed to be covered. Youngsters from curfew areas could still motor to these without restrictions, and go free.

There were various difficulties of approach such a law in smaller centres, Mr. Batty warned. However, something must be done to curb the rising rate of juvenile delinquency, and this was one of the things that might help.

The second speaker was Mr. Gec. Martin, Controller of Civil Defence for the Vermilion area. His speech concerned the need for a trained civilian population, not only for the calamities of war, but to cope with the emergencies of peace time. He compared the experiences of those who had handled the emergency relief at the time of the Winnipeg flood, with those handling the Fraser flood. So much had been learned during that first tragedy that much suffering and loss was saved during the second.

Defence training is divided into 15 categories, stated Mr. Martin. Some of these were evacuation, intelligence, fire-fighting, first aid, Engineering. Dewberry was in an area classified as a reception area and as such first aid would be the major type of training. This was conducted by St. John's Ambulance and was valuable training at any time.

In about two weeks, said Mr. Martin, he would show two films in Dewberry. The first 'A Tale of Two Cities' was the story of Hiroshima and Nagasaki, and showed certain steps that should be taken in case of atomic raids. Much has been done to protect A B C D Warfare (Atomic, Ecological, Chemical) and there were many points on which the rural population should be vigilent. The recent outbreak of hoof and mouth disease would emphasize how dangerous virus infections could be.

Before his next visit, Mr. Martin asked that a nucleus of a Civil Service organization be set up in the town by the business men.

To reach iron deposits in northwestern Ontario a lake at Steep Rock had to be drained.

Clandonald News

Mr. and Mrs. Ballard Goad of the Landonville district had their daughter Gladys and young son Stanley visiting with them recently for a few days. Mr. and Mrs. Goad's daughter whose married name is Mrs. Clymie, makes her home in Wetaskiwin.

Hans Kade is back from the lumber camp north of Edmonton where he was employed for several months. He is now driving one of Alex Grant's grain trucks.

Johnny Forsyth was back home for a short visit at the week end. Johnny is employed as what is known as a swamper on one of the huge transport trailer outfits which make a business of moving at one time 30 tons of oil drilling equipment from one location to another.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Rowntree returned home on Monday after an absence of about three months. Although reporting a very pleasant holiday they still prefer their farm home to city life.

Excitement reached a new high around the curling rink during the past ten days the occasion being the final bonspiel of the season. This was purely a local affair, the prize being a trophy very kindly donated by Mr. Mike Kusiura. The winning rink will probably be known sometime this week. The chief feature of the spiel is the ruling that each rink must have at least one member who had not played previously or had not curled before this season. Absentee Jr. has been in great demand during the spiel as we are informed that even the toughest develop all sorts of aches and pains in the most unusual spots during the first few days.

Friday a bus load of high school students made the trip to Vermilion to attend a special showing of the picture 'Macbeth' at the Columbia theatre. The previous day pupils of the Separate school and high school were treated to a show sponsored by courtesy of the McGavin's Bakeries. This proved to be a very interesting and instructive film and dealt with the making of bread as it is done by the natives of Dutch Guiana. The gentleman in charge of the film also had a very interesting collection of native tools and utensils from the same place, used in the manufacture of bread.

Following a current event of several years ago, friends old and new, gathered at the home of Mr. Walter Miller, the occasion being the celebration of his birthday which falls on March 15th. Although Walter does not enjoy the best of health he is still able to put many a young fellow to shame with his step-dancing! Among old friends and neighbors present to wish Walter many more happy birthdays were Mrs. Carleton, Bill Oeenchuk and Billy Harrison, the latter still able to provide grand entertainment with his fiddle playing.

Mrs. Richard Goad, who was a patient in Vermilion hospital for a few days last week is home again. Her daughter Jean of Edmonton accompanied by her husband and two small children visited the parental home over the week end.

Not long ago we shipped a few hogs one only clearing $20.50 per cwt. for 2 grade. At the same time cooked ham was being offered 30c per lb. and 90 cents per lb. for sure sirloins! F.U.A. meeting in town on Tuesday March 25th and perhaps we can remedy this strange situation. It would appear that someone other than the producer and retailer is making a big rake-off on the farmers' produce.

Horses in Alberta

There were 30,000 fewer horses in Alberta at Dec. 1st, 1951, than at the same date in the previous year, according to results of a recent survey released by the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. Present figures show 302,200 head, compared with 332,300 a year ago.

R. E. English, Statistician, Alta. Department of Agriculture advised that the peak of horse population in Alberta was in 1921 when 916,300 head were reported. Although the acreage under cultivation has increased from 11,597,000 to more than 20,000,000 acres since that time, the number of horses on farms has steadily declined. Even this comparison does not indicate the extent to which horses have been replaced on farms by tractors, says Mr. English. Many horses at present on farms serve only utility roles. The principle horse of farm equipment now purchased cannot be drawn or operated with horse power.

In the past few years many horses have been slaughtered to provide animal and human food. A rise in the price offered for both slaughter and work horses in 1951 would indicate a reduced supply in relation to the demand. This is given further point by the fact that an estimated 6,510 mares will foal in 1952, compared to 8,100 a year ago.

This news bulletin was written for last week's Standard. Due allowance should be made for lapse of time.

A very happy event took place on March 5th at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. W. Gould when friends decided to celebrate Mrs. Gould's birthday. One friend arrived with a beautiful angel food cake decorated in pink and white with just the exact number of yellow candles and inscribed 'Happy Birthday Sylvia, March 5, 1952'. The other two layer fruit cake was made and decorated by Mrs. Gould and was delicious too. The guests all sat down and did ample justice to a bounteous birthday supper. Snap shots were taken during the afternoon and many useful gifts and beautiful cards presented and gladly received. With the help of one young lady Mrs. Gould attempted to blow out all the candles but with two it took three blows. Happy birthday was sung and then the guests joined in a Party Price It is understood that the Western Farm Unions will not agree to the renewal of the I.W.A. agreement this is done,

Joan Fisher Queen Of Mannville Ice Carnival

ANNUAL EVENT CLAIMED BEST YET

MANNVILLE — Approximately 500 spectators attended the 7th annual Mannville high school ice carnival. The event's children was believed by many to be the best yet produced by the students' organization.

Crowned queen of the carnival was Miss Joan Fisher, candidate representing the grade 12 class of the high school. Attending her were Misses Gladys Veitch, Eva Lewis, Patsy Winters and Florence Olson. They represented, respectively, the Mannville businessmen, grades 11 and 10 of the high school.

Received Crown

Miss Fisher was crowned Queen Joan II of the Mannville ice carnival by Clarence Torrance, a member of the village council. Queen Joan I, Miss Joan Hubbard, served in 1950.

Also on the evening's agenda were broomball, fancy skating, races and a costume parade.

Hilariously concluding the evening was a game between a team of "hitchers" league players, and a "never-been-a" team. Such former stars as Nelson Cundal, Jack Lewis, Len Blanc, Ralph Read, Jim Johnston and Fred Proudfoot were featured.

Misses Marie Miller and Joan Maxwell, winners of the Vermilion home talent competition at the Vermilion ice carnival, entertained with figure skating.

Prize Winners

Prizes in the costume competitions were awarded as follows:

Pre-school, fancy — 1, Joanne Leitch; 2, Jackie Hughes; 3, Brian McCauley; grades 1 to 3, fancy—1, Malcolm Kufeldt; 2, Myrna Whitson; 3, Marvin Bennett. Grades 4-6, fancy—1, Gloria McCauley; 2, June Van Dusen; 3, Jetty te Kampe. Grades 7 and 8, fancy—1, Janice Whitson; 2, Florence Schock.

Open Competition, fancy—1, Arlene Leitch; 2, Isabel Smart; 3, Mrs. C. Hughes.

Red Cross Will Ship Flour To Famine-Stricken Greece

In one of the largest single relief projects ever undertaken by the Canadian Red Cross society, approximately $1,060,000 worth of flour will be shipped this month to northern Greece where the fully substantiated reports confirm that unless relief supplies are received soon, many thousands in northern Greece will starve during the coming months.

Following a number of conferences between the Federal Government and Red Cross, the Canadian Government announced Feb. 19th that 300,000 bushels of No. 5 wheat were given to the Society to be milled into flour for this Greek famine relief.

Red Cross is supervising the milling, sacking, shipping and distribution of the flour by 13 milling companies. The flour will be packed in good quality cotton bags bearing a large Red Cross and the name 'Canada' in both English, and modern Greek.

Big companies in western Canada are manufacturing the 200,315 100-lb. bags for the shipment with the stencils in wash-out inks. When emptied the bags will give the Greek people 217,500 yards of fabric for clothing and other uses.

It is estimated that the 300,000 bushels of wheat will yield 200,315 100-lb. bags of flour that will require about 330 freight cars, or six complete trains, for transportation to the Eastern seaboard. A ship provided by the Greek War Relief Assoc. (U.S.A.) and the ECA will sail with the flour from Boston to Salonika about April 5th.

It is unlikely that any Red Cross funds will be required in assisting this shipment of flour to Greece. The Government of Canada has provided the wheat; free ocean transport is settled; and the sale of the milling by-products such as wheat germ, bran, shorts, middlings and screenings will offset the cost of milling, bags, enrichment, inland freight and insurance.

On arrival in Greece the flour will be distributed by the Greek Red Cross in collaboration with the Canadian ambassador in Athens.

Housewife

She made a home of four bare walls
A citadel of strength and grace,
A refuge in a stormy world
Where all her family came — a place
Where quiet reigned and sunshine shone
Upon the little house and lawn.
She made a home of simple things:
A woven rug of laurel
A little chest of knotty pine,
Chints curtains and a lacquered screen,
A tufted spread of sailcloth blue,
A quilted hammock gay and new.
She made a home full, lovely word!)

A place where warmth and laughter came
Part of her own eternal self
Cheerful and lovely as a flame.
With work and love and little hails,
She made a home of four bare walls.

THE W. M. S.

The monthly meeting of the W. M.S. was held in the church on Wednesday evening March 12th with the C.G.I.T. girls in attendance. The president Mrs. Wm. Barr was in the chair. The meeting was opened with the C.G.I.T. in charge of the devotional including a candle light service. It was quite impressive when the C.G.I.T. was affiliated with the W.M.S.

The girls were presented with the C.G.I.T. crests by Mrs. Barr who greeted each girl. Ladies who took part in the ritual were Mrs. Roxburgh, C.G.I.T. leader, Mrs. W. Barr and Mrs. W. L. Robinson.

The regular W.M.S. meeting then proceeded with the minutes being read, reports being given, 36 members and visitors were present. Business was transacted and the meeting closed with the Mizpah being repeated. Lunch was then served and a social half hour enjoyed.

WE WELCOME YOU

An artist's impression of the interior of the Canadian Pacific Railway's new restaurant counter cars which will go into service soon to feed over 50,000 immigrants which the railway expects to carry from eastern Canadian ports to points across the country during 1952. The new cars follow a design conceived by the CPR's sleeping and dining, colonization, and mechanical departments after tests conducted last year with stripped-down standard dining cars proved the need for newly designed equipment. Their aim is to provide less costly meals more quickly in a setting which will make the traveller feel at ease.

CHALLENGING MESSAGE!

Clarence Elliott of Edmonton spent last week end in Vermilion, visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Elliott.

Old timers of Vermilion, Mr. and Mrs. William J. Beal of Toronto, celebrated their 60th wedding anniversary on Sunday March 16th. To mark the occasion they were at home to friends and relatives in the afternoon at the home of their son-in-law and daughter Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Condie. They lived in Vermilion for several years in the very early days when Mr. Beal was connected with the tailoring business of Mr and Mrs. Beal had three children who attended school in Vermilion. They were the late C. Alfred Beal, the late James Beal and one daughter, now Mrs. Condie. Mr. Beal is 83 and his wife 81 and both are enjoying good health.

Mrs. S. C. Kerslake writes from New Westminster, B.C. commenting on the many new names in the Standard since they left here to make their home in the coastal province. She also mentions the many spring flowers in bloom there and the fine spring weather being enjoyed at time of writing.

It's a real flutterer too, full of life, but where he is going to find any flowers outdoors for quite awhile yet is going to prove a problem.

Regular and Special Meetings of The Town Council

A regular meeting of the town council was held March 3rd with Mayor E. C. Heckbert and Crs. Mitchell, Reid, Urquhart, Payne, Kehoe, Webb present.

Town and water and sewer financial statements for February were approved.

The following motions carried:

That Cr. K. Urquhart be Deputy Mayor for March and April.

That the by-law dealing with electric wiring permits be rescinded.

That by-law 542 be read a first time. That Civil Defence by-law 542 be given a second reading.

There was some discussion re the Budget for 1952, and it was decided to hold a special meeting Wednesday afternoon March 5th in the chamber.

The Mayor expressed appreciation on behalf of the council to retiring Councillor L. L. Kehoe for the outstanding service he has rendered the town in his six years as councillor.

A special meeting of the town council was held March 5th with Mayor S. C. Heckbert and Crs. Mitchell, Reid, Payne, Webb and Urquhart present.

The meeting was called for the purpose of discussing with the various committee heads the 1952 budget. The Mayor pointed out that the Government Grant under the Municipal Assistance Act would probably be higher this year but at the present time there was no legislation as to how much it would or be that former years capital expenditure in public works were reduced considerably as compared to 1951. The Mayor stated, however, that adjustments would probably have to be made if the town undertook a hard-surfacing paving program.

After considerable discussion of all phases of the proposed budget, the meeting adjourned.

Wildmere Beaver Girls' Club Report

The Wildmere Beavers met at the home of Doreen Martin on March 1 with eleven members and one guest present.

Roll call was well answered by each member giving a name of a river beginning with your mother's first or maiden name. The references were read and approved. The new business was discussed. Each member got a piece of white cotton to sew and embroider for the Vermilion bazaar.

The Mystery Box was won by Mary Gibson. Social was in the form of a game. Each member got a part in a play with some for a few minutes. We are having our concert and dance at the Beaverdell school on March 28th.

The meeting was adjourned after which a very tasty lunch was enjoyed.

Our next meeting will be on the second Saturday, April 12th at Hazel Whitnick's.

WILDWOOD

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Bob Drysdale, the proud parents of a baby boy born who also received a surprise to report Mrs. Hedenstrom is a patient in hospital and wish her a speedy recovery.

Other cases of illness in the district all seem to be convalescent now.

Miss Lorna Hay of Onoway who has been visiting her sister Mrs. Fred Wheadon for the past fortnight has returned home.

The Farmers' Union held a well attended meeting last week in the hall and made plans for a dance which proved to be very successful.

The ladies held their regular meeting Thursday with Mrs. Ernest Jack. Organization for the Red Cross campaign occupied the members for the afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Wheadon and family made a trip to Edmonton and Onoway over the week-end.

Mr. John Tattersall made a business trip to Red Deer and Calgary last week.

Mr. E. J. Hearty has his saw mill in operation and the piles of lumber grow higher day by day. (Help?) appears very plentiful at times. As many as 17 men have been counted congregated on the corner mostly curious as to the proceedings.

Good Clothing Plants Have Community Value

$3,000.00 STILL NEEDED

Right here in the Vermilion district a group of farmers is getting ready plans to build a Seed Cleaning Plant. Some of these farmers have already been approached by canvassers and secured seed loans. That is not enough as it will take about $50,000 in paid-up share capital before the building can be started.

The government policy provides that a grant of dollars will be given to any municipality for the construction of a seed plant providing the municipality and a local association contribute equal amounts. There are now 7 municipalities around Vermilion using seed grain in the province. The one built in Marwayne last year cost $58,000 for the plant and machinery. With only $7000 subscribed of the $15,000 needed it would appear that farmers and business men will need to support this project in a bigger way or it is going to fall through.

Evolution of Farm Practices

It is quite apparent to observers that farm practices are changing rapidly in this district. It used to be that farmers kept their grain to the elevator and hauled coal home. Now it is a matter of practice, to let the tractor do both jobs. Also it is good business to have the seed cleaned in the hands of a specialized plant. The grain grower does not need to tie up funds in fanning mills and Carter disc machines. Every one per bushel seed can be cleaned by specialists with the best machinery that money can buy.

Treating seed for the prevention of smut has been a common farm practice for 20 years. Formerly bluestone was used for treating seed grain but is highly efficient but the dust is dangerous and poisonous. Now a seed plant grain can be treated cheaply and thoroughly. In addition grain can be treated with chemicals for the control of wire worms in fields infested with this pest.

Seed Drill Survey

In 1930, Vermilion River M.D. completed a seed drill survey. The samples were taken directly from the drills at the time of seeding. It was found after testing, that one-third of the samples graded rejects for use as seed according to the standards as set out in the Seeds Act. Weed seeds was the chief reason for the samples being rejected. The survey also showed up for variety of variety and it was found that some farmers were using badly mixed seed and were in need of a change of seed.

Many farmers had not cleaned their seed before seeding and the reason given was that they did not have a fanning mill. A seed cleaning plant will be a boon to these farmers.

There is no doubt that land, which is clean of weeds, yields more bushels than a very weedy land. It is generally agreed that fields are cleaner in districts where seed cleaning plants are being operated. The crop goes on year after year as much as clean seed is seeded on clean land.

A committee consisting of Gordon Lamont, F. Van Wageningen and Ross Taylor is directing the canvass for shares. Cliff McCormick is the secretary. There are 30 canvassers covering the whole area between the Battle and Saskatchewan Rivers. The general idea is that farmers will take one $25 share for each quarter section of cultivated land. If everyone supported this suggestion there would be enough shares to build the plant. One thing sure the plant cannot be built unless more shares are sold.

Vermilion Citizens To See Grey Cup Films

1951 WORLD SERIES ALSO POSSIBLE

Through the kindness of George Webb and Sons, the Vermilion Association Athletic association is able to show to the residents of Vermilion and district, the film entitled "The Grey Cup". This great football classic will provide the home of thrills and excitement.

In addition to the football picture it is hoped to be able to obtain the 1951 world baseball series, so that a full evening of entertainment is promised.

These pictures will be shown at the annual meeting of the Vermilion Amateur Athletic Assoc. to be held on Wednesday, April 2nd at 8:00 p.m. at the old courthouse in Vermilion.

Many Activities Carried Out By Organization

May 24th Sports Day

Reviewing the activities of the Association for the past year it will be remembered that the 24th of May sports day opened the season. Last year, 48 baseball teams turned out and outside teams from as far away as Provost and Edmonton were home with a good share of the $500 prize money offered.

Track Meet

The High School track meet was sponsored by the V.A.A.A. and a total of $137.25 was raised to substantial this event once again. From the interest shown last year, it is quite probable that there will be some real competition this fall between the neighboring towns in the west and east, and Vermilion in the centre.

Pee-Wee Hockey

Pee-Wee hockey this winter received a good deal of attention, the Association spending $1192.34 on equipment for these young lads. In the office too, there was the famous "Bean Feed" cooking up for the young hockey hopefuls. This is the event where the boys "put away" 40 to 50 cans of beans, 30 lbs. of weiners, gallons of chocolate milk, dozens of buns, and all the pies their mothers will bake. Films dealing with current sports will also be shown to these boys.

Grants

Grants to organized sport within the town amounted to $136.00. This took the form of direct grants to hockey, track and basketball.

Hockey Tourney

The recent hockey tournament published by the Standard and the Vermilion Journal was sponsored by the V.A.A.A.

Annual Meeting April 2

Keep this night in mind — and be sure to be at the Armories next Wednesday night at 8:00 p.m.

By The District Agriculturist

"GREEN ACRES"

Using Formaldehyde

The experts say that under no circumstances should 'tough' or damp grain be treated with formalin. I feel sure that there are very few farmers in my district using this out-dated and dangerous method of treating seed for smut control, but I am just mentioning it in case there are one or two left. It is advised by the same experts that every bushel of grain be dried whether dry or not should be treated with one of the mercuric dusts before seeding.

Keeping Eggs Fresh

No matter if stored at room temperature a fresh laid egg but it can soon deteriorate under poor storage practices. It is surprising how many farmers and others that spoil the quality of good egg. Eggs should be cooled down to 60 degrees quickly after laying and kept below 60 degrees so that the loss of moisture from the egg is slowed up.

Forage Crops Recommended

A lot of old land in this district is not yielding what it ought in the only way to bring it back to the yields we used to get, is to put more root fibre into the soil. This can only be done by seeding down to grass for a few years. Every farmer should have a plan for seeding down so many acres each year. They will be surprised in the ch ange in fields and higher yields after breaking up the land again. Brome grass seems only half as much now compared to the prize two years ago.

Seed For Sale

At the rate that orders are coming in, the big truck load of timothy seed shipped in by the Alberta Seed Growers Coop will not last long. There are two agents in this district, Gordon Ross, Vermilion and Fred Cleaning Plant, Marwayne. Now is your chance to get grass seed at wholesale prices before the supply is gone.

To Prevent Bulging

When feeding round cheese piece or table cloths, always start from the centre to prevent bulging. Don't you ever hear about the Battle of the Bulge? Dieting is recommended.

Nothing Wasted

A new electrical device uses the heat from cooling milk to heat be ; water for washing the milk pail and separator. You just pump the warm milk into the cooling vat and plug in the water heater. It works on the same principal as a refrigerator. The wash water temperature is raised to 120 degrees.

Ontario, with about 35% of the total, ranks as the premier manufacturing province of Canada. This position has been fairly uniformly maintained during the past 70 years. Quebec ranks second in importance with about 30% of the total value of manufactured products.

The speed of jet and rocket planes in the stratosphere generates heat because of the friction of the air, so that even with temperatures of 60 below zero outside, the cabins would be 111 degrees at 1000 miles an hour unless cooling mechanisms were used.

The Weather

Spring, appears definitely to be on the way and starting last Sunday a much warmer air has prevailed which has caused snow, water, slush and mud in evidence around the town. The warmer day was Tuesday March 25 with 6 above. Low point was last Saturday with 1s below.

Instructor In Civil Defence To Receive Training

Civil defence instructors from Alberta fire departments will be trained at schools being held in various parts of Alberta.

The course in Edmonton is set for April 1st to 18. Two members of each fire department or brigade may attend the course, perhaps the chief and another fireman who would make a suitable instructor. The provincial government will pay transportation costs to and from the schools and will pay subsistence to the extent of $5 per day. All delegates to any of the schools must register with the Provincial Fire Commissioner, Administration Building, Edmonton, at least one week prior to the opening of the school which they will attend. Firemen attending the schools should be covered by Workmen's Compensation.

Start Issuing Car Licenses March 20th

The Provincial Secretary's department will start issuing 1952 passenger car license plates on March 20th. New plates have already been shipped to many of the 220 issuers throughout the province and others are being dispatched daily. All issuers will have plates in their hands in time to commence issuing on March 20th.

In former years the issuing of passenger car licenses was commenced at an earlier date. This year the delay has been occasioned by the fact that steel shortages prevented the manufacturer from supplying requirements in sufficient time to permit issuing at an earlier date.

Applicants are particularly requested to complete forms of application for renewal of registration for the car and renewal of driver's license at home and present these forms when applying for their new plates. This should be done regardless of whether the driver is operating the same car as last year or not.

Application forms for renewal of registration will be mailed to motorists who had a passenger car registration last year. These applications should be in motorists' hands on or before March 20.

The new plates are of a "permanent" type which means they will be used for two or more years, depending on how long they will last. The new license plates issued are required to remain with the car, that is, if the owner of a passenger motor vehicle sells or transfers his car the license registration and plates must also be transferred to the new owner.

Defense Speed-up Predicted

Canada will have to do a speedup of nearly $40 millions a month in defense production in the coming fiscal year if the target figure of $1,400 millions for 1952-53 is to be met, reports The Financial Post.

This means an increase in output of over 30% this year, an average monthly production of $117 millions as against the $90 millions set for the fiscal year just ending and $75 millions achieved. But many of last years' bottlenecks — labor and material shortages, plant facilities are being cleared up and officials are optimistic.

NEWS from KITSCOTY

A miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss May Evans was held on Saturday, March 22 in the Tracy Memorial hall with 75 friends attending. A program of music and games were enjoyed by all.

The decorative theme was a general store named 'Maisie's Market.'

A very amusing skit was put on by the clerk Betty Gray and the customer Sheila Pidcock after which they packed up and delivered the 'groceries' to the bride-elect, then Miss Sheila McCorry in a neat little speech made the presentation of all the contents of the store to May, who spent a happy hour opening and admiring her many lovely gifts.

Miss Evans then thanked her many friends for their gifts and all the good wishes sent to her. The evening closed by a dainty lunch being served, then all pp. and joined in and sang For She's a Jolly Good Fellow'. The hostesses were Misses Sheila McCorry, Ella Pidcock, Helen Zuk and Kelly Tyler ably assisted by Mrs. J. R. Fox, Mrs. 'Bud' Blatchford and Misses Loretta Mitchell of Lloydminster, Betty Gray, Grace Hunt, Eneine Batty, June Marie Lang and Sheila Pidcock.

Mr. and Mrs. F. O. Seward and Margaret spent the week end in Edmonton.

Mr. and Mrs. Mern Dale and Merna of Wainwright were visiting relatives and friends last week end.

Don't forget the tea, sale of work and home cooking in the Tracy Memorial hall this Friday March 28th from 3 to 5:30 p.m.

ALBERTA MILLS ARE BUSY MILLING FLOUR FOR GREECE
—RED CROSS PROJECT

Six Alberta flour mills were busy last week milling 11,000 barrels of flour for immediate shipment to northern Greece where substantial need reports of that unfortunate country have been received that unless help arrives soon, thousands of people will starve to death.

The people of one of the largest single relief shipments ever undertaken by the Canadian Red Cross Society, will supply approximately $1,000,000 worth of flour to northern Greece.

Mills in Alberta, Saskatchewan, Manitoba and Ontario were given the contract to mill the flour from 500,000 bushels of No. 5 wheat given the Society by the Federal government. Some 200,315 pounds bags of flour resulted from the wheat with the flour enriched by added Vitamin B1.

The flour was packed in good quality cotton bags with a Red Cross and the name Canada in both English and modern Greek printed on them in washout inks. The result will be 217,500 yards of fabric for clothing and other uses.

The flour will require 333 freight cars, or six complete trains, for. rial hall Friday March 28th partial shipment to Eastern Seaboard. A ship provided by the Greek War Relief Assoc. (U.S.A.)

ALLANDALE

March has been very good to us until today (19th) somewhat as a roaring lion. Snow and wind but not too cold. Our road to the school is really blocked now.

The sympathy of the community is extended to Mr and Mrs. George Webb and families in their recent bereavement by the death of the [illegible] so [illegible].

It was a pleasure [illegible] and the ECA will sail with the four hour [illegible] about April 5th to have our W.A meeting at the McPhee home. The Roll call was answered by a favorite recipe or household hint. Next meeting will be at the R. Strume home, M. Baldock and I. Arnold on the lunch committee. After the meeting was adjourn d everyone had a free game on a wrapped parcel. The one guessing its contents received the box. Herb McPhee was the lucky one. How glad he is.

Wood-sawing time again on Friday the 11th at O'Pee's and Saturday at Unmeesees.

Allandale was in on the mixed curling at Clandonald Joyce and Melba Lee, Melerie Nelson and Eddie Pierce. We haven't any final results to report.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Throndson motored to the city last Sunday, to visit with friends there. On Monday to Lake Wabamum for the fishing trip there and to visit the latters mother Mrs Nelson who resides on the shore of the lake, near Falls.

The Gay 90's was well represented on the 17th by Allandale, Mc-Phee's, Meyer's, Mrs. Baldock and the Omnesons. It was a pleasure to meet old and new acquaintances, and do the old, old dances. Ice cream was added to the refreshments. These were really enjoyed.

Congratulations and best wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Howard Pratt of Dodds, Alberta, on the birth of a son March 19th, Daryl Ernest.

Haven't much to report on the Allandale dance. If the number of cars and trucks were any indication of the crowd there must have been a large gathering. If the drivers would only park to leave a driveway it would be greatly appreciated — not only by those going by but by those wanting to leave

Closing Thought: Do not lay things too much to heart. No one is really beaten unless he is discouraged

Wildmere Winks

The deepest sympathy, along with that of the community, goes to Mrs. H. Elliott and family in the sudden passing of A dear husband and father. He lived a good life and a long one, as much as he could, very greatly missed and another gap is made in the long line of pioneers who helped open up this vast area of ours. The many who attended his funeral showed the esteem in which he was held in town and country.

Our heartiest sympathy goes out also to the sorrowing husband and little son, Ingal Lofgren and sister of Mrs. Rubens Olsen, Beiseker, of Mrs. Rubens Olsen, Beiseker, of Mrs. Lofgren, who passed away at the Crestwood Alberta Inn in Calgary after spending many years of illness here. She fought hard to regain her health but it was a losing battle. Mrs. Gunn taught school at Brevort several years ago. May the bereaved ones find comfort in knowing she is now at rest where suffering is no more.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Holmes and two children spent Sunday afternoon March 16th at the Caudwell home in Wildmere.

The United church was filled to overflowing at the funeral of the late W. L. Webb on Friday. Rev. MacKay gave a very comforting service, closing with 'He is not gone, he is just gone before.' Mr. Tom Watts sang 'Beautiful Isle of Somewhere'. Although Lyle's book of life continued only a few pages he was well liked by all who knew him and was a grand young man.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gibson, Mary, Isabelle, Ernest, and Hilda Kubesh spent Sunday evening at the Bather home. The occasion was Mrs. Bathe's birthday. May you have many more such happy days Hazel.

Mrs. Adam Smith, formerly of Wildmere, now of Vancouver, accompanied by her niece Miss Thea Miller, left last Thursday on the start of their journey back to Scotland for a six months visit. They went by way of Calgary where they were met by Mrs. Smith's daughter Mrs. C. Morand and family. They journey on by way of Chicago to visit Mrs. Miller's mother, then back to Moncton, N.B. to visit a son and family of Mrs. Miller. Some time ago Mrs. Miller had sent home her wrist and she has to wear a cast on it until she goes to Scotland. They sail from St. John on April 5. May they have a pleasant visit in the west of all their many Wildmere friends.

The Wildmere Bonspiel Curlers' club is having a concert and dance in Basswood school on Friday, March 28.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Wilson entertained six couple at supper Saturday evening. Fellow guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. Holte, Mr. and Mrs. R. Martin, Mr. and Mrs. C. Chalmers, Mr. and Mrs. A. Bather, Mr. and Mrs. F. Gibson and Mr. and Mrs. A. Smith. All reported a very pleasant evening.

Mrs. W. J. Garnett and Mrs. Wm. Steele are in Edmonton this week attending the W.I. conference held at the Masonic Temple.

Sorry to hear that our Bowtell scribe Mrs. Sherwood has been ill with a septic sore throat. Speedy recovery is wished you Mrs. Sherwood—you have certainly had your share of sickness at your house this winter.

Great Slave Lake in the N.W.T., the fifth largest lake on the continent and only 340 miles south of the Arctic Circle has in the last few years become the centre of a million-dollar commercial fishing business.

Claysmore Clippings

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Lynch returned last week from a two-month holiday spent in the southern U.S. and Mexico.

Jack McCauley was a week end visitor with his cousin Bervy McCauley.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Horne and family and Mr. and Mrs. A. Van Nest visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. McCrae on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Gerrie of Edmonton spent last week end at the home of Mrs. Gerrie's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. MacMillan.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McCrae and Betty were supper guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. Hauer on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Williams and family visited Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Williams in Vermilion and Norman's brother Dale and Ray and families at Claysmore last week.

Several families from Claysmore attended the old time fiddlers' contest held at Mannville on March 18 and enjoyed good old time music. These contests arouse a lot of interest and encourage our local talent to take part, so much for the prize so for the love of the good old music.

It has been claimed that the radio and car have fairly well eliminated the family musical evening. We used to enjoy when dad or son played the fiddle, mother accompanied on the piano and the small fry followed along with the mouth organ. Thus our old time tunes were not as interesting as they were 25 years ago. Our younger generation today are too busy burning up gas in the family car to appreciate fiddle like father or uncle Bill—so it may be that fiddlers' contests may some day be only a memory of the good old days—so we enjoy them while we can.

"Now I've caught up with Grandma!"

Grandma was one of those unforgettable characters you read about. And every time I think of her, I remember one of her favourite sayings: "Early now — Early now".

Many years have passed since Grandma died. But just the other day something happened to remind me of that old motto of hers.

I was working over my budget, trying not to admit what the figures told me: My car kept "eating" at the rate, it was a cinch that some of the things I'd started to save for would have to wait. Suddenly I remembered: "Early now . . ."

"Old-fashioned stuff!" I told myself. Then I got to thinking. "Maybe it is tough to save today. But it's still important . . . still my only hope of getting some of the things I want most.

"Well, at least I'm keeping up my life insurance payments," I thought. "That's a way of saving and protection for my family as well. And maybe if I make an extra effort to put more money aside I'll reach my goals sooner.

"So here goes! I'll try again. I'll find some new ways to economize. Somehow I'm sure I can manage to be more thrifty."

And you know — it's a funny thing! The moment I made that decision I realized that Grandma's idea was our old fashioned, I've just caught up with her now!

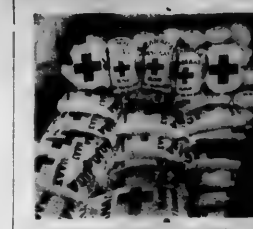
RED CROSS FLOUR FOR GREECE



Mr. F. E. Spooner, honorary treasurer of Alberta Division, Canadian Red Cross Society, inspects some of the railway cars being loaded with Red Cross flour for the starving citizens of northern Greece. Seen standing upright are three bags of flour showing the Red Cross and the name "Canada" in both English and modern Greek. Of the 208,315 100-lb. bags of flour being sent to Greece, 114,296 were milled in Alberta.

Attractive Civil Defence Badge Available To Those Qualifying

The attractive Province of Alberta Civil Defence badges are soon to be made available for distribution, Hon. C. E. Gerhart, minister of municipal affairs responsible for civil defence announces.

The gilt badge, which is specially designed after considerable research, is small in size for wearing on the coat lapel. It bears the armoria shield of the Province of Alberta and the initials C.D. in coloured enamel. It will be issued by local organization only to members qualifying by attendance at a prescribed number of meetings.

Blood Donor Clinic In Vermilion On Tuesday, April 1st

LEGION HALL

The mobile Blood Donor clinic of the Canadian Red Cross society will visit Vermilion on Tuesday April 1 and will be in operation from 3 to 5 p.m. and from 7 to 9 p.m. in the Canadian Legion hall.

The Blood Transfusion service in Alberta now supplies 152 hospitals. During 1950, 21,139 blood transfusion and 2,034 transfusions of plasma were supplied free of charge by this service, an approximate saving of nearly $400,000 to the public. An important factor to bear in mind is that although the service is free, it cannot be continued in dollars and cents alone but in the countless lives saved annually.

The amount of blood collected during 1951 was approximately 40,000 bottles, almost double that of 1946. Although this is a matter of congratulation the Red Cross is striving for greater objectives.

Alberta gave 200 bottles of blood to the National project for the armed services during 1951, although good, this is not good enough for our province. By increased effort hard work and whole-hearted co-operation, 1952 can be made a record year. If every donor would try to bring in a new member, splendid results would be obtained.

NOTE — The amount of blood taken from each donor is approximately 13 ounces, a person's body contains about 250 ounces, so it can be easily understood that any person between 18 and 65 years in average health may donate without discomfort.

What Could Be Better than A NEW BULOVA to keep you in time with this New Year!

Christmas Seal Campaign Successful

The 1951-52 Christmas TB Seal campaign in Alberta was an unqualified success, totalling $186,410 from 100,010 individual contributors according to D. W. Robertson, the treasurer, for Alberta Tuberculosis Assoc. This is an increase of $22,491 over the 1950 Seal sale.

The campaign ended Feb. 22nd and the books had to be closed then for audit purposes but money is still rolling in, and probably by now there are several thousand dollars held by local committees to start off the 1952 campaign.

Mr. Robertson said, "The Association and all the district committees wish to express grateful thanks to the people of Alberta for their generous support. We are particularly grateful to the newspaper and radio stations, without whose cheerful, completely voluntary help we know we could not have achieved this happy result. As we promised before the campaign opened, our surplus over and above the regular budget will be spent on X-ray equipment for routine chest X-ray of hospital admissions."

Final returns by districts are as follows: Bank district $1,770; Calgary $48,073; Cardston $1,853; Drumheller, $6,045; Northern Alberta 94,751; High River $3,650; Lethbridge $20,838; Medicine Hat $9,302; Vulcan $2,730; Central Alberta $15,015.

Paradise Valley

Mr. H. M. Shaw returned home from his visit to his aged father at Eldorado, Ont. Mr. Shaw Sr. is well over the 90 mark and is still quite hale. Mr. Shaw made the trip by plane and reports a good flight down but then encountered a lot of snow and fog on the return.

It is with regret that we have to report that Mrs. Frank Flint is in the Lloydminster hospital and will later go to Edmonton for an operation on her eyes. Mrs. Flint has had trouble of this nature for several years.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Anderson arrived back in town after an extended visit at the West coast. They report a splendid winter there.

Mr. Wilfred Wilson and Mr. J. Cherle returned from a motor trip to Drayton Valley and other points, making the trip by car.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Roy Block or ——— marriage which took pla——— enter on Friday March 21. They held their wedding dance at McLaughlin the same evening.

We do not know if it is the weather that is responsible for all the sickness that is going around. The flu is quite prevalent and many have been seriously ill. Mr. C. S. Helmstrom has been confined to his bed for several weeks. Miss Diana Knor is also on the sick list.

Mrs. Fred Brassington is a patient in the Lloydminster hospital having taken ill during the week.

Rev. E. N. Morrison of Lloydminster will conduct Easter service in the United church at Paradise Valley on Sunday April 13th at 3:00 p.m.

Mr. Fred Altwater who has been employed at Williams' garage in Vermilion has accepted a position as mechanic at Knor's garage.

The dance that was advertised for the P.V. hall on Friday night did not materialize as the Ameen Canam Sons of the West failed to put in an appearance. A large crowd waited until after 11 o'clock and then gave up. Some went to the dance at McLaughlin and some to Earle.

The latest word from curling headquarters is that the score at the half way mark is all tied up at 25 each. The battle will be resumed on Sunday. Just how long the ice will last is the main question now.

A Tip on Chocolate

Melted chocolate seems to come more easily out of the dish if you grease the dish with butter. Seems like a lot of trouble but you have to grease the cake or pudding pan anyway. When you put chocolate into fudge or sauce and then cook it, it's a waste of time and effort to grease it because the chocolate will melt from the heat just as smoothly.

Prune Jam

Yes, frozen jam is the newest addition to your freezer or locker! There are four steps for making jam with fresher fruit flavor and better color—without boiling.

1. Pare ripe and a few slightly underripe berries through food mill or colander into bowl. Measure purée. Set aside.

2. Combine pectin and water in 4-quart saucepan. Boil hard 1 minute stirring constantly. Remove from heat.

3. Add sugar, fruit to hot pectin. Stir 5 minutes to dissolve sugar. Pour into freezer boxes. Let jell. Freeze.

4. Thaw jam 30 minutes, then turn out. Refrigerate unused part. Jam will keep 6 months in a freezer.

A Beeperer

A beeperer is a device to make it easy to wind wool in the skein into a ball. The beeperer is about three feet high. Four arms are joined to the base so they will turn, and the skein of wool fits ver the four arms. As you wind the wool into a ball the four arms revolve and deliver your wool to you. You could call a beeperer a woolder. The first one I'd seen was in Provost.

April Is Proclaimed "Cancer Month"

Proclaiming April as 'Cancer Month' across the country — the Governor General, His Excellency the Honourable Vincent Massey, has called for the support of all Canadian citizens in the Canadian Cancer Society's Cancer Crusade.

The message, issued from Government House reads as follows:

"This is the time of year when the great body of Canadian men and women engaged in the fight against cancer review and renew their efforts—April is Cancer Month in Canada.

The public will learn a great deal during the next 30 days of what has been done, and what is planned, in the field of cancer. But the effort know no season.

At this moment several hundred Canadian scientists, with the assistance of the Canadian Cancer Society, are working tirelessly in universities and hospitals across Canada in their search for the cause and cure of cancer.

These able workers have already contributed to advances in the treatment of the disease. However, if we are to make the most of these advances, it is important that diagnosis is made and treatment given at an early stage of the disease. To this end, the Canadian Cancer Society conducts an ever-expanding educational program to the public.

In cancer, as in all chronic diseases, patients and their dependents may face problems which can be solved only by a helping hand which provides sick room supplies, family care, or transportation to and from clinics. These and other services are tangible contributions being made by the many voluntary workers who devote their time and effort to the welfare work of the Society in hundreds of Canadian communities.

The Canadian Cancer Society's noble work of assisting medical research, informing the public and helping the sick, is worthy of the support of us all."

Now It Is T-V Aerials

In some Canadian cities, it is ill fated for a man to fix a leaking tap in his own bathroom. In almost every city of the country there are all sorts of restrictions which tend to channel various services into the hands of a favored few, to keep down competition, to spawn more and more regulations and rules which all add to costs. The latest goal is television aerials. Pressure is being put on the Ontario legislature to give municipalities control over the sale and erection of these.

This craze for municipal licensing and regulations has been spreading like a plague in recent years and with it the cost of all services. If we don't draw the line somewhere, soon a man won't be able to hang his own picture on his own wall, comments The Financial Post.

When Canada's first census was taken in 1666, there were 3,215 inhabitants, exclusive of aborigines.

The March meeting of the W.W.I. was held at the home of Mrs. David Dibben with seven members and two visitors, Mrs. George Dibben and Mrs. R. Smith present. The meeting was opened by singing O Canada and repeating the Creed. Roll call was answered by handing in a stuffed animal. Mrs. Osterberg gave the financial report. Correspondence was read, a letter of thanks for a sugar parcel sent to Scotland, and one from CARE, Ottawa. Plans for attending the convention were discussed. New business took the form of a discussion on the making of a United Nations flag. As the pattern has been purchased, one of the members was appointed to get about material.

Topic, 'Well Water Blue Babies' was given by Mrs. W. J. Garnett in the absence of Mrs. R. Martin. Our new teacher Mrs. R. Smith was admitted to our progressive club, making sixteen members. Mrs. G. Wahlock won Johnny Jump Up. Roll call of the next meeting, which will be held at the home of Mrs. J. Wilson on April 2nd will be a household cleaning hint. Topic is to be given by Mrs. Wallington, social by Mrs. Martin. Meeting then adjourned after which the hostess and helpers served a delicious lunch.

Rural Electrification

THE USE OF ELECTRIC POWER for running machin-ry is commonplace in these times and it is vital in the operation of homes and industries throughout the country. Because of the large number of consumers in a small area, people in the cities at one time benefitted more from the service of electricity than those in the country districts, but rural electrification has spread rapidly in Canada and a large number of farms now have electric power. In 1945 there were 213,295 farms in Canada served by electricity, and no doubt this number has increased considerably since that time. The uses of electricity on the average farm are many. It is valuable for lighting, in addition to its uses in operating appliances both in the home and for the operation of the farm.

* * * * *

Is Used More in The Home

This matter was discussed recently at a meeting of field men of the Veteran's Land Act administration held in Saskatoon. Mr. M. R. Dodds of the Swift Current experimental station, told of a survey which had been made of 97 farms on which electricity was used and he pointed out that in this group, more electrical appliances were being used in the home than for the operation of the farm. These farmers had invested $65,000 for domestic appliances, and only $15,300 in productive machinery operated by electricity. Although electricity is of greater use in farm work where there are extended crops, Mr. Dodds expressed the opinion that many farmers are not making full use of electric power in their farm work. In using electricity for operating separators, food choppers, milking machines and other equipment the farmer could cut out many chores and increase labor return, the agriculturist pointed out.

* * * * *

Should Pay For Itself

Rural electrification is an important factor in making farm life more attractive and farm work more efficient at a time when rapid industrial expansion in Canada provides opportunities for those who are dissatisfied on the land. The use of electricity for running domestic appliances should in no way be discouraged for no one would question its value in increasing the comfort, convenience and efficiency of the farm home. At the same time, its uses for production should not be overlooked. Mr. Dodds pointed out that farm electrification should be made to pay its way, and to do that it must be used for running farm machinery as well as in the house. Requirements vary in different localities and in different types of farming, but electricity is of value everywhere and full use should be made of its services, whenever that is possible.

Aged Indian Recalls Riel Rebellion

LEASE, Sask.—Mrs. Sunset Bird, a pure-strain Indian woman of the Mistawasis Reserve near here, is reputed to be 106 years old.

Living alone with a granddaughter, growing her own vegetables and speaking only the Cree tongue, she is one of the last links with Saskatchewan's past. Neighbors say she recalls the Riel Rebellion and other historic incidents.

At the summer Mrs. Bird walks two miles each Sunday to the Presbyterian Mission and back. In winter she rides in the bottom of a horse-drawn sleigh box.

A granddaughter recently verified Mrs. Bird's age by examining records when treaty money was paid last year. It was found then she was 106.

Born Sunette Longneck at Saddle Lake, Sask., she later married Petsy Morcheco, whose Indian name translated means Bad Owl. Later, her name was modernized to Bird and in recent years she has been called Widow Bird or more often Nucoom, Cree for Grandma.

Funny and Otherwise

Two crooked boxing managers were discussing a forthcoming fight. "At the end of the second round," said the first, "your man will hit mine and he will go down for the count."

"No, no," expostulated the second. "Not in the second round; in the seventh or eighth. We mustn't cheat the public!"

"My little boy is very polite," said Brown jovially. "Only the other night in the bus he pointed out an empty seat to a dear old lady and raved her for it."

"Nope," observed the oldest inhabitant, "folks round these parts don't try to labor very much. Matter o' fact, I think the laziest man in the state lives right here in this village—name's Will Knott."

"Will Knott!" the listener repeated.

"Yep," replied the O. I. "He's so lazy he never writes out his name in full—just signs himself 'Won't!'"

At a gathering of bishops a waiter tripped when serving soup, which was spilt all over one of the divines. The victim jumped up, flustered, went red, and finally blurted out: "Will someone not in Holy Orders please say something appropriate?"

"Really, Herbert," said Mrs. Newlywed, "I'll put up with your untidiness, I'll tolerate the ash on the carpet, I'll stand for the noise you make in the bathroom, I'll endure your irregular hours—but I'm going too far when you try to play my parsnips on the gramophone!"

* * *

The lecturer went on and on and on. At last the vicar paused and asked, "Whoa there, my friends, can I say?"

From the back of the church came a voice: "Amen."

Two men in a lighthouse now a small boat being rowed towards it. When it was about half a mile away it began to sink, so one of the men went out to the rescue.

When the rescued man was in the lighthouse he told the men it was a good job they had saved him because he had come to see them about their income tax.

"I've come to think I'm nothing but a miserable idiot," chortled the enraged humorist.

"Oh, no, dear," soothed his wife, "you're cheerful enough."

"Miracles," was the day school subject, the teacher, a homely spinster, explained them to the best of her ability. Then asked: "Now, can any of you tell me what is a miracle?"

One little boy answered promptly: "Please, miss, my mother says if you don't marry the new minister inside three months, it'll be a miracle."

Cars Crossing Alberta-B.C. Border Being Stopped

CROWN NEST, B.C.—Cars crossing the Alberta-British Columbia border are being stopped by a three-man British Columbia patrol at the Corbin road cutoff, six miles east of Michel, B.C. The patrol is maintained around the clock.

It was set up as a result of the interprovincial ban on shipments of livestock and fresh meat following the Regina outbreak of foot-and-mouth disease.

Cars bound for B.C. are examined for meat. Whenever it is found they are ordered to return to Alberta. Cooked or canned meats may be taken in, but not hams or bacon.

Scientists Seek New Use For Volcanic Ash

Deposits Said At Several Points in Saskatchewan

SASKATOON.—University of Saskatchewan scientists are trying to find a way to cash in on ash from volcanoes which erupted in prehistoric times.

From these eruptions great clouds of volcanic dust arose and drifted across the earth's surface, settling sometimes thousands of miles from the scene of the eruption.

The settling dust formed beds up to 30 feet in depth at some places. Volcanic ash deposits exist in Saskatchewan at Rock Glen, St. Victor, Meidpath, Duncairn and Waldeck.

A number of uses have been found for the volcanic ash. One is in the highly technical process of the clarification of vegetable and mineral oils. At present considerable quantities of "activated bentonite", a material closely related to volcanic ash are imported from the United States for this purpose.

Another use of this type of material is in the preparation of drilling muds, now imported to western Canada in large quantities for the oil search.

University experiments are concerned with a third possible use of volcanic ash—as a "pozzolan" in the making of concrete. Pozzolan is a material which is mixed with Portland cement in order to save on the latter, to increase the long-term strength of the concrete and make it less permeable and more resistant to Pozzolans are mainly used in the construction of dams and bridges. If Saskatchewan volcanic ash is found to have a high degree of pozzolanic efficiency, it may be a valuable asset in the construction of the proposed South Saskatchewan River dam.

However, the tests require long periods, usually several years, to complete.

University experiments are under the direction of Dr. A. R. Wm Cooke of the chemistry department and Prof. A. H. Douglas of the college of engineering. Prof. Douglas is doing long-term tests on actual concrete mixes.

Brangus Cattle Are Doing Well On Alberta Farm

Head of Brahman and Angus Are Well Adapted to Prairies

ATLEE, Alta.—Brangus cattle are grazing on the Alberta range near here on the Red Deer river some 60 miles north of Medicine Hat. To young Bruce Dawson and his neighbors it is an interesting experiment and one of three in Canada.

Some on a much smaller scale in the United States. They are Dawson, James Mitchell of Maple Creek, Sask., who keeps his cattle at Smaryerview in the Medicine Hat area, and a breeder at Ontario.

The true Brangus carries three-eighth Brahman blood and five-eighth Aberdeen-Angus blood. They are black in color and hornless.

Compared with other average breeds, the Brangus weighs 50 to 75 pounds more at weaning time, 150 pounds more at 15 months years and up to 300 pounds more at maturity.

Besides having more poundage to improve the pocket book, the Brangus is immune to pink eye and cancer eye. It has sweat glands. It also has a muscular membrane between the hide and flesh that enables it to dislodge insects and hence is less bothered by flies and mosquitoes.

Dawson established his first bulls in 1949 from Cline Creek ranch, Walsh, Okla. He started with half blooded and now has 30 quarter-bred heifers. His now is working on the three-eighths. However, he says, he has put 100 extra pounds on calves.

Dawson says his animals have wintered well, all outside. As they progress in breeding they change appearance to some extent.

There is a small hump on the shoulder of the Brahman, he has but on the half-blood it is half-way between the crest and the shoulder. On the quarter-blood it is farther to the front and on the three-eighths it moves back.

YOUR RED CROSS
WHAT IS IT DOING?

ARTS and crafts is an instructional programme carried on daily for Veteran patients by qualified Red Cross instructors. The Red Cross has always considered Veterans as one of its main responsibilities. Red Cross maintains eight lodges at D.V.A. hospitals where it provides: movie shows, handicraft instruction, regular visiting, transportation and also offers overnight accommodation for visiting relatives.

In 28 D.V.A. hospitals and Veterans institutions the Arts and Crafts programme is performing a useful function in the treatment services, as well as providing not only a hobby but a means of livelihood as well.

At some 60 D.V.A. hospitals, sanatoria, and convalescent homes the Field Programme provides regular showings. Red Cross volunteers visit the Veterans at frequent intervals to provide comforts. Emergency assistance, medical aid for needy Canadian Veterans and their dependents are supplied by the Veterans Welfare Service when those in need are not eligible for such assistance under D.V.A. entitlement.

Across Canada, Red Cross operates 73 Outpost Hospitals and Nursing Stations. In our own province you will find several of these isolated havens of mercy ministering to the needs of those requiring medical and nursing aid.

Plans To Complete Electrification Of Manitoba Farms

WINNIPEG.—Present plans of the Manitoba power commission call for the complete electrification of all 42,000 Manitoba farms in just over two years, Provincial Treasurer Roblin Turner announced in the legislature.

Mr. Turner, acting minister of public utilities, said 27,000 farms have been provided with power through the commission. During the next two fiscal years, the commission plans extensions to include 10,000 farms in new areas and to 5,000 farms in areas now served.

Rural electrification during the present fiscal year has included 24 villages, bringing to 119 the total of cities, towns and villages served by the commission.

Mr. Turner said Saskatchewan has only 8,000 electrified farms, Alberta 12,000.

Provincial Act Defines Need for Civil Defence In Peace and War

The vital need for civil defence in peace time as in time of war is created in the preamble to the provincial government's act providing for the organization and administration of civil defence and disaster within the Province of Alberta'. The act was assented on April 7th, 1951.

The preamble states 'Whereas due to the existing and increasing possibility of the occurrence of disasters or emergencies from enemy attack, sabotage, or other hostile action or by fire, flood or other natural disasters and in order to ensure that the Province of Alberta will be in a position to deal with such disasters or emergencies and for the protection of the public peace, health and safety and to preserve the lives and property of the public of the Province it is deemed necessary to establish a civil defence and disaster organization to prepare, administer and carry out plans relating to civil defence and disaster within the Province of Alberta.'

Annual Meeting Of Teachers Association April 14th to 16th

Annual general meeting of the ... Teachers' Association will be held in Calgary April 14-16 annual ... ... announces Eric C. Ansley, A. T. A. general secretary-treasurer.

More than 600 delegates from all parts of the province are expected to attend.

The three day meeting will be conducted under the general chairmanship of Miss Marian Gimby of Edmonton, A.T.A. president.

Several major problems that have confronted the A.T.A. executive during the past year are expected to highlight the agenda, Mr. Ansley stated.

The question of higher salaries, which resulted in the calling of an emergency meeting of teacher counsellors in December, is expected to consume considerable time. Several of the 73 resolutions to be placed before the delegates will deal with salaries. One of these is a proposal to set up a special fund to pay teachers on strike.

Increased contributions to the teachers' retirement fund and more teacher participation in the active planning for curriculum revision are two other items expected to receive special attention.

D. M. Sullivan, registrar for the department of education, will be the guest speaker at the annual banquet on the evening of April 15.

H. D. Ainley, former mayor of Edmonton and ex-teacher, will be in attendance to receive an honorary life membership in the A.T.A. The late Dr. H. C. Newland will receive the membership posthumously.

Annual elections will be held on the final day. The presidency and vice-presidency as well as four of the eight district representative seats will not be contested.

History of b... Jerome

Foot and mouth disease, a virus named Aphpha Epitsoatica) a virulent contagious and apparently incurable, malady of animals, has for the first time in history struck in Canada. This disease was first known to the ancients and no doubt ravaged the herds and flocks of old. The Bible, Exodus 9:3 says 'Behold the hand of the Lord is upon the cattle, there shall be a very grievous murrain.' (Murrain is an ancient word for an infectious disease in cattle.)

Virgil, an ancient Roman writer on agriculture, tells us: 'A grievous epidemic fell, every tribe of cattle and wild thing was given to death —the ox groaning out his life while bloody foam falls from out his mouth— medicine men give up the fight—until men learn to bury them (the cattle) in pits and earth them over.

Since the 17th century the foot and mouth disease has ravaged all European countries including Britain. Epidemics have occurred from time to time in Mexico, the U. S., Australia and Asia. The disease begins suddenly and spreads very rapidly. Animals suffer and do not put on weight. The flow of milk greatly decreases. Quick isolation and the slaughtering of animals, the burning of bedding and the disinfection of barns, pens and indeed of the whole farm, has so far been the only remedy.

Three rinks of male curlers and one of lady curlers from Sedgewick visited Vermilion on Sunday and played games here. Skipping the Sedgewick men were Billy Rose, Bert Cumberland and Mickey Baker and the rinks consisted almost entirely of curlers who had won one or more refrigerators at Viking and Vegreville 'frig' bonspiels. The visiting ladies turned in a victory as did Billy Rose and Bert Cumberland playing against Ken Rowe and Bill Sutherland respectively. Mickey Baker took the short end of the score playing E. M. Stewart. A very fine time was enjoyed.

ACTIVITY AT AIR FIELD

Quite a little activity was evident at the airport on Sunday when a student pilot from Associated Airways, Edmonton, was here doing his first cross-country flying. A-two landing' on the packed runway he attempted to take a short cut to the range station but found himself in deep snow and stranded on some partially covered brush and stumps. After securing local help from John Mix and son the young pilot was helped out of his predicament. As he was some four hours overdue on the return flight another aircraft came from the city to see what had happened but found him all set for the return flight.

Our local pilot J. B. Mix also had his plane out on Sunday and flew for an hour or so trying out the aircraft for the spring and summer flying season.

Celebrate 25th Anniversary Of Wedding

Mr. and Mrs. George Caron were at home to relatives and friends on Sunday afternoon and evening on the occasion of their silver wedding anniversary. The reception room was graced with vases of mixed spring flowers and streamers.

Mr. and Mrs. Caron were married on March 24th 1927 in the Cummings district. They have three children, Mrs. Stan Neiner (Jean) of Edmonton, Miss Kathleen nurse-in-training at the Royal Alexandra hospital in Edmonton, and son Kenneth now taking his last year at high school. There is one grandson, David Lee Neiner of Edmonton.

The tea table was laid with an ecru lace cloth, centred with a three-tiered anniversary cake, suitably bedded in white tulle and rose petals, flanked by slender white tapers in silver candelabra and bouquets of white and pink carnations.

Presiding at the coffee urns in the afternoon were Mrs. J. L. Caron, mother of Mr. Caron, and Mrs. H. A. Eyben, mother of Mrs. Caron.

Mr. Stan Neiner proposed the toast, and Mr. Caron responded.

For the occasion Mrs. Caron wore a pale pink dress and her corsage was of deep roses.

The guests were Mrs. Stan Neiner, Miss Kathleen Caron, Miss Janette Martin, Miss Dorothy Eyben and Miss Marlene Bullock. Also assisting were Mr. Kenneth Caron, Mr. Stan Neiner and Mr. Ted Schmidt.

Mr. Kenneth Caron was in charge of the guest book.

Mr. and Mrs. Caron received many lovely gifts and flowers.

Stagette Notes

Fourteen members answered the roll call this week. Did anyone find out what happened in Paris?

With convention less than three weeks away we have decided to hold meetings every week until then to gather up the tag ends. It seems that Lena has things well under control and if all goes as we hope it will we should have a convention that will be worth bragging about just a little.

The general outline of our week end goes something like this — the girls from the other Alberta clubs will arrive Saturday night April 12 and along with our members will take up residence at the college. We have been notified that these girls from Ponoka will attend but are not sure of the numbers from the other three clubs yet. Others being Edmonton, Calgary, Lethebrige and Brooks Provincial.

Sunday we have church parade, business session, banquet, and an evening of entertainment supplied by all clubs. On Monday things wind up after a business session, with the Lloydminster Stagettes saying like too much work when you say it fast but a convention always means lots of planning and organizing and Lena has carried a good deal of the load. That's about it is to be District Governor, kid! She even planned who would take what for lunches. Lena brings the wieners, another cookies, someone else doughnuts, then she hollers at me out of the corner of her eye, shook her head slowly and mumbled something that sounded like "you'll have to do better than that" and I thought I detected a sob. Is that a sore spot. I ain't talking!

Hi Merle, you still have a check on Saturday. Dorothy Oldesberg will help you—unless of course you think I am being strong.

Tuesday, 1st shift, Mary Anne and Cotta: 2nd shift, Barbara and Faye. Keep an eye peeled for the date of our big cotton ball which will be announced in your Standard soon.

Pleasant Valley

News is sad this week, word was received that Rubena Gunn had passed away in Calgary. Sympathy is extended to the family.

It was impossible for the Bishop to reach Pleasant Valley church on Sunday so the usual service will be Saturday night. Some had difficulty reaching home that night from town. Everyone was very disappointed. Mother Nature behaved herself for perhaps we are a little impatient.

Thoughts are turning to gardening. Hoeing and planting is the actual job these days though, and what a job it is. We should organize clean-up bees the writer thinks.

Nearly ended now is winter's reign.

We know by every sign.

Many tired hearts take hope anew

And join in springtime anthems too.

Convert sun dance at Sasswood school on March 28th, sponsored by the Wildwater Boasts. W.I.G.C. Everyone welcome. 27-8

Truck, Bus And Chauffeurs' Licenses March 28th

The Alberta Highway Traffic Board will begin issuing truck, bus and chauffeurs' licenses on March 28th at all distributing points in the province.

Applications for renewal of licenses have been sent to all country points.

Truck licenses are similar in design this year to the passenger car plates but will not be of the "permanent type". They will be issued for one year only and replaced annually.

Dr. Swift To Be Guest Speaker

School of Agriculture Closing April 9th

Closing date for the regular term at the school of agriculture has been set for next Wednesday, April 9th.

The one hundred and sixty young people who have been in attendance during the winter term are preparing to return to their homes where, quite generally, a busy spring work session awaits them. However, in the meantime, they have a schedule of examinations to complete, and are looking forward to the closing exercises with considerable excitement.

The final posting of prizes and scholarships available for competition has now been made. The generous support in this regard rendered by various organizations and business firms has been most encouraging and has aroused keen interest on the part of the students. Winners of awards will be announced Wednesday afternoon.

The graduation ceremonies will open with an invocation by the Rev. Canon Tregay. Dr. W. H. Swift, Deputy Minister of Education will deliver the principal address. A vocal solo by Miss Shiela McCorry accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Harry Batty of Kitscoty will provide a musical treat during the interlude before the presentation of diplomas to members of the graduating class.

The evening program will include a banquet at which a number of toasts will be proposed and replied to by students as well as staff members. The day's festivities will close with a dance in the college gymnasium.

Archbishop Barfoot Visits St. Saviour's

HOLDS CONFIRMATION SERVICE

On Sunday, March 23rd, the Primate of all Canada, the Most Rev. Walter Foster Barfoot, M.A., D.D., visited the Anglican parish of St. Saviour's, Vermilion. The day began with a celebration of the Holy Communion at 8:30 a.m. at which there was a good attendance of parishioners. A number of the V.S.A. students went into the rectory afterwards and had breakfast with the Archbishop. At 11:00 o'clock the Archbishop attended Matins at Christ Church, King Edward, where he preached a sermon of great interest, containing in it did some account of his recent visit to the battlefields in Korea. In the afternoon, unfortunately, the proposed visit to All Saints', Pleasant Valley, had to be cancelled. A High wind on the previous night had blocked many of the roads and made them impassable. At 7:30 p.m. in the parish church the Archbishop confirmed the following persons in the Church of Christ: Ronald Mears, Douglas Hessain, G. R. Stephen, Frances Pockett, Alice Simonsen, Eva Leigh and Patricia Jones. Again in his Grace delivered an address of great interest not merely to the candidates but to everyone present. When the service was over the entire congregation went into the parish hall where tea, sandwiches and cake was served, and the Archbishop enjoyed himself by chatting with everyone.

APRIL IS CANCER CONTROL MONTH

$1,500,000 IS GOAL IN CANCER CRUSADE

The month of April has been named Cancer Control month by the Governor-General of Canada. During April the Canadian Cancer Society conducts its Crusade which this year has a goal of $1,500,000: Alberta's portion being $175,000.

The Society is the only voluntary, national agency in Cancer Control with the money used in the public Education and Services to patients. Its purpose is to save some 2 million Canadians now alive who will die of cancer if present death rates continue.

Since the research program began in 1947 the Canadian Cancer Society has awarded more than $2,000,000 to scientists and institutions conducting the world's most exciting medical investigations. All the modern means of communication will be used in the public fight the cancer is curable when detected early.

A professional education program keeps doctors up-to-date on newest detection and treatment techniques. The public is encouraged to take the finest service to the alerted public. Volunteers are drawn from the humanitarian services to aid and comfort those with cancer.

The Cancer Crusade raises the funds needed to keep these programs rolling.

Ken Swanson, Big And Rough, Stand-out On Trail Juveniles

Ken Swanson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Swanson, which family left here some two years ago for Trail, is cutting quite a swath as a member of the Juveniles of that town. The team is nearing the finals of the B.C. Juvenile play-downs and recently eliminated the Kimberly team from the play-offs by decisive scores of 9-1 and 6-0. The Nelson B.C. Daily News in describing the game states:

"Trail's big Ken Swanson, by far the most colorful player on the ice both games, proved very unpopular with rabid Kimberly fans, but was nevertheless the outstanding defenceman in the Silver City crew. The Trail crew, one of the biggest juvenile clubs ever to appear on Kimberly ice should have a good chance of taking the B.C. crown."

A hockey fan in Trail by the name of George Pasqualotto who sent the Standard the clipping containing the story of the series, also adds that Ken has the makings of an outstanding hockey player. He notes too that Vermilion must be a good training ground for young hockeyists as Ken's brother Doug does very good work on the midget team.

Banded Duck Reveals Interesting Data On Wild Life

The band taken from the leg of a Mallard duck shot in the Earlis district south-east of Vermilion, has elicited some very interesting data from the Colorado Department of Fish and Game. The duck was brought down by Mr. John Crewe on Sept. 25th. He sent in the band some time later and considerable time elapsed before he received a reply which stated that the duck was banded near Greeley, County, Colorado, on Feb. 23, 1950. They also informed him that ducks banded in Colorado had been shot in such far-off places as Argentina, Siberia, Greenland, Iceland, French Congo, Islands in New Zealand in the southwestern Pacific. Some trace of the age to which the duck attained is also gleaned from these bands as well as migratory and travelling habits of birds. For instance a Black Duck has been known to live for 17 years, a Tern for 22 years, Puffin Martin 14, Chickadee 9 and Chimney Swift 12 years. Over six million birds have been banded and these are added to at the rate of 400,000 to 500,000 per year.

The success of the undertaking depends entirely on the co-operation of the public in the man who brings down the Ruberna Gunn and, in other words. He must send in the band along with information as to the whereabouts of the bird when shot and the time. The bands, by the way, will be issued free on request if requested.

Mr. Crewe was very pleased to receive this wealth of information from the Fish and Game Dept., and glad that he had taken the trouble to send in the band.

Achievement Day At V.S.A. Proves More Popular Than Ever

Favored by perfect spring weather the roads were more passable than usual at this time of the year, the Little Royal and Achievement Day at the Vermilion school of agriculture on Wednesday attracted more visitors than ever before. A check on the numbers visiting the cooking and sewing laboratories totalled 600 early in the afternoon, with many of the male visitors sticking very close to the stock show rings and not venturing near the girls' work display. The school buildings were thronged with people all day long, and the town generally felt the impetus of the annual V.S.A. event. It is possibly conservative estimate to place the numbers coming to the school on Wednesday as between 1100 and 1200.

Owing to the proximity of the event to press time a complete report will appear in next week's Standard.

First Little Royal 25 Years Ago

Judging the livestock was Mr. W. H. T. 'Bill' Mead, Livestock Commissioner for the province of Alberta. It is just 25 years ago that Mr. Mead graduated from the Vermilion school of agriculture and that was the first time that the Little Royal was held, he being one of the exhibitors.

He discussed the study books with the credit values for each. The courses necessary for matriculation and subsequent entry into any faculty of the university, were fully explained too

New Church Hall Dedicated at Mannville

MANNVILLE. — Nash Memorial hall at Mannville was dedicated in a brief ceremony of momentous interest on the evening of March 14th A supper in the hall attended by 170 people, followed the dedication.

Rev. Harold Penney, pastor of McQueen's United church, Mannville, said that the hall, which had been moved to Mannville from the Hoare district and remodelled at a cost of $2500, would be used for church group work and the furthering of community spirit.

The hall is now being used each Sunday for Sunday school classes. Other young people's groups and group projects also look to the newly dedicated hall as head quarters.

The banquet following the dedication was served by the Women's Association of the church.

14-mile Extension To Woodvale Mutual Telephone Lines

(From Woodvale News)

This year the Woodvale Mutual Telephone Co. lines will be greatly extended. Fourteen more miles will be built into the Hindville and Tolland districts to accommodate twelve new subscribers. The double circuit now goes as far as Aldgreen's will go south from there to the Hugh Fleeman farm, and from that point the phones straight south can be connected with circuit 24.

The Woodvale Mutual Telephone Co. will have close to 40 members on circuits 23 and 24. However, with all the work of building the line into Hindville and Tolland to be done by the new subscribers, and the double circuit miles by the old members, it probably will be much later in the year before everyone will be connected.

Fluoridation of Water Supply Is Safe Procedure

Fluoridation of community water supplies to reduce tooth decay among school children is a safe procedure says American Medical Association.

The only difficulty so far revealed is a possible increase in mottling of the tooth enamel, the A.M.A. statement says, adding 'it occurs only in a small percentage of children, and is so slight as to not present a problem from the point of view of the appearance or strength of the teeth. Evidence of toxicity, other than the effect on enamel, has not been reported in communities where water supply has several times the concentration of one p.p.m. fluoride.

Fluoridation has become a common expression, referring to the addition of fluoride to public water supplies where natural fluoride content is too low. The procedure has been adopted by more than 140 cities in Canada and the U.S., Brantford, Ont., being one of the pioneers.

Statistics show fluoride has resulted in a reduction in tooth decay of from 33 to more than 50%.

The Standard is late this week due to the fact that the main cog in the actual production machine, in other words, Vern the plant foreman and master printer, suffered injuries to both legs including a broken ankle bone. Although around again, his actions are necessarily limited and made under considerable handicap with crutches and one foot in a cast.

The accident happened early in the week when over 1000 pounds of plasterboard in a new suite upstairs in the standard building, overbalanced and fell on him.

Mild March Weather This Year

March 1952 will go down as a very mild month with little to remind one that it is looked upon as a month of wind, and snow. A comparison of the records of March for the past seven years has been kindly supplied by the Dept. of Transport weather station here. This gives the maximum, minimum temperatures, and the amount of precipitation.

Alberta Teachers To Seek Policy In Strike Action

A definite policy on strike action by Alberta teachers will be sought by the provincial executive of the Alberta Teachers' Association from the 600 delegates expected to attend the annual general meeting scheduled for Calgary April 14-16, Eric C. Ansley, general secretary-treasurer of the A.T.A. has announced.

Mr. Ansley stated that in the past year salary disputes in many of the school divisions remained unsettled and in many instances awards of arbitration boards were inadequate in light of the increased cost of living.

This situation came to a head in one division where the teachers voted 54 to 1 to reject the award of the board of arbitration. This and other salary matters led to the calling of an emergent meeting of all teacher councillors in Edmonton last December, at which time it was decided that steps should be taken to establish a province-wide policy on strike action, he stated. Several resolutions listed for consideration at the convention will deal with various aspects of the situation.

Meeting will be held in the Palace with registration commencing at 9:00 a.m. Monday, April 11th.

REPORTS OF FIRST TRIPPERS

First report of crows seen in the district came from Joe Betz, some ten miles south of town, and that was followed by numerous other stories of crows being seen. The crows by press time apparently had not worked north as all were noticed south of town judging by the phone calls received by the Standard.

SUPPORT GROWING FOR FLOOR PRICES

During the past week or two, mass meetings of farmers have been held under the auspices of the Farmers' Union of Alberta at a large number of Alberta points. These meetings have been held to discuss the five-cent marketing quota arising from the Interprovincial embargoes, and other farm problems. As a result of these meetings resolutions have been passed urging immediate action by Federal authorities to implement Dave Gardiner's $25.00 on top steers and $25 on fat lambs, basis Alberta points. Also that the Federal government set at once to end the present illegal and unreasonable interprovincial embargoes.

Another resolution passed, calls for the establishment of the floor price of $25.00 on hogs to be made uniform across Canada.

Other points discussed have been the renewal of the International Wheat Agreement and the Domestic price of wheat. On the I.W.A. there is general agreement that if it is to be extended, a much higher floor and ceiling price must be insisted upon with provision for revision from year to year. On the domestic price of wheat in Canada, there is general insistence that this must be completely separated from the export price, and based upon costs of production within Canada.

These demands were pressed on the Federal Government by a delegation from the three Western Farm Unions by a delegation which interviewed Hon. C. D. Howe. Hon. Mr. Gardiner and several other ministers at Ottawa on March 27th.

Stagette Notes

What was that? Could it be? It is! Among the 17 voices that answered the roll call this week the gentle 'present' of Dorothy O. could be detected. Nice to see you again Dot though we quite understand that you are a very busy girl (what does she do anyway?).

Guess what — we don't have to cook for convention after all. The rolling staff must have read the last notes.

We are also indebted to the Vermilion Board of Trade for arranging a tour of our fair town which we hope will be of in-crest to our visiting friends.

Whatcha got behind your back Lil? So after the meeting she passed out the Stagettes. She must think we'd read the jokes and not attend to business — Well!

Oh yes, the date of the big Stagette Cotton ball has been set for May 6th. Watch your calendar for a night of fun.

Cheerioe on Saturday April 5 — Lena and Dot McCormick. P.S. — Gee, they are sheet aren't they?

Four Generations in Pioneer Dewberry Family

Four generations of a pioneer Greenlawn family, now residing at Dewberry, are pictured above. They are, from left to right, little three-year-old Julie Hodgson, who is seated on her grandmother's knee; Mrs. Vic Denzil!; Mrs. Jennie Curtis, the great-grandmother who is 76 years old and has resided in the Greenlawn and Dewberry districts since 1908, is seated in the centre with the third generation as represented by Mrs. Milo Hodgson on the right. All four families reside now in the Dewberry district.

Mrs. Curtis is a real pioneer of the Greenlawn district north of Dewberry, homesteading there away back in 1906 when they came from Wetaskiwin where Mr. Curtis was the owner of a wagon shop. They lived on the farm at Greenlawn for 39 years with their family of eight children, moving into the village of Dewberry in 1945, in 1946 Mr. and Mrs. Curtis celebrated their Golden wedding. In 1948 Mr. Curtis passed away. Mrs. Curtis enjoys good health and keeps busy with her crocheting and knitting.

Clandonald News

Oil Activity Evident

F. U. A. Meeting

Interest in oil drilling is keen around here with commencement of drilling operations on Joe Bardoel's farm three miles west of town. Rumor has it that if the well is a success several more will be drilled in the location shortly. Anyone with a few hundred thousand dollars to spare should take advantage of this opportunity and get in on the Candonald oil boom.

The rink skipped by Wilfred Roberge carried off top honors in the most popular bonspiel of the season and are thus entitled to hold the handsome trophy donated by Mike Lakusza, for the next 12 months. The three other members of the winning rink were Thomas Martin, Garfield Potvin and Eugene Martin.

Clifford and Donny Good were recent Edmonton visitors. They also spent a day in Westaskiwin where Clifford's sister Mrs. Gladys Cymie has her home.

Other Edmonton visitors lately were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brake and Mrs. S. Pilgrim. Mr. and Mrs. Brake paid a short visit to Mrs. Brake's old home at Hay Lakes.

Miss Margaret Romerree who is taking a business course at the McTavish Business College in Edmonton visited with her parents at the family home here for a few days recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Stanley had as their visitors recently their youngest daughter and husband Mr. and Mrs. Ray Le Fabvre. Ivy and Ray as they are best known here are now making their home at Medicine Hat where Ray is an operator for the C.P.R.

Mr. and Mrs. Etherington Sr. are home again following a visit of several months at the coast. Mr. Etherington is very much taken with the climate and living conditions in general out there and hopes to return before long.

Frank Stolinesz is back home again after having spent the most part of the last three months working in a lumber camp. Frank had the misfortune to suffer a foot injury and was a patient in the hospital for several days. He is able to get around fairly well now.

At the annual sale of the effects of the late Harry Crow, Ernie Stanley purchased the house and lot, Alex Ferguson the garage and Johnny Shypka the car.

Quite a large crowd attended the regular meeting of the Farmers' Union held in town last week. After the routine business was disposed of Mr. George Lawrence councillor for this division gave an interesting talk dealing with numerous subjects including roads and finance. Following his talk, another visitor Mrs. Donald Matheson of Edmonton addressed the gathering on affairs pertaining to the Union. Following the meeting a very pleasant social half hour was spent visiting and partaking of the tasty lunch served by the farmers' wives who also like to attend the meetings and listen to the proceedings.

Five Calves in One Day

Archie MacDonald who lives west of town and has a fairly small herd of cattle, had a rather unusual event occur at his farm recently. Calves being born at this time of year is nothing out of the ordinary but when no less than 5 arrive all in one day this calls for special mention. If they are all milk cows which I reckon we imagine Archie will have his hands full for a while.

"Swing My Dearie"

Streamers of blue and white, south-east of Marwayne, at present has no curling rink. However, a number of the residents of the district have decided to do something about it and we will hazard a guess that by next winter they will have a good a rink as can be found anywhere in a small town. Local curling enthusiasts have gotten together under the direction of Mr. John Dasti and are putting on a play entitled 'Cheerio My Dearie'. Not long ago they brought their play to Candonald owing to an unfortunate combination of circumstances not many were on hand to see it. However, they are a bunch of good sports and are going to try again On Thursday, April 24th residents of the district will again have an opportunity to see this fine cast. We would strongly advise all those who enjoy an excellent comedy to be sure and put a pencil to the 24th p.m. in the Orange hall — April 24th Easter Monday the members of St. Mary's Anglican W.A. are sponsoring a semi-formal dance in the Orange hall. Music is coming all the way from Wainwright so this should be a good dance.

Sixteen Years Ago Today

Wildmere Winks

Spring must be really just around the corner as Mrs. J. Wilson saw a crow Saturday morning, on her way to town. The Weiler and family also saw one while on their way home from town the same day and there are two reasons out. Reade are in a muddy condition right now but a few good drying days will soon put them in good shape. If we get an early spring it will be something new and a welcome change.

All his many neighbors and friends wish Mr. A. Frissell of Vermilion a speedy recovery to health and home. He is now a patient in the General hospital in Edmonton.

J. C. Wallington had the misfortune to lose his best milk cow last week.

Mr. Arthur Beckman of Triangle district lost several cattle by drowning in the Battle River near his home. The cattle walked out on the ice and fell in. It's a big loss after feeding them all winter.

Miss Violet Webb who is working at the Islay hospital spent the week end at the Frank Clemens home in Basaweed.

The Wildmere Beavers Girls' club had a very successful concert and dance on Friday evening. Although it was not a very good night a nice crowd turned out. The concert was good, the program being a varied one. The plays "Party Line" and "Eye for Business" were indeed good. Th music for the dance, Jeff and Freddie Martin failed to arrive but Peggy Martin who now works at the Vermilion hospital was there and all played the piano with Albert Smith on the violin. the music was very very good. J. Bathe was M.C. Mrs. Martin, supervisor of the Beavers very heartily thanked everyone who helped make the evening such a success.

Then Mrs. Cliff Cruisers and daughter Jean were Sunday visitors at the Wallington home.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Smith were among the past three months at Vancouver with their mother, are expected back to Wildmere this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Gimer and young son of Willoughby district are accompanying the boys back. The Gimers have also been visiting at the coast.

We were pleased to see Mrs. Wm. Funnell looking much better after her seige of serious illness. She is now home again.

The writer had a very pleasant chat with Mrs. Williamson of the Cheyenne district, also with Mrs. Sherwood of Bowtell, Mrs. Cummings from north of town and brother Laurence who works for George Taylor north of town.

Funniest thing heard — Little Georgie Garnett asked when Santa Claus was coming after the concert on Friday night.

Mrs. David Dibben had her brother visit her for a few hours over the week end. He is a clergyman and was holding a service in Vermilion Saturday evening.

Saturday morning while returning home from the dance Mrs. J. Wilson saw the grandest meteor streak across the sky. She said it was as large as a good sized pail with a tail of several colors. It lit up the whole countryside as though it were a sun. She thought someone was out on the field as if the moon had been there rather neglected our writing duties. And now we cannot catch up with the news because the phone is over again out of order after the short break windstorm Friday evening. The next morning we found the new snow, whipped into snowballs, laying all over the field as if the elements had been fighting. The young boys after a fresh snowfall. With water puddles and mud all over, farmers begin to wonder if we once again will have spring soon and be on the land in April. It is very much hoped because a lot of harvesting has to be done in places yet. Gophers and Richards have been seen and the green grass of the lawn is showing, but on the fields the snow is still deep.

Dad Heidebrecht brought a dorm friend Don Hannah of Hillmond, Sask., home for the week end while we were away and they enjoyed the dance at Woodvale, batching with Florent, and a cup of coffee at midnight but there was not enough moonlight to see properly.

Besides the dance there was a card party at Woodvale school on Monday, March 24th sponsored by the Girls' club with enough participants for five tables. Clarence Crocker and Ann Ratell were first prize winners and Mrs. Dave Sarsons and Gordon Dixon got second. Monday this week another card party was held there.

Greenlawn Grapevine

(This bulletin was received just too late for last week's issue. Our eyes should make allowance for the elapse of time.)

An outbreak of spring fever is expected in the near future, what with the lovely weather at time of writing. Everyone seems to be talking spring cleaning, seed cleaning and how many chicks they are getting. Have heard quite a few comments on the seed buster available at the Wheat Pool elevators—seems a quick and easy way of testing for germination.

At the same time, most of the organizations in Greenlawn are making the most of the last few weeks before spring work.

The Greenlawn Electrification Association held their annual meeting the other day and the election of officers. New members of the board are John Parr, Mr. Brandkin and Mr. Lembke with Harold Mathison re-elected to the board. There was good cross for those of the power line—a nice refund on the cost of installation.

The Board, at their meeting following the general meeting re-elected Donnie Braithwaite as secretary with Benny Timmerson filling the post of vice-president and Graham Shirley acting as auditor.

The Goodwill club held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Harry Mathison. The North Home Ladies club were guests for the occasion and all enjoyed the demonstration of nylon by Mrs. Noonan of Vermilion. Oh yes, the blanket shipment arrived and the club will raffle two. If you haven't your books the secretary will give you particulars.

The hall association sponsored another dance which was, as usual, well attended, and the banner held that evening netted a nice sum for the hall fund. Mr. Tomkins had donated a violin to be raffled—a fine instrument of his own making, incidentally. Verdi Sweet held the lucky ticket. Jo Grey brought a cake for a guessing contest. It was won by T. Barnett, the guitar-player in Hanna's orchestra. There was a fish pond for the kids—and all in all it was a very successful affair. Which reminds us to mention that if you enjoy old time dances as well as the new, Greenlawn hall is the spot to come to. We enjoyed watching before we do. As well as the old-fashioned waltz, and the schottische (the younger dancers are doing a cute version of that) there was the French minuet, and the three step. There'll be at least one more dance this season, Friday April 4th roads permitting, of course. Also required Donnie Braithwaite's auctioneering for the banner—the committee says thanks.

Speaking of dances we made an error in reporting the masquerade. Prizes for the children's costumes were won by Donna and Sonny Mathison, and by Patsy and Fay Haskill. Sorry, kids.

The Junior F.U.A. had lots of fun at their toboggan party by all reports. The weather was a little chilly but they went back to Donald Mathison's for their weiner roast.

Mr. Gillette is holding church services in the hall every Sunday now, which will be good news for his congregation. Services have been held under different circumstances all winter and everyone will appreciate being back to a weekly schedule.

Mrs. Joe Ryan is back from the Old Country and her visit to New York. She had a wonderful trip, but it's nice to be home she says.

We were sorry to miss the plays put on by the Dewberry Drama club at the hall. We did hear many reports of how fine they were. The proceeds were to be tagged for new sports equipment for the school and Sunday-school.

All for this time folks.

CHEAPER THAN WAR

The New York World-Telegram remarks: "As an all-over consideration of what we are spending on the European Recovery Program, let's keep these figures in mind. The Second World war cost us $180,000,000 a day. The European Recovery Program has cost us $13,700,000 a day. Neither sum is hay. But there is quite a difference between 180 and 13.7. Granted that the latter figure is not complete insurance against war: that it is a gamble: that it may lose—it still looks like a good gamble."

William Lyle Webb Laid To Rest

First United church Vermilion was filled to capacity last Friday afternoon at the funeral service for the late William Lyle Webb who was killed in a highway accident at Montpelier, March 17th at the age of 36 years.

Lyle leaves to mourn his loss his loving parents Mr. and Mrs. George C. Webb; his brothers, Lawrence, John, George and Donald of Vermilion; one sister Mrs. Martin Mix of Edmonton. Kitscoty High School Notes

K. H. S. students will soon be proudly wearing new blue and white school sweaters. This day has long been anxiously awaited and it is delightful to know that it is now just around the corner — in time for spring sports, too!

In the gym on Wednesday night, the new cadets were again put through their paces.

The Guidance club visited the school on Wednesday.

There was a good turn out of high school students to see 'Cheerio, My Dearie', the Streamstown Young People's play, on Tuesday night.

On Friday afternoon pupils could be seen jumping wildly over and through puddles on their way to the hall to see a Civil Defence show. This was very entertaining as well as instructive.

Grade XII students began to shiver in their boots last week when they filled out their applications for the departmental exams. They say it seems to bring their doom so much closer!

Shortage Of Nurses

FOR SOME TIME THE SHORTAGE of nurses in Canada has caused some concern. As in other fields, the needs of the people have increased considerably in recent years. Higher incomes, a larger population, and the growth of health insurance plans have all helped to increase the demands of the public upon hospitals and health services and have added to the need for trained nurses. Dr. Charlotte Whitton, an outstanding Canadian authority on social problems and now mayor of the city of Ottawa a short time ago made a study of the nursing situation in Canada and reported upon her findings in a series of very interesting articles.

* * * * *

Supply Falls Short Of Need

It has frequently been observed that the building of new hospitals and the bidding of extensions to older buildings will all require additional trained staff to administer to the increased number of patients. Dr. Whitton reported that in the end of 1952 hospital accommodation in Canada would be extended by 29,000 beds and that 4,000 nurses would be required for these additional beds. Added to the shortage of nurses which already existed this meant, Dr. Whitton predicted that by the end of this year Canada would need from nine to ten thousand additional nurses to meet all requirements. At the present time, the net rate of increase in the number of nurses in Canada each year is 800.

* * * * *

Not Likely To Be Quickly Met

A number of ways have been suggested to meet this problem. An obvious one is to encourage more young women to enter the nursing profession, through making the great need known through making the profession more attractive to them and by providing additional funds for training purposes. However, even if a much greater number of nurses are trained, it would appear that the growing need is not likely to be quickly met. It has been suggested that more attention be given to training certified practical nurses who could assist trained nurses and care for those not requiring the services of a trained nurse. The establishment of more convalescent homes for the care of patients not requiring full hospital facilities has also been suggested as a means of relieving the present pressure on hospital nursing services. The need for nurses is owing for in all parts of Canada today and it is a problem which requires serious consideration.

CALIFORNIANS HAVE TO BE PREPARED FOR WEATHER.—There has been some freak weather in Canada and the U.S. in the past few months but the place where it has been freakiest is sunny California. This photo shows Los Angeles where many streets are covered with a foot or two of water which flooded thousands of square miles following one of the worst rain and flood conditions on record. A fashion hound, to be sure it kept abreast of the weather, dressed a model as shown. The idea is she is dressed for any change the weather man may order. She has a bathing suit and suits, roller skates and ice skates, skis and snowsuits. And, of course, a parka.—Central Press Canadian Photos.

Transferable Vote To Be Used In B.C.

VICTORIA, B.C. – British Columbians will use the single transferable voting system in the forthcoming provincial election.

It allows the voter a choice of several candidates, voting in order of preference, instead of just one choice as has been under the old system.

The Cabinet proclaimed the new system by order-in-council, making it effective legislation adopted at the 1951 session of the Legislature.

Danger Of Soil Erosion By Wind Greatest In Spring

Danger of soil erosion by wind is greatest in early spring due to freezing and thawing which breaks most cultivations into very fine grain sizes, says J. F. Doughty, soil research laboratory, Swift Current experimental farm.

But may begin drifting as soon as a thin surface layer is dry, even though the underlying soil is quite moist or even frozen, he said in a statement. Research in laboratory and field has shown that anything which away from home "Boy proceed to rolling pin and knock the stuffings out of your husband if he comes home with beer on his breath," the judge advised.

Extreme cold at high altitudes is due to the fact the air is too thin to absorb the sun's heat.

The Lumber Merchant Is A Versatile Man In His Business

Railway cars are rolling today from the Pacific coast and northern prairies laden with spruce and fir boards, shingles and plywood for lumber yards in towns and villages across western Canada. Lumber merchants are steadily unloading cars of merchandise in preparation for an unusually building season that starts with spring and eases off only in October.

Seventy years ago their earliest predecessors in the west were just beginning to set up yards where pioneer settlements were forming along the new Canadian Pacific railway line.

The modern lumber yard is a far cry from those pioneer yards which consisted almost entirely of straight piles of lumber presided over by a lanky-four corner lot sheds housing a yard office.

The lumber merchant of today carries not only lumber but plaster board, cement, asphalt roofing and siding, glass insulation and a good many manufactured materials once called "substitutes" but now permanently accepted along with lumber as sound construction materials.

In his wider and more diversified field, he requires a professional knowledge of how building products of which the pioneer merchant never dreamed.

At the turn of the century, the lumber merchant confined himself almost solely to the sale of lumber in varying sizes and thicknesses together with shingles, lath, building paper, sash and doors. That was about the limit of his service and he gave little or no advice on how to use the materials he sold.

Today's merchant is not only a lumber salesman but an expert on building problems, consulting often an architect, financial adviser on the application of such useful measures to homebuilders as the National Housing Act, Farm Improvement Loans Act and Veterans Land Act. Often he is the local fuel dealer because sometimes he runs a complete hardware store and takes building contracts for corner-lot shacks and becomes a combination of private office, showroom, sales counter, and warehouse. The lumber yard sometimes not only stocks of cedar, shingles and lath, but piles of bricks, tile and fencing. A fenced steel house covered, sometimes there is a larger fenced storage shed protecting flooring and insulation, lumber, mouldings, pipe for farm water and plumbing rolls of roofing, insulation and a large variety of building papers from sun and rain.

Take the daily round of a fairly typical merchant in a small village of 500 in the prairie town. He is one of nearly 1,000 members of the Western Retail Lumbermen's Association whose yards extend from the head of the Great Lakes to the interior of British Columbia.

He has a lot on his mind these days. He says it is something like holiday to D-Day in spring buying. He has just started and he is still unloading new stock.

Monday morning is one of his busiest days. There are some Monday-night customers, the local carpenters, he says, are waiting out-side for the doors to open at eight o'clock.

The first day in March, his shop window carried a big display of color charts, paint, varnish and brushes. He had been running a paint ad for the past two weeks and the rush was still on.

Inside a man stood at the counter. He wanted shingles. Baby carriages were coming on the market and there were broods of broilers to build for. A pair throughout the district.

That day he was busy only lumber but aluminum sheeting and tools to a carpenter.

Re explained "this stainless plastic stuff you put on with a spreader" to a farmer's wife, showed her samples and gave her a book to study. To her husband he sold a 60-foot piece of rope and a chisel.

"You haven't got a little saw where you can rip something, have you?" the farmer asked. He was building a cabin on the back of his truck. "Sure we could rip it." Outside in his shed there was a five horsepower motor-driven saw for ripping and trimming lumber.

He then sold plaster of paris to a girl making Phillips 66 signboards, a tin of varnish, paint and sandpaper to a school board member, two wedges to two bugh-workers, a tractor fuel funnel, sheets of plywood, a saw, an axe handle to a young farmer, a tool file to a truck driver.

From February to late, he had been busy helping with house plans in his office and answering over a cup of coffee in the kitchen of a prospective customer. People thinking of renovating or building had started coming in. Many of their estimates would be in full force from June on, but he already had new stock on hand.

"Hello, for instance," he said. "We have to have plenty for the next six months at least." Under the counter were big nail bins holding a hundred pounds each. In the shed were bags of nails of all kinds from half-inch finishing nails to 13-inch spikes.

In his front room, the village hall, he had helped with plans and mail materials for a number of major buildings. There was a small asbestos shingle school house with classroom, library and teacher's room. The school board hired the carpenter; the lumber merchant supplied material and plans; the ratepayers gave labor to be applied against their taxes. There was also the village's one theatre, a miles garage, departmental store, the bank building, village and farm houses and barns, and summer cottages along the nearby river.

Quite apart from the building business is another service he gives the community from late March to mid-May. Like many lumber merchants he carries insecticides and during that time features "the seed-treating line"—chemicals to get at plant diseases in seed grain before spring planting.

He is also a handyman, this fellow with the paint brush in his ear. "If a man wants a trunkload of cement or a few sacks of concrete, we help him out." He also makes deliveries himself.

In addition to all this, he is vice-president of the curling club, a church trustee, treasurer-secretary-treasurer of the district board of trade, member of the village executive on Wolf Cubs and active at the community centre.

Like his 999 colleagues he is an integral part of any urban or rural community. He is the man who has the answers to the whole building from why a floor squeaks or how to build a bird house to grasses and strains and how to test and the tensile strength of larch diagonals.

(This is the first article in a series of five on the services of the retail lumber merchant to western Canadian communities.)

Alberta Attacking Rat Invasion

EDMONTON —Another successful attack in the Alberta campaign to stem the invasion of Norway rats from Saskatchewan was reported.

W. A. Lobay, Alberta supervisor of crop improvement, said poisoned bait has killed 3,000 rats on a farm near Acadia valley in southeastern Alberta-Saskatchewan boundary. At nearby Schuld 64 rats were killed.

News Notes From Your District Home Economist

Bobby Tubs

Last month I had the pleasure of helping judge at the Sangudo Hobby Fair, and at the Mayerthorpe Hobby Fair. It was wonderful to walk into the hall at Marwayne to find the 300 exhibits neatly arranged in special counters all around the wall. The variety and excellence of hand work there would be heard to beat, and though it made judging very difficult, it made thrilling to see.

Marwayne is the first town in my district to have a Hobby Fair. The idea of such a fair is to give other people an idea of all the hobbies there are, and to encourage them to plan for your particular hobby, one is made. Of course success of the fair depends on the co-operation of all the people in the district—and the Marwayne people can be proud of themselves for the prizes are given, and there is no entry fee, but diplomas and rosettes are given commendation are given.

The Marwayne Hobby Fair was such a success that I think it will become an annual event. I hope so!

To Clean Wallpaper

You can clean wallpaper, if it's washable, by using very little baking soda in warm water and mild soap. Work from the bottom up. Wallpaper that is not waterproof can sometimes be cleaned with special compositions which is kneaded like dough. Wipe this across the paper, folding it over each time, as the surface takes up the dirt. Remove the bits that have stuck to the surface, with a clean dry cloth. If you would like the recipe for this dough mixture write in for it, won't you? Or you can buy a similar product in the stores.

Red Cross Buns

Ar your children chanting this yet?—

One a penny,
Two a penny, Hot Cross Buns.
If your daughters do not like buns

Give them to your sons

But your daughters will like them if you make them spicy and full of raisins. Serve them hot with butter on Good Friday morning. Umm, I can almost taste them.

Coloring Easter Eggs

Coloring Easter eggs can be so much fun for your children. Cover everything in sight (well at least the table and the floor) with newspaper first. Use white eggs for clearer colors, and remember to cool hard cooked eggs at once, in cold water. They'll be easier to handle and the yolk won't turn greenish. Before dying the eggs you can draw faces or names with a wax crayon, so those designs will be white. A teaspoon of olive oil in the dye (after you've dyed the plain eggs) gives a marbleized effect. Then with bits of colored paper, paints, cotton wool and so on the children can make anything they like from the eggs — a rabbit, a cowboy, one that looks like Mom! Make sturdy collars for the eggs to sit on. Ideas will come to you and your youngsters, and you'll all have fun.

Do You Remember?

For next week see if you've remembered how many teaspoonfuls are in a tablespoon.

Work and Live Long

It appears from insurance statistics that there is no hard on the worker as the 36-hour week advocates would have us believe. For instance, the life expectancy of the industrial population of the U.S., which can't vary much from what we have reason to expect in Canada, is increasing with every year. The worker has twenty years more of life today than he had a right to expect in 1912. Quite obviously, whatever else we are doing, we are not working ourselves to death.

Work and Live Long

It appears from insurance statistics that there is no hard on the worker as the 36-hour week advocates would have us believe. For instance, the life expectancy of the industrial population of the U.S., which can't vary much from what we have reason to expect in Canada, is increasing with every year. The worker has twenty years more of life today than he had a right to expect in 1912. Quite obviously, whatever else we are doing, we are not working ourselves to death.

"There is a wife who misses you sadly,

And fills the time long since you went;

And thinks of you daily and hourly,

But tries to be brave and content.

And I breathe a sigh of regret,

Wisdom for Today

By Joseph Lister Rutledge

A British newspaper records the fact that there were 2900 new statutory rules and orders affecting the lives of citizens issued by various government departments last year. One would not hazard a guess as to how many there were in Canada, but there is evidence that there were more than plenty. They all were to set new bounds to our diminishing liberties.

It would be well, therefore, in every phase of our present life to reexercise the wise words of President Wilson and to strive to live by them. "The history of liberty is the history of the limitation of government power—not the increase of it."

ISLAY NEWS

Time to give to the Red Cross is now! Mr. David Clarke is the campaign manager for the Islay area. As it is a bit difficult to ranch still, would you be kind enough to send your contribution to the school by the children in your home? A receip will be forwarded which comes in handy at income tax time. Some of one dollar and over will warrant a receipt. Other canvassers will be about too. Don't wait to be asked—give first. That is what makes the canvassers!

It is hoped drying weather continues so that roads will soon be good again. We in Islay are looking forward to the Kinsmen players evening here April 8th with things of Yesteryear. They have visited several points and it is high praise that comes from them all.

The W.A. tea and apron sale will be held April 26th in the hall. We are having a table of home baking too.

Mr Anderson is home again after being in the University hospital having an eye treated.

Mr and Mrs. Jim Allan are home after spending the winter in Winnipeg.

There was a good turn out Friday night to see the pictures and hear a talk given by Mr Martin of Vermilion on home defence. We thought a bit of the atom bomb that fell at Hiroshima had landed at Islay when the awful wind hit and the snow came swirling down as we came out of the hall.

April is the month for us to send a food parcel to the German pastor, as we have been doing the past year. If you wish to give money that is quite acceptable. The committee will buy for you and postage is all way needed. Anyone is welcome to help.

CLOSING EXERCISES PROVE BRILLIANT FUNCTION

76 Graduate From The Vermilion School of Agriculture

DR. W. R. SWET GUEST SPEAKER

The closing exercises at the Vermilion school of agriculture held Wednesday afternoon and evening, proved to be a brilliant function. Favored with perfect weather the exercises attracted more parents, relatives and alumni members than ever before, all combining with the very fine program arranged to make the 1932 closing of the school more memorable perhaps than any in history.

Seventy - six students received graduating diplomas. The number being comprised of 19 girls and 57 boys. Of the graduates in Home Economics eight were second year students and eleven members of the 3-in-1 class. The boys numbered 38 second year and 19 two-in-one students.

The graduating ceremonies in the afternoon were opened by Invocation by Canon T. W. Teape, rector of St. Saviour's Anglican church. Dr. W. H. Swift, deputy minister of education for the province of Alberta, was the guest speaker, while Mr. R. M. Fulgram, deputy minister of agriculture brought greetings from that department.

A pleasing feature was a vocal solo rendered by Miss Sheila McCurry of Kitscoty accompanied by Mrs. Elsie Batty on the piano.

Announcement was then made of the winners of scholarships and prizes and the diplomas presented to the graduates.

Graduating Banquet

At 6:30 the graduating banquet was held attended by members of the graduating class, staff and their guests. The program was completed of several toasts. Following the toast to the Queen proposed by Principal N. N. Bentley, Ross Gould of the graduating class proposed the toast to the School. The reply was given by Mr. S. W. Peterson, a member of the staff. The Graduating Class' was given by Mr. E. R. McCrimmon of the staff and replied to by Miss Lillian Cole.

A dance in the evening was the final feature of the closing exercises.

Hockey Club Banquet Winds Up Most Successful Season

SCOTTY BINES DONATES STEAKS

The Vermilion Tigers Hockey club ended activities for the season with a banquet at the Legion hall last Tuesday night. Ex. M.L.A. Cecil Hines very generously donated steaks for the banquet and the meal was cooked and served by the Ladies Auxiliary of the Legion. The club is very grateful for his delicious donation.

League trophy winners Roger Laplante and Wally Lashman were given their cups by Jack Brown, president of the league. The Craig trophy for the most effective player on the Vermilion team was presented by Mr. A. M. West to Leo Williams.

Coach Elmer Kreller came in for a large share of praise and expressed his desire to return again next season.

Craig Hockey Trophy Now 30 Years Old

Considerable hockey lore is being built up around the Craig Cup, emblematic of the championship of north-eastern Alberta. The cup was first presented 30 years ago by Craig Bros. in an effort to stimulate hockey interest and activity. It has been competed for yearly ever since that time. If leagues did not always operate, teams would challenge just the same.

It was first offered for competition in 1922 and the first winners were the famous old Vermilion Farmers' team, composed of Jack Hollands of Islay in goal, Bill Barr and Murray McKinnon, both Dominion men on defence, Clarence Barr, George Readshaw, Frank Pilkie, Spence Pidcock and Bert Searle, forwards. Bert Searle was the captain.

On Friday, April 4th, Mr Paul Carter, Field Commissioner for the Alberta Boy Scouts Association, visited with the local Scouts and Cubs. Two meetings were held the first a joint meeting of the two Cub packs. This was followed by a meeting with the Scouts. During both meetings Mr Kreuger in charge of the Cubs and Mr. Carter and spoke with them regarding Cubbing and Scouting. His message was of interest to all boys, whether Cubs or Scouts, bringing greetings from Provincial headquarters, outlining some of the coming activities to be carried out in Alberta and across Canada.

At the present time there are openings in the troop for two or three new Scouts. Any boy interested in joining the Scouts should contact any member of the troop at present and join up. A boy must be 12 years of age but need not have been a member of the Cubs before joining.

Additional $1500.00 Is Needed

More Shares Sold For Seed Cleaning Plant

The canvassers who are selling shares for the Vermilion Seed Cleaning plant reported at a meeting held on Saturday that another $1500 in shares had been sold. This means that the association only needs $1500 to complete the objective of $10,000 in share capital as required to obtain provincial and municipal grants.

It was decided at the meeting to go ahead with the project and to build a plant this coming summer. An organization meeting has been called for 2:00 p.m. Tuesday April 15th at the Legion hall. All shareholders and others interested in seed cleaning are urged to be there. A provisional board of directors will be elected at the meeting.

The committee in charge asks for all canvassers to complete the job before the Tuesday meeting. If anyone has not been contacted for buying shares, he should see Cliff McCornack or E. H. Buckingham.

It is of interest to note that the Marwayne Seed plant had cleaned nearly 90,000 bushels of seed since Jan. 15th. Some of this seed was treated for smut control at the same time. The charge for cleaning was 6c per bushel but the actual cost was only 4c per bushel. This means that the Marwayne plant has an operating surplus of over $1500 in 2 months operation.

He was a part time employee of the town waterworks department having when extra hands were needed this Thursday April 10th at 10:00 a.m. from the Canadian Legion hall to the interment will be at the Soldiers' Plot in the Vermilion cemetery. The Rev. Father Charlow, and Archdeacon Jarman. The Canadian Legion Post 11 . made arrangements with Moyer's Funeral Home in charge.

Anglican Church Roof Comes Down

TOWERING PEAK LOSES A LANDMARK

A landmark in Vermilion since 1908, the towering roof on St. Saviour's church was torn down this week preparatory to the rebuilding of the edifice. The work is being done by contractor Bill Verigiven. The sharply pitched roof towered 47 feet into the air but the floor space of the building which it covered was only 30 by 40 feet. Inside the church was 28 feet from floor to ceiling.

When completed the ground floor of the church will be much lower and will conform with those of the new parish hall.

The building of St. Saviour's church was commenced in October, 1908, completed in 1907 with the first service held in it on Nov. 17, 1907. The church was officially opened on July 18th, 1908.

Stan Manyluk Is Elected President of V.A.A.A.

JACK BROWN 2ND VICE-PRESIDENT; FRED STEWART SECRETARY-TREASURER

Stan Manyluk was the unanimous choice for president at the annual meeting of the Vermilion Amateur Athletic Association held in the hall on Wednesday evening. Stan succeeds Bill Sutherland in the office for two years. Jack Brown is the new vice-president while Fred Stewart takes over the duties of secretary treasurer from Frank Hume in charge.

The newly elected executive is comprised of Bill Sutherland, Jim Brick, Ernie Krusky, Walter Pihlak, Stan Heckbert, Reg Mitchell and Russell Carroll.

The retiring president Bill Sutherland in his annual report covered the activities of the association for the past year. This included holding the annual May 24th sports day at which no less than 26 baseball teams competed in the various classes. Over $500 was paid out in prize money.

The high school track meet was revived after a lapse of several years or more and was held in September with a total of $137.30 being spent to popularize this event again.

The new hockey has received a good deal of attention as part of the V.A.A.A. spent $182.36 on equipment for these young lads.

Grants to help other sports carry on amounted to $136.90, being $50 to Vermilion Tigers hockey club, $30 for sending two coaches to the basketball school at Red Deer and $6.90 was to the V.I.S. for general social and dance.

The annual rural hockey tourney was held and attracted 11 teams. Prize money totalling $130 was paid out.

Big Business

The financial statement indicated that the Vermilion A.A.A. had entered the realms of big business. They had handled during the year some $2320 including a forwarded bank balance of $946 with which to commence the year. Expenses had been heavy amounting to $2761, leaving a balance reduced to $536.32 at the end of the Association's year on March 31st, 1952.

In the period devoted to new business the building of a new wire fence on certain sides of the athletic park was decided, along with the banning of teams along the north and west side in conjunction with the Agricultural Society. The association also agreed to help other sports grounds in connection with the new park in the Vermilion River valley.

It was decided also to hold a bean feed for the players of the Pee-Wee and midget hockey teams on April 30th as a grand wind up to the hockey season. A film on hockey was on the agenda on this occa sion, but speed and juvenile hockey aspects for next winter came in for considerable discussion. Pee-Wees are well looked after, Midgets were well taken care of through the high school this past winter, while there was no juvenile hockey due chiefly to lack of sufficient number of players. It was generally agreed that the V.A.A.A. attempt to see it at all classes of boys hockey be organized and looked after by some club or association.

Mr. Smeltzer stated that the Midgets had a very good year but felt that while the school would provide coaching and administration for this class of hockey, some other clubs should assume the responsibility of financing.

The retiring president, secretary and executive received a warm vote of thanks for their efforts during the past year.

Mr. Walker then showed a film of the 1951 Grey Cup game at Toronto between the Regina and Ottawa Roughriders. It was a very good picture depicting all the touchdowns and highlights of the game very clearly, as well as the famous parade through the crowded Toronto streets which preceded the game.

He Is Risen

In the end of the Sabbath, as it began to dawn toward the first day of the week, came Mary Magdalene and the other Mary to see the sepulchre.

And behold, there was a great earthquake: for the angel of the Lord descended from heaven, and came and rolled back the stone from the door, and sat upon it. His countenance was like lightning, and his raiment white as snow: and for fear of him the keepers did shake, and became as dead men.

And the angel answered, and said unto the women, "Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified. He is not here: for He is risen, as He said. Come, and see the place where the Lord lay. And go quickly, and tell His disciples that He has risen from the dead."

The story of the Resurrection of Christ as told in St. Matthew's Gospel is the basis for the Christian celebration of Easter—the most joyful festival of the church. It is, indeed, the basis of Christian faith.

The world today needs the promise of new life given to mankind on that first Easter morn. In this hour of threatening world war, this hour of broken dreams of world peace, this hour of misery and fear throughout so much of the world, the hope that Easter brings of a better world not only in the hereafter but on this earth gives the free men of the world courage to carry on.

Through the ages Easter and springtime have become closely associated in the minds of people everywhere. The annual miracle of the renewal of life in nature in the spring and the story of the Resurrection both bring hope to man that ultimately good will conquer evil. The message of Easter is a triumphant one.

People of Vermilion, like those of thousands of communities all over be Christian world, will gather Sunday in their churches to worship the Risen Christ, to pray for peace, to seek the inspiration of the beautiful music of Easter and the comfort and challenge of the Easter message. The churches here should be too small to accommodate all those who wish to take part in the Easter services.

Clandonald News

It begins to look like old times again with the return of several faces which have been absent during the past few months. Jake Roe is back after spending the past 3 months at a job near Edmonton. When seen late Saturday night he was headed for home with a big chair. His daughter-in-law Mrs. Norman Roe and two children are visiting here for a few weeks. Our Garrier is back from Yellowknife where he has been employed since last fall and Bobby MacDonald and family are back after having spent most of the winter in a lumber camp out from Edmonton.

Another old timer on a visit here is Jack Forsyth who has been working at Yellowknife for several years. Jack recently underwent an operation and has to take things easy for the next few weeks. He plans later to go to Calgary where his son Tom and family make their home.

Other former residents of the district who are now back for the present at least are Jim, Joseph and Charlie Martin and Charlie's wife. They have been in Prince George for some time past.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cameron are now occupying the former Harry Crowe residence recently purchased by Clyde Stanley.

Don't forget the Easter Monday dance sponsored by the Anglican ladies in the hall by the Murray orchestra from Wainwright. Admission adults 75c and children under 12 years 50 cents.

A reminder also of the appearance of the Streamstown players with their 3-act comedy play 'Cherish Ye My Desire'. Among the leading characters are Muriel Hornick, Vic Morris, Mary Gregson, Alma Nelson, Marian Parker, not forgetting the handsome young darky couple played by Homer Hines and Jim Hornick. The director is John David well known around these parts when he taught school in the district some few years ago. Curtain rises at 8:30 sharp.

OUR COMPLETE SHORT STORY

The Colour of Love

By ANNA E. WILSON

"I'M AFRAID it's just a little off, Miss Lannie. Must be two years since tangerine red was popular. It was sold out then and didn't restock." She surveyed Lannie's blond curls and earnest grey eyes sadnessly. "You know, Miss Lannie, you do look well in that blue you wore at the tea. It was that new copenhagen and it brought out the colour in your eyes. We have a lovely model—"

Lannie took the small sample Miss Mitford been trying to match and placed it firmly in her purse. "Thanks, Miss Mittie, but blue just won't do."

She went into the drug store which was empty of all except Mrs. Craven. Lannie climbed a high stool behind the soda counter and slipped off her shoes. "An orange drink, Mrs. Craven. Whew, it's hot!"

"Did you get it, Lannie?" Mrs. Craven was soft and motherly. Lannie shook her head. "Thought I'd try Manders in town. They might still have some in stock."

Mrs. Craven shrugged sympathetically. "They might at that, Lannie. It was tangerine you wore at the Bailey party, wasn't it?"

Lannie nodded, sipping her drink. "Tangerine red, Mrs. Craven, with gold."

Mrs. Craven surveyed Lannie critically. "Maybe you put too much store on matching that dress, Lannie. How this new shade of copenhagen—"

Lannie shook a firm head. "Thanks for the drink, Mrs. Craven; but it's got to be tangerine. If I hurry I may get the mail train and Miss Lorraine can start work on it right away. It has to be ready for Friday, you know," she added breathlessly.

Maudee's eyes were sorry. Tangerine red was out. They were all stocked up with copenhagen blue. Wouldn't the young lady—

Lannie wouldn't. It was already Wednesday afternoon when a small drop on a side street unearthed a bolt from a forgotten shelf. Lannie held the sample close. Gave a small gasp. "It is," she breathed joyously.

At the dressmaker's Miss Lorraine said she possibly couldn't get the dress finished by Friday night. She looked ready to drop. Out in the street, there were real tears in Lannie's eyes as she went back to Miss Mittie's and asked to see the model in blue.

It was beautiful. It fitted. It made her eyes the colour of cornflowers and her hair a thing of dreams. Miss Mittie crooned.

Aunt Samaria'd love it but—She'd met Morty Brown at the Bailey's party, didn't like Lannie," probably and she'd looked up into a face as friendly as his voice had been. Lannie had liked, then gasped. "Why, you must be Callie Bailey's brother. Callie said he'd be here tonight."

They sat at a small table and sipped an orange drink. They looked at each other, suddenly shy—each knowing what the other felt.

"It's beautiful," he'd said then, just touching her dress.

"It's tangerine red," she'd confided, pleased that he'd noticed it. "A new shade."

Morty caught in Lannie's throat thinking of Morty and that magic time just before they got engaged. At first, she'd thought he must be an artist, he seemed to love colour so. "What colour would you call that?" he would say, looking at the sunset from the beach.

"Coral pink, and over there it's salmon red and the water—the water's blue-green like tea."

Morty'd chuckle then, "I love to hear you talk about colours, Lannie. The way you use one colour to describe another—it's tangerine red or coral pink or smoky salmon." He became sober for a minute. "Your jungles are full of colour, green and red and gold. I'll take you there some day, Lannie. You'll make it all seem alive and real." It was then she knew that he was an explorer.

Then days later, his arm tight about her shoulder, "Why there would be expeditions can get lost—and then a letter abroad and news in all the papers that he was coming home! The boat would arrive at seven on Friday and he would come straight to her.

They eyed each other shyly across a small table. Morty was hard and brown. "It's pretty," he said smiling as his fingers touched her dress.

"It's copenhagen blue," she said a bit sadly. "I tried to get tangerine red—the that first one—you know."

For a minute he looked uncomfortable, then his kind, humorous eyes smiled down at her as his brown hand covered her own. "Was that the colour it was, Lannie? You say," his voice was a bit apologetic, "a man misses a lot when he's just a bit—colour blind."

LONDON. — Two bags of flower seed, gift of the British Columbia Government, were presented to the London Garden Society for use in brightening London's bombed sites.

The 100 pounds of seed were presented by the B.C. Government in cooperation with the B.C. Seed Growers Association.

The luggage of Dutchmen emigrating to Canada now is being disinfected by order of the Canadian Government in a precautionary measure against the possible spread of foot-and-mouth disease among cattle. Sugar—A world record crop may be harvested this year. More than likely last year's record production will be reached.

Livestock Products — Meat and dairy products will have about the same output as last year.

Fibers & Products—There will be an increase in the catch because of increased clothing capacities of certain countries.

Pulp and Oils—An increase in production is expected.

Fruit—An increase in citrus fruit production is expected and a moderate increase in dried fruit is forecast.

Coffee—An increase in production is forecast. It is thought possible the low point in Brazilian output has been passed and the outlook is improved.

Tea—Expansion of tea area in several areas indicates ample supplies.

Cocoa — Production will increase and may surpass 1940-50 record.

Tobacco—An increase is expected.

Cotton—A considerable production increase is predicted. The world carryover is very low.

Wool — Production will increase slightly, but the total supply is expected to be less than the previous year. This is because governmental stocks which were released in previous years have been exhausted.

Hard Fibers — A significant increase in output of hard fibers is expected

Jute - The crop will be much bigger than any postwar crop if conditions continue favorable, and may even exceed the prewar average.

Forest Products — Sawnwood and wood pulp production is expected to remain about the same as last year.

News Notes From Your District Home Economist

Skim Milk Powder

Skim milk powder is becoming more and more popular for use in the home since it is economical, easy to use, easy to store and is a nutritious food. This fine white powder made from skim milk dissolves easily in water and has much the same flavor as fresh milk.

Skim milk is whole milk from which most of the fat has been removed. Vitamin A is lost with the fat but the calcium, riboflavin, protein and other important nutrients present in whole milk are retained. Skim milk has a lower calorie value than whole milk.

Skim milk powder is skim milk from which practically all of the water has been removed. One 8-oz. cup (1, pound) of the powder dissolved in one quart (five cups) of water has the same food value as one quart of fresh skim milk.

Skim milk powder may be used every way that fresh milk is used. As a general rule it's best to use 4 tablespoons (1-oz.) of skim powder and 1 cup of water in place of one cup of fresh milk.

For extra food value there's an advantage in using more than this amount of skim milk powder. Use it in adding some to such foods as cooked custard, cream sauces, puddings or gravies which aren't usually made with milk.

You can save a dime. Milk but letters by writing to the Consumer Section, Marketing Service, Dept. of Agriculture, Ottawa.

The World of Wheat

By H. G. L. STRANGE
Director, Research Department,
Searle Grain Company, Ltd.

THE NEW LEE WHEAT

There has been an unusual demand from farmers operating in Manitoba and Eastern Saskatchewan for the new variety of wheat named Lee. Lee was developed at the University of Minnesota by the U.S. Dept. of Agriculture, crossing Hope with Thatcher. It has been tested in Canada each year since 1917. Lee is resistant to most races of rust just as is Thatcher, Redman, and Regent, but it is not resistant any more than these older varieties is the new race of stem rust 15-B. Lee is slightly later in maturity than Thatcher, has a medium length of strong straw. It is equal to Thatcher and Marquis in milling and baking value, Lee is a bearded wheat and has been found to be higher yielding than any other variety of wheat in Manitoba and Eastern Saskatchewan, but slightly less in yield than Thatcher and other standard varieties in Western Canada and in Alberta. As is usual with all new varieties, the farmers' tests on large scale fields alone will demonstrate whether Lee will find a worthwhile place and possibly displace other varieties now in use.

V.S.A. Little Royal, Achievement Day Attracts 1,000

The following story was written by Jack Deakin, provincial news editor of the Edmonton Journal, who spent last Wednesday attending the Little Royal and Achievement Day at the Vermilion school of agriculture.

The work of nearly 200 students was on display at the school of agriculture here Wednesday and was inspected by more than 1000 persons who attended the school's annual "little royal" and achievement day.

It was the semi-windup of the school term as students prepared for graduation exercises next Wednesday when scholarships, prize winners and the names of the graduates will be announced.

Visitors to the school Wednesday came from many districts and the main dormitory, the mechanic's building where the little royal was held and other buildings were crowded throughout the afternoon.

Junior Clubs Showed

A feature was the attendance of a number of junior farm clubs. Some of these were headed by former students of the school and by district agriculturists. L. D. Williams, district agriculturist at Sedgewick, is believed to have had the largest group of junior clubbers.

Another prominent group was from Chauvin as a representative of the Wainwright district headed a large contingent. Spruce Grove and Stony Plain also were well represented, the majority of the juniors obviously enjoying the day's outing.

The large crowd watched the boys give a smart display of showmanship in the little royal, the boys showing off prize animals owned by the farm school. All gave commendable performances as they showed their animals off to best advantage.

Former Student is Judge

W. H. T. Mead, livestock commissioner, judged the little royal classes. It was recalled that Mr. Mead himself took part in the school's first little royal, held 23 years ago when he was a student.

Mary Dupruit is relieving at the hospital for a few weeks.

Sylvia, did I hear that you got underneath your sideboard and couldn't get out did I hear right? I think that I was told 'don't say anything'.

Jim Gould received a letter from brother Tom at Victoria Tom said that he got quite a surprise recently as who should he meet on the street in Victoria but Mr. and Mrs. Roy Jory from Vermilion.

Mrs. Giles and Doris are expected back on the farm soon. David says that he is tired of batching! Bread and jam one day, the next day jam and bread -not too good a diet is it!

The writer's chickens will be ready for the frying pan soon so come along down and we will have a good feast.

Laurence Gould is busy these days digging a new well.

Christie Clark is going in for pigs in a big way. The little pigelets are arriving in baker's dozens. Jim Gould had 4 litter of 16 so it looks like a year of a big crop as far as pigs are concerned.

EASTERN CAPITAL TOO CAUTIOUS

Premier Manning of Alberta recently charged eastern capitalists with being too cautious about investing in western resources, especially oil and gas. The Financial Post asked a group of investment people for their opinions

Few respondents endorse Premier Manning's suggestion, though it is generally agreed that Canadian investors are much more conversant with the oil business. easterners have been busy investing in their own mineral development and manufacturing expansion. It's also suggested that in some minds there may be some lingering doubt about the Prairie future in view of failure of the 30's.

A useful tip to the amateur gardener is to choose varieties of vegetables, flowers and shrubs which are recommended for the district. Most flower catalogs give the information

In twelve months the family of one clothes moth can eat [illegible] of wool

The commissioner congratulated all of the young showmen and, at times, found the judging difficult as the animals and their handlers were evenly matched.

For the ladies, and the men too, but especially the ladies, there was a grand display by the home economics classes. The school's sewing classes put on an excellent display with many rows of garments made by the girls from evening gowns to dainty children's wearing apparel.

Other classes in the home economics section showed exceptionally good preparation of food with the perfect table setting a feature of a good hostess.

Home Decoration

A really smart feature in the girls' work was the home decoration of a room in the girls' main dormitory. Before the young ladies went to work on the room it was plain and ordinary. When they had finished it was excitedly turned out and won the admiration of every father and mother who saw it during their tour of inspection.

There also were the work shops, with clever woodworking displays, finished welding products, and the field crop displays, botany and science.

The afternoon's entertainment was completed with tea served in the decorated gym room of the main dormitory. Many friendships were formed as the school staff served tea for more than two hours in order to accommodate the large crowd.

The Results

Results of the little royal were: Swine, Class 1 Gilts — 1, Bint Teller, Morinville; 2, Ken Anderson, Lloydminster; 3, Ray Herbert, Edmonton; Class 2, Boars—1, Bruce McLennan, Islay; 2, Ray Petitz, Hay Lakes; 3, Harry Mast, Vegreville.

The School Trustee

SCHOOL TAXES FORM a considerable part of the tax bill of most Canadian property owners, and whether they are actively interested in education or not, the operation of the schools in their community should be a matter of concern to them. While the taxpayer should, and very often does, show interest in the schools and give additional help and support when it is needed, it is the school trustees who carry the responsibility for the operation of the schools, the hiring of staff and other important matters affecting education in the community. An elected body, the trustees are often the object of criticism but they are almost always men and women who are sincerely interested in the schools and answer to do their best for the pupils in their districts.

* * * *

Agree Teacher Is Important

At the annual meeting of the Canadian School Trustees Association, held recently in Saskatoon, problems connected with their work were discussed by representatives of seven provinces They agreed that the teacher is the most important factor in successful education and that like a good building and equipment are necessary to good teachers in providing a good education for children. The importance of maintaining standards of education rather than reducing taxes at the expense of the welfare of the school was also stressed. As well the need for trustees to be familiar with educational problems, and with the social problems connected with youth in their communities.

* * * *

Are Interested in Problems

People who are interested in education will for the most part agree with the opinions of the trustees in their matters. No matter how fine a school building may be or how much expensive equipment is provided a poor teacher cannot educate the child. If there must be a choice between building expansion or paying salaries which will attract able teachers there is no doubt but that the choice should be for the good teacher. It would be ideal to have both, and in many places this is possible but it is the duty of the trustees to make decisions of this kind. It is interesting to learn the views the Canadian school trustees are taking on this and other problems connected with education at this time

Farmers Advised To Use Licenced Canadian Wheat

WINNIPEG —A plea to Manitoba farmers to maintain the high quality of Canadian wheat by growing only registered licenced varieties was issued by agronomists of the Manitoba department of agriculture

They issued an article by Dr. J. A. Anderson, chief chemist of the board of grain commissioners, which listed three varieties as recommended for most Manitoba

Red Spring wheat Lee, Selkman, and Pembina; Regret, and in the north area, Saunders.

Durum — Stewart, Mindum and Carleton.

Dr. Anderson said the quality of Canadian wheat would be destroyed if many farmers decided to grow unlicensed varieties. The average baking quality of wheat exported by Canada would suffer, and it would begin to lose its reputation and premium position on world markets.

Some farmers, his article said, still grow unlicensed varieties imported from the United States and other countries. The American variety "Minin" was the commonest "offender".

Yet in Canada, Minin cannot grade above No. 3 Northern. More than three per cent of this wheat in a carlot of a licensed variety which otherwise would grade No. 1 or No. 2 was enough to bring the grade for the whole car down to No. 3.

SUGGESTS ROCKET FLAG FOR BROWN, BLACK SOILS

Rocket flax has given good results throughout a wide area and is now recommended for all the brown, dark brown, and most of the black soil zones of Saskatchewan, a federal department of agriculture information service release said.

It is not recommended for the grey wooded soils nor the North Battleford-Lloydminster areas due to the short frost-free period. Dakota and Redwood varieties are recommended where the short season is a factor.

Rocket flax, as well as being high yielding is rust-resistant and moderately wilt resistant. Compared to Bison, it is slightly earlier, matures more evenly and has a larger seed with higher oil content and quality.

Early Settlers Would Be Astonished At The Diversified Business Run By Local Lumber Merchants

A new Canadian settler of 1890 set forth in his journal a description of the average prairie home of that time as a "dwelling of logs, hewn smooth on both sides, then well plastered between the logs." "Under the floor of each house," he wrote, "is a cellar for storage of root crops."

He and his family were given temporary shelter in the upper part of a friend's shanty. This "upper part" was in reality a lumber loft.

He and his sons drew logs for their own home and teamed the rest of their lumber by ox-drawn cart across country twenty miles to and from the nearest navigable river where it was unloaded by steamer. There was no sawmill in the area.

He was unable to plaster his new home before the frost set in. Consequently the "thermometer frequently fell to 30 below in our bedroom."

"My little daughter," he wrote, "used to get up in the morning with her hair all frozen."

Not all settlers were so luckless, nor did he consider himself so. His experience was not unusual. There was just enough comfort for endurance and there was no greater luxury in these early homes.

The Canadian Pacific railway was shortly afterwards under construction and was carried out of Winnipeg. In each of the settlements it created, lumber yards sprang up to provide a focal point for building materials needed in the construction of new homes. By river and rail from the sawmills, lumber headed for the yards.

These lumber centres were a great boon to settlers for there they could buy boards in varying lengths and thicknesses at the same time, their shingles, lath, building paper, and nails.

Until about 1925 the lumber merchant continued to confine himself fairly strictly to the sale of lumber when he started to add nails, hinges and other builder's hardware to his stock.

Since then he has brought in new building materials, some totally unrelated in composition to lumber but in common. For his fame he could use asphalt or rubber tiles, the latter as a very popular substitute for carpeted floor.

He would find plywood used in doors, sub-floors, wall-panelling and for mouldings.

His chimney, he could have constructed of metal.

For restaurants, stores, offices and community buildings, he would find the lumber merchant had also stocked acoustic tiles and panels used on ceilings and walls to cut down noise and noise.

If he decided to build a granary, he would find the lumber merchant ready to accept his rafters, flat every stick of material needed and "drive him an overall price. He would get a free blueprint into the bargain.

Finally, he could have for his barn, a metal-clad building, all shadowed on the outside with rafters and framing of lumber

This man, pioneer of today's western Canadian cities, would be more than proud of his home. But he might also regret that he had been born a half-century too soon. He would have missed much of the excitement of the service of the service of the (retail lumber merchant to western Canadian communities)

Cabinet Maker Plans To Put Canadian History On Wood

LANGFORD, B.C. — A Langford cabinet maker intends to devote his spare time in the next 13 years to carving on wood the history of a Canadian era.

Copenhagen-born Kaj Nelson came to Canada 27 years ago and brought with him the desire to study the history of his new home. He finally decided that the Hudson's Bay company and its explorers provided "the most colorful history in Canada."

Several years later he chose to put these stories on record.

He completed the first 36 carvings in three months of work. It depicts a scene of a battle in Hudson Bay in 1697 between three British ships and a French vessel.

Nelson said that it would take him about 12 years to complete all the 36 carvings.

Sixteen Years Ago Today

April 3, 1936

Town council is considering new parking regulations whereby centre parking would replace the present haphazard system. Trucks would be relegated to certain areas.

Addressing the Board of Trade, Dr. Wallace of the University of Alberta, Hon. W. A. Fallow, Minister of Public Works and Hon. W. N. Grant, Minister of Agriculture, all predicted that Alberta was on the eve of great development as it had an abundance of coal, gas, oil and minerals.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Rush left to make their home at Nanaimo, B.C. They are old timers of the Maughan district and their departure is much regretted.

Following some of the lowest April temperatures ever recorded here the weather finally broke Monday this week with a good chinook. April temperatures prior to that had been 11 below, -19, -3 and -9.

Thirty-two Years Ago Today

April 7, 1920

W. B. Roberts returned home from England. Mrs. Roberts and the baby remained abroad for some time yet.

The local situation is more than dense with regard to any heavy loss in stock from all districts. Winter is still here.

Dale Williams won fame at the Edmonton Spring Stock show having the best steer in the baby beef class. At the sale the animal realized 32½c per lb.

April weather was extremely severe with low points of -30, -27, and -26 on April 1, 2 and 3.

ALLANDALE

We have had lovely spring weather but today (7th) reminds us of winter again, snowing with a cold north wind.

Mrs. Baldock's sister and husband Mr. and Mrs. Broadbent from Saskatchewan and Mr. Kreede arrived at the Baldock home March 20th. They were accompanied by Mrs. Baldock they returned to the city for the week end to visit the latter's daughter Beryl and family. Mr. Baldock is still taking treatments but hopes before long to be able to have an operation.

Seems that our mail man has deserved us. We haven't seen him for three mail days. Through the kindness of neighbors we've been able to get our mail and Don and Hilda and family too. They spent last Sunday evening with us.

On Mr. and Mrs. Gus Throndson's 35th wedding anniversary an enjoyable evening was spent at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Simonsen April 4th when the guests numbering around 30 relatives and friends on the latter's parents' 25th wedding anniversary. The evening was spent, playing cards, crib, euchre and whist. Just before midnight a lovely twin set of wash cloths was presented to the honored guests from their family. A delicious lunch was served by the hostess and ladies. A two-tiered wedding cake, decked and covered by Mrs. Throndson's sister Mrs. O. Ommess was cut into, bridal-fashion, and served to all. From their friends and relatives — your anniversary, may it hold ever brighter happiness for you, and may the future have in store many more as pleasant too

Sawing wood at the Phillips-home last Friday. They have now cleared away the bluff south of the school and will soon have ready built muddy spot on the road which always appears in the spring.

The W.A. met at the C.G.I.A. and the first Monday in each month was just a social evening. The secretary O. Armstrong was absent.

Something old and yet new — I just finished sewing lace on a pair of cases that were crocheted from Mom's sewing machine thread the summer of '18 while herding horses. Dad had just moved his horses here from saddle Lake that spring and they had to be watched. I still a little good looking saddle horse and still enjoy riding them.

Closing Thought—When religious indifferences become part of our struggle for survival, we don't deserve to survive—but rather to be washed away in the rising tide.

Miss Elaine Batty Feted At Shower

A miscellaneous shower in honor of Miss Elaine Batty, bride-elect was held in the Tracy Memorial hall at Kitscoty on Friday last.

The theme of the evening was a school room and the hall was arranged accordingly. The evening opened with a short comic skit between the Janitor 'Bi' played by Dolly Evans and the school ma'm Prissy Humperdinkle played by Betty Gray. Si retired after having all his romantic overtures firmly repulsed by Prissy and school was called, resulting in a very noisy class of 53 pupils (ladies) present. A singing lesson in the form of a "Mary Had a Little Lamb", rendered beautifully by Sheila McCorry. A geography match and spelling bee were featured accompanied with many antics and pranks on the part of the 'pupils'. Many fond boy joys found their way into our school room in the form of bubble gum, baseball diaries, and a candy time found our usually dignified matrons recalling their childhood days with a vengeance. A tasty lunch was then served after which Betty Gray presented Elaine with the lovely array of gifts from her many friends and well-wishers.

As Elaine began to open her gifts one of her favorite songs, "The Sunshine of Your Smile" was sung by Sheila McCorry and Elsie Pidcock. After the gifts were all opened and duly admired Elaine thanked everyone present with a very heartfelt speech, saying she was proud to have lived in our little town with its fine people.

Elaine is one of our former school girls and will be missed at present on the Dewberry teaching staff. We all wish you every happiness Lainie'.

Hostesses for the evening were Misses Betty Gray, Dollie Evans and Eli Sweet. They were ably assisted by Misses Sheila McCorry, Margaret Sweet, Rose-Mary Batty, Mrs. Bud Blatchford and Mrs. R. S Pidcock.

PUTTING PEP IN CROPS

The fertility of your soil is like a bank account. You can't keep taking it out, without putting some back in.

Today's demands for more production and greater yield at lower cost need the proper use and application of fertilizers to pastures, grain fields and all areas where produce is grown. These fertilizers will help replace in the soil those minerals so essential to plant growth.

Kitscoty High School Notes

With Easter tests now underway everyone is waiting anxiously for Easter holidays to come.

The Grade XI class has begun preparations for the 1962 Year Book. Mr. Quarton came up from Lloydminster on Wednesday to photograph the new members in the high school and take the group pictures.

The feature of the evening at the high school party Wednesday night was the 'Conga Dance.' The idea of this dance seems to be to keep up with the guy ahead of you, and not get lost in space when the leader swings around a corner. 'Hoop-Pee-Doo' was also tried out.

The 73 resolutions will be represented in four sections: resolutions on policy; resolutions passed previously and which are now subject to review; resolutions presented by A. T. locals; and those presented by the provincial executive.

Who said a nickel's not worth much any more? Of course that's somewhat true, but the average Alberta meal can be electrically cooked for just three cents . . . three-fifths of one nickel. Yes, that is the actual fuel cost when you cook the modern way . . . by electricity. Do you know a bigger value?

Rev. E. N. Morrison of Lloydminster delivered the Holy Week message at the pre-Easter service held in the United church on Tuesday evening. The service was arranged by the Vermilion Ministerial Association and was well attended. The Rev. Morrison's address held the attention of his congregation throughout and was based on the words of the Lord 'Where is the guest room?'.

Taking part in the impressive service were Canon Teape, Lieut. Chaplain Rev. MacKay, The Salvation Army band, and Mrs. E. J. Edey, soloist.

WILDMERE WINKS

In a short note from Mrs. C. Morand of Calgary she says that seventeen members of the Morand family were at the C.P.R. station to welcome Mrs. Smith and her niece Mrs. Miller when they made a brief stop at Calgary. Among them were Mrs. Smith's daughter Mrs. Morand, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Mrs. Smith and Mrs. Miller are now on the high seas on their way to Scotland. They sailed on Friday from St. John N.B after spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Rutherford Miller and family (Mrs. Miller's home) at Moncton, N.B.

A one time old timer of the present Basswood district in the person of Mrs. Burden, passed away at Langley Prairie, B.C. last month. They sold their farm here to Thos. Guilfoyle and after disposing of the stock and implements in 1924 or thereabouts they moved to B.C. where they have resided ever since. She always was a very friendly person and her passing will leave a gap hard to fill even though she did live well past the three score and ten.

Everyone was very sorry to hear that Mrs. Wm. Macnab met with a serious accident when she fell in her kitchen and broke her hip. We all wish you a speedy recovery Mrs. Macnab.

Have you ever seen a white crow? For verification ask Mr. Bushko, teacher of Buffalo Coulee school. When driving on his bus route the other day he and the children saw a perfectly white crow.

J. C. Wallington took Noel Garnett to the hospital on Sunday evening suffering serious nose bleeds caused by a slap of the fin. We are pleased to say he is now feeling much better. Good luck Noel for your recovery. Only last Tuesday evening Noel and Roy arrived home after spending the winter at Hay River and Yellowknife where they were assistant fish inspectors.

Mrs. L. Fadden spent the week-end with her mother Mrs. A. Frisell of Vermilion. Mr. Frisell had another operation on Thursday and is doing very well. Hope you are soon up and home again.

We are indeed sorry to hear of one of the Standard staff having the misfortune to break his ankle-bone. Speedy recovery to you Mr. Cooper.

Numerous farmers attended Geo. Webb's Massey-Harris show last Thursday afternoon. All thought it was a very good show.

Cliff Cruthers took sons George and Gary also Bobby and Kenny Graham in to see the show held at the armories last Wednesday evening. The boys also saw 'Chico' at the Columbia theatre.

J. C. Wallington along with others from Vermilion attended a week show held at the Masonic Temple in Edmonton Tuesday and Wednesday.

Funniest thing heard—A little 3-yearold, Kathleen Cruthers, hearing folks talk of rough roads, asked her mother, 'Have the roads still got the 'bandage' on?

DUCKS

Wild life is quickly returning to its summer habitat as several flocks of ducks have been seen. The first reported were by Mrs. Wilson from north of town on Saturday. With several others later mentioning seeing pairs of ducks winging their way about. They shouldn't go hungry this spring and there is plenty of water about to frolic on.

Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Montgomery and little son Douglas of Calgary are holidaying at the home of Mrs. Montgomery's parents, Mr. and Mrs. V.H. Cooper for two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Wiebe from Edmonton spent the week end in Vermilion visiting the former's dad W. R. Wiebe, sister Mrs. Roger Rowe and renewing acquaintances generally.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Beckett want to know where all the former Vermilion people are disappearing to from around Chilliwack. Bob says that at one time there used to be six Standi ds come to Chilliwack in one bundle and now there are just two, his and Ed Reid's. However recent Vermilion people they have seen include Len Bartley, Sy Emmerson, Mrs. Keebble. In closing they wish to be remembered to all their old friends here.

Chatsworth Chatter

With the spring equinox stormily past, we have been enjoying agreeable weather. Spring seems to have really arrived with crows, ducks and gophers in evidence. The snow is rapidly disappearing, and sloughs and lakes filling.

Roads were very muddy last week but have dried well and now the main complaint is the presence of mud holes which are quite bad in places. One such hole is on the Indian Lake road near the Kearns' farm. This is very deep and soon becoming impassable on Saturday. During that afternoon, Charlie Farrash struck a large rock in this hole when driving to town in the truck, his mother was thrown against the windshield breaking her glasses and sustaining cuts and bruises on the forehead. For years now, the dwellers in Minburn M.D. having to use this gravel road, and it is the main road in from the west and north, have petitioned the Vermilion River council to make this 1½ miles passable, but with little results except for the grading across the slough at the Cummings. It appears that the sooner this portion of the M.D. could be transferred into the Minburn M.D. the better it would be.

Side roads which were not snowplowed during the winter are still fairly deep in snow.

Mrs. Cummings was a recent visitor to Edmonton.

The Painter children have recovered from scarlet fever, the only cases in the district as yet. Colds and stomach flu have been going the rounds.

Our congratulations and good wishes to Mr. and Mrs. Steve Sturt on the occasion of their 25th wedding anniversary, March 31st. Also to Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Davis, who celebrated their 23rd anniversary on April 6th, we extend felicitations.

Mrs. Davis' collection of messages from the Royal Family now numbers five. One from Queen Mary on the death of King George VI, one from King Edward VIII on the death of his father King George VI, one from the Duke of Windsor at the death of the Duke of Kent.

Interesting Observations By Mayor on Trip To California

Mayor and Mrs. Heckbert returned ten days ago after a month spent on vacation in California and report having had a most enjoyable trip and restful holiday, covering some 5000 miles during the trip.

En route south a stop was made at Salt Lake City where an opportunity was had to hear the fine organ in the Mormon Temple and to inspect this huge organ and the church in which it is housed. A brief visit to the Zion National park in southern Utah was also enjoyed, the coloring of the rock formations in the mountains being particularly magnificent.

A highlight of the trip at San Diego was a three hour trip around the bay where the Navy's navy lay at anchor over the week end; several hundred vessels of all kinds, including carriers, battle wagons destroyers, cruisers, submarines, were proudly flying naval and naval installations on shore were extremely interesting. Aircraft in large numbers were present over the harbor and gave evidence of some of the vast military strength of the United States navy.

The holidayers spent about three weeks motoring along the shores of the coast and enjoyed the Pacific as it rolled against the extremely rocky coast over which the highway ran. Stops were made at numerous vacation centres and an opportunity was available to visit such fine art centres as the Balboa Garden at San Diego and the Huntington libraries and Art galleries at Pasadena. The city of Los Angeles was visited and Mr. Heckbert expressed more than usual interest in the quite evident aggressiveness of the American people in overcoming geographical difficulties. In one case in Los Angeles an entire mountain has been removed in the past four years in order to provide space for expansion of the giant metropolis. Another instance of progressive action was the removal of an entire city park and placing underground three layers or tiers of steel and concrete parking space and the ultimate replacement of the entire park on top of the parking area.

It was found that the great red wood forests which attract world wide attention were of unusual interest many of these trees are from eight to ten feet and more in diameter and extend upwards to a maximum of 300 feet or more, the first branches, in some cases being fully 200 feet from the ground. The family Buick was driven through a redwood tree, hollowed out originally by fire and then turned into a miniature driveway. One of the outstanding sights of the trip was the Californ tal tree, so called, being constituted by nine huge redwoods in the form of a semi circle and forming an excellent replica of a giant pipe organ. Each of the trees is estimated to be more than 3000 years old and grouped as they are, the 'cathdral' tree is especially applicable to the setting.

In reply to a question the holidayers stated emphatically they are glad that they had spent their vacation in the southern States is more than usually enjoyable as accommodation was readily available and traffic, while heavy, is naturally much less bothersome than would be the case in the rush summer season. Parking in the larger centres proved to be most difficult and some runs and various schemes are being worked out to relieve this vital situation. In Saskatoon an opportunity was given to see what is known as pigeon hole parking, by means of which automobiles may be parked in steel structures called pigeon holes arranged in large groups. automobiles are raised several storeys in some cases and vice versa by pigeonholes in a space just large enough to hold a car. These structures are becoming increasingly popular, the rest of such park ing being reasonable.

Tens of thousands of acres were found to be covered by orchards in bloom, the plum and quince trees being particularly beautiful at this season of the year. Orange groves are evident throughout much of the area traveled and the orange trees bear fruit which will be harvested in June as well as tiny green fruit which will not mature until the 1953 season.

Altogether the winter vacation was most pleasant, but the Mayor states that he would not care to live in California and that despite the season when the return was made 'Alberta looks pretty good'.

Cancer Society Begins Crusade For Funds

REQUESTED FOR FIGHT AGAINST DEADLY DISEASE

The Canadian Cancer Society has begun its seventh spring campaign for funds. This time, the objective is $6,500,000, and again, the society is counting heavily on the country points for the success of its campaign. Last year, 134 country points in northern Alberta contributed $87,000. This year, the society must find at least an extra $3000 in northern Alberta, because it has taken on new responsibilities.

Work has begun on the Dr. John A. McEachern research wing at the University of Alberta. This research wing of the University medical building will be ready for occupation this summer, and it will require more cancer dollars to keep it in operation. In it, doctors and graduate students will be able to investigate possible clues to the cause of cancer. Their investigation will go on the year round, but it is during the unfortunate months for cancer victims, that new explorations possible, are raised only once a year, in the northern Alberta campaign.

People in districts where there is no organized campaign can mail or bring their donations direct to Cancer Crusade headquarters 1132b Centre street, Calgary.

Mr. Keith Chalmers is the Crusade manager for the district of Vermilion.

Landmark Disappears In Allandale

(From Allandale News)

An Allandale landmark has now disappeared. One of the oldest houses in the area, vacant now for some years, the old family homestead of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Darling, located just to the east of Campbell Lake on the Clandonald highway, has been torn down by their grandson, Roy Darling who is in the present employ of the farm.

The tall two-storey Darling home, where a multitude of people used to gather for a game of home trade and where a warm welcome awaited everyone, stood on a hill and was visible for miles. Apparently, since caused many a pang of remembrance heretofore.

Following an organizational meeting held in the Legion hall last Wednesday evening, Vermilion now has a fully organized branch of the Canadian Cancer Society and will function not only in the field of fundraising as in the past few years, but will implement the Society program of public education and welfare services to cancer sufferers.

Tallon of Calgary executive director of the Alberta Division of the Canadian Cancer Society, in a progress report on cancer, described the advances that had been made in cancer research in the province during the past three years. Describing some of the research projects at the University of Alberta, Mr. Tallon stated that 60% of all funds spent through the Cancer Crusade last year went directly into research.

Numerous Accidents Past Week-End

Quite a broken legs, one badly cut leg and a broken nose were sufficient to keep Vermilion and district people during the past week.

Fred Harrington suffered a bro ken ankle at midnight Sunday when he was returning from his engineering work at the steam heat plant. Fred stepped into a hole in the side walk caused by a cave-in and broke his ankle. He is now a patient in the hospital.

Also in hospital with a broken leg is Hayden Lloyd, Vermilion Hotel. Lou was riding a horse and the animal slipped on some ice, falling on Lloyd. Unfortunate youths for Jim Nichols of Canadian Utilities was watching away north near Cold Lake and received a severe cut just below the knee from an axe he was carrying. Jim was cutting up several axes and other tools at the time as the crew was loading up to come home. A broken nose on some ice and fell and in the tumble was cut by a piece of steel. Dr. Heckbert gave medical attention at Cold Lake before making the journey home.

The last accident was Harold Connolly. Harold, all alone at the time, was splitting wood with a chopper when the axe slipped. His attention was diverted slightly for a moment and it was just an hour later that he regained consciousness. He had glanced at his watch at the time, which on some ice and fell and in the tumble was cut by a piece of steel. Dr. Heckbert gave medical attention at Cold Lake before making the journey home.

Stagette Convention Proves Great Success

—By Faye McLennan

With those punches and those lunches our munches that District convention would go over proved themselves. Yes, I think we can safely say it did, thanks to the genuine friendliness of all the girls in general. They are a wonderful gang of Stagettes!

After a lunch of coffee and doughnuts, and everyone was quietly settled in bed on Saturday night, we had a surprise visit from the Easter Bunny himself. What fun! Then on Sunday morning came church, and not bragging — much — the girls looked very smart in uniform and attracted the eyes of everyone there. We wish to express our sincere thanks to Messrs Conboy, Webb and Chapman and to Dorothy Oldenburg and Dorothy McCormick for the transportation and the joy rides that followed. Even the weather favored us with sunshine. Special welcome goes out to Chrissie Robertson who is again part of her holiday in our midst.

The first business session was opened by Governor Lena Miller, with an introduction to His Worship Mayor Heckbert and the Principal of the V.S.A., Mr N N Bent who gave us much appreciated address of welcome. Then the roll was peared. The discussion periods were lively, with many ideas of the Alberta clubs brought out, aired and — no, not out back, mostly turned into routines and passed on for the District is concerned.

The five delegates were as follows:

Edmonton — Ethel Barker
Tundra — Elsie Hanson (no relation but both regular mischief makers)
Calgary—Margaret Stewart (now there's a character)
Grande Prairie — Dona Owen (quiet on the surface, but .....)
Vermilion—Our own Dr. McNeill (alias Vivian Vose).

Each girl gave a fine report of the activities of her club and it was quite interesting to just gather up around from club to club and get to know them all better. Sometimes Lena and I intend to repay the kindness that stroke loose in our bedroom, though we are thinking that they didn't wait till we were in our pyjamas when they tied them in knots around the bar in the closet. Speaking of breaking loose, Photographer Bob Carmichael did his share. Yipes! Several times he and Merle Currie a body was afraid to look at anything but their feet, and that didn't help much either.

Sunday night was banquet night and what a delicious feast the V.S. kitchen staff served before us. We are very fortunate to have such a place as this in Vermilion and thank our lucky stars we were able to use it for our Stagettes this year. The banquet table was decorated with flowers generously donated by the Co-op store and Russ' Flower Shop—that made them even more lovely, and black and white candles. Even in candlelight the kids could see how much I ate. I wouldn't have minded so much if they had kept quiet about it. Entertainment followed this feast. On second thought I won't comment on it at all. I hope to say it was fun! Then came the pyjama party—and lunch. WHOO!

Monday morning the girls worked up an appetite by touring the town as guests of the Vermilion Board of Trade. Yes, riding in a new car sure makes a guy hungry. A brief business session was held in which Evlyn Broughton of Edmonton was able to walk proudly off with the title of District Governor for the next term. Congrats Evlyn. Just one thing, what in all this ranch talk? Put saddle sores every time she mentioned it.

The wind-up came Monday afternoon when at 3:00 o'clock the Governor's Tea was held. My, the girls looked swish with their fancy frocks and hats (feathers and all). I mean it—ask Bob, he and his camera were there. He was nice to see as many of the honorary members present and to have Olga, Helen and Anne pouring tea for us. The highlight of this event was the official placing of the District Governor pin on Evlyn Broughton, who graciously accepted. Then girls and Bob circled the college and gathered at Vivian's from where, as if by hungry, we paraded into the Rec and ordered suppper—with coconut cream, pie. Mmmm!

Much as we hated to say so long to these girls they were determined to leave on the 4:00 o'clock bus even if it meant crawling into the baggage department or hanging on to the greyhound's tail.

Yes, all told it was a grand week end and we do hope to see you all often in the future. It's girls like those that make the Stagette Clubs and conventions the successes they are.

Municipal Seed Cleaning Plants Well Patronized

Municipal seed cleaning plants are doing a splendid job for the agriculture of Alberta, in their third year. Farmers in the districts that are served by these plants are recognizing the extra value of the clean seed made available by them, and are patronizing them to a greater extent even than last year.

F. F. Parkinson, Supervisor of Special Projects, Alberta Department of Agriculture, reports that one of these plants has been operating on a 24-hour schedule since November. The others have all been on 16 to 20 hour schedules. The output of the four plants operating last season was well over 700,000 bushels of clean seed — an amount that will be exceeded this season by a wide margin.

The new plant at Marwayne began regular operations in January, and by the end of March had cleaned well over 50,000 bushels. This building is smaller than the others, but is equipped with the same type of high capacity cleaning machinery as that used in the Morinville plant, which cleaned 261,000 bushels last season. All plants are equipped with modern seed treating equipment for treating seed for seed borne diseases. The Marwayne plant is also equipped to treat for wire worm protection.

Farmers outside the areas served by these plants have trucked their grain as far as 100 miles to have it cleaned. They know that with the plants equipped to do a first class job there is little danger of seed contamination. Those wishing to have seed cleaned at one of these plants should make arrangements immediately.

CELEBRATE ON MONDAY

Parliament should back the present bill to have the May 24th and July 1st holidays celebrated on the nearest Monday, states The Financial Post.

Apart from enabling millions of Canadians to enjoy a long week-end the bill would save untold thousands of dollars for business and industry. It's not a loss of one day's production only that is involved. There is further loss in the delay of getting going again after a mid-week break.

Cancer Curbs Seen In Seven Danger Signs

About 16,000 Canadians died of cancer last year and more than 3000 of these deaths were needless.

The lives were forfeited to ignorance or delay, according to the Canadian Cancer Society. Successful management of cancer begins with the patient, the Society says, since the disease must be found in an early stage for treatment to be effective.

An important part of the Cancer Society's program is that of teaching the public cancer's seven danger signals. They are —

1. Any sore that does not heal.
2. A lump or thickening in the breast or elsewhere.
3. Unusual bleeding or discharge.
4. Any change in a wart or mole.
5. Persistent indigestion or difficulty in swallowing.
6. Persistent hoarseness or cough.
7. Any change in normal bowel habits.

The appearance of any of these symptoms does not mean, of course, that cancer is invariably present, but a doctor should be consulted immediately. Since detected cancer can always spread, delay is serious.

This year the Canadian Cancer Society hopes to reach every Canadian home with its life saving information about cancer. The families' support this public education program are provided by gifts to the Cancer Crusade.

Wildmere Beavers Girls' Club Report

The Beavers met at the home of Hazel Whitlock on April 12th with all 12 members and two visitors present.

The meeting was opened with singing O Canada followed by the code. The minutes were read and approved. The roll call was well answered.

Being no correspondence we put our sewing books together. Mystery box was won by Alice Clark. Social was in the form of a story read by Doreen Martin.

The financial report given by Mary Gibson told us that we made $12.85 at the dance.

The next meeting will be held at Janet Cruthers on May 10th.

THRESHING STARTS

"Wonderful" is a greatly overworked word but does describe the April weather experienced so far. Grain in the fields is drying rapidly and in some cases threshing of last year's crop has commenced.

Daily temperatures for the week indicate the fine weather prevailing. Vermilion being one of the warmest spots in Canada.

WHO OWNS C.P.R.?

Who owns the Canadian Pacific Railway Co? Recent market activity in CPR common, generated mainly by New York buying according to brokers, again brings up the question. The stock has sold at $40 a share.

The answer to the question, says The Financial Post, is "still the British". But, they no longer have absolute control, as the percentage ownership of stock fell below 50 per cent.

Kitscoty Church Scene Of Pretty Wedding

ALLEN—BATTY

The warm spring sunshine filtered through the windows of the Kitscoty United church on Saturday, April 12th, as the Rev. C. K. Vogel, in a setting of daffodils and tulips, united in holy matrimony Elaine Somerville Batty, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Batty of Kitscoty, and Mr. John Leslie Allen, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Allen of Fielding, Sask.

The bride entered the church on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage. She was radiant in a ballet-length embossed white parchment satin gown, styled with an Elizabethan collar, tiny covered buttons the full length of the bodice, and short sleeves. To complete her ensemble, she chose a chapel veil of nylon net flowing from a halo headdress trimmed with lily of the valley, elbow-length nylon net mittens, white satin sandals, and she carried an arm bouquet of red roses tied with pink and white ribbon. Her only jewelry was a rhinestone necklace and earring set, gift of the groom.

Mrs. John (Bud) Blatchford, as matron of honor preceded her sister up the aisle. She was attired in a ballet-length gown of pink corded taffeta, styled with cap sleeves, wide collar, buttoned down the front with tiny buttons to a low waistline on which the full skirt was gathered. This costume was complemented by a pink net chapel veil held in place by a coronet of flowers, pink nylon net mittens, and she carried a colonial bouquet of pink carnations tied with blue ribbon.

The groom was ably attended by Mr. Chester Marshall of Fielding, Sask. Ushers were Mr. James Munroe, and Mr. John (Bud) Blatchford.

During the signing of the register Miss Rosemary Batty, sister of the bride, sang "Because" accompanied at the organ by Mrs. H. Batty, aunt of the bride, who also provided all the wedding music.

At an open reception held at the bride's home, the mother of the bride received in a lilac triple sheer afternoon frock trimmed with white lace, with black accessories, and red roses en corsage. The groom's mother chose navy and mauve flowered nylon sheer over taffeta, with navy accessories and a corsage of red roses. The grandmother of the bride, Mrs. F. King, wore black lace, with grey accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Miss Lois Allen, the groom's only sister, wore mauve taffeta figured with black and gold, with grey accessories and pink roses en corsage. While their many friends called to wish them happiness, piano, violin and vocal musical selections formed a soft background, provided by some of the young friends of the bride.

At 7:00 o'clock in the evening the immediate families gathered at the Tracy Memorial hall to enjoy a sumptuous turkey dinner. The bridal table was laid in crystal and silver centred by the beautifully decorated three-tiered wedding cake set in pink tulle, flanked by tall white tapers. After the bride and groom cut the wedding cake, the Rev. C. K. Vogel proposed an eloquent toast to the bride, to which the groom suitably responded. The best man then read three telegrams of congratulations from friends and relations in Ontario, Manitoba and Saskatchewan.

Later that evening the bride donned a travelling costume consisting of a grey gabardine suit and pink and navy accessories, and the happy couple left by car for a honeymoon in Saskatoon and points east.

Out of town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Allen of Fielding; Mr. and Mrs. F. King, Mr. and Mrs. Dee Stark of Lloydminster; Mrs. James Steenson of Wainwright; Mr. Chester Marshall of Fielding; Mr. James Munroe of Dewberry and Mr. Richard J. Guntrip of Islay.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Allen will reside in Dewberry, where they are both on the teaching staff.

Wildmere Winks

Billie and Adam Smith returned home on Tuesday last week, report, ing a good trip home by car.

Wildmere was well represented at the Cancer show at the Legion hall on Wednesday evening. Nine of the Wildmere W.I. attended. It was well worth the effort to get there as Mr. Talbot and Dr. King both gave very interesting talks. The films were good too. The point stressed was be sure and see your doctor if anything unusual occurs, as many lives can be saved by early detection.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Cruthers accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. J. Batke of Basswood and Mrs. W. Westman and baby of town were visitors to Lloydminster on Thursday. They visited Mr. and Mrs. Bud Batke and baby son there.

Thursday evening Mrs. J. Wilson invited her school pupils (9 of them) to her home for a delicious Easter supper. Other years she has given a party at the school, This year she did it a bit different and to say the least the children purely did enjoy it. A good supper topped off with ice cream and strawberries! It's something they will never forget Irene. Afterwards games were enjoyed for a few hours and then they journeyed home to pleasan dreams.

The Fadden family of Wildmere have had an illness in the home. We Hope you are soon all better folks.

The Junior Red Cross of Wildmere are having a sale of articles and a dance in the school on Friday April 25th. Everyone welcome.

gents 50 cents.

We are indeed sorry to hear of Leo Lynn of Tolland breaking his leg. He is a patient n the hospital. May you soon be up and around again.

Our deepest sympathy goes out to the Woonstra boys on the loss of their father last week. He also was an old timer in this part of Alberta and was a real pioneer who has now gone to his well earned rest.

School pupils are home over the Easter holidays. Too bad the high school stuck his have their exams to face when they go back. Just means they can't relax during the holidays when they really need this break before the last long grind of studies start.

The Basswood Junior Red Cross are having a whist drive and dance in Basswood this Friday April 18.

Noticed around: Mr. and Mrs. C. Cruthers and family and Billie and Adam Smith at the Batke home in Basswood on Sunday; Mr. and Mrs. R. Martin and Doreen at the George Scuffert home in Vermilion; Mr. and Mrs. F. Gibson and family at the Ford home in town, on Sunday; Mrs. E. Coutts and baby son of Triangle spent Thursday at the Wallington home where a pleasant day was enjoyed.

Noel Garrett returned home from the hospital last week and is feeling much better.

Mrs. J. Wilson visited her mother at Marcille on Good Friday. Her sister Mrs. Fluker from Fort Saskatchewan was also there.

Budget Bewilders

The long awaited annual budget was delivered by Hon. D. C. Abbott, Minister of Finance, on Tuesday evening. April 8th at 8 :40 o'clock. A newspaper headline which described it as 'Many Bewildered by Budget' is a good description of the effect it has upon many people throughout Canada. While people have not yet recovered from the heavy taxes levied during World War 2 and had only an short breathing spell after the close of that war, until heavy taxes were again levied for the purpose of preparing against expected aggression, the continued heavy taxes levied for the 1952-53 fiscal year makes the future a bleak one for many of Canada's citizens in the low income brackets and indeed to a great extent also for our various classes of Old Age Pension recipients, recipients of War Veterans Allowance, recipients of our Government pensions which in many cases run as low as $20 a month.

During the present fiscal year some 2 billion, 106 million dollars will be spent on defence and many people feel that the Government is not getting value for the money expended. It is estimated that the expenditure for all purposes for the fiscal year 1952-53 will amount to 4 billion, 270 million dollars and Mr. Abbott has budgeted for 4 billion 270 million, which will mean a surplus of 9 millions for the year. It will be remembered that the surplus for the year just ended amounted to 353.7 million dollars and the national debt has just been reduced by this amount.

Very severe criticism was levelled against the Government in 1951 when the budget was brought down and increased sales tax by 25% and also increased excise taxes from 15 to 25%. He also included in the 15% excise tax category such household needs as refrigerators, electric stoves and washing machines. Those items helped to pile up the surplus during the year and in his latest budget speech Mr. Abbott has made certain changes which in a general way, are as follows:

Sales Tax Changes

There is no change in the sales tax with the exception of a few items being added to the free list With respect to excise tax, the 15% levied last year on refrigerators, stoves and washing machines has been abolished and on many items on which the tax was increased from 15 to 25% last year, the tax has again been reduced to 15%. The items effected in this group include automobiles, tires and tubes, cameras and photo equipment, electrical appliances, cigars, firearms and ammunition, fishing rods and reels, fountain pens, pencils, golf clubs and balls, jewelry, clocks, lighters, matches, motorcycles, and motors, phonographs, radios and tubes, slot machines, smokers' accessories, toilet articles, trucks, etc. Tax on furs has also been been reduced from 25 to 15% and the excise tax on soft drinks from 30 to 15%. Provision is made also for other slight changes which spare will not permit me to enumerate.

Turning now to the income tax on Corporations, some changes are made from the 1951-52 rates. At the present time with respect to income of Corporations earned on and after Jan. 1, 1952, the present rate of tax shall be increased from 13 to 20% on the first $10,000 of taxable income and from 38 to 50% of taxable income in excess of $10,000 and the surtax of 20% will be repealed. To the taxes mentioned above must be added special 2% for old age security.

Income Taxes

Turning now to the personal income tax levied, certain changes are made which will mean an apparent 6% reduction but don't get elated over this because there will be a special 2% old age security tax also levied and the overall picture will show that the people will have to pay more during the present fiscal year than they did in the last one.

OUR COMPLETE SHORT STORY—

For Love Of Ruth

The Deed Of An Outcast Son To His Brother.

By Louis Arthur Cunningham

ALAN BOND, the outcast son of a good family, had picked a poor night to return to the home of his youth. Pavements glittered blackly under the street lights shrouded in fog.

But Alan had won the right to come back, won it through years of fighting . . . against the world from which he found it so hard to gain a living, against himself whom he found still more difficult to conquer. The same wildness, the old love of drink, of luxury and men that had embittered a good but stern father's heart against him followed him out into the hinterland, dogged him so viciously that the fight he had won against them had filtered all down from a nature that was basically good. It had made him a man, doubly strong because he had looked on evil, been floored by it and had risen in triumph.

"You may come back," his father had told him five years ago on a night like this, "but only when you can show the fruits of honest toil. I have done my best with you, but I have paid your last debt and suffered the last disgrace that I will endure."

Alan's going had been hard. The parting with his family had been bad enough, but there was another, Ruth Finley, a girl whom he adored with all his reckless heart. He left without saying good-bye. Perhaps, he thought she was better rid of him. There were plenty of decent, hard working fellows who would think her splendid beau was the sun itself to Ruth. With one of them she would settle down to a tranquil life. But her love proved stronger than pride and he went from her had never healed.

Five years since he looked at that house with its solid front of respectability! There was a choking in his breast as he walked up the drive. This was the first real joy he had known in all that time. He was coming back with the proof of his manhood . . . five thousand dollars honestly accumulated, the sack duly marked with the sweat of body and the ache of soul.

It was late. He should have waited till morning. But the desire for home had been strong.

A single light—his mother's fingers had made its shade—burned in the hall. Instinct guided his fingers to a latchkey hung as of old by the door. Everybody had retired.

His father's study. In front of the panelled door he stopped. It was there he had last seen the old man and listened to his accusations. His father had compared him to Gordon, his younger brother, and Alan had suffered in the comparison. Gordon had always been favorite. He was all that Alan was not . . . steady and serious.

Alan tried the knob. To his surprise the door opened. He had never known his father to leave it unlocked.

Inside, the light still burned. Alan stared wide-eyed at the chaos that reigned on the desk. It had been rifled. A strong-box lay open.

There was a letter in the box and beside it a scribbled note: "Father:—I had to steal your money to get away from here. I know this will break your heart that has suffered so much already from an ungrateful son, but I need it and it is the only way. Forgive me."

It was unsigned.

Alan took the letter. It was directed to Ruth Finley. The writing was better. It was Gordon's, his brother's. It read: "Dearest Ruth:—When you get this I will be far away. I have borrowed thousands short at the bank. It will be known tomorrow. I could not bear to tell dad. He had suffered enough from Alan and I fear what the shock will do. Try to help him bear it. Forgive me. Our love was as dear to me as to you, but I could not resist the chance to win you away and I did it all. I am leaving tonight. Gordon."

Slow thinking was not one of Alan Bond's characteristics. The letter to Ruth he thrust into his pocket. With it he signed the message that Gordon had left—signed it with his own name—Alan. Then he left the house and ran through the deserted streets to the station.

The express was pulling in as he neared the tracks. Far down the wind-swept platform he spied a furtive figure. He ran faster and got there in time to pull his brother from the step of the train. He thrust a wallet, his wallet with the accumulated savings of the years, into Gordon's hands and pushed him back on the platform.

"This will help you. And keep your mouth about about me," he said.

Then Alan Bond, outcast son of a good family, ran after the train and swung on to the last car. Some day, perhaps, he would come back . . .

Prairie Farmers Preparing For Big Springtime Harvest

REGINA. — The Calendar says spring, but western farmers are getting ready to harvest. As winter snows melt and runoff water builds up into small lakes in the prairie sloughs, about 130,000,000 bushels of grain from the 1951 crop is lying in the fields in Saskatchewan and Alberta.

The average farmer is preparing to tackle a job that might well baffle the more orthodox agriculturist. He has to get one crop off, put another in, all in a short space of time.

The large holdover from the fall harvest, amounting to from one-quarter to one-third of the crop, was caused by the late rains and snows. A large part of the grain that was harvested in the fall was damp and so sodden it needed artificial drying, but that's another story.

The chances are that when the farmer gets his spring harvesting started, the grain will grade better and bring him more money, than that taken off in the fall. But he has to be sure the grain is dry before he goes to work on it.

That has been much of a problem because the experts say that by the time the land is firm enough to support the weight of a combine, the grain will certainly be dry.

Most springs there is some grain from the previous year's crop left over to be harvested. But this year's situation is extreme. In Saskatchewan there are about 86,000,000 bushels of wheat in the fields, and there are an additional 56,000,000 bushels of oats and barley. The wheat is roughly one-quarter of the 322,000,000-bushel wheat crop.

About three-fifths of the unharvested wheat lies in the swath. That means it was cut before the winter set in. Some is in stook—arranged in conical piles in the fields. The rest is still standing.

Agriculturists say there is likely to be little difference in the condition of the wheat, whether standing or in the swath. But the uncut grain will have been knocked down by the snow and will be much more difficult to handle than the swathed grain.

About 42 per cent of the wheat harvested in Saskatchewan last fall graded No. 3 Northern or better. (The top grade is No. 1 Northern). Experts say the grain harvested this spring could improve by as much as two grades over the fall harvest.

The main hazard in spring rain which could deire the grain into the soil and cause deterioration

Saskatchewan Expects More Tourists This Year

REGINA.—Provincial officials expect a five to 10 per cent. increase in the Saskatchewan tourist trade during the coming summer season.

This would mean a record tourist year for the province.

Big drawing cards again this year will be Prince Albert national park and the far-north fishing resort at Lac la Ronge.

The latter, opened only a few years ago, will once more get all the tourists it can handle in spite of the opening of a new hotel and 20 or 30 new cabins.

Lac la Ronge has drawn many U.S. Americans because of its excellent fishing. The new resort has drawn much notice in American publications.

The province also has a number of provincial parks which will operate as usual.

News Notes From Your District Home Economist

Answer to Last Week's Question

A sleeve is properly sewn in a dress when the seam line is sewn in, and an additional row of stitching is sewn ⅛ of an inch from the seam line. The material will be trimmed to ¼ of an inch from the second stitching. This makes the seam ½ plus ¼ of an inch (or ⅝ of an inch) wide. (If the material frays badly, the seam is then overcast. Pinking may be all that is necessary).

Moisture Condensation

Condensation of moisture within the home is most apt to happen in climate where the average January temperature is 35 degrees F or colder. Canadian homes are certainly included in that classification, therefore it is most important that home builders know the dangers of moisture condensation and how it can be controlled.

Effects of condensation may not become evident until sometime after the condensation has taken place, that is, moisture which has condensed to frost within the walls is not likely to be apparent until a thaw.

Some evidences of condensation are: Damp spots on ceilings, and room-side surfaces of exterior walls; Frost on inside surfaces of windows; Moisture on basement side-walls and floor; Water-filled blisters on outside paint surfaces in some cases, leaks are the cause of trouble but usually it is the condensation of moisture.

Years ago, houses were loosely constructed and the exchange between outside and inside air due to air leakage was sufficient to control excessive humidities within the house. Condensation trouble began when the desire to save fuel brought about tightly constructed insulated homes. The tighter walls prevented warm moist air from leaking out of the house. Today, the correct use of vapour barriers (membranes through which water can not readily pass) makes it possible to have tightly constructed insulated homes without wall condensation.

Paradise Valley

The "Valley Maids"

The meetings of the Valley Maids C.G.I.T. have not been recorded very regularly but meetings have been held with the usual order of business. They were slightly disrupted during the latter part of the curling season when bonspiels and Presidents vs. Vice-Presidents competition were being held in which some of the members took part. However, that is now in the past and we must all get down to real work for a while. In March we managed to have a skating party with a weiner roast following. The weather was favorable on this occasion.

The last regular meeting was held at the home of Beatrice Kragnes. Joyce the president was absent so Joan Richardson called the meeting to order by the singing of O Canada and a sing-song. Marilyn Adams assisted Mrs. Gunn with the worship period. It was decided to make a donation to each of the following: Canadian Institute for the Blind, British and Foreign Bible Society and the Red Cross. The elder girls decided to meet at the home of the leader on Friday for help in their sewing. Slips and pyjamas are in the making. Discussions and plans were made for a dress. Juniors are making laundry bags. Jean moved a vote of thanks for the use of their home and the lunch served by Beatrice and her mother.

The girls would like to take this opportunity of thanking Mr. Richardson, Mr. A. McDonald, Mr. Kragnes and Mr. Gunn for supplying transportation to the meeting.

Shifting Population

IT IS DOUBTFUL whether people are aware of the fact that there are frequent shifts in population throughout the country. These shifts take place from district to district within the provinces, from province to province and there is too, an annual exchange of population between Canada and other countries. Many factors are responsible for the movement of population. New industries, or the development of new natural resources attract people from other parts of the country. This has been apparent recently in the growth of population in districts in Alberta where oil and gas have been discovered and there have been opportunities for many workers. There is always a movement of population towards British Columbia where the natural beauty and temperate climate attracts many hundreds of people from other parts of Canada each year.

* * * * *

Trend is Away From Country

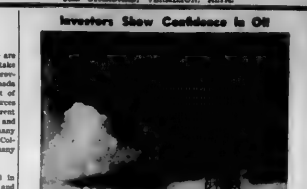
In recent years figures show that the trend in population has been away from the country and to the larger centres. In the past few years the urban population of Saskatchewan has increased by 34.9 per cent, and there has been a decline in rural population of 23.2 per cent. This trend has been apparent in all the Prairie Provinces. Manitoba cities have increased in population by 20.01 per cent., while the number of people in rural areas has declined by 4.4 per cent. In Alberta the gain in urban population has been 58.5 per cent and the decrease in the rural districts, 7.97 per cent. According to figures given in the most recent Canada Year Book between 1921 and 1931 there were 500,000 people left the Prairie Provinces. Doubtless since that time, however, there has been an upswing in the population there due to the rapid advances in the petroleum industry and other developments in the West.

* * * * *

Is A Problem To Authorities

These changes in the concentration of population present many problems to the authorities. As more and more people into any district, rural or urban, creates a need for more housing more schools, larger churches more hospital accommodation and the expansion of other services and organizations necessary to the community. While in many places these problems are being met by building new homes, schools, churches and hospitals or by extending the accommodation of facilities already there, in other places there are abandoned farms and homes, half-empty schools and churches, and a lack of people to support organizations necessary to the welfare of the remaining residents. Adjustment to these situations constitutes one of the great problems of our times and it is causing concern among social workers, teachers, the clergy and others interested in the welfare of the people.

Investors Show Confidence in Oil



Canadian and foreign investors are reaping profits from the prairie oil boom, a check-up survey of the year's trading discloses. The increase in prices of a number of western oil shares of as much as 100 per cent. Most of the trading was done in the over-the-counter market, as the bigger listings have climbed. Brokers say the active market is due to the fact that investors are beginning to have confidence in the continued production of the prairie oilfields.—Central Press Canada.

Lloydminster Oil Production Rises

EDMONTON — The Lloydminster heavy crude field straddling the Alberta-Saskatchewan border produced 82,680 barrels of oil more in January and February this year than in the first two months of last year.

Daily average production for the two months this year was 6,797 barrels. Total output was 377,627 barrels.

Of this total Saskatchewan-side wells yielded 186,963 barrels or 3,339 daily while Alberta wells accounted for 178 974 barrels or 2,863 daily.

Cumulative output from the region to the end of February totalled 9,-984,387 barrels, of which 4,946,387 came from Saskatchewan and 4 190,-388 from Alberta.

Montreal Man Spends $537 Every Minute

MONTREAL.—There's a man in a Montreal office who spends $537.84 every minute.

Last year, he spent a record $275,-000,000 to bring his 11-year total to $1,650,000,000—an annual average of $150,000,000.

He is E. A Bromley vice-president for purchases and stores, Canadian National Railways.

A typical market day for him includes purchases of a passenger boat, 5,000 head of lettuce, 500 boxcars and three or four flat-cars of lumber, poles.

"We buy everything from sealing wax to ships, from a nail to car ferries, lead to locomotives, silk stockings to structural steel," he said recently.

Last year he placed more than 24,000 orders with 10 000 firms for the parent railway company, the fleet of Canadian National Steamships, a trans-continental communications system, a rail-express service and a coast-to-coast hotel chain.

Oddities include 600,000 tons of ice for refrigerators and passenger cars, 2 700,000 pounds of wool bilks for rail lines and parkas for telegraph workers on the fringe of the Arctic Circle.

The mass of items is stored in 150 warehouses from Newfoundland to British Columbia.

"Sure and here's another one for that western state, O'Regan!"

Jersey Cattle in Saskatchewan Make Outstanding Records

REGINA.—Last year, several outstanding performances were completed in Saskatchewan and already several have been completed in 1932, according to the Canadian Jersey Cattle club.

The highest record so far is that produced by Anderview Adorations' Fancy, bred and owned by Lorne F. Barber, Wolseley. Fancy went on test at two years of age, and in 365 days produced 8,977 pounds of milk, 471 pounds of fat with a test of 5.25 per cent.

Sultan's Golden Raider Sybil is the herd of Mrs. Bea Lister and Son, Lloydminster, has produced a junior three-year-old record of 7,412 pounds of milk, 413 pounds of fat in 305 days, while in the herd of Lorne F. Barber, Anderview Adorations' Echo produced, as a senior yearling, 6,513 pounds of milk, 376 pounds of fat with a test of 5.76 per cent. in 364 days.

Doctors Have Good Alibi For Snoring

LONDON. — Medical science has come up with a solid alibi for the chronic snorer. The whistling and trumpeting is nothing but nature's way of signalling that the system's blood supply is being recharged with oxygen and as long as the sleeper is getting all is well.

The theory is advanced by Dr. J. C. Lovell Desai and Dr. Robert A. Schmeder, Medical Officers of the Nuffields Foundation, after a series of nightly vigils over seven sleepers ranging in age between 22 and 58 years. Their conclusions were published in the British Medical Journal.

Local Lumber Merchant An Asset To Your Community

Councils Have To Solve Your Building and Repair Problems

In the small office of a rural lumber yard this spring, an elderly man and his wife were bent over the desk of the yard manager, conquering a rough sketch of their own making with several in an illustrated house plan book spread out before them. The man was a farmer, about to retire and leave the homestead for his son to run.

He and his wife wanted something of a dream house for themselves in town. What they had in mind was a modern ranch-type house with big windows. But they shouldn't be too extravagant, they told the lumber merchant, and for economy's sake they wanted a flat roof. They understood it would cost them less than the usual cottage-type shingle roof.

The lumber merchant, in shirt sleeves and his hat thrown hurriedly on top of a filing cabinet, reached into a drawer for his rough estimate of their total cost based on the materials, compiled from a previous conversation on the matter.

The flat roof was possible, he told them, but they were making poor economy in the long run. True, the initial cost of a flat roof was slightly less than the usual sloped roof and it gave somewhat higher room per cost of upkeep was likely to be higher.

The plans they were turning over were contained in a big illustrated book detailing sketches of plans in stock plan service provided by the Canadian Retail Lumbermen's Association.

The lumber merchant was a member of the association and like 1,200 others from the head of Great Slave Lakes to the Pacific coast, he availed himself of its plan service.

It is part of the job of a lumber merchant to act as building consultant and architect to communities having a professional in the business.

For this reason the association backs him with a drafting service which on a mail-order basis can supply building plans or answer any question on construction. Where the lumber merchant hasn't the answer to a highly technical problem or wants assurance that his information is correct, he gets it from the association's draftsmen.

Chief architect of the drafting service is F. H. Greenway whose office is in Winnipeg but who has been prepared plans available by quoting a reasonable figure for detailed plans for anything from a community hall, garage or home to a chicken coop, hog house or grandstand.

Largest percentage of all requests comes from rural areas where a resident architect is a rarity. The association helps meet this need on the one hand by supplying plans and general building information.

It fills economically what would otherwise be an important gap in many areas.

Building is now at a high level in this part of the country. Prosperity there is much remodelling and replacement on home, barns and occupied, in many cases, by the third generation of a family. Modernization, a lot of repair and building, called for by roomier days and long over a long period of years had to go by the board during depression and war. Prosperity and peace have been made the work possible and many new homes, farm and community buildings are being erected.

Out of this new construction, certain trends are emerging to please requested of the association:

● More consideration is being given landscape and outward appearance of the home.

● Implement sheds are going up where there were none in the early 1900's. Fewer farmers leave implements in the field to rust and dry out in heavy weather, but the greater demand for shed plans has been steadily increasing. One of the most popular put out by the association, is a good-sized shed which includes a garage for the family car, a workroom where machinery repairs can be made during stack seasons, a section for combine or separator plus storage space for other machinery.

● Electrification is a big consideration in the lumber merchant's plans. When a farmer decides to remodel his home in a newly-electrified area, he often asks the lumber merchant to make his plan for electrical outlets, bathrooms and kitchen conveniences. Plumbing, heating and electricity are also required for barns. Piping from the reservoir to the job of carting water in pails or herding stock out to a well.

● Other signs of changing times are the passing of the hanger plane from ranchers and farmers and the light planes to get around their property.

The association's drafting office rarely gets an architect. "It's a good many cases," says Mr. Greenway, "that they don't even know their names." This is because the request for plan and information comes from the lumber merchant on behalf of his customer.

"Regardless of the fact we don't have the person we hope is going to live in the house we plan for him," Mr. Greenway says, "we take a definite interest in him and plan for him to get the greatest possible satisfaction out of living in it."

"We are constantly working over plans to which we may be called upon how living in a house will be, making it suitable to the climate of windows and rooms to provide the greatest comfort."

Every week into the association's office comes letters from lumber merchants for technical information. The answers are passed along to customers whose enquiries the lumbermen have instituted them. The association maintains a technical library on construction and keeps structural details and data that give proper measures for beams, posts, joists, rafters, etc. The chief architect has had differentials yearly short courses on problems in building at the University of Illinois.

The drafting office has been staffing for more than 40 years and, besides its service to construction, drawing up plans for public halls and farm buildings across the west and as far east as Port Arthur, Ont.

"This is the third article in a series of five on the services of the retail lumber trade to western Canadian communities."

ALLANDALE

We are enjoying lovely spring weather. It's very encouraging for house cleaning and all the other chores that have to be done in the spring.

April 11th Mr. and Mrs. Strome of Ingeldeld, Sask. arrived at their home here. On April 13th, on their way to the city to attend the latter's brother's funeral on the 15th. Mr. and Mrs. Orr Strome and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Strome also attended their uncle's funeral. Not so long ago Mr. and Mrs. Snider farmed in the Campbell Lake district. Our deepest sympathy to Mrs. Snider and all the relatives.

Sorry to hear Anna Nelson is in the Vermilion hospital, we hope her illness will not be too long and soon she'll be enjoying fine health again.

It was a lovely afternoon though it was wet in places, for the Allandale W.A. meeting on April 10th at the Ralph Strome home. Visitors, — always welcome, were Mrs. L. Darling and Mr. and Mrs. George Mear and son Bobby. Roll call — Twenty-nine answered to the call of the roll. Especially at this time of the year. For May, helpful hints. Some discussion was had on moving the North Vermilion church, more details later. May meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. F. Throndson and Mrs. H. McPhee on the lunch committee.

It was good to be able to attend the Easter service in Vermilion, although we had to go a mile on the tractor. Rev. Mackay gave a very inspiring message to a very large congregation. The choir under the direction of Mrs

Cox Family Held Re-union at Pibroch

A very enjoyable week end was spent by Mr. and Mrs. G. Simmons and family of Islay and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gould and family of Vermilion at the home of Cpl. Cox and Thelma's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Cox in Pibroch, Alberta.

This was the first family re-union since 1941. The occasion was that Sgt. Edward Cox was able to spend a few hours at the family home. He is one of the very few Nova Scotia to "sit-before to take the force duties before going overseas." Neither Mrs. Simmons or Mrs. Gould had seen their brother for nine years.

Others present at the re-union were Mr. and Mrs. Don Howey (Vanity Fame) and family; Mr. and Mrs. Peter Tomiak (Violet) and Sharon, all of Edmonton; Earl, Ray (Irene), Eleanor and Ronald all of Pibroch. Cpl. and Charles was unable to attend. A truly grand time was had by all.

Plans were made for our dance which was held on April 4th. The members wrapped up small articles which were sold at the dance in a lucky dip. This amused the little people and a nice sum of money was made.

The social of the meeting was "an April Fool's Joke" played on members by some mischievous person who "in time went away around.

The meeting closed with God Save the King, followed by a tasty lunch, served by the hostess, Mrs. Watt and the social hour.

The next meeting will be held at Mrs. Alex Ross' on May 7th at 2:00 p.m. Any visiting members are asked to come are very welcome. The roll call will be "A Way to Save Money" and the social will be a quilt.

Tom Stack Buys Rochester Business

SETTLE MILK PLANT

Tom Stack, manager of the N.A.D.F. creamery in Vermilion since 1943, has purchased a retail milk plant at Rochester, Alberta, and takes over his new venture on May 1st. He will be accompanied to the old town by Mrs. Stack and younger daughter Marjorie while Donna will remain in Vermilion with her grandmother Mrs. H. Elliott to complete the school term.

Rochester is a town of some 1800 population and the business which Tom has purchased is the retail milk supply complete with pasteurizing plant and delivery.

The departure of Mr. and Mrs. Stack, and family is genuinely regretted by their many Vermilion friends as they are very good citizens. Tom served for three years on the town council, has been the mainstay of the senior hockey club executive over the years, been a member of the executives of the A.A.A. and the Board of Trade.

Tom was guest of honor at the Board of Trade dinner on Wednesday when he was officially bid good by by the members of the executive and presented with a substantial gift of money and about himself, complimentary and otherwise. Interesting Meeting Of Kinsmen Club

LIEUT. ROB CHAPMAN GUEST SPEAKER

The Kinsmen club held a very interesting meeting on Monday, April 14th in the Brunswick hotel dining room. Lieut. Chapman of the Salvation Army was a special guest of the evening and gave a very enlightening address on the work of the Army. He gave a complete outline of the Army's work in Alberta and around the rest of the world. He mentioned particularly the welfare work of the Army and how they are helped by various other groups.

Shake Rag Valued at $2,300

As a guest also was Milla Parker of the Wesskiwin Lumber mill. Early this year his club took on the unusual project of booking a 91-oz IBL wool rag. The rag is now complete and he is taking it around Alberta to sell the cloths in Alberta. It is a beautiful piece of work and is valued a $2300. They are arranging for various service clubs to help them sell tickets on a raffle of this rug and if plans materialize it may be on display in Vermilion for three or four days and the public will have an opportunity to see this unusual venture and have a chance to win it. Further information will appear later.

Plans for the Marion Pitkin Stampede Queen Contest were discussed as well as plans for the Kinsmen outdoor carnival for June 18-21. Kinsmen Bob Hall and Ken Cameron are planning to attend the Alberta convention to be held in Edmonton May 23 and 24.

Excellent progress is being made harvesting last year's crop as the combines and threshing machines are running early and late with grain coming out very dry. Work on the land has also been started in many cases.

Copy and Advertising Crowded Out

A number of advertisements and a considerable quantity of news material was held over this week, there being insufficient time to publish additional pages. This material now receives priority as if you don't see it in this issue look for it next week.

Charge Dismissed

A charge of theft of spruce trees against William Tudor of Elk Point, farmer, was dismissed in the Police Magistrate's court at St Paul on Monday without calling on the defence. F. J. Richardson, Q.C., acted for Mr. Tudor.

Building Used As First School Makes Way For Modern Structure

Historical Landmark Moved From Main St.

Making way for a new ultra modern coffee shop, the old two-storey frame structure known many recently as the Harris Barber shop, has been moved to the east end of town where it will be reconstructed into a residence. The Main Street location has been purchased by Roy Watkins from Wadena, Sask. He will commence immediately to build a new coffee shop of the latest design of cement blocks and stucco. It will fill the gap completely between McLaughlin's Self-Serve and Friedman's store.

The old frame building moved out was built in 1905 and owned in the first instance by Dr. H. L. Burton who also afterwards moved to Kamloops where he is still in practice for all we know. It was used as the first school opened in January 1906 for three months, when due to the increasing number of pupils, the classes were moved to the Methodist church, now known as the Gospel hall. Miss Bowen was from there to the large brick structure which is still the public school. The moving spirits to open school were the late P. G. Pilkie and Rev. Mr. Greenway, pastor of the Methodist church. They laid the foundation of the school system in Vermilion. The first teacher employed in the building just moved were Beasie Pilkie, Beth Atherton, Hyde Hinchey, Frank Pilkie, Jim Winters, Richard Aldridge, Bert Percy and Fred Alderdice. Bud Rosborough, Florence Stewart, Sarah Winters, Vera Winters, Nanny, Lawrence and Ethel Alderdice, Bud Rosborough and Sarah McCue. The first teacher was George Marion who came from Camrose. He went from here to be principal of a school on the Parkside side in Edmonton.

The building was again used as a doctors office later by Vermilion's lady practitioner Dr. Head Parrish for many years. It was occupied as

Work Starts on Block Topping Highway

Work has commenced on completing the hard surfacing of highway 16 between Vermilion and Kitscoty. The Mannix-Ostellivan crew have moved in and already are working out from their camp at Borradaile. They plan to complete the gap from there to the Saskatchewan corner, and o put the final coat on the black cap laid last year west to Stony Creek.

The government road crew have moved back to the Kenilworth corner camp and are preparing to finish the road to Kitscoty.

Stock-piling of gravel will shortly commence near Rentirly for the completion of the hard surface road from Stony Creek to Vegreville

Opportunities In Religious Education

SPEAKERS TO TOUR CENTRAL ALBERTA

It has been announced that a team of speakers with a travelling car will tour central Alberta in the near future in the interests of religious education. The Rev. C. F. W. Goddard, Chairman of the Anglican Department of Religious Education, announced this week that the tour would be undertaken to publicize the church's work in the field, and to show what assistance is available to parishes and individual leaders.

Among the members of the team will be Miss Phyllis Napier, of the Anglican Women's Training College, Toronto, who is a specialist in girls' and children's work. She will meet with members of the Girls' Auxiliary and discuss with their parents in most of the parishes.

Also present will be Mr. Peter Cuff, a past president of the Diocesan Council, Anglican Young People's Association. Mr. Cuff is at present employed for his Arts degree at the University of Alberta with a view to finding a career in some years in business. He will meet with the young people of each district he visits, also acting as administrator for the Diocesan camp at Kapasiwin, and the camp fires and slides of camp life.

Completing the team is the Rev. F. A. Peake, Provincial Advisor in Religious Education who will address Sunday school teachers, the leaders of mid-week groups and parents on methods of teaching and Christian parenthood.

Accompanying the team will be a traveling exhibit of religious education material and a display of some of the latest books and pamphlets in this field.

Dr. Schrag To Address Home and School

INTERESTING FILM TO BE SHOWN

The Vermilion Home and School association will hold its April meeting in the primary school on April 28th at 8:00 p.m.

A very worthwhile speaker, Dr. A. Ralph Schrag, M.D. has consented to address the gathering. He will speak on dental health and will also present a film in conjunction with his talk. At the time of going to press it wasn't known what the film would be 'Angry Boy' or 'Emergence of Personality'. Either film, toger ere with the talk and discussion period, should be of interest to parents and teachers alike.

Dr. Schrag visits Vermilion periodically in connection with his work with the Guidance Clinic. It is felt that the work of this Clinic is not yet widely known, and the executive of the Home and School thought this would be an opportunity to acquaint a large number of people with the advantages offered by the Clinic. Perhaps parents, after hearing Dr. Schrag and who feel they have a family problem or a problem in the rearing of a child, would feel free to consult with the Doctor at some future visit to Vermilion.

It is hoped that a large number of parents will take advantage of this meeting and really make it worthwhile. Whether you are a member of the Association or not you are welcome and your attendance is appreciated. Lunch will be served.

McEwen To Judge At Vermilion Fair

Prof. Grant McEwen, former head of the Dominion Branch of the University of Saskatchewan and later Dean of Agriculture at the University of Manitoba, has accepted to place the awards on light horses at Vermilion's forthcoming summer fair. Prof. McEwen is perhaps one of the best known livestock men in Canada and the fact that he will officiate at Vermilion is one of the standing of this light horse show in the minds of Western stockmen.

Mr. McEwen is the author of several well known books, his latest being the very interesting 'Parade of Agriculture'.

Plans are underway to have Prof. McEwen address the gathering of farm young people who will be in attendance at the Vermilion Fair Summer Short Course at the school of agriculture and it may be that he will also speak briefly to patrons of the fair in town of the grandstand.

Vermilion Fair is to be organized as to bring able to persuade Prof. McEwen to come all the way from the Winnipeg line of outstanding light horse show.

Ladies' Choral Group Renders Pleasing Concert

The annual concert of the Vermilion Ladies' Choral group, was presented in the Columbia theatre on Sunday evening April 20th under the auspices of the I.O.D.E. for the benefit of the library fund of the organization.

Under the leadership of Mr W H Ives the choral group, which was formed in a number of choruses all of which gave evidence of a high degree of artistry and careful training, and which were enthusiastically received. The most outstanding were "Spring" by Johannes Brahms and The Dewey Song by Romberg

Interspersed through the program were vocal solos by Mrs. Ted Exley Mrs. Martin Sloane and Mrs. Marvin Hill, all of which were very well received. Mrs. Exley and Mrs. Hill gave performances of their usual high standard. Mrs. Shalna was making her first appearance as a vocal soloist in Vermilion and it is to be hoped that she will be heard frequently in the future as she has a very fine voice and pleasing personality.

Of special mention on this year's program was the introduction of 'Chorolettes', a group of little girls who were heard in two numbers which were most heartily received. Miss Dorothy McCormick in her address on the history of this organization and its work and aims towards the betterment of the community, such as welfare work, the offering of scholarships and carrying on of the library in Vermilion, towards which one-half the proceeds of this concert were donated by the Ladies' choir.

Perfect Weather

Judged from every aspect weather for the past week with the exception of Sunday, has been perfect. Sunday was windy and cool. Temperature ran up as high as 82 on Saturday April 19th while the lowest it reached was 26 above on the 21st. There has been no rain or snow.

Dewberry News

Hello folks, back in the groove again. It was certainly nice to receive the Standard all winter with news from where it counts in the manner of home interest. A special thank you to all my neighbor correspondents and hope that you will continue to supply the friends who have left your districts with the friendly information you write in the Vermilion Standard.

Residents of Dewberry spread out over a large territory last winter. Some at Yellowknife, Ontario, Mexico and Vancouver.

Dewberry F. U. A. Local held a very successful amateur night recently. The Dewberry Acrobats also prove to be very interesting and Neil Jones is to be commended for training all the tiny little girls. Over 30 members were enjoyed. A good dance followed.

At a recent entertainment sponsored by the Dewberry Curling club Vernon Keast was the winner of a chest of silver.

Another raffle in aid of the Dewberry boys band saw Steve Romanchuk win a pig, donated by Bill Young.

June in January you've heard of it. Now it's harvest in April — combines and threshers are at it again finishing up last year's work. Who said, woman's work was never done?.

Jim and Edward Lively are visiting relatives in Dewberry. They motored all the way from Nova Scotia.

Mrs Steve Romanchuk must be the one who has faith in the poultry market. She has upwards of a 1000 turkeys and another big flock of spring chickens. Mrs. Willy Klimek also has a great number of young chickens.

A. B. Wood, F.U.A. executive member will speak to a meeting of farmers in Dewberry on Wednesday April 30th at 8:30 p.m. Dewberry softball girls are going to give notice that they will be fielding a strong team again this year.

Mrs. Winton Braithwaite has returned from a visit to England. Mr. and Mrs. W. Porter returned last Saturday from Vancouver.

Our little bit late but sincere congratulations to our friend Friend Jack Allen on his recent marriage to Joyce Jack continues to protect the ladies.

Woodvale News

The warm springlike weather brought early threshing and combining activities around here last week. Weather permitting every one with harvesting to do will be busy this week and some lucky ones will be on the land.

Before roads were dry there was a Civic Defence meeting at Union school and it was a pity not more could have been in attendance. The films were very good and both Mr. Martin and Mr. Batty gave very clear outlines of what civil defence includes and the usefulness of it in peace time. There were also very few people from these parts at the blood donor clinic, which L. society was to help others and at some time or other in everyone's life, yourself or one near and dear.

With the busy term here the social life centred around the Woodvale school, will come to an end for a short while. The last card party was held on March 31st and the last dance on April 18th.

We hear that a teacher will replace Miss Ratell, the popular supervisor, early in May.

The before Easter, several friends and neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Pete Rund gathered at their place for four days and helped them with the building of their new house. The foundation had been ready for a year and now with combined efforts the walls and roof went up, and a door and several windows were put in. As many as nine persons worked there the last day to put the shingles on and Dorothy Isley helped Mrs. Rund cook. Pete is trying to finish as much as possible before going on the land, so the family can move in for the summer.

It is no news anymore that Leo Lysons broke his leg when his horse fell on him, but that the accident happened a mile from home and that the boy, hopping on one leg caught the grazing horse and climbed on it and rode home. It is probably not well known. A real feat of stoic endurance. By the time he reached home he was in agony and the horse so nervous that it took Leo's brothers quite a while before they finally caught it after chasing it into the barn. Then with the tractor pulling the sleigh over the very bad road, to the main road and by car on to town. We're all very proud of you Leo, that you were so soon afterwards able to grin and tell about your accident while showing by wiggling of your toes that the leg must be healing well. Hope you'll soon be home.

Some of the young people of Vermilion accompanied by Mrs. Mac went to see Rev. Brown when he was in Lloydminster; the second person to see him from these parts, since he left last September. He expects Mrs. Brown to join him the end of April, as she is arriving in New York from Glasgow on April 21st.

We received a very nice long letter from Mrs. Harry Portsmith. She and Mr. Portsmith are enjoying their visit east and staying and helping on a farm of her sister near Lindsay, Ont., and meeting a lot of old friends and relations. Imagine Mrs. Portsmith's shock to find some of her former young pupils have become grandparents. Since she left Lindsay 34 years ago!

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Pringle Galloway on the birth of a son.

Canadian Maple Syrup is world renowned for its delicate flavour and delightfully clean taste.

Seagram TELLS THE WORLD

"For clean taste... look to Canada"

"Say 'Canada' and you think of trufel northern air; swift-running streams; rich, rolling farm land. It seems only natural, then, that there should be an especially clean taste to so many of the good things from this favoured land."

The above illustration and text are from an advertisement now being published by The House of Seagram through-out the world—in Latin America, Asia, Europe, and Africa. This is one of a series of advertisements featuring Canadian scenes and Canadian food specialties. They are designed to make Canada better known throughout the world, and to help our balance of trade by assisting our Government's efforts to attract tourists to this great land.

The House of Seagram feels that the horizon of industry does not terminate at the boundary of its plants; it has a broader horizon, a further view—a view dedicated to the development of Canada's interest in every land of the globe.

FISHING NETS
J. A. Taylor,

YOUR BEST SECURITY IS Alberta's FUTURE

Few of us realize the extent of Alberta's commercial fishing industry — which in THE AVERAGE YEAR EXPORTS WELL over 3-million pounds. Artist Taylor here portrays a typical lake fishing establishment.

All of us realize the tremendous future of Alberta—and the helpful, progressive part that Treasury Branches are playing in its development. OUR COMPLETE SHORT STORY —

HE STRUMS A GAY GUITAR

By KERRY WOOD

"I COULDN'T help it," Corby'd explain why he stayed away from a job. "I had a chance to play at the Valley Dance."

Strictly a fiddlin' man, except that he did it with a guitar, Corby came to Willowdale when he was old enough to be done with singing stuff, too, having a bald spot and crowfoot wrinkles. He set up in a cabin on the edge of town, but he didn't need to cook too often; the ladies weren't slow with invites to their kitchens.

Women who should have known better paid him heed. It started with Miss Roche and ended with the Widow Masters, who was clerk of the court where they issued marriage licenses.

"I'll sing you one called Dreamy Lowry Corby would say. "Might've been written for you."

A fiddlin' man, for sure. Oh, he could do fancy swingeroty and he knew painting and had a dandy eye for decorating. Here and then, when he'd play Corby's handiness, some business man would offer him a steady job. But he'd never stay long. After a few days before there would be some picnic or such and away he'd go. So Corby became an odd-job man, with fiddlin' on his guitar and singing love songs his main business. Plus the ladies.

Started with Vi Rocke. She was as neat a little spinster as you'd meet in a double month. Corby sang Wishing for You at her during the strawberry social and Vi caught herself a case over him. She bloomed like a dewy girl. After a month, as far as Corby's lady-friend, with no hint of a gold ring—band, that is—showed around and married Bob the grocer. Even Bob blessed was surprised.

Corby sang Beautiful Kitty to Kate Simpkins, the teacher. Miss Simpkins hung onto Corby nearly a year, they dressed and porch-danced together. She'd get herself a lady-friend and visit Corby's shack to scrub and polish. But Corby kept staging, so Miss Simpkins had herself a cry and let him go.

"Sure, I'd be glad to dig your garden, only—Well, I'm kinda busy right now."

"Doing what, Corby?"

"Treat'm in. I'm learnin' a new set o' guitar-chords."

Just a shiftless fiddler-man, Corby. Then he met up with Mrs. Masters. A fine woman; the kind that's called capable. She'd married young and lost her husband to pneumonia. Corby sang her The Widow in Gray one night. Mrs. Masters caught it good. She stayed kittenish for a week. Then she set her chin and said: "Corby, I love you."

"Ma'am, that's how I feel about you, too."

"We'll get married right away."

"Yes, ma'am," agreed Corby. "But I got a few things to settle first."

"Such as what, darling?"

"Why, we'll need a larger house than my old shack."

"We can live here, Corby. I own this cottage, clear title and no mortgage. And it's big enough for us. That's a swell," smiled Corby. "But t'ell the truth, I'm flat broke. Course, I got lots of ideas for makin' a stake, and I'll start workin' them out soon's possible."

"Bad, darling," said Mrs. Masters. "I got money in the bank. As for work, I own a third interest in the furniture store, also, and Cleo Clegg promises to give you a big charge of the repair department. You start work the Monday after we come back from our trip."

"Our trip, ma'am?"

"Yes." Mrs. Masters looked coy. "At Coral Beach. We'll go by motor sedan and really have ourselves a holiday. It's all settled," Mrs. Masters announced.

"Yes, ma'am!"

"I've even made the marriage plans, dear, knowing how you men hate fussy details. So you just come along to the church manse on Friday, at three. I've already spoken to the Reverend Tenney, and here's the marriage license all ready to fill out."

"Darn good of you," Corby said, taking the pen she handed him. "A home, a job, and—and you!"

"Yes," cooed Mrs. Masters, kissing his bald spot. "I'll belong to you."

Corby picked up his guitar. "There's a song by that name," he commented, and sang it.

He called in the neighbors to help celebrate. Corby certa'nly was in a mood.

"Have some more angel cake, Angel?" Mrs. Masters offered, arching her eyes at him.

"You're a lucky man," said Corby, and we cheered as he kissed her.

Mrs. Masters gave us the wedding details. "You're all invited."

We were all there, too.

All except Corby, that is. We heard, later on, that he'd moved out to the Cypress Hills country. We hear that he's still fiddlin' away with his guitar, while the ladies still like him and cook up fancy meals when-ever he drops in. But Corby hasn't taken one of them a walk up any church-aisle, as yet.

Canadians Can Have Higher Income Without Higher Prices

But Economist Points Out That Wages Should Not Outpace Production

TORONTO —Trade Minister C. D. Howe's plea that organized labor not "upset the applecart" when the cost of living appears to be flattening out is brought sharply into focus by an analysis of official government statistics by Gilbert E. Jackson, Canadian economist.

Nub of Mr. Jackson's analysis is that the Dominion Bureau of Statistics latest available figures indicate that if average personal income increases by more than 2 per cent per annum compounded, the result will be higher prices for consumer goods or inflation.

The DBS figures show that, measured in terms of physical volume, Canada's gross national product (or a total of all goods and services produced) in the three-year period 1927-29 is the like three-year period 1948-50 grew by 2 per cent per year compounded.

Better Machines Are the Reason

This is equivalent to doubling Canada's gross national product in about 23 years at a steady 3 per cent-age-rate Mr Jackson said.

"In the same period, physical production per man-hour increased at an average annual rate of 2 per cent compounded, mainly because of technological improvements and greater investment in more efficient machines

"But Canadians chose to take part of the resulting benefits in leisure—shortening the average work week—so the physical volume of production per man-year rose by only 1½ per cent

"Meanwhile population increased by 1½ per cent per year compounded

Combination of these two figures gives us the increase in the physical volume of Canada's gross national product a, overall, by 3 per cent.

Increase Comes From Productivity

"Assuming future growth in Canada's productivity per man-hour at the same rate, average personal income could increase by 2 per cent per year compounded without creating inflation

"Real incomes can only rise if there are increases in productivity per man-hour. Improvement in our standard of living can only come from increases in the national production.

Go Ahead Or Go Back?

As corporations, individuals or as a nation we have the choice of saving or not saving or spending past savings In other words, we can decide to go ahead, stand still, or go backwards

In Canada, $5 of savings and new investment are required each year to produce $1 of permanent additional annual output.

Thus if the 3 per cent average annual increase in physical volume in Canada's total output during the past generation required that Canadians should invest 15 (multiplied by 3) about 15 per cent, of our gross national product. The figure was actually about 16 per cent

Progress Depends on Saving

But population thirth plus immigration is currently increasing by 3½ per cent, per year, compared with 1½ per cent in the last two decades, so to maint. in the increase in our personal standards of living and take care of this more rapid rate of population growth, Canada needs hereforth an increase in her gross national product of 4 per cent. per year compounded—instead of 3 per cent.

So we should invest henceforth 20 per cent. of our gross national product each year, and step up the rate of corporate and personal saving accordingly

Do this and we double the physical volume of Canada's total output at the rate of one in 18 years.

"But individual and collective folly can destroy this magnificent prospect

NEWS from ISLAY

(Held over from Last Week)

On Saturday we had a call from Syd Guerney—yes he had walked in. Syd says he loves to walk and I really believe he does. He got the license plates for his car, visited with a number of old timers and at 5 o'clock was on his way home. Syd tells us that his daughter Joan who is training at Victoria hospital in Prince Albert, has her cap now

Threshing is well under way in this neighborhood. The fine dry weather is being enjoyed. A large quantity of grain is being trucked to the elevators and the field will soon be cleared for the spring cultivation and seeding.

Percy Willer has almost completed a small greenhouse near his residence. This will be interesting work as well as profitable providing early plants for the garden.

Easter holidays are over and it is back to school for the young fry. They have had a very enjoyable week riding their bikes, catching gophers and gathering crocuses for mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd McCrea and Betty were supper guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Stewart on Friday evening.

The cold wind on Sunday reminds us that we haven't left old man winter very far behind yet. The temperature went down to 18 above this night and there was quite a chill to Monday morning.

and has obtained exceptionally high marks. We were glad to get word of the folk down around Kohuse, that they are all doing well now the winter is over, but it has been rather a nic one at that.

Great excitement in Islay on Good Friday, twin boys were born to Mr. and Mrs. David Clarke, congratulations. Someone said they thought the population of Islay was 105, well, it's over that mark now!

Saw Bill Hanna in town with his tractor Tally-Ho — and in it was Honey Easton. I believe they gave Syd Guerney a ride the last mile into town.

Who should we see but Von Hutchinson riding a fast-flying motorcycle, an extra seat on it too and all nicely padded with sheep's wool, but no side car—perhaps he will get one later? Now we are looking for Mrs. Hutchinson to come into town, haven't seen her all winter.

We were pleased to see Chris Calens at the hall Thursday night. He had just come into Islay and when he learned that Kitscoty was here presenting "Songs of Yesteryear" he came along to the hall. He certainly wouldn't have missed it, he said. The musical was really excellent. There was the greatest variety of music and acting that has ever been put on in this hall. Tim Bootsman's rich lovely voice in some of those old sweet songs was really something you folks who were not present, missed. Then the song "Down by the Sea" was nicely acted out and the costumes of the Gay 90 performers were something to talk about. You know the kind of bathing suits of those days! Mr. Stokes and Rev. Vogel sang "I don't want to play in your yard" — they were quite the girls with their red snake sox, cute dresses, bonnets and yellow braids, but their voices sounded as if they had a wee bit of a cold. But what we think about your breath away was when Sheila Pidcock, a very pretty lady in train and ruffles, after she had sung a very lovely old song suddenly shot into tap dancing — and could she! She just lifted her ruffled skirts and stepped it off. And Mr. Joe Batty along with Mr. Bert Stokes could surprise you any minute. Thanks Mrs. Batty and all your cans for a very enjoyable evening.

Who happened to Charlie Redmond and family Thursday night? We didn't see you in. Oh yes — someone said that Charlie's pedal foot got a cramp, and Olive can't

I was asked if Jim Hepburn was still in Islay, so I'd better let folks know. Yes, Jim is here, hale and hearty, joins the other young fellows on the bench on the sidewalk on sunny days, also Archie Chambers is here, Joe Betton out doing his shopping and John Carman out each day. Jim Yin still operates the corner store.

Who should walk into the hall Thursday night but George Bowen. He was driving from Edmonton to Kitscoty to visit his sister, Peggy, Mrs. Jim Smith. George is driving a Prefect. He says he can go anywhere for almost nothing when it comes to using gas.

Monday at 1:15 p.m. the telephone rang and a voice said "prairie fire at Purser's—and there was! It was travelling over the hill back from their house, fanned by a stiff breeze. A crowd soon gathered and it was put out, but not before it had burned over a large area. Betty thinks she lost 5 pounds over it.

Noticed in town Tuesday Mrs. Kate Redmond needing a lift to the sidewalk in front of the drug store, same as Mrs. John Grant of Dewberry who suggested some kind of a mechanical lift device unless someone lowered the sidewalk. Also in town were Mr. and Mrs. August Isert wondering if roads to Hilton's farm were passable. Are they, Jim Stone? An idea is to broadcast over CKCA. Also Mr. and Mrs. H. Webedale of Dewberry, Mr. and Mrs. Matheson and Mrs. G. Skinner, Mr. and Mrs. Hoeppner, Sr., from south of town, the Syd Greens, Buchanans, Mr. Bill Maddex, Mr. Maheeb.

Mrs. Arlamyk, R.N., arrived to fill a vacancy on the nursing staff at the Islay hospital.

A very pretty wedding was celebrated in the church on Tuesday when Dorothy, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack McNeely was united in marriage to Mr. Fred Grosvenor. There were many relatives and friends in attendance. We noticed Mr. and Mrs. Norman Lambert of Edmonton. A long, happy life is wished to the young couple.

"... the willingness to find a way"

A man who started a new business a few years ago recently wrote to pay tribute to the bank's part in helping to make it a success:

"We were fortunate in having, as our banker, a man who could combine with experience the willingness to find a way that called not for experience alone but for imagination as well."

The chartered banks are forever alert to the fresh problems, the changing needs of their customers. At all times, in all your banking problems, you can depend on your local bank to bring experience and imagination to the task of helping you to "find a way".

Interest on the national debt during the past year amounted to $440 million and had the Government during recent years adopted some of the suggestions made by Social Creditors for the purpose of financing war and other expenditures, much of this money could have been saved by proper use of the Bank of Canada, but because of the insistence of carrying on under our present monetary system, the people, rich and poor alike, are now compelled to pay millions of dollars each year unnecessarily, but apparently the people little by little are beyond the smoke screen of our present antiquated system and when a sufficient number see the folly of our present set-up, we can expect relief from heavy taxation and a more abundant life for all. Because the operation of our monetary system at the present time, we have several thousand unemployed in Canada while at the same time, an era pointed out in a church sermon on Sunday, April 6th, we have many families in all parts of Canada living in one room and as many as six or eight families using the same bath room accommodation.

Initial Payments on Grain

News Notes From Your District Home Economist

More about Moisture

Use of a vapor barrier is the most effective means of preventing moisture from getting inside walls and ceilings. The barrier may be applied to the warm side of exterior walls or ceilings, it may be an integral part of the plaster-base or wallboard or it may be a membrane immediately back of the plaster-base or wallboard.

Several types of vapor-resisting membranes are:

Duplex paper consisting of a continuous sheet of asphalt between two sheets of paper;

Surface-coated and glazed asphalt-saturated building paper;

Aluminum or other metal foil.

Ordinary asphalt-saturated roofing paper and building papers are not good vapor barriers as they permit passage of too much vapor.

To be effective a membrane must be continuous and unbroken to prevent passage of moist air. All the joints must be lapped and securely fastened on studs, joists and bracing.

In applying vapor barriers don't overlook:

Space under attic stairs;

Openings around light fixtures;

Openings in exterior or interior walls which connect with the attic space;

Cracks around attic doors;

Openings from stud space of interior partitions to the attic.

Some plaster-base and wallboard with barrier backing make satisfactory vapor seals for frame walls. The joints between these sheets of wallboard must be especially sealed to prevent moisture from passing through.

Vapor resistant paints and surface coatings prevent water vapor from entering the wall. Paints which are effective vapor barriers include most aluminum, asphalt, lead, oil paints and varnishes. The water emulsion paints are not good barriers.

Membrane or attached vapor barriers of known value are preferred to paints for new construction; paint or waterproof wall coatings are preferred for existing structures as they are applied more easily and at less cost.

Farming In Britain

FARMING HAS ALWAYS BEEN one of Canada's leading industries and it is of great importance to the economic welfare of the country. In Great Britain farming has occupied a much less important place in the national economy, but nevertheless, great advances have been made in the industry there in the last decade. During the war the usual amounts of food could not be shipped to Britain and since then economic difficulties have prevented the importation of normal quantities of wheat and other foods. During that time, British farmers have made great efforts to increase production and they are continuing to seek means of growing as much food as possible to help meet the demands of the markets in their country

• • • • •

Show Extent Of Progress

Some indication as to the extent of the progress which has been made was given by Mr Thomas P Devlin, secretary of the Clydesdale Horses Association of Canada, who returned recently from a visit to the United Kingdom. Mr. Devlin said that there are now approximately 500,000 farms in Great Britain and that agricultural production there is now forty per cent higher than it was before the last war. There are thirty-one million acres of land under cultivation and in use as pasture, and the yield per acre compares favourably with that of any country in the world. The land is under intensive cultivation and the use of farm machinery has increased considerably in recent years

• • • • •

More Tractors Are Now Used

The use of tractors has increased by six hundred per cent since 1939, Mr. Devlin said, and there are now more tractors per acre there than in any other country in the world. British farmers can only hope to produce a small fraction of the food required by the population there, but it is interesting to hear of the successful efforts which are being made to increase production. There are many ties between British and Canadian farmers and there is continuous exchange of information and items between them. Doubtless some of the improvements now employed in British farming methods were learned in this country, but in turn, Canada has profited from the knowledge and experience of British farmers. There is widespread admiration here for Great Britain's progress in agricultural production

Prairies Enjoy Abundant Moisture

Heavy Rainfalls in Spring Fall Considered The Overall Situation

(By The Canadian Press)

Western Canada enjoyed abundant moisture for the second winter in succession and precipitation figures indicate good prospects for 1952 crops.

Statistics prepared by the meteorological division of the federal transport department show huge increases over normal precipitation in Alberta and Saskatchewan, and a small amount above normal in Manitoba, for the seven months up to the end of February.

For that period Alberta showed an increase of 44 per cent. over normal and Saskatchewan 68 per cent. Manitoba was three per cent. above normal.

Official statistics for March are incomplete but moisture in southern Alberta was still above normal. Actually floods caused more damage around Medicine Hat and the Stoodview district. Saskatchewan river knocked out three centre spans of the big bridge near Swift Current, Sask. Floods in various areas added to the soaking that the ground absorbed since last Autumn.

March precipitation was below normal in Saskatchewan and Manitoba, but the generally dry and cold weather of the last few weeks was welcomed. Before they can get a new crop in many western farmers still have to get about 130,000,000 tons of soil on the ground, which was left in last autumn's bad weather.

Heavy rainfalls last August, while halting the harvest in wide areas of southern Alberta and southwestern Saskatchewan, severely and materially improved the over-all moisture situation for the 1952 crop. There was also an excess of nearly 100 per cent. in southeastern Saskatchewan, and more than 50 per cent. in Manitoba.

During September there were more heavy rains in the southern parts of Alberta and Saskatchewan, with excesses ranging to more than 100 per cent. Northern Saskatchewan and western Alberta were high above normal in this month although deficiences were reported in north and central Alberta and in eastern Saskatchewan.

October brought above normal precipitation everywhere except in eastern Manitoba. The rains slackened off in November with most of it as much as 20 per cent. in southern Alberta and southern Saskatchewan, as well as in Manitoba.

For the three months of December, January and February the wheat belt snowfall was about twice as large as usual in southern Alberta. There were also increases of 10 to 15 per cent. in northern and central Alberta, Saskatchewan and Manitoba had 30 per cent. above normal, but there were deficiencies in southeast Saskatchewan, northern Saskatchewan, eastern and western Manitoba.

Here's Way To Test Old Seed

Most kinds of seeds left over from last year will germinate this spring if it's wise, however, to test seeds before sowing.

Testing can be done by taking a number of seeds—say 10—and placing them between two strips of blotting paper or soft cloth. Then set the in a pan or, flat dish of moist sand.

Within a week the sprouts should show.

Another method is to place the seeds on wet blotting paper on a saucer, then cover them with a glass tumbler. The glass conserves moisture and in three or four days the fertile seeds will sprout.

Elephant Seal Caught Off B.C.

VICTORIA, B.C.—A sea elephant, or elephant seal, representative of an almost extinct southern Pacific species, was caught here recently.

The seal, weighing one ton, was caught by Thomas Peter, an Indian fisherman of this town on the west coast of Vancouver Island.

It is believed to be the first of its kind ever caught in British Columbia waters. The seal is about 14 feet long, has the usual seal's body, but its head has a distinct resemblance to that of an elephant.

The elephant seal normally inhabits waters of the southern hemisphere

Local Lumber Merchant Has Services Of Architect And Draftsmen For Customers

SERVICE VARIETY OF CONSTRUCTION PROBLEMS

"What light and economical material can be used to roof a turkey shed? It must stand high winds and plenty rain and snow?" This was one of nearly 2,000 requests for building information mailed or telephoned in during the past year to the architectural files of the Western Retail Lumbermen's Association in Winnipeg from lumber merchants across western Canada.

It came from a rural town where a turkey farmer had asked his local lumber merchant for advice on an open-sided roofed shed he was building. He lived in an area where winds reached a speed of 60 miles an hour.

The merchant enclosed a rough pencil sketch to help the association's draftsmen.

The association, to which nearly 1,000 lumber merchants belong, employs an experienced architect and two draftsmen year-round, plus two extra draftsmen in the busy spring-to-fall building season.

It is their job to put out standardized plans, forms available for any community, farm or town building project; to draw up special plans not covered by this stock plan service; and to answer questions on a wide variety of construction problems. They give expert advice on a professional basis and with a thorough knowledge of western soil and climatic conditions. This service also applies through his local lumber merchant can get a sound answer on how to solve a building problem.

Here are samples of the sort of queries the association's architectural staff gets from lumber merchants:

"How many vents should a cattle barn have?" . . . (a cork board solution's handy for basement insulation.)

We have customers inquiring about a roof for hotel bar and dining. Have you any information on what they are using in the U.S.A.? It is necessary to be as neat as possible."

"Please picture windows are so big." says Mr. Greenway, "that they are wails raiser than windows." He holds that there should be a balance.

It is excellent, he believes, where it looks on a fine view. But if view is not good, he does his best to dissuade a home-builder from using it.

Exterior of the western ranch-type home is commonly wood siding. Stucco or composition material.

However the ranch-type house has a long way to go yet, before it is commonplace.

Of the total of three rural dwellers, according to Mr. Greenway, want a story-and-a-half house with gable roof, usually with dormer. Occasionally there is a request for plans for a two-storey house.

Demands for building plans are varied. On one and the same day, Mr. Greenway was once asked to send out the plans for a ranch-type house and from another quarter, for an old house plan drawn in the early 70's.

Yet rural housing, he believes, has been undergoing a gradual change for the past 50 years. Receding more and more into the past are the square two-storey box-like houses, often unpainted, that once predominated across the west.

Greatest single advance in construction in the past decade is the use of insulation. Most inquiries handled by the architectural office today concern it. It first came with the discovery that cold and drafty buildings are caused in many cases by heat losses through ceilings and roofs. It was found that this could be prevented by placing insulating materials above attic ceilings and on the underside of roofs. Many insulation products came to the fore. Insulating stiff boards which can be used as wall or ceiling, soft batts or blanket which can be nailed or stuffed into place and loose granular materials which can be poured or blown into such Today the use of insulating materials of all kinds is increasing by giant strides not only for old and new homes but for barns and hog and chicken houses, etc.

(This is the fourth in a series of five on the services of the lumber merchant to western Canadian communities.)

Sixteen Years Ago Today

April 25, 1936

The roads opened for cars last Friday and Saturday with the result that the townspeople again welcomed a number of farmers and old timers who have been snowed in all winter. For many of the visitors it was their first trip to town since Christmas.

Teachers decided to form a branch of the A.T.A. here and Paul H. Steele was elected president and J. C. Brown secretary. Carl Johnson was chosen as delegate to the convention at Calgary.

Spring seems to have arrived at last with wild ducks and geese, bluebirds and robins, gophers, crocuses and pansies.

Major Douglas was president of the golf club and Bertie Bury secretary.

Thirty-two Years Ago Today

April 21, 1920

Miss Gertrude Rykman of Mannville has been engaged as an additional teacher on the public school staff.

Real spring has come at last.

Rev. J. E. Tyner pastor of the Church of Christ (Disciples) here for nine years preached his farewell sermon Sunday evening. He now goes to Nelson, B.C.

Charles E. Henry has returned to town from California.

Auction sales were advertised for E. H. Johnson, A. Atkins, S. A. Eckford, S. C. Carlson, Mrs. M. J. Christian.

Highest temperature for the week ended April 11th to 17th was 36 above and the lowest 14 above. 2.25 inches of snow had fallen in that period.

Clandonald News

Quite a variation in temperature has been experienced during the past few days, ranging from zero mid-April high of 77 on Saturday to a chilly high of 40 on Sunday accompanied by a brisk north-west wind and a few flakes of snow.

Mr. and Mrs. Cooper Earlhouse of Mannville were visitors here shortly.

There was considerable excitement for a while Saturday night when a distant reddish reverberation in the sky about 11:00 p.m. noticed a good-sized blaze several miles distant and very close to some farm buildings. On spreading the alarm in town about a dozen cars and trucks were soon on their way to the scene of the blaze. It was as the first thought that it was one of Martin's and the boys who were all in town at the time, broke all records driving to the scene. However Art Gratton, ran them a close second with his Jeep. On arriving at the scene of the fire which was at unknown origin, it was found at the farm of James Kirwin and unfortunately proved only an old straw shed. Had the wind which was very high at the time been blowing in any other direction the fire would have wiped out the entire set of farm buildings in a few minutes.

This fire calls to mind another one on a very similar occasion back in 1930 when a fire got out of control completely destroyed the farm home with all its contents and several small buildings containing many tools, belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Clandonald, two and a three miles north-east of town. So rapid was the advance of the fire that the occupants barely had time to save anything and had to vacate in a hurry in a light rain storm.

Tragic Death of John Kornese

The entire community was very shocked and saddened when it was learned of the tragic death of John Kornese of the Landonville district, on the night of Easter Monday. The Kornese family moved to the district from Mannville about ten years ago purchasing the fine farm formerly owned by Soderstrom Bros. Since that time they have proved themselves to be good neighbours and friends and public-minded citizens. Deepest sympathy is extended to the sorrowing family at this time of their great loss.

Good Neighbors to Leave

It is with genuine regret that we report that Mr. and Mrs. Orville Chalmers are having a clearing out auction sale on Friday and will in all probability be leaving the district

Mr. and Mrs Floyd Henry left Friday night for Windsor, Ont. where they are picking up a new truck which they are driving back

Death and Funeral Of John Kornuse Jr.

The Clandonald district was shocked and saddened when it was learned that John Kornuse Jr., youthful farmer of the north Clandonald district, received fatal injuries in an accident which took place on his father's farm on Monday, April 14th.

It is believed that Johnny as he was affectionately known, was attempting to destroy a coyote which had ventured close to the farm buildings on the fatal night, and that when stalking the animal he fell, resulting in the discharge of the gun. A coroner's inquest was held on Saturday April 14th.

Born in Hungary on June 18th, 1936, Johnny came to Canada with his family in 1925 when they settled in the Vermilion district. They later moved to the vicinity of Manville. In 1940 the family moved north of Clandonald.

John will be remembered in the neighborhood for his infectious good nature and for his never-ending help to snowbound neighbors with his Cat.

Funeral services were held in the Roman Catholic church at Clandonald on Friday, April 18th. Interment followed in the Clandonald cemetery. Rev. Father McPhee officiated assisted by the Rev Father Scrivens.

The pall-bearers were Messrs. Eric Nesbitson, Henry Hoover, Harry Trach, Norman Stanley, Waldemar Protsch and Hans Retzlaff.

Johnny leaves to mourn his loss his loving parents Mr. and Mrs. John Kornuse Sr., one brother Robert of Clandonald, two sisters Mrs Robert Protsch of Dewberry and Rose of Clandonald.

Parkside Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

WILDMERE WINKS

Bridge Topics from Here

On Sunday afternoon Mr. and Mrs. J. Wallington, Billie Smith, Peggy Bobby and Kenny Graham drove down to the Battle River bridge south of Battleview school. They stopped over on its side into the water and the car level with it is resting on the river bed. Surely no bad 'n reinforcing was in hand so as not to make such a mess of twisted timbers and tangled iron work. Battleview people never realized how much they used this bridge until now when they have to go miles around. Here's hoping the government will rebuild this structure in the very near future.

Threshing and combining have been the order of the day lately. Lloyd Howard purchased a H. G. burn's of Willoughby district, at L. Saunter's and Charlie Goat's of Wildmere. At time of writing he is combining at Don Cooper's of Tryangle. A Stobe has also done some combining. Cliff Cruthers finished threshing at J. Bathe's on Saturday. Cliff has done a lot of varying work on the land. Lloyd Howard has been doing some rock picking. This week will see the beginning of spring work.

The whist drive and dance held by the Basswood Jr. Red Cross at Basswood school last Friday was a very enjoyable evening. Eight tables of whist were played and the winners were: Ladies 1st Mrs. Guy Whitlock, consolation Mrs. Harry Whitlock; gents 1st Otto Kuleit of Manville; consolation Ian Cruthers of Triangle. Here is something that doesn't happen very often, little Isabelle Gilmour, Sawyerville, called on to pull a ticket from a hat and the person who was holding it on ask tray and she pulled out her own ticket! After supper dancing was enjoyed for a couple hours to George Stewart and Albert Smith furnished the music and J. Bathe as MC.

Mrs. H. Howard of Edmonton visited over the week-end with her son Lloyd and family at the old family home in Wildmere. We are sorry to hear that Lloyd is moving you Mrs. Howard.

Mr. Guy Whitlock is the proud owner of a '47-20 Massey-Harris tractor purchased from Geo. Webb of Vermilion. Guy is also about to erect one around here to turn from the faithful horse to the steel horse for farm work.

Preston-Wildmere Jr. Red Cross will hold a dance and sale of articles on Friday April 25th at the school. Everyone welcome. Gents 35c.

The writer was very pleased to have a nice chat with Mrs. Enfield of Mannville (nee Thelma Duncan of Vermilion). It has been several years since we last saw this friendly face. Thelma taught the Trapping school when she finished Normal.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Turner, son Ronnie and Jack Veitch, of Battleview were callers at the Wallington home on Sunday. Billie Brith was also a visitor at the same house.

Noticed around: Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Howard of Edmonton in the district in town Saturday for the first time since before Xmas; Mrs. Ed Bathe's patient is now fairly comfortable. Glad you're ready calls or mail in your contribution.

Classes Are Underway At Several Points

15 Civil Defence Meetings Held

A series of meetings on Civil Defence organization has recently been completed throughout the M.D. of Vermilion River No. 71.

Fifteen points within the municipal district were covered in a period of two weeks. Mr. George Martin Controller for M.D. 71 and Mr. Allan Batty of Kitscoty addressed these meetings followed by a showing of the following films: Tale of Two Cities, City Under Seige, Are You Safe at Home?.

The following points were covered: Clandonald, Dewberry, Marwayne, Streamstown, Dutmee, Blackfoot, Lloydfield, Kitscoty, Islay, Paradise Valley, McLaughlin, Union, Wildwood, Wildmere and Manville (Alberta). A total of over 1200 people attended the meetings and over 500 persons enrolled for Civil Defence training and First Aid. The main difficulty with regard to training especially in First Aid is the shortage of instructors in that work and it is hoped that any person who may be qualified to instruct in this line will come forward and offer their services for Civil Defence.

Classes have already got underway at several points and it is expected that most of the other points covered by the meetings will be sufficiently organized to commence classes in both fire fighting and first aid within the next month.

Arrangements are now being made to cover the remainder of the municipal district so that there will be a Civil Defence organization in every area.

Civil Defence training is to be carried out by Mr. Martin and Mr. A. Batty both of whom are qualified instructors, having taken the Provincial Civil Defence training course at Olds.

A complete survey of the M.D. is presently underway and when completed will give the Control committee much valuable information, which information will in turn be passed on to the Provincial headquarters

Organization of meetings etc. is in the hands of Mr. Jos. Batty, the secretary of the control committee and any information concerning Civil Defence in this district can be had from the Controller, Secretary or the Instructors.

It is the hope of the Control committee that the M.D. of Vermilion River No. 71 will be one of the first municipalities to be fully organized in the Province of Alberta.

Vermilion Fair Summer Camp Now Open For Entrys

INTERESTING PROGRAM FOR BOYS AND GIRLS

The very popular Vermilion Fair Summer camp will be held this year at the Provincial School of agriculture Vermilion, from July 21 to 26 inclusive and young people 12 to 18 are cordially invited to attend. Short courses will be given in agriculture and household arts and those in attendance will be guests of the Vermilion Fair board for fair performances.

The ages limit for boys and girls round from 13 to 18 years and no person who has not definitely reached the age of 12 or 18 will be accepted as the youngest age interferes to some extent with the work of 4-H clubs offered.

Hundreds of boys and girls from this district have enjoyed these summer camps over a long period of time and all those interested are urged to make their applications early as the number which can be accepted is limited.

At the Vermilion hospital an emergency operation was performed and it was found that the boy had four bullet holes in his intestine The sling was also found and removed.

Although his condition was regarded as grave for awhile, at press time he was reported as progressing favorably and recovery.

What Is Normal?

Following what seems to be a general trend, Canada is to have a new cost-of-living index with the base period post war instead of the 1935-39 years. This will mean, says The Financial Post, that officially we are about to write off the wartime and post-war inflation and reach the hard conclusion that the situation we find ourselves in today must be regarded as normal.

There has been some criticism of the new move as being unrealistic, but, points out The Post, times, products, prices and tastes have changed vastly since 1935-39 and it would be a daring prophet who would predict that the old levels will ever return. Periodically we must establish a new base for every set of statistics or these figures will only be of interest to historians. We have made changes before.

The main point to remember is that no matter how carefully and efficiently compiled, statistics like firearms should not be handled carelessly. With nothing but bare figures to guide him, a man from Mars might very easily conclude that all Canadians were paupers prior to 1914 and all were millionaires after 1950, whereas a citizen who has just paid his income tax might argue that the reverse was nearer the truth.

About 51 people attended church on Sunday. Two babies were christened, Jimmy Williams and Susan Perkins. The writer's wee girl told her daddy about the christening: "The man washed 'em and dried 'em and kissed 'em."

Margaret Robinson and Keith Burt are the latest to suffer from the flu.

Joe Payne is busy building these days — What? Ask Joe!

A large crowd attended Mr. Sorochan's sale. Their friends and neighbors are sorry to see them leave but best wishes accompany them to their new home at Hillis. We will surely miss Steve at the ball games.

The writer was pleased to have Mr. and Mrs. Johnston and Ronnie, Mr. and Mrs. Forsein and Shirley as guests for supper Sunday. The Knutson family paid us a visit Sunday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Maggs have again journeyed to Edmonton and brought home a wee baby girl to add to their family.

CROWSNEST SUPPLY VERMILION LIMITED

Sixteen Years Ago Today

April 30th, 1936

Town council police department in an intelligent move was warning everyone of the dangers of .22 shooting in the vicinity of the town. (Ed. Note.—This would be just as applicable today.)

Wednesday May 13th was proclaimed clean-up day.

Spring and summer sports including tennis, baseball and golf were well under way.

The Hornby land settlement scheme was approved for the Vermilion district.

Thirty-two Years Ago Today

April 28th, 1920

Farmers have started work on the land during the past week.

The Vermilion Land and Ranching Co. has just sold 2,500 acres of land in the Vermilion district to the Big Bend Land and Cattle Co. of Spokane, Wash. The price was $130,000.

Relieving the acute feed shortage a considerable quantity of hay has been received and distributed through the Vermilion Valley M.D.

Stanley F. McCloskey arrived in town as teller in the Bank of Commerce. He is an experienced and well qualified accountant.

Public Building

New construction of public buildings in the coming year under the Dept. of Public Works will cost the taxpayer $318 millions — or 12% more than last year, reports The Financial Post.

While the increase is less, proportionately, than the expansion normally expected in an election year, the public works program is one of the mildly surprising features of government expenditure in a year when effort is being focused on defense.

The program is confined to Ontario, Quebec and Nova Scotia with a small portion for Manitoba.

DR. HANLAN ADDRESSES ANGLICAN MEN'S CLUB

The Anglican Men's club held their regular supper club meeting at the Parish hall last Tuesday evening, and as usual a delectable meal was enjoyed. This time roast beef was contributed gratis by the King family of Thorneliffe and their fellow members from town rather indicated that beef was really a rare treat.

At a short business session it was decided to have one more meeting this summer and this would be a 'ladies' night' on Tuesday May 20. More will be heard of this before long.

The guest speaker for the evening was Dr. Denis Hanlan who gave a very interesting talk on "Body Mechanics in Relation to Health". It appears that when one thinks of the human body in terms of proper balance, or correct posture, several things have to be taken into consideration. In the first places is the central supporting column or spine, in proper alignment? If it is not, what is the reason for it being out of position? When looking directly at the normal spine from the back it is seen as a straight vertical line. The pelvis, composed of sacrum and hip bones, should be at right angles to the base of the spine. This usually results in a properly balanced body that has normal weight distribution, and with the body weight properly centred on the weight bearing parts of the lower limbs, provided the spinal curvatures toward the front and back are also normal.

In any deviation from the above picture, one will find that the pelvis, which provides the foundation for the spine is lower on one side. When the foundation of a house gives away at one corner we all know what happens to the house. The same is true for the body. If the pelvis is out of alignment the spine will develop curvatures.

There are usually one or two conditions which cause this. One is a short leg, either through development, or as the result of a severe accident to it some time in the past. If such is the case, a lift under the foot on the short side usually suffices after other corrections have been made. The other condition is more common and is an actual tilting back of the pelvis brought on either by the position assumed while working or by bad posture habits in childhood.

In the early stages of spinal deviation the spine shows a single long curve toward the low side, known as a primary or 'C' curve. Note that in all cases the head tries to assume a position directly above the centre of the sacrum. As this condition results in poor weight distribution, the central part of the spine gradually moves toward the high side, going beyond the centre line, to a secondary, or 'S' curve, which is a double curve. Later on the lumbar vertebrae or lower portion of the spine tends to rotate towards the low side of the pelvis. Since the bodies of the vertebrae are much thicker at the front than the back, this produces a form of 'wedging' which tends to straighten those parts of the spine immediately above. This may be good from a mechanical point of view, but it weakens the ligaments and muscles which hold the vertebrae in place, and what is perhaps more important, it results in interference with the nerve impulses travelling along the spinal nerves in this area.

When you have abnormal nerve supply you will have impaired function of the parts of the body so supplied. Some of the more common examples are sciatica, backache, disorders of pelvic and abdominal organs, including the appendix and bowels, as well as the primary sex organs. There is also a definite effect on the feet and legs as a direct result of improper nerve supply, and poor weight distribution. Again, the results may be varicose veins, weak arches, bunions, etc.

As poor body mechanics continue to remain uncorrected, further changes take place in the spine which results not only in a poorer posture, with less chance of correcting it, but also in interference with nerve impulses controlling both structure and functions of organs and other tissues at higher levels of the body. Here we see symptoms referrable to liver, gall-bladder and stomach- including ulcers, then on towards middle life come the heart conditions and other chest diseases.

A Boy, His Dog — And Spring

OUR COMPLETE SHORT STORY—

Thank You, William

By RUTH K. KENT

Martha Always Seemed Warm, Wise Woman About Lasting Loyalties.

MARTHA set the hot cakes in front of her husband. "Know what day it is, William?" she asked timidly.

He sipped the hot coffee. "Wednesday."

Martha held back the tears. "Yes, Wednesday," she said, and turned back to the stove, her red ankles tapping the linoleum clumsily. It was true, William had reached the age when a man takes his wife for granted. He never even noticed that she had taken to wearing red sandals and frilly aprons. And even though she gave him a hint by mentioning that she'd like one of those new plastic compacts like Miss Harmon in his office had, William never noticed that Martha had started wearing powder and rouge. Martha brushed away a tear. Dreams were all right for young lovers, but middle-aged people should be sensible about things. Martha felt, however, that she never would be too old to be sentimental about William.

He finished a second stack of cakes, drained his blue pottery cup, and got up and put on his coat. He came to her and put a finger under her chin to tilt up her face. His simple goodbye kiss warmed her and she wanted to put aside her pride. But goodbye kisses could become routine to a man. Like catching a bus every morning.

As she heard her husband walk down the back steps, Martha sighed. She had always scorned women who worried about losing husbands. Especially after they had been happily married for over twenty-five years. Now Martha's scorn was coming home to her.

It all started last week when William asked, "Martha, what size do you suppose Gertrude wears?"

Gertrude was Miss Harmon. Martha dropped the towel she was ironing. "What size what?" she asked tartly.

"Well . . ." William scratched his head. "Shoes and things. Shoes or something like that."

Martha slammed the iron down hard on a table cloth. "How should I know?"

William deliberated while he filled his pipe. "Well, she's just about your age, isn't she?"

"I don't know," Martha shrugged. "If she is, her dress size is thirty-eight and her shoes are seven. Anything else you want to know? And why?"

"Well I . . ." William puffed his pipe, and his tanned face reddened. "I . . . she's having a birthday and I might to . . . I mean, I wanted to give her something. She's been a faithful employee."

"Yes," Martha agreed. What else could she do? She, too, considered Miss Harmon a conscientious worker. Martha always went in and visited with her when a girl was having baby. A few days ago Martha went in the office and Miss Harmon was making herself a cup of coffee in a plastic compact. Martha had never seen one like it and thought it was beautiful. That was the day she went out and bought powder and rouge and started using them. That was the evening she hinted to William that she'd like one of those compacts.

And last night Miss Harmon phoned to William as soon as he got home from work. Martha heard William say, "Yes found a place already? That's good. We'll get together tomorrow soon." Martha hinted, but William had not mentioned the place and time after that.

Today William forgot that it was her forty-fifth birthday. He would be having lunch at some special place with Miss Harmon. A tear splashed into the dish water and Martha rubbed her wet cheek with a soapy finger. Shucks . . . a woman her age bawling!

She tried to make the beds, and dust, and sweep with the usual singing on her lips. Why couldn't things be just the way they had always been? William wasn't the demonstrative type of husband, but he had always been kind and steady and dependable. Now suddenly he was meeting Miss Harmon at noon and buying her presents. And forgetting about his wife's birthday.

Martha sat on the edge of the bed and cried. Tears ran down her face and she turned to rub them on William's pillow. Tears that she knew were not helping her at all.

She got up and wiped her eyes and washed her face. She brushed her hair and put on her new dress hat. She had been acting just like all those women she scorned. Like a jealous wife. If William was going to act silly in his forties she might as well help him. Then at least her friends couldn't feel sorry for her.

Martha went to the stores and searched everywhere for the perfect gift for Miss Harmon. Something she thought William would like to give her. Finally Martha decided on a blue satin robe and slippers to match. They would look very nice on Miss Harmon and Martha felt better after she bought them. It was better this way. Miss Harmon couldn't wonder the gift quite so personal.

Martha was so nervous that she could hardly put the dinner on the table when William came home. "I've a surprise for you, William," she said.

"Wait," he laughed. "I've one for you too. Miss Harmon and I . . ."

Martha stepped back. Surely he wouldn't come right out and say that he was in love with that girl. Not on Martha's birthday. "What . . . about Miss Harmon?" Martha asked through tight lips.

William's grin was sly and Martha's heart hurt. He reached in his pocket and pulled out a flat box. "See what you think about this, Miss Harmon wasn't quite sure."

Martha reached for it with trembling fingers. "Is it . . . for her birthday?"

"I didn't buy her anything yet," William said "Honestly. I don't know what to buy a woman. Would you do it for me, Martha?"

"But that!" Martha frowned.

"Silly goose," William came and kissed her, "you forgot this is your birthday. Open it."

Martha held a plastic compact in her hand. There were tears in her eyes again, but her heart was warm and happy.

EARLY FOOTBALL

When football was first played 15 men made up a team and later the number was reduced to 12, then to the present 11. 1883

This is the 50c, dynamo three-year-old Roger Anderson, of Cheeka, Minn., as he takes time out from play to nap in the warm sunshine with his playmate and pet heifer, Blappy. Surely a case of double spring fever if there is one.

Eastend, Saskatchewan

Long Been A Mecca For Biologists And Fossil Hunters

The little Saskatchewan town of Eastend has found itself on the front pages of newspapers across Canada lately. It took a flood to bring the town fame, but which, under the circumstances, the citizens would gladly have gone without. But although disaster was required in order to make all Canada conscious of Eastend, the place already had a national reputation within a somewhat restricted circle.

The biologists and the fossil hunters know all about it, for this is the center of one of the most fascinating regions in the country for the study of the creatures—either living or 50 odd million years deceased.

Eastend gets its name from its location at the hither end of the Cypress Hills, which lie in the southwest corner of Saskatchewan province just into Alberta. A visitor to those hills quickly learns that their highest point is a great plateau stretching from the traveler turns off the highway (as called), he has at his back a slope, covered with short grass scorched by the fierce summer sun, with here and there a boulder and a cactus plant. But in front of him opens a ravine, thickly wooded with both conifers and deciduous trees, carpeted with the wild flowers of the forest—all incredibly cool and inviting. Heaven and Hell side by side

Land of Death

That comparison is, however, hardly fair to the short-grass and cactus stretches of the Cypress Hills and the surrounding cattle country. Looked at from a natural history point of view, they hold their own. The park woodlands may contain the only specimens of the pink-sided junco to be found in Canada; but out on the baked flats of the Frenchman valley there resides an equally rare and more spectacular bird, the sage hen. The general region marks also the meeting ground of the two North American flickers, the yellow-shafted (eastern) and the red-shafted (western), which hybridize so freely that the naturalist is baffled in trying to decide which is which.

As for fossils, they are abundant and varied enough to attract the attention of the top paleontologists of Canada and the United States. The National Museum in Ottawa has a standing member field party into the Eastend country this season to search for the remains of early mammals.

Fossils suggest dinosaurs, and the Frenchman valley south of Eastend has yielded the remains of numbers of these spectacular beasts, from beds of the Cretaceous period. As a geologist reckons time, that wasn't so long ago; and by the late Cretaceous the dinosaurs were running out. Their day was nearly done.

It's only meager knowledge of the Eastend fossils was not gleaned from professionals but from a small group of amateurs—farmers or ranchers in the main—who had come to the district with the railway or ahead of it. An extraordinary group of men they were, each with a broad knowledge of natural history but with his own specialty to boot. Charlie Holmes and Lawrence Bates were authorities on birds, and full-time ornithologists were glad to consult them. "Cocky" Jones, who did service as town constable, knew enough about archaeology to prepare fossil specimens with fine skill, so that they could be properly displayed in Eastend's own museum. Some miles away at the main market town of Shaunavon, which has a museum, there dwelled a Belgian (his name I forget) whose specialty was lepidopters. He was fond of going down into an old mine with a lantern to collect unusual moths.

Everyone Broke

It was the past tense because this was long before the days in the thirties, when Southwestern Saskatchewan was in the grip of drouth and depression and everyone was broke. Being broke, however, did not break the spirits of that little band of naturalists. Some of them are gone now, but they will always be remembered with affection by those privileged to know them.

I wonder if a certain triceratops skull still adorns the Eastend museum. The Smithsonian Institution, as it was said, once sent a covetous eye on this particular specimen, but the natives, with admirable local pride refused to part with it.

This skull was discovered by Mr. Holmes' daughter on a neighboring ranch, in the summer of 1926. The men rallied around . . . fortunately it was a thick-skinned gal that . . . and camped on the spot while the animal was dug out and trucked to safety. It was a thick-skinned gal that . . . and camped on the spot while the animal was dug out and trucked to safety. The shield which protected the animal's neck had been exposed by the weather and disintegrated but the rest of the skull was remarkably perfect. There were the eye sockets, some seven feet long and coiled into a truck and driven into Eastend. There it remained for the next curious load of material that any museum ever transported—the winding trails of the Cypress Hills.

Holiday Visiting

Quite a number of local residents took advantage of the Easter holiday season to do some visiting. The Logan family spent a few days in the city visiting Hugh's brother and other friends. Your correspondent and daughter Doris and neighbor Mick Cowsey and daughter Joan spent several very pleasant days in the city. Chief object of the visit was to call on the two sanatorium patients, Tommy Stock well and Winnie Cawsey. However as the hours of visiting are very limited it was possible to call on many old friends as well. We are very pleased to be able to report that both patients are making very fine progress although it would be difficult to imagine them doing anything else being as they are in such a magnificent building as the Aberhart Memorial hospital. On Easter Sunday Tommy was able to be out for most of the day and put the time at his disposal to good use, sightseeing and visiting.

The Scoiders were visited and we were privileged to be shown many of the splendid pictures which Frank took during his two years stay in the far north when he was on the weather station at Arctic Bay. Tom is now in the investing business having purchased recently two large G.M.C. trucks and has been engaged in moving heavy oil drilling equipment.

The writer also saw Frank Williamson, David and Tom. Frank has left the bank and along with David was leaving shortly for Lloydminster, the site of the new oil excitement. They expect to be there for upwards of a year. Tom is now in Kamloops on Easter [illegible] Sunday where he expected to find employment.

Roy Smith and wife were seen in Edmonton, just happening up from Calgary on business. Roy is looking remarkably well despite the fact that the has had two sessions in the Calgary San since his discharge from the air force. At present they are planning to move to Tucson, Arizona, the doctors advising a drier climate. They may also visit Venezuela where Roy's wife's brother is working for an oil company.

A large crowd attended a very successful dance on Easter Monday in the Orange hall and the W. A. wish to take this opportunity to thank all those who helped to make the affair such a success.

Mike Laruzia is now driving a recently purchased Pontiac. It is one of the best of that make, being a straight eight, hard top, with hydramatic transmission. Oscar John son and son have a new 14-ton Mercury, and the Cawsey Bros., Mick and Tom, are the owners of a new W-5 International tractor and plow.

Mr. and Mrs. George Coulson and family who moved to town from Streamstown about 18 months ago, have left, and are now at Erskine where Mr. Coulson is in charge of the station. Although the Coulsons were here for a comparatively short time, they proved themselves good citizens and their leaving here is generally regretted. Best wishes for their future success and happiness accompany them to their surrounding. The youngest son Peter is following in his father's footsteps and expects to be working as an operator relieving before long. At present the new agent has taken over, the station being in charge of a relief operator.

Miss Margaret Rowntree who is at present taking a business course at Barrhead in the city was home for Easter. She made herself useful helping her neighbor with the chores while said neighbors were holidaying.

Mrs. L. Wilkinson was also seen in the city and she is looking forward to taking up residence here shortly for the summer months.

Rev. F. A. Peake was a visitor in town on Monday and will be back for a meeting on Friday dealing with the work of the Anglican Young People.

Teachers' Association Endorse Strike Action

VERMILION DELEGATES OPPOSE

The Alberta Teachers' Association at the annual general meeting held in Calgary last week endorsed strike action on part of member locals by setting up a special fund out of which payments will be made to strikers. The delegates passed with only two dissenting votes a resolution to set up a "special emergency" fund to provide striking teachers up to 75% of salaries. The opposition votes were cast by two delegates from the Vermilion A.T.A. Local, Jas. R. Smith and M. F. Smeltzer.

Eric C. Ansley stated that approximately $71,000 could be made available immediately for the fund and that the fund would be supplemented by contributions of $1 a week per teacher during the strike and for as long after as deemed necessary. This provision was made in one section of the resolution.

Earlier in the convention, Hon. Ivan Casey, minister of education, stated that before teachers consider strike action they will have to decide whether they wish to retain professional status or whether they should be defined as a trade union. He stated that the time is approaching when the decision will have to be made as they cannot continue to enjoy the privileges of a profession, yet employ trade union methods.

He warned that if teacher disputes cannot be settled amicably the alternative would be the setting up of a provincial board exclusive of teachers and trustees, whose decision would be binding.

A resolution seeking a minimum basic salary of $2400 was passed unanimously. Other resolutions requesting more teacher participation in curriculum planning and improved teacher qualifications and status were also passed.

Resolutions were [illegible] retirement fund along more solid long-term lines, a stipulation found essential before the provincial government would consider further increases to the fund. During the closing session Wednesday Miss Marion Gimby of Edmonton was re-elected president of the association by acclamation. Lars Dixon, Holden, also received an acclamation as vice-president. Of the eight district representatives, four were elected by acclamation and four by ballot.

Acclamations went to Nicholas Pooshka, Hairy Hill; Ken Sparks, Sedgewick; W. Roy Eyres, Arrowhead and Edwin McKenzie, Medicine Hat. Elected by ballot were W. D. McGrath, Dixonville; Frank Dewards, Edmonton; D. A. Prescott, Red Deer and Robert Kimmitt of Diamond City.

Rev. D. F. West Returns From Round-World Missionary Tour

Rev. D. F. West

Rev. Donald F. West of Indianapolis, executive secretary of the United Christian Missionary Society, was a visitor in Edmonton, Olds and Innisfail recently during a round-the-world journey by air. On his trip he travelled to England, Switzerland, Israel, India, Thailand, the Philippines and Japan since November 1st.

He was welcomed in Edmonton by his uncle, A. M. West of Vermilion and Mrs. West. Following his visit in Edmonton and district Dr. West flew by Western Airlines to his headquarters in Indianapolis.

Rev. West made a survey of the United Society, organ of the Disciples of Christ churches in the U.S. and Canada, in India, Thailand and the Philippines especially, traveling, two and one half months in India and six weeks in the Philippines. A good deal of the total time devoted to these lands was spent in territory inhabited by aboriginal groups. In the most remote mountain areas as well as in populous cities like New Delhi, Calcutta, Bangkok and Manila, West found that good-will toward Great Britain, Canada and the States is very real, motivated to a great extent by the institutions which modern missions of Western churches have established there. Medical doctors, teachers and evangelists have never stood in such high esteem of these Eastern peoples as today. The people of India were found to have the highest degree of friendship and gratitude for Great Britain of any time since the two countries have been related by political, military and cultural ties.

West heard Jawaharlal Nehru, head of the Indian Republic, address Christ's persons in Jubbulpore, India and was among a small group of citizens who said farewell to Nehru at the Jubbulpore airport, getting exceptional opportunities to observe the tremendous respect with which this great Indian statesman is regarded. Many evidences of his high constructive leadership were observed during the entire period of the recent national elections in India. Famine conditions in certain areas were observed, and general malnutrition was admitted to be chronically endemic, with little prospect of permanent alleviation until the problem of overpopulation is dealt with on a massive scale. The Indian government is taking statesmanlike steps to promote family limitation on a nation-wide basis, and Christian mission institutions in India are being requested to support this necessary program. Dr. West interviewed the Governor of West Bengal at the Governor's request, and discussed the problems of malnutrition, over-population and the strategy of Christian missions in India with the Governor Dr. H. C. Mookherjee, who is one of the outstanding statesmen of India, and a devout Christian.

The people of the Philippines, Thailand and Japan were observed to have an outstanding passion for education on all levels, and in each country schools, colleges and universities are multiplying apace. West visited the campus of the new International Christian University outside Tokyo, Japan, which institution is sponsored by the Protestant churches of the United States and Canada through channels of united missionary giving.

1951 Farm Prices A Record

The Bureau of Statistics index of farm prices of agricultural products for 1951 is estimated at 267, (1935-39 equals 100). This is a record being almost 27 points higher than the 1950 index which itself was a record. The increase is attributed to higher prices received for livestock, potatoes, dairy products, poultry and eggs. In calculating the index for 1951 the initial price has been used for wheat oats and barley in the Prairie Provinces from Aug. 1. There will be an upward revision when participation payments are made on these grains.

United Kingdom Emigration

DURING THE PAST FEW YEARS many thousands of people have left the United Kingdom to live in other countries. Lack of sufficient housing, shortage of land and other commodities, and restlessness following the stress of the war years have caused many Britons to seek better living conditions and wider opportunities in other lands. At the same time, Australia, Canada, the United States and other countries have welcomed immigrants to work in industries and on the land. During the past year, 180,821 people emigrated from the United Kingdom: 140,945 going to various parts of the Commonwealth and 23,231 to the United States.

* * * * *

Great Numbers To Australia

The United Kingdom Information Office recently issued a report on emigration from the country in 1951. The report shows that the United States attracted more British immigrants than any other country outside of the Commonwealth. Australia received the greatest number, 87,330 having come there from the United Kingdom last year. Canada received 23,916, while 9,788 went to New Zealand and fewer numbers to South Africa, Southern Rhodesia, India and Pakistan. With the exception of New Zealand, there was an increase in emigration to all countries over the figure for 1950.

* * * * *

U.K. Gained New Citizens

An interesting feature of the report was that although a great many people have gone from the United Kingdom, the flow of population has not been entirely away from that country. Figures issued by the United Kingdom Board of Trade showed that while 180,821 people left Britain last year, immigration to that country totalled 76,195 for the year, leaving a net loss to the country of 83,236. Of those who entered the United Kingdom in 1951, 9,035 were from Canada, 10,000 from Australia, 2,113 from New Zealand and 9,622 from the United States. There are many adjustments to be made when large numbers of people are moved from one country to another, and the results of the great immigration of the past few years may not be fully apparent immediately. Such schemes, however, symbolize hope for the future both on the part of immigrants and of the countries which receive them, and they may be regarded as a constructive development in the post-war era.

MOTORISTS WARNED TO WATCH FOR DEER

REGINA. — Provincial game officials at Prince Albert have issued an urgent plea that all motorists be on the lookout for deer on the roads while driving through the northland's wooded areas at night.

In a bureau of publications release, the officials pointed out that large numbers of deer are killed by motorists each year.

Accepting the fact that many cases are unavoidable, it is also urged that all such cases be reported to the natural resources department in Prince Albert or the R.C.M.P.

CALGARY GIRL CROWNED WESTERN TEEN QUEEN

LETHBRIDGE, Alta. — Blonde, slim Pat Dinnigan of Calgary was crowned Miss Western Canada Teen Queen of 1952.

She won the title over 12 others who competed at the giant western Canada teen conference here.

Miss Jackie Sloane, of Edmonton, was second and Aleda Bjiett of Medicine Hat placed third.

Other entrants included Alan Cartwright, Winnipeg.

FUSSY TRAVELS 200 MILES BACK HOME

LAC DU BONNETT, Man.—A crooked-tailed cat that was taken by car to Little Grand Rapids some months ago returned on foot to its former home here. Easily identified by its disfigured tail, the cat had walked about 200 miles in a little over 100 days.

CATTY

A musical comedy actress, on longer a youthful, joined a touring pantomime company. Business was not overwhelming and the lowness of the company suffered accordingly. Relations became somewhat strained between the "star" and certain members of the chorus. There came a knock at her dressing-room door.

"Who is it and what do you want?" she demanded sharply.

"There's a lady in front who'd like to see you. She says she was a friend of yours when you were all school. Shall I show her in?"

From the corridor came the voice of a catty chorus girl. "Wheel her in."

Population experts say there are between 30 and 60 million refugees in the world.

TULIP TIPS—If you need room for summer annuals or want to rearrange your tulip beds, lift your tulips. You can be sure as soon as the last petals have fallen. Stalk a trowel straight down almost full length, three inches from a clump of tulips. Pry up each bulb complete with leaves, stems, and as much root mass as possible. Lay out in a new spot to protect roots.

Plant the bulbs of the tulips at their former depth in a prepared out-of-the-way place. But do it at once or the roots will dry out. Choose a cool, cloudy day if possible; otherwise the shade will be welcome while digging and re-setting. Firm the soil around each plant and the tulips will flower naturally. To prevent seed pods forming cut the blooms stems down level to the topmost leaf.

After the tops have withered, dig, clean and store the bulbs—but they may be left until fall before digging. Re-set in the fall in the spot where they are to bloom in spring.—Photo by Malak, Ottawa.

Manitoba Issues 1952 Angling Rules

Rules and regulations governing angling in Manitoba have been issued by the bureau of travel and publicity for the province on a convenient card which includes all the information required by sportsmen.

The season on Northern pike, pickerel, perch and goldeye opens on May 17 and extends to Oct. 31. The season for lake trout, speckled or rainbow trout and whitefish opened on April 15 and remains open until Sept. 30.

There is an aggregate daily limit of ten fish in effect and daily limits on trout are five and on pike and pickerel eight.

Minimum size limits are as follows: lake trout, 16 inches; speckled trout, 11 inches; whitefish, 10 inches; pickerel, 15 inches; northern pike, 25 inches; and perch eight inches.

As in former years regulations prohibit the use of spears, snares, unbaited hooks, firearms, explosives, mechanical or luminous baits in taking fish.

Paint-up and Clean-up Time For Rural and Urban Communities

Your Local Lumber Merchant Has the Answer to Your Repair Problems

"Paint-up and clean-up" is a springtime theme astir every year with the warming sun and the new grass and the sight of geese flying overhead.

When the long siege of winter is over and the land is bare of snow, home-owners are made suddenly aware of any peeling paint, sagging fences or unsightly buildings on their property. Any man proud of his property can see one to a dozen small or large jobs to be done before winter rolls around again.

Throughout western Canada, lumber merchants meet this annual brushing-up of property with paint, shingles for repairing and recoding buildings, batts and bags of insulation to ensure cool houses in summer and warm comfort in winter. There are also rolls of wire, picket fencing, fence-posts, window and door screens and outdoor furniture covering anything from garden seats to an outdoor grill.

There are quantities of white, green and red paint for repairing old siding on houses. Then aluminum paint can change an unpainted barn from an eyesore to a magnificent sight. For a change, white can be used on barns and sheds instead of usual red "barn" paint. On either house or farm buildings, composition roofing of asphalt or shingles can be rolled over old unpainted boards.

Then there are often repairs to screens and storm windows to be moved from the house. There are paints, stain in mind, in kitchen coops, loosened nails to drive in and poor putty jobs on windows.

Mending of fences is best done before summer. Posts can be driven more readily into the soft soil of spring. In some cases, metal fencing can replace wooden posts and wire. Regardless of the type of material used, nothing dresses up property more for less labor and cost than an attractive fence and gate.

Inside the house, much can be done in addition to spring cleaning and brushing up the latest effects of winter. The housewife can handle many papering and painting jobs, but with the assistance of handy-boring women.

At her local lumber merchant's she can see from sample books a wide choice of wallpapers. For her paint job, she can get from him brushes, turpentine, linseed oil, putty, sandpaper and choose her colors from show booklets and cards.

Paint is used not only for decoration but also for protection of wood. It increases the life of buildings and on outside walls should be done every three to five years.

Re-painting should be done while old paint is in good condition. A medium-grade sandpaper removes loose particles. This is followed by brushing to obtain a clean surface, then a thorough drying. Unless the old surface is in poor condition, one finish coat is usually sufficient.

Paint and varnish remover, a scraper or wire brush are required when repainting a surface on which the old paint is disintegrating.

Then there are a wide variety of remodelling and repair jobs if a home is to be kept shipshape and modern, and the association could agree that no Mother's Day present could equal an offer to remodel her old kitchen.

It could be lined with modern cupboard units, built-in dust bin and built-in ironing board and broom cupboard. There could be tubular lights over the kitchen shelf, a shallow cupboard with shelves and door racks for pots and pans, sliding or partitioned shelves in the lower cabinets for the same purpose, a narrow shelf over the stove for spices, a hardwood cutting board counter near the stove, an implement rack to eliminate hunting through kitchen drawers for needed articles, wooden tables and shelves could be covered with linoleum or tiles.

Remodelling and repair jobs are legion where a family has pride in its property. It could be a lean-to for the children's play space dried up for a bedroom, window seats replaced, wood-and-cupboard hinges and catches renewed.

Then for relaxing outdoors a few pieces of home furniture by an area close to the house are something any family is grateful for in the cool of the evening. They need not be elaborate to be comfortable and attractive.

Any lumber merchant can furnish instructions and services assistance in making a lawn or deck chair, picnic table or bench or garden trellis. There are patterns, too, for easy-to-make furnishing chairs and settees that can be folded up and stored.

The Western Retail Lumbermen's Association furnishes a good sheet with time of the year basis for a farm work shop from which these jobs can be picked out by the association's architectural service. Also available through members, it includes not only the suggestions but a list of allowance for a drill, anvil, forge and blacksmith's hammer.

The association, to which nearly 1,000 western lumber merchants belong, also puts out a "handyman's handbook" giving tables for board measure, rafter lengths, cattle stall dimensions.

There are many useful plan and general information books published by the association with spring alterations in mind. They cover a wide variety of subjects including how to lay asphalt shingles, clean and lubricate oiled floors, put up a simple granary handy to the threshing operation.

A plan book on remodelling — to include kitchens is now being compiled by the association's architectural service and will be a big help to rural and urban dwellers who are thought to keeping their property in good order.

Farm and town homes, well-painted and in good repair, suggests the owner is a business-like householder. "Paint-up and clean-up" means an overall job of repair, a fence straightened, it all contributes to pride in property and effective values of farm or business.

(This is the final article in a series of five on the activities of the retail lumber merchants in western Canadian communities.)

News Notes From Your District Home Economist

Signs of Spring

Have you noticed the crocus' that are out now? And have you heard the robins and frogs? Spring is wonderful, isn't it?

Relax.

These two ideas were heard at the Garden Club Leaders' course at Olds. This sounds horrible, but I was assured that gingerbread with maple flavored icing is delicious.

If you have trouble keeping your husband's heavy woollen work sox darned (especially if he wears rubber boots) then most of your darning will end when you get him a pair of men's nylon socks to wear over his woollen ones. Holes in the heels won't bother you again.

New Palliatives Need

These new bulletins have now been issued: Twenty Farm House Plans; Farm House Remodelling. If you need either of these bulletins you may write to the Extension Branch, Department of Agriculture, Parliament Buildings, Edmonton. We cannot supply you with one from this office, but you are most welcome to come in and look at mine any time you like.

Something Different

Blanket weaning time is here again and here are a few reminders for you. Brush the blanket on both sides or shake it gently to remove loose dirt. Examine blanket and mend broken or weak spots, and remove any stains. Then you are ready to put your blanket into sudsy lukewarm water and wash it for three minutes only. You already know this washing weakens woollen fibres, don't you? Gather up the blanket loosely and put it through the wringer with the rolls at very loose tension. Rinse twice for one minute each time. Shake the blanket gently before you hang it in the shade. Hang it over two lines with the weight divided between the lines so the blanket won't stretch out of shape. When it's dry the binding may be pressed with a warm iron. If you're storing the blankets use plastic bags, or, using gummed tape seal them in brown paper.

Carry-Weary

To vex, annoy and plague me.

To irritate and irk;

Just ask "Are you a housewife?" and see if you don't get an answer.

Scholarships

Are there any scholarships available for boys and girls to the schools of agriculture? How do you go about getting one? If you don't know, for next week, you know where to look for the answer don't you?

Salmon Pack Is Best Since 1941

VANCOUVER.—The 1951 canned salmon pack in B.C. — the nation's entire output, was the largest of the last ten years.

The pack is estimated at 1,985,000 cases, up by more than half a million from last year, according to the American Can Co., supplier of containers. Canada's huge salmon pack, aided by development of the modern fish cans, is one of the nation's principal exports, according to can company economists.

Although 1951 was not a cycle year for sockeye salmon on the Fraser River, the catch of this top variety was much better than anticipated, partly due to an earlier opening of the fishing season. The pack of pinks and cohoes was exceptionally large.

The number of overseas shipments of the Canadian National Railways during 1951 amounted to 23,154,735 as representing an increase of more than 3% over the previous year.

The weather during the past week has been ideal for threshing and farm work. As a result the farmers are really busy on the land. Some report severe damage from mice on their swathed and stooked grain.

Mr. D. L. Bennett who spent the winter in Lloydminster with his daughter Mrs. Bromley has returned to his farm in the Moyerton district. Mr. John Hargest has returned from Kelowna, B.C. where he spent the winter months.

We are glad to see Mr. Albert Trendale home from his long stay in the Lloydminster hospital due to the severe burns he sustained last winter. Mr. Ira S. McLeod is also home from the Lloydminster hospital.

The work on the rural electrification is going strong these days and we hope it will not be too long until oil are connected up with the power.

Mrs. Charles Beckett had as her guests Mrs. Barber and Mrs. Fraser from Lloydminster and Mrs. Ed. and Mrs. Goodwin laid Mr. D. C. Gerber as their guests during the past week.

Mrs. J. A. Twadell who spent the winter south of the border has returned to her farm home in the Vanesti district.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Veltch and young son Brent of Wainwright have moved to town, living in the Repka building. Mr. Veltch is employed with Jas. Alex Miller on his oil truck.

Letters to the Editor

Edmonton, Alta., April 25.

Editor Vermilion Standard,
Vermilion, Alta.

Dear Sir:

May I, through the columns of your paper, publicly express my and the sincere thanks of the Co-ordinating Council for Crippled Children (Alberta) for the co-operation accorded to us during our recent Easter Seal campaign. I would like your readers to know that most of the spare devoted to our cause was donated and it gave invaluable assistance to the Seal drive.

Through your help and the help of those others who donated time and money, $42,000 has been raised to date to enable us to continue our work on behalf of Alberta crippled children.

The Easter Seal campaign is officially ended, but for those who either now or from time to time during the year would like to help in this work, donations may be sent to "Crippled Children", Box 900, Edmonton, or Box 88, Calgary.

Yours very sincerely,
W. C Barrell, Exec. Sec.

Wildmere Winks

Our deepest sympathy is extended to the McPhee and Robinson families on the loss of loved ones. Both these grand ladies lived a long life and a good useful one. Their many kind deeds and friendliness will never be forgotten.

Farm work has really hit the big push in our district. Tractors are humming early and late, a good many bushes and trees will be sown in the next ten days. Threshing should be finished this week providing the weather holds nice.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Rendell who have been the past two months visiting in England returned to Wildmere last Wednesday. So far we have not been talking to them so do not know what their plans are for the future. They sold their farm to Mr. Costin last fall.

Congrats to the following parents: Mr. and Mrs. Allan Kennedy of New Westminster (nee Rose Sykes) on the birth of a son April 15th. Both these young people grew up on our way, how does it feel Jess, and Herman to be grandparents?; To Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Fadden of Wildmere on the birth of a son April 25th. Mr. and Mrs. Howard Frisell of Battleview (nee Mabel Lamport) a daughter, April 27th; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Ford (nee Myrtle Glidden) of Edmonton formerly of Thorneliffe and Tofield, a daughter April 13th.

Albert Smith and George Cruthers were helping Teddy Filipkowski of Thorneliffe district thresh one day last week.

The Preston Jr. Red Cross dance and sale of articles turned out very successfully. A nice crowd attended even if it was a busy time. The children really had made some lovely things and their teacher Mrs. Wilson is to be congratulated on the good work achieved under her guidance. George Cruthers very kindly donated two nice ornament shelves for the sale. Jack and Fred Martin pigged good music for the dance and Jimmie was M.C. The teacher and children heartily thank everyone who helped make the evening a success, also Dance Johnny Batke and Jim Wallington for auctioning off their work. Adam Smith Sr., won the two cups and saucers.

Billie and Adam Smith were Bon Accord visitors on Saturday. They went by truck and brought back another tractor for farm work. It's a smaller one to use for drilling and harrowing.

We had such a lovely chat on Saturday with Mr. and Mrs. Horner Fairanade, formerly of Kinsella district, but now of Vancouver. They are back for a short visit They are doing well at the coast but the climate does not suit Homer's health, he says. When he came through the mountains into Alberta he said he could breathe a lot better. Son of this driver at Patenaude however looks very well. Yvonne and Flora are both working and Maurice and Annette at school. Flora is now wearing a sparkler we hear.

On Sunday afternoon Councillor Jimmie Wallington took a jaunt around looking at some rough places on roads. On our way we called at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. McGrath of Tofield. It's the first time the writer had been in that district. One thing you are sure of a warm welcome at the McGrath home. We were pleased to see Mrs. McGrath Sr. looking very well despite her years. Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Robson, Mr. and Mrs. Simonson of Ross Mr. and Mrs. F. Van Wagenengen of Woodvale were also callers at the same home. We were indeed sorry to hear from Mrs. McGrath of the serious illness of Tom Doyle of Ponoka. Tom lived for several years in Wildmere. He is very brave as he has given himself over to the cancer research in hopes even if it doesn't cure him it will help some other sufferer of this dread disease. Tom is yet only in his early 40's.

We are also very sorry to hear that Mrs. Mitchell of Tofield who has been ill for many years is now almost helpless. Her son George is very faithful in caring for his ailing mother. One does not know how thankful we should be when we have good health.

Miss Violet Webb of Islay hospital staff spent the week end at the W. J. Garrson home in Bawood.

Last but not least scarlet fever has been visited our district. Jean Whitlock is the latest victim. When her sister had it last fall she did not take it then. Four in the Billie Whitlock family of Triangle district have had it lately. Surely this grand weather will soon stamp out all these contagious diseases.

Tom Best visited the Wallington home on Sunday.

Have you noticed how early the leaves have come out on the trees this spring?

Woodvale News

For a change we gathered enough news in one week to write a column! Some of it is a bit old, but maybe still new to some in our readers.

A baby girl was born on St. Patrick's day to Mr. and Mrs. Bob Warring (nee Mary Preston) in Edmonton, very appropriately named, Patricia Gail.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Ford of Beverly, formerly of Tofield, have another baby, a sister for Phyllis Allan and Terry.

Fred Slocum has returned from his winter's wanderings, that took him south to Florida. On his trip home he called at Grandma Lewis in Duluth, where she is staying with his daughter and much to his surprise he found there his Tofield neighbor, Mrs. Mabel Webber, who had left Easter Sunday to be at the family reunion in Duluth when Mrs. Lewis celebrated her 90th birthday there. While Mrs. Webber was away, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Webber and family spent a week end home to see how Uncle Eldridge was getting along.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Rendell arrived back from England We were sorry to hear that Mrs. Rendell was sick on her return to Canada and needed hospitalization in Trenton for awhile.

Leo Lysons left the hospital on the 25th and is staying for awhile with Mr. and Mrs. Tom Hobbs before coming home to the farm. His leg is healing well, but will not stand much roughousing with his young nephews yet!

The sympathy of our community goes to Mr. A. Robinson and family in the death of Mrs. Robinson, after a long illness. The death occurred in Ste. Presby.

Friends of Tom Doyle will be very sorry to hear that he is gravely ill after a serious operation in the Ponoka hospital.

Threshing wound up early this week and everybody is busy on the land now. As a whole the grain in stook and swath kept very well all over the winter, and although there is always some loss the quality is better and the damage from mice in these parts not serious.

A fire started by a cigarette butt near the threshing machine of Ray McQuid, was soon under control as the four men around noticed it right away. It was dangerously dry and spread in a very short time quite a distance. Fortunately no harm was done.

Drilling activities for oil are still going on around here. This time on section 16.

The Wolters family noticed a magpie with unusual colors on their way to town, it was a grey ish blue, like a bluejay, but it was a magpie without doubt. The boys would like to hunt for its nest. A few years ago they found an albino magpie.

The Red Cross meeting at the home of Mrs. D. McGrath took place on the 23rd of April and six ladies worked hard to finish a big woolfilled patch quilt. A seventh member came later in the afternoon and Mrs. Donaldson came after school.

The next meeting of the Red Cross will probably be held June 4th at the home of Mrs. M. Watson. We understand that members are requested to bring used clothing for an Indian school in northern Alberta.

The Ganton school was closed for a few days when Mrs Osbaldeston came down with a bad cold and flu.

We here that a consolidated school will be built in Woodvale in the near future on the main road opposite the house of Roger Watt.

Bon voyage to Mr. and Mrs. Cecil King and Joy who are leaving on Sunday for a trip to England.

Ethelwyn News

(This bulletin was written for last week's Standard, consequently, due allowance should be made for time elapsed.)

Everyone is enjoying the lovely spring threshing weather. From all reports the grain is quite dry, and not much the worse for having stood out all winter in the fields.

Just before the snow went the young people of the district enjoyed two good tobogan parties and a weiner roast. The season ended with a dance in the old Rye school. Will this be the last one before the old school is torn down?

The young people would like to thank everyone who so kindly donated music for the dance, and to all those who helped to make the evening a success by their presence.

It was a pleasure to attend the Easter service in St. Mary's Anglican church, Clandonald, April 20th. A group of young people from the United church in Vermilion conducted a service in the United church, Clandonald. This was deeply enjoyed and our sincere thanks to the young people. They will be at the church for another service May 4th at 7:30 p.m. Our student minister will take the service on Mother's Day — May 11th. The hour will be announced later. Before the spring rush of work started the men folk effected a great improvement in the United church by lining it up with Tex Test inside. There is still much to do but a good start has been made.

There was a good attendance at the W. A. meeting of the United church on Mr. Jarrom's on April 23rd. After a short business session, Mrs. Reed gave a lesson on [illegible]. Mrs. Reed also showed how to do bind hemming [illegible] roads are passable] to Round Lake the next W.A. meeting will be at Mrs. Gower's but if the roads are bad it will be at Mrs. Fenton's. Now that roads are open we are looking forward to some new members. Attending a W.A. meeting is a very pleasant and profitable way to spend an afternoon. Roll call for next meeting: Tell about the oldest possession you have and if possible bring the article to the meeting.

Mr. Osler has returned from Slavely, Alta., where he visited his son and family.

Joyce Cooper who attends high school in Vermilion was home for the Easter vacation.

A number of people are suffering from very unpleasant after effects of the flu.

Mike Morrison was a patient in the Islay hospital for a week receiving treatment for his hearing.

The judges at the Dewberry amateur hour must have had a very difficult time deciding on the winners as all of the items were very good.

Friends of the late Mrs. Martin McBride will be interested to learn that a memorial service will be held in the Salvation Army hall on June 1st.

Threshing has started and some eleven hour must have had a very many rounds horseboots are impassable. Many spots are dry enough to be repaired. In our own immediate district threshing is being delayed because it is impossible to move the machine over our bad spot in the road.

A turn sign at the dangerous corner at Rock Burns has been repeatedly requested but to date is still missing.

The church services have again started at St. Patrick's hall. The [illegible] was April 20th conducted by Father McGhee.

"Cat and Dog" Stories Discredited

HALIFAX.—The old saying 'they fight like cat and dog' has lost its meaning to C.N.R. baggage employees who handled a most unusual shipment recently. It was a crate without a partition containing a cat and a dog.

Snuggling together contentedly while asleep and romping playfully when awake the cat and dog made a 2500 mile journey from Scarth, Man., to Liverpool, N.S.

Booking used by the Canadian National Railways sleeping car service is nearly enough to supply a town of about 20,000 population. On its 398 sleeping cars, the company uses 16,300 blankets, 62,052 sheets, 38,200 pillow slips and 32,300 face towels.

The Society has four films available for centers in northern Alberta. They are, The Trailor Within, The Outlaw Within, From One Cell: A Question in Time.

These films can be had on request from the Society's headquarters, 11328 Jasper Ave., Edmonton. Sometimes, the Society can arrange for a speaker to go out too. Recently, Dr. W. F. Donald of Edmonton spoke to the Kinettes of Hooks on cancer of the blood.

Pleasant Valley

Spring is here with all its beauty once again. Let's hope that the leaves do not get frozen. Everyone is very busy, some are threshing and combining last year's crops. This fall everyone hopes that it will be different and that the season's work will be done on schedule.

The church on Sunday was filled to capacity with 32 in attendance. Mrs. Perkins and Mrs. Edgar Williams had their babies christened. There were quite a number from the Bowtell district in attendance. It was nice too, to see Mrs. Waterfield again.

Did we hear a whisper of wedding bells for one of our Pleasant Valley girls this summer?

A speedy recovery is wished Mrs. Lyle Anson from her serious operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Teeby and Mrs. Bell were supper guests at Doreen Gould's Sunday evening. Wyner and husband were visitors at Betty Gould's the same day.

Mr. Jones purchased a new car last week. Come and see us and we will compare cars—ours is a Chev too but not quite so modern.

If you want some early blooms Folks, start planting your glads. Mine were put in last week. Let us hope that this will be a frost free spring as the lilies are in bud quite early.

The average journey of a passenger on the Canadian National Railways during 1951 was 93 miles, an increase of 9 miles over the figure for 1950.

Home Economists To Hold Convention

The convention of the Canadian Home Economics Association will not be held for the first time in Saskatchewan this summer. Home Economists from as far away as Halifax, Vancouver and the U.S. will converge on the Bessborough hotel Saskatoon, June 24-26. There is to be a pre-conference short course on Family Life Education for a limited number of participants and a trip to Waskesiu is planned for after the convention. Dr. Ernest Mowrer, at the convention will include Dr. Ethel McInnis, Director, Merrill-Palmer School, Detroit, and Miss Florence Reynolds, North American Speaker for F.A.O. as well as outstanding men and women from Saskatchewan. At the complimentary dinner, courtesy of the Saskatchewan Department of Public Health, the Hon. Mr. T. J. Bentley and Dr. D. G. McKerracher will be the speakers.

All home economists will wish to make their reservations early. Details may be secured from Miss Mary Kinnear, Head Dietitian, St. Paul's Hospital, Saskatoon, convention convener.

Annual Spring Tea

The W.A. of the First United church will hold their annual spring tea Saturday May 17 in the Legion hall.

Stagette Notes

A meeting with no convention was a little strange. It isn't quite right to say no convention for we lived the entire week end and all over. In fact everybody was so well satisfied with the banquet that we decided to have another. This one is by rights, on the books as part of the year's activities anyway, as it is the usual closing of the Stagette term. Actually the meetings will continue to the end of May though we will hold our banquet on the 6th at 7:30 p.m. in the Boudwich. The evening will eventually find all the girls in uniform tripping the light fantastic (probably more fantastic than light) in the Legion hall — Cotton Ball you know. We are hoping to have the usual good turn out that puts Stagette dances over the top. Be up to your artistic poster makers to see that the public finds out about this big do, then turn those ticket sellers loose.

Lil, you mean you won't be here for this year's excitement? Boy, are you going to miss something! Where are you going? What for? (Hope she sells her tickets before she goes.)

Eleanor Jean will convene the hall decorating procedure and a meeting is to be held next Tuesday to give her a chance to give us a job.

The chore of auditing district books has been taken over by Verna as the finishing touches draws another year of exciting new experiences to a close.

We're not quite through yet though as on Saturday Elva and Del Anderson take their turn at the check room.

Overheard in general conversation on the street the other day in tones a none too gentle — "I spent a whole evening polishing my car to take the visiting Stagettes to church Easter Sunday. Why I even got a hair cut and gave my shoes an extra shine — and what happens but my bookkeeper hops into the front seat!"

Look for a red face now 'cause we'd sure like to find the owner of the voice.

Death Mrs. Katharine Fedechko of Derwent

On April 18th, Mrs. Katherine Fedechko of Edmonton, died suddenly at Myrnam at the age of 78 years. She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Joseph Zaryk, Derwent; Mrs. Emelian Gnatiuk, Derwent; Mrs. P. Zeyetz of Derwent, Jacob Dewenka of Borderyne, also one brother and one sister, Mr. Onufrey Lupul of Sekiska, Man., and Mrs. Fewchuk of Edmonton. Funeral services were held on Wednesday, April 23rd, at 9:30 a.m. from the Derwent National hall to the Ukrainian Greek Catholic Church of the Holy Ghost, Derwent. Rev. Father J. Cherkowsky officiated and interment was made in the church cemetery.

The offices of Dr. Denis P. Hanlan, Chiropractor, will be closed on May 5, 6 and 7 as the Doctor will attend the convention of the Alberta Chiropractic Association in Calgary on those dates.
